—We had the heaviest rain of the season last Wednesday night. The town was overflowed generally.

—Sore eyes, tetter, salt rheum, etc., are cured by Dr. Lindsey's Blood Searcher. Sold by all druggists. R. E. Sellers & Co., proprietors.

—We have never seen so many water melons of a season in Easton as we have had this season, and we never saw finer melons anywhere

—All who attended Miss Cole's entertainment at Oxford, a few weeks ago, speak of it as a most charming affair. Every body was delighted.

—Mr. Jno H. K. Shannahan has our thanks for an ice cold water melon from his refrigirator, which will keep them for weeks as nice as the day they were pulled.

—Morphia, Opium and remedies of their class only stupefy and seldom cure. For diseases of Infancy, use Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, which is safe and sure in its effects. Price 25 cents.

—Mr. E. C. Thomas, Jr., of the Oxford crab packing house, says it is a mistake about his intending to discontinue business. He expects to pack many millions more crabs at Oxford.

—The trustees of the Primary School of Easton met on Friday and re-elected Mr. Robert Savage Principal of the school. The county school commissioners appoint the assistant teachers.

—Travelers should always have a small bottle of Sines' Dysentery Compound for immediate relief from any Bowel Complaints, guaranteed to tone up the stomach at once to a healthy condition. tf

—Major William E. Stewart will offer at public sale, in Easton, on the 7th of September, the 60 acres of new land, adjoining the lands of Mr. Harrison Austin. It would make a pretty little farm.

—An Easton audience will have an opportunity on Thursday evening, the 19th inst., to hear Miss Cole read and sing at Music Hall. Wherever she has been, the press speaks of her in terms of the highest praise.

—It is very discouraging to the industrious farmer's wife, as well as foolish to have her poultry to die from cholera or other disease, when she can buy of her druggist, Roberts' Poultry Powder for 25 cents a package. And guaranteed to cure. tf

—Over 500 fine and perfect fitting suits for men and boys marked down 25 and 50 per cent. This is by far less than the present prices of production. C. N. Ohlm & Son 230 W. Pratt and 55 Hanover streets. One-price clothing made to order. Baltimore. tf

—Turner's Excelsior, advertised in the STAR by J. Q. A. Holloway, R. B. Dixon, agent, is one of the best fertilizers in the market. Mr. Holloway is the inventor and original manufacturer of the article, and it has never been known to fail to produce a good crop of wheat.

—Miss Cole, the popular elocutionist and songstress, who has created quite a sensation in Delaware by her entertainments, will give one of her most select readings at Music Hall, on Thursday evening, the 19th inst. We are sure our people will give her a hearty welcome.

—We were greatly amused some days since, by seeing one of our venerable citizens, who had been bowed down with rheumatism, throw away his crutches, and declare himself just as young as he used to be, and now he is recommending Roberts' Embocation to every old lady in town. Great liniment that. tf.

—Since the Englishmen as well as the Messrs Lorillard, James Gorden Bennett, and others, have found so much virtue in Roberts' Horse Powders, and have used it in such quantities; all persons who are alive to their interests give it to their horses, whether runners, trotters, or farm horses, it has a wonderful effect. tf

—The Balimore Sun has sent a special correspondent to New England, to write up the Yankees. The northern papers have sent their correspondents south to write down the people of the South, and it is nothing but returning kind for kind that a southern journal should send a correspondent North, to write up the people of the North.

—Miss Cole, who will give an entertainment at Music Hall on Thursday evening, the 19th inst., is a lovely young lady, highly educated and accomplished, and we trust her audience will be large and her reception generous. She reads beautifully and sings most delightfully, and gives entire satisfaction wherever she gives an entertainment.

—Mr. Stephen E. Mason, a wealthy farmer of Worcester county, has purchased an interest in the firm of Freeman, Lloyd & Dryden, manufacturers of the Pocomoke Super-Phosphate. The new firm will enlarge their factory, so as to manufacture the fertilizer in any quantity that may be desired. Mr. Mason has used the article on his farm and knows what it is.

—Roger S. Hall, foreman on the Gazette, died on the 3d inst. Roger was a good-hearted, whole-souled, honorable young man, beloved by all who knew him, especially by those of the craft, of which he was an ornament. The funeral took place from his mother's residence on Wednesday, and was devoid of all ostentation and display, characteristic of the deceased. The family have the sympathies of many warm friends.

—Major Wm. E. Stewart advertises for sale in to-day's STAR one of the most desirable farms in Talbot county, on the most favorable terms. The terms are the long time of eight years, which is not much more than the rent of the farm. The farm is the one on which Simon H. White lately resided, and is situated on Miles River Neck, opposite the house of Geo R. Goldsborough, Esq., and contains 255 acres of land.

