Items of Local Interest

Tuesday next will be the last day of Registration.

Mr. Royer Wolf, Melrose, has sold his farm and last week moved to Fridinger's mill.

Mr. Herman Brown, of Philadelphia, this week visited friends and relatives, near this city.

Mr. Fred Himler, of Baltimore, formerly of this city, this week visited friends and relatives here.

The I. O. M. lodge No. 41, Westminster, will meet every Saturday evening at 7:30 in Odd Fellows' Hall.

Clarence Brown and Charles Stouch, both of this city, Tuesday returned to Johns Hopkins University.

The sale of R. G. Gamber, of John street, was attended by a large crowd on Saturday.

Mr. Ralph Ridinger, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Ridinger, Church street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beaver and family, of Harrisburg, Pa., spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Autz, East Main street.

Mrs. Alice Winemiller, Riderwood, Baltimore county, is spending this week with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Stouch, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. David R. Geiman, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Myers and Miss Edna Myers Sunday visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Babylon, Silver Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Danner, of Philadelphia, Pa., are spending two weeks with the former's parents, near this city.

Miss Mattie Reese and Mrs. William Yingling Saturday visited Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Myers, near Taneytown.

Dr. John F. Manger, husband of Mary Orndorff Manger, both formerly of Carroll county, died September 26 at Los Angeles, Cal.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Smith, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with Dr. Smith's mother, Mrs. Joseph Smith, East Main street.

Scholarships to Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, yesterday were announced. For Carroll county R. E. Leatherwood, C. R. Stouch, N. O. Lawyer and M. R. Gilpin.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Babylon and daughters, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mrs. Babylon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Reese, East Main street.

Tuesday Dr. E. E. Hobbs and family moved from Union Bridge to their new home on East Main street recently purchased from Dr. Jesse Myers.

Mr. George Hoff, East Main street, last week purchased the property on West Main street offered at public sale by George W. Arnold. Mr. Arnold will move to Baltimore.

Mr. Roland Buchman, near Melrose, early in November will move to the farm he recently purchased from Mr. Sullivan, between Manchester and Snydersburg.

Wednesday morning the firemen responded to an alarm of fire at the Herr Farm, near town, but upon their arrival their services were not needed. The fire was confined to a gasoline engine that had backed-fired and was extinguished by employees.

Mr. and Mrs. George Byers have moved from their home on West Main street to the house recently occupied by the late Mrs. Thomas Erb and her daughter, Miss Edna Erb, who will spend the winter in Lancaster, Pa. Mr. Byers has rented the house they are vacating to A. M. Horine, druggist, East Main street.

William Taft Feldman, age fourteen, formerly of this city entered Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Tuesday. Feldman expects to complete the four-year course in three years and enter law school at the age of seventeen. He finished City college, Baltimore, in three years, after taking the grades in five years in this city.

Washington has a blind inventor who has perfected automobile headlights designed greatly to reduce traffic smashups and loss of life. The invention consists of two headlights which turn automatically in the direction taken by the car, much after the fashion of the human eye. The lights are so tilted that they blind neither the pedestrian nor the autoist.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Clemson, Court street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Haines and family, near Retreat, Monday moved to this city and have taken a house on Liberty street.

Mrs. Jennings Zepp, Shipley has returned to her home after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Clouse, in Ohio.

Mr. John C. Brown, near New Windsor, is in Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, where he is undergoing treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerras McSherry, this city, spent Sunday in Littlestown with the former's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McSherry.

John W. Daley and Son, plumbers, are installing a heating plant in the flower house recently constructed by Stewart N. Dutterer, florist, Pennsylvania avenue.

The teachers of West-End school held their meeting at the high school building on Monday. A meeting of the high school teachers took place Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wright, East Main street, Tuesday moved to the farm of Mrs. "Bud" Mitten, Spring Mills, where they will reside with Mrs. Mitten for the present.

Miss Catharine Hobby, East Green street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hobby is at Woman's hospital Baltimore, for treatment. While there she will have her tonsils and adenoids removed.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Morningstar, John street, in honor of their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Ward, Rockford, Ill. About fifty were present.

Mrs. Levine Zepp and daughter, who spent the month of September with Mrs. G. Mortz Zepp, West Main street, Saturday returned to their home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Edward Shaffer, Uniontown road, spent Sunday with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Luther E. Weimert, Pennsylvania avenue.

Tuesday next will be the last day of Registration.