—It would be well for our subscribers to preserve this morning's issue of the STAR, containing General Hancock's letters. They are worth preserving and should be read and re-read, and the oftener and the more carefully they are read, the more exalted will be the opinion of their author. The preface to the orders and letter to Gov. Pease, is from the pen of the late Dr. Bledsoe, editor of the Southern Review, and shows what that great man thought of Gen'l Hancock's civil record in 1871. To be praised by Dr. Bledsoe is praise indeed.

—We believe that Mr. J. F. Bateman, our talented young State's Attorney, is about the only person in the county that fully comprehends the essence of the fish controversy between the STAR and a correspondent of the St. Michaels Comet. He last week went to Oxford to enjoy a few days' fishing with hook and line. As a result of his first day's sport, he sent the editor of the STAR a large bunch of very fine taylors, for which he has his profound acknowledgments. We assure him we fully appreciate his way of appreciating an argument.

EDITOR STAR:—Referring to an article in the local column of the Easton Ledger of the 5th inst., relative to non-receipt of the bundles containing that paper for parties here, I have to say that it is only necessary to remark (in complete refutation of the charge) that the mail agent declares positively that the packages "were not delivered to him at Easton."—As a necessary consequence they did not reach here. We sincerely regret it for the reason that we highly appreciate that "leading journal of the county," notwithstanding the fact that its proprietor has changed his political complexion several times.

Town Improvements.

The town commissioners are about to cut a ditch from Dover road along the railroad to Mrs. Kemp's branch, to turn the water that comes down Dover road and the Tom Faulkner farm from the town, so as to prevent the eastern part of the town from overflowing every time there is a big rain. Mr. Town Commissioner Bennett is superintending the job, which is an assurance that it will be well done. Mr. Bennett intends to remove the bridge and fill up the ditch at the intersection of Dover road with the railroad grounds, and thus compel all the water to run towards the meadow. The proposed ditch will turn more than half the water away that now pours through the culvert on Railroad avenue.

Base Ball.

On Tuesday last the Independent base ball nine, of this town, and the Trappe nine met at Oxford, and played their second match game, which resulted for the second time in a victory for the Independents by a score of 18 to 24. A heavy rain which took place just before the commencement of the game, followed by a drizzling rain lasting nearly the whole afternoon rendered the ground unfit to play upon, which accounts for the large number of runs scored. The Independents received a challenge, before they left the grounds, from the Manasses B. B. C. and promptly accepted it. A game will take place between the two nines this (Tuesday) afternoon, commencing at 2½ o'clock, in Commodore Felbiger's field on Point road. An admission fee of 10 cts. will be charged to defray necessary expenses.

County Commissioners.

EASTON, Aug. 3, 1880.

Board met; present, Messrs John C. Adams, President; Francis A. Wrightson and James H. Willis, Commissioners; Joseph S. Robson, Clerk.

Michael Connolly filed his agreement with the board to make the new public road in Miles River Neck for $100.

The board took up the petition heretofore filed for an increase of the salary of the keeper of Oxford Ferry to $600, and in view of the increase of travel, decided to grant the salary named from May 1st, 1880.

Several orders for bridge plank were given.

The tax books for 1880 being completed, were delivered to Mr. Haddaway the collector.

The new public road from the depot of the Delaware & Chesapeake Railway to the public road and Main street of Oxford, was offered for sale, but bids not meeting the views of the board, it was not sold.

Bills to the amount of $877.47 were passed and paid.

Adjourned to Tuesday next.

A Tribute to Arthur C. Mullikin.

The brief notice of the death of Arthur C. Mullikin in the last issue of the STAR not only startled me, but filled me with sorrow.

During my residence in Oxford Neck I became well acquainted with the deceased, and although in politics we were antipodes, there was much in him which commanded my respect and attracted my love. His extreme diffidence and naturally retiring disposition made him a stranger to most persons. With the modesty of a school boy, he possessed the culture and scholarship of an efficient teacher. With a weak and broken-down constitution he was deligent and untiring, always at his post of duty. Through cold, and heat, and storm never did his carriage fail to pass my gate on his way to Oxford.

Arthur C. Mullikin was a refined, Christian gentleman., with an extremely sensative nature, and with a heart full of the most kindly impulses. He was a man of deep convictions, and sincere in his professions. He was a Methodist, and to him the Methodist Episcopal Church was the purest, the most Apostolic Church in the world. He found peace at her alter, and I have no doubt passed peaceably from the Church on earth to the "General Assembly and Church of the first-born in Heaven."

New Milford, Conn.

The Cambridge Centennial of Methodism.

From the Cambridge Chronicle

It has been announced that on the 24th of August, inst., the Methodists of Dorchester propose to celebrate the introduction of their church in the county, by a grand mass meeting in the yard of Zion M. E. Church, in Cambridge, which will be addressed by the distinguished Drs. Guard, of Mount Vernon, Baltimore, Md., and Edwards, of Park Place, Richmond, Va. This meeting will be of much interest to the whole county. On the 27th of February, 1780, Rev. Freeborn Garrettson—the first Methodist preacher that ever addressed an audience in Dorchester county—was arrested, brought to Cambridge, locked up in a room in the hotel until the evening and then committed to jail and left without supper or a bed on which to rest his weary limbs. His offence was "preaching the gospel." He laid all night upon the dirty floor with his saddle-bags for a pillow, with a cold, east wind blowing upon him through the iron bars of the glassless window of his prison, sustained by the conciousness of its own integrity and the sensible presence and protection of his God.—In the morning some sympathizing friends brought him his breakfast, to whom he began to talk on the subject of religion. Others in passing stopped to listen, and soon a weeping crowd surrounded the little prison and stood entranced, subdued by the earnest eloquence of the friendless, persecuted man of God. Thus it continued from day to day, until Garrettson, with the jail as his pulpit and the street as his audience room, attracted a larger crowd than "the parson" in his gown and orders in "the church." The first convests of Methodism were in the streets of Cambridge, in front of the old jail. A religion that manifested sufficient power to raise the persecuted preacher above such unfriendly surrounding and fill his soul with an earnest longing for the salvation of his persecutors, commended itself to the favor of the people.

The word of God as proclaimed by Garrettson had free course among the masses and was glorified in the salvation of multitudes, both white and colored. To-day, thousands, among whom are some of the best citizens of our land, worship the God of their fathers, in Dorchester county, "after the manner that some call heresy." It is this event in the history of the county that the Methodists are called to celebrate.

As to the speakers, it is useless to introduce Dr. Guard to this community. Those who listened to his impassioned eloquence at Hurlock's camp a few years ago can never forget the magic of his mighty spirit. It is but justice to a stranger, for one to whom he is well known, to say that Dr. Edwards, of Park Place, Richmond, Va., is not at all inferior to Dr. Guard in any particular. For twenty years a pastor of the prominent Methodist churches in the capital of Virginia, the announcement of his name will insure an audience anywhere in the South. Such a treat is seldom offered to any community. The shady yard of Zion M E Church will be fitted up with platform and seats for the accommodation of all who choose to come. Prof. Robinson is expected to lead the music with instruments.—An extra train will be run for the accommodation of friends up the county. The services will begin at 10:30 a. m. and 3 p. m. No charge, or catch penny tables or stall to interrupt the pleasure of the occasion, but the Methodists of the county and all their friends are invited to rally near the spot where their first apostle, like the prisoner Paul, declared the gospel in bonds, and thus perpetuate his noble virtues and resolve to emulate his lofty faith.

J. D. HANK, Chair'n Com.

The Democratic County Convention.

The Democratic County Convention met at the Court House, Easton, at noon on Tuesday, August 3d, to elect delegates to represent Talbot in the Salisbury convention.

The convention was organized, on motion of F. G. Wrightson, of Bay Hundred, by calling Col. Samuel Wetherill, of Oxford, to the chair.

On taking the chair, Col. Wetherill made a brief address, expressive of his appreciation of the honor conferred. He said he was embarrassed by being a stranger to most of the delegates, it being the first time he had been a member of a convention for nineteen years, and then in another State; but he was willing to wave his embarrassment in the cause of General Hancock and his friend Gibson.

His address was received with rounds of applause. Col. Wetherill then announced the convention ready for business.

On motion of James E. McDaniel, of Bay Hundred, Robert Hough, of Easton, was elected Secretary.

On motion of John V. Lowe, of Bay Hundred, the following Committee on Credentials was appointed:—C. R. Leonard, E. S. Harrison, R. Coulby, F. A. Benson and James E. McDaniel. The committee, after examining the credentials, reported the following entitled to seats in the convention:—

EASTON—C. R. Leonard, Robert Hough, John Chilcutt, William E. Stewart, and Wilford Bateman.

ST. MICHAELS—O. Hammond, George E. Haddaway, Solomon Brinsfield, George H. Graham, and Frank A. Benson.