Yesterday Rev. J. F. D. Bowersox, of this city, delivered an address before the Woman's National Missionary Society of the Lutheran Church in the Church of the Reformation, Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. James Conrad and daughters, Mary, Deloris and Marie and Miss Anna Conrad, McSherrystown, Sunday visited Mr. Conrad's uncle Mr. James Case, this city, who is seriously ill.

Monday night about 7:30 a Buick automobile belonging to Earl Smelser, New Windsor road, caught fire, burning the top and upholstering badly. The Westminster firemen responded promptly to the alarm and soon had the fire out.

The Woman's Missionary Society of St. Benjamin's Lutheran Church will meet Thursday evening, October 11th, at the home of Mrs. David Kauffman at 7:30 P. M. If the weather should be unfavorable it will be held the following evening.

Friday last Thomas Babylon, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Snyder Babylon, West Main street, was slightly injured when he tried to jump in a buggy while in motion. His foot caught in the wheel and he was thrown to the ground cutting his head and injuring his arm.

Senator R. Smith Snader, New Windsor, president of the Maryland State Dairymen's Association, last night left for New York City to attend the National Congress of Dairymen from whence he will go to Syracuse, N. Y., to attend the New York State Fair where the judging of fine cattle will take place.

Mr. Walden Stidham, president of the C. E. Society, of Philadelphia, Pa., and mother, were the guests Saturday and Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. William Bankard, near Gist.

Wednesday a delegation from Mt. Olive came before the Board of Education to protest the closing of the Mt. Olive school. It was agreed to add the seventh grade in the school, this making it possible for more pupils to attend. It is probable that the school will be kept open if the sufficient number of pupils enroll.

Wednesday Mr. Jesse Manning, of Baltimore, formerly of this city, visited friends here.

Miss Elsie Field, of Gamber, left Monday to take up training at Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William L. Bechtel, last Friday, a son, Maynard Lewist.

Guy Nusbaum, Pennsylvania avenue, is erecting a garage in the rear of his home.

Frank Snyder, Baltimore, this week visited friends and relatives in this county.

Monday Mr. William Miller, Church street, was taken to Sabillasville Sanitorium.

Sunday, Rally Day services will be held by the Sunday school of Grace Lutheran Church, this city.

Rally Day services will be held at St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Run, October 7, 9:30 A. M.

Howard Hoffman, East Main street, has accepted a position with the Congoleum plant at Asbestos.

Born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. John Corbin, Littlestown, a son. Mr. Corbin was formerly of this city.

Elmer J. Erb, Union Mills, has made sale of his farming outfit and moved to Littlestown, Pa.

Misses Madeline Massicott, Mary and Cora Adams, this city, spent Thursday at the York Fair.

Mrs. Harry Myers and children, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. Myers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Adams, East Main street.

Mr. Charles Chrest, of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Chrest, Pennsylvania avenue.

C. Irving Kroh, of Silver Run, Wednesday entered the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, for treatment and possibly an operation.

Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Peel, East Green street, moved to Baltimore where they will make their future home.

This evening Rev. J. F. D. Bowersox, of this city, will deliver an address at the meeting of the Pennsylvania Shriners in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Clyde Johnson and child Libertytown, Frederick county, are visiting Mr. Johnson's parents, on Liberty street.

Kridler's Sunday school had its last session on September 30th, and no Sunday school will be held before May. It has been decided to give out a treat to the scholars on October 21.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. John Hilker, Hoffmanville, Sunday. There were nine children and nineteen grandchildren present besides a large number of other relatives.

Sunday being the second anniversary of the Carrollton Church of God, there will be special services. Rev. Nonemaker, of Lakemont, Pa., will preach at both morning and evening services. Rev. Nonemaker is a brother-in-law of Rev. Masemore.

A chicken, ham and oyster supper will be held in the Firemen's building, Saturday evening, October 13th, under the auspices of the Women's Busy Bee Bible Class, of the Church of God. Suppers served from 5 to 10 P. M. All welcome, come and enjoy a good supper.

The Aid Society of the Church of the Brethren met on Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Clara Englar, Liberty street. The evening was spent stringing beans for one of the local factories. The money was for the treasury of the Aid society.

Those of our citizens who have been accustomed to sending out of the State for shopping orders will be interested to learn that Hutzler Bros. of Baltimore, has a personal representative in Mrs. Blanche B. Coonan. This is "Hutzler Service" free of charge and Mrs. Coonan will be glad to execute orders for any article no matter how large or how small for those who find it inconvenient to go in person to the store.

Donald Stubs and Fred Linkons of the Highland High School, of Street, and Arthur M. Ahalt, of Middlestown High School, Middleton, Maryland, will represent Maryland in the national stock-judging contest to be held next week at Syracuse, New York. V. L. Cissil of the Clarksville High School and H. H. Ripley of Mount Airy High School will be alternates.

SHIPLEY

Mrs. Margaret Caples had as her guests Sunday Mrs. Viola Martin and family, Mr. Harry Leppo, Misses Mary C. and Gladys Leppo, Mrs. W. S. Caples and others.

Mrs. Jennings Zepp has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Clouse, in Ohio.

Mrs. Frank Schneider who was quite sick has improved.

Mr. Herbert Owings has moved into his new house.

Mr. Noah Stocksdale and Mr. Piper, contractors, have the house of Mr. Dayton Waltz under roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wagner had as Sunday morning callers Mr. and Mrs. Manro Owings and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Owings and son, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilhide Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keefer had as their guests Sunday Messrs. and Mesdames George Stem, Frank Lowman, Herman Wagner, Mrs. Cathrine Carr, Misses Hilda Keefer, Mary Carr, Rosie Buckingham, Lillian Stem, Myrtle Buckingham, Messrs. Chester Buckingham, Charles Carr, Howard Keefer and others.

Those who called on Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilhide Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Myers, of Bachman's Valley; Mrs. Estella Zahn, and sons, Irvin and Robert Zahn, Jr., William C. Caples and Mr. Ralph Mitten, of Westminster, and others.

Tuesday next will be the last day of Registration.

MANCHESTER

It is a very hard matter to give the Manchester items when you consult your notes and find them a blank the next best thing is to skip about and catch up anything that may be on the news line. Society seems to have closed up for a time or is planning for several social affairs to be a success.

Our factories are now all working on full time and no doubt will be pushing business for the Christmas trade, much to the gratification of the employees.

The new school building gives a fine showing and is divided into a work room, cooking room and a fine, large recitation room. A new electric pump will be put into the well that now is enclosed by a neat building.

Our registrars at their sitting on Tuesday registered in first precinct 20 males and thirteen females; in second precinct 15 males and 5 females.

Mrs. Charles J. H. Ganter is critically ill with no hopes of her recovery. She is in a coma.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Motter, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Blizzard and child, of Baltimore, motored here on Sunday and spent the day with Aunt Fannie and Uncle George.

Misses Dela and Laura Lippy entertained as guests on Sunday their sister, Mrs. Brockley, Mr. and Mrs William Carver, of Hanover, on Sunday.

The report of the potato crop in this section seems to vary in every report coming in. Some persons have a fine turn-out and his next neighbor has a poor return.

The Hoffman house on North Main street presents a fine appearance in its stucco dress and with a little finish about the porch and the painting on the outside it will be finished.

Contractor Hoffacker has the frame work of the new house on State street in place on the foundation and is having the cellar dug for another house on the same street and will push the work on both to get them closed which will give employment to his employees for the winter.

A new block on the square sports a staff three feet tall with a red flag, knocks all excuses away for not making the proper turns and keeping to the rights.

MILLERS

A number of our people attended the York fair the past week.

Miss Myrl Miller, of Baltimore, spent the week-end visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bollinger, Jr., and children and Mrs. George Bollinger, Sr., spent last Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bollinger and family, of New Freedom.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Miller and daughter Fern, spent last Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Miller and family, of Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kerdmer, Mrs. Aaron Redding and children and Messrs. Charles and LeRoy Miller, spent last Sunday visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and children, Mrs. H. K. Miller and Miss Myrl Miller spent last Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, of Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawerence Miller and son spent last Sunday visiting relatives in York, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Dull, Mrs. Viola Taylor and daughter, of Glenville, and Mr. Willis Burns spent last Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Preston Bollinger.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

COATS, SUITS, DRESSES, MILLINERY.

We are showing an unusual variety of ladies' and children's fall coats. These come trimmed with fur collars and are priced very reasonable. We ask that you pay a visit to our ready to-wear department. The large assortment of garments will surprise you.

Middy Blouses And Bloomers

We have Middy and Bloomers for all athletic purposes. Black Sateen, Blue Serge, and Twills. Priced from 98c up. Regulation Styles.

Millinery Department

This department is now filled with the latest styles of Fall and Winter hats. Ready to wear. Untrimmed shapes. Frames, Feathers and Fancies. This department has been made popular with us by asking small prices for up-to-date merchandise.