TRAPPE—Col. Samuel Wetherill, William Collins, Sen., Ed. S. Harrison, R. R. Butler, and Thos. J. Griffin.

CHAPEL—Wm. G. Quimby, Wm. T. Elbin, Robert Coulby, Jas. T. S. Smith, and Lewis C. Smith.

BAY HUNDRED—James E. McDaniel, John V. Lowe, James H. Caulk, F. G. Wrightson, and Isaac B. Gibson.

Several of the above were elected as substitutes for absent delegates.

On motion of Capt. Edward S. Harrison, it was resolved to send a double delegation to the Salisbury convention.

Major William E. Stewart, of Easton, offered the following resolutions, which were read and adopted by acclamation.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved by the Democracy of Talbot in convention assembled,

1st, That Mr. Charles H. Gibson is our unanimous choice for Representative in the next Congress.

2nd. That the delegates from this county to the Salisbury convention are instructed, by all fair means, to secure Mr. Gibson's nomination.

3rd. That in our opinion Mr. Gibson would be an efficient and energetic member of congress, and moreover merits consideration from the party, because for the past fifteen years he has been not merely a voter; ever in the front of the fight, devoting his best energies to the cause of Democracy, and no man in the district elected to office these many years is free from obligations to Charles H. Gibson.

4th. That we congratulate all of our people that the administration of the State Government by the Democratic party for the past twelve years, has greatly increased our wealth and prosperity, under our benign laws proscribing aristocracy and communism—our population has multiplied, and nowhere is there a surer reward for honest toil—capital and labor mutually beneficial are here mutually protected.

5th. That we endorse the principles enunciated in the platform of the national democratic party, and here emphasize our detestation of the fraud by which the republican party filched the Presidency, throttled the public voice and deposed the duly elected President—we believe the election of Hancock will render impossible a repetition of so great a crime against liberty, the elective franchise and the constitution.

6th. That in General Hancock we recognize a man whose life is without a stain, and whose fame is without a flaw—not only a gallant soldier, but like Washington and Jackson, also an ardent patriot and a wise statesman.

7th. That the nomination of Hancock and English is a matter of sincere felicitation to every patriot in the land; that the election of the Democratic nominees means a strict subordination of the military to the civil power, a strict construction of the constitution, a sovereign nation of sovereign states, and an end of the pernicious doctrine of centralization, implication and military necessity—in fact a constitutional union and a hearty good will throughout the entire land.

On motion of Capt. C. R. Leonard, the following delegates were unanimously chosen to represent the Democratic party of Talbot county at the Salisbury convention, to be held on the 1st of September to nominate a candidate for congress:—Hon. P. F. Thomas, O. Hammond, James E. McDaniel, Joseph B. Seth, James M. Wooters, and Thomas K. Robson.

On motion of Capt. Edward S. Harrison, the following alternates were elected:—George R. Goldsborough, F. A. Benson, John W. Gibson, Thomas H. Matthews, Charles Rathell, and Theophilus Tunis.

The convention then adjourned subject to the call of the President.

TO WHEAT GROWERS.

The undersigned, PIONEER in the manufacture of Fertilizers in this city and ORIGINATOR in 1858 of the Formulas and processes of manufacture of

"Excelsior" and Ammoniated Phosphate,

So well and favorably known by the Agricultural public, relying upon his experience and personal reputation hitherto acquired in the uniform excellence of these Fertilizers, as manufactured by him, continues to offer them to the Farmers and Planters of Maryland and Virginia with the assurance that the high standard quality of each will be maintained as heretofore.

The above are the most concentrated FERTILIZERS ever offered to the farmer—combining all the stimulating qualities of Peruvian Guano, and the ever-durable fertilizing properties of Bones, in fine, dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling.

For growing Wheat, it is the universal opinion of the farmers of Maryland and Virginia, after over twenty years experience in the use of these FERTILIZERS manufactured by me, that an application of 100 pounds is equal in its effects to 200 pounds of any other Fertilizer or Guano, therefore fully 50 per cent. cheaper.

With my present advantages and superior facilities in manufacturing, I challenge competition with any Fertilizer sold in the United States, in Quality, Mechanical Condition and Price.

By strictly adhering to my Original Formulas, using only the most concentrated materials, and superintending in person their manufacture—as for the past twenty years—

Uniform Quality is Guaranteed.

☞ Farmers, to secure the ONLY GENUINE EXCELSIOR and PHOSPHATE, prepared according to my Original Formulas established in 1858, should see that every Bag is branded as above, with the ANALYSIS and MY NAME IN RED LETTERS.