Our Shoe Department

This department is now showing the new styles in Fall Pumps, Oxfords, Brogues, Patent Pumps and Slippers. Men's new styles in Oxfords for Fall. Also a big line of styles in shoes for the children and babies.

School Hose

We have a good value in school hose some priced at 25c. The now popular Golf Hose for boys 59c.

Rubber Shoes For Early Fall

Our Ball Brand of Rubbers are now on sale, you can purchase them at prices based on last year.

Dress Materials

This department is now ready to serve you with the latest in Fall Weaves. Crepes, Eponges, Velvets, Mories, Satins, Furs. Trimmings in all the leading shades.

Challies

A new line of patterns in fancy colored Challies suited for Kimonos and Comfort coverings. Prices for yard-wide 25c.

UNIONTOWN

The Church of God congregation had an enjoyable day on Sunday when they observed Harvest Home service. The church was nicely decorated with vegetables, fruits and flowers, which were later donated to the pastor's family. Rev. J. D. Masemore, and his male chorus, of Carrollton, pleased the congregation in the evening.

Mrs. J. E. Lowe, as delegate from the St. Paul and Baust Missionary Societies is attending the forty-first annual state convention being held in the church of Dr. J. Weidley, D. D., in Washington, from the 3rd to 5th. Misses Lizzie Byerly and Thelma Lambert, Mt. Union and Mrs. Will Bowers, Winter's are also delegates.

Mrs. Harry Speelman and Miss Dierre Sittig are visiting their brother, Arthur Sittig and family, near Easton.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fry, New Jersey, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Lewis Waltz.

Abram Jones, of N. J., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Edward Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Formwalt are in Baltimore this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Eckard returned home Sunday from a visit with relatives in Hamilton.

Mrs. Talbot spent Sunday with her son, Samuel Talbot and wife.

Mrs. Missouri Myers was called to Mayberry last Saturday on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Sterling Zimmerman.

The York fair has had attraction for a number of our people this week.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Segafoose, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Smith and D. M. Englar attended the funeral of Lester Grumbine, in Frederick. He was a nephew of Mrs. Segafoose and Mrs. Smith.

Dr. L. Kemp is having "Bud" Waltz give his outdoor buildings a fresh coat of paint.

Latest word from Dr. J. J. Weaver, Johns Hopkins hospital, is he continues to improve.

Rev. J. S. Lowe's mother, brother and family, near Leister's, visited at the parsonage on Sunday.

Mrs. Walter Rentzel and children visited relatives in Taneytown over Sunday.

BERRETT

Sunday school and preaching service at Messiah Lutheran Church Sunday morning at the usual hours.

Sunday school at Brandenburg M. P. Church at 9:45 A. M. Christian Endeavor at 7:15 P. M. Preaching service at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Blanche Coonan

100 E. Main Street, Westminster, Md.

Will Shop For You At

HUTZLER BROTHERS Co.

Baltimore

Mrs. Coonan makes frequent trips to Hutzler Brothers Company, where she will personally select any merchandise you may desire, and although she gives her individual attention to every order

There Is No Extra Charge

As This Is Part Of The Hutzler Service

Mrs. Coonan will buy—for men, women or children—any articles carried by the Hutzler Store, which is always foremost in presenting what is new and fashionable in Apparel and Accessories, Fabrics and Trimmings. It will be a pleasure for Mrs. Coonan to serve you, no matter how small the purchase.

Telephone your needs to Mrs. Coonan at 11-R or write them to her at 100 E. Main St., Westminster, Md.

MT. OLIVE

Sunday school at 2:15 P. M. Preaching at 3 P. M. and Epworth League service at 8 o'clock.

Miss Levantic Buckingham, of Mt. Airy spent the week-end with Miss Beatrice Shipley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gosnell and Mrs. James H. Gosnell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Burrall, at Uniontown.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grimes and little son, and Mr. U. G. Poole and daughter spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Mullinix, of Daisey.

Those who called on Mrs. Edith A. Sellman Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Harrison, of Mt. Airy; Mrs. Harry Gosnell and Mrs. Josephine McDaniel.

A few of our neighbors expect to attend the York fair this week.

THE HAGERSTOWN FAIR

October 9, 10, 11, 12, 1923.

AUTO RACES Saturday 13, 1923.

Dr. E. H. Garey

DENTIST

Westminster, Md. Phone 183

There has been quite a rumor through our community the past week about the closing of Mt. Olive school on account of it being under the average, but we trust it will not be closed.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2316-0331