Baltimore Grain Market.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 30.—Amount of grain in elevators: Wheat 2,082,442 bus.; corn 318,541 bus. Wheat is firm and demand good, at $1.08a$1.12 for Fultz, and $1.13a$1.18 for longberry. Corn 51a54c. Oats 36a37c. Rye $1.02.

—Vote for Covington.

—Vote for Hancock and English.

—Choice butter for sale at Jos. Miller's.

—Best cigars 2 for 8 cts. at Joseph Miller's.

—To-day being a legal holiday the Bank will be closed.

—Best Tobacco, 60 cts. per pound, at Joseph Miller's, Dover street, Easton, Md.

—Mr. M. Hale will accept our thanks for extracts from the late census returns.

—The horses of this county very generally are suffering with a light form of the epizootic.

—M. B. Roberts' Embrocation is the oldest Liniment in the market, it does not blister and has a reputation over all others.

—Attention is invited to the large sale of nursery stock, advertised in to-day's STAR, to take place at Denton on the 16th of November.

—Lovers of honey will be gratified to learn that Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a much sweeter article in winter and much better for a cough.

—Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound is pleasant to the taste and a most reliable remedy for coughs and colds. Give it a trial. Price, 25 and 50c. a bottle.

—M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders will prevent diseases in horses. Every farmer should obtain a package, and see for themselves how quick it will improve their horses. For sale everywhere.

—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the Maryland Agency "Victor" Machine Company. They put the matter of the purchase of a machine in the right light, and we know them to be responsible for all they say. nov2-4m —Political events never before so important to this nation are near at hand. Don't be ignorant of coming great events, when you can have a daily paper mailed to your address at publishers' prices by applying to Prof. Minnick, opposite the Bank.

—Stevens & Hayward are pleased to inform their patrons that they have secured a stock of "Pulmona," the celebrated medicine for coughs, throat and lung trouble that has been working such wonderful cures in other sections. It is worth a trial. Price 50c. nov2eow6m —A life of torture is often endured by the rheumatic, thetr pangs may however be relieved by the use of the old, reliable remedy, Roberts' Embrocation. Sold over 50 years. No mushroom growth, its reputation excels all other remedies. Price 35 cents per bottle.—Try it just once.

—If you want a first-class suit, cut in the most fashionable style, and made in the very best manner, call on John Satterfield, the old tailor, and leave your measure. His place is opposite the Frame Hotel, and he guarantees his work in style and fit equal to any made on the Eastern Shore.

—Vote first, and then go and see what a nice and complete stock T. C. Nicols has. He has a nice assortment of seasonable goods, among which are Robes, Blankets, Corn Shellers, Stoves, Guns, &c. He has the New Golden Sun Fire-Place Stove, direct from the manufacturers and at bottom rates. He cannot and will not be undersold.

—Some dastardly Republican thief cut the rope of the Hancock and English pole at Trappe, and stole the flag and made off with it, on Saturday night. The Democrats of Trappe have since made another flag, and it now floats from the top of their pole. Those who run a notoriously dishonest and perjured candidate for President, cannot be expected to be governed by honorable principles; and stealing flags precisely fits their standard of morality.

—If persons were as careful of their health as they are of their wealth the death rate would be much smaller from that dreadful scourge—consumption. It carries off in the United States in one year ten times more persons than succumbed to the yellow fever in the South. Thousands of valuable lives would have been saved from consumption had they used Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound in time. In all cases of whooping cough, croup, asthma and lung affections it has proved to be a certain cure when taken in time. Sold in every drug store. Price 25cts., extra large bottle, 50c.

—Mr. Brown, the telegraph operator at Woodland station is answerable for the following good one: Last Monday week an old darkey brought to the office a dispatch, which he ordered sent off immediately. Mr. Brown answered "all right," took the paper and sent off the message; then taking down his file, he placed the original on the hook and hung it up in the office, and went on to attend to his business. The darkey took his seat and sat for half an hour, never taking his eyes off the paper on the file. After waiting until he was out of all patience, he said, "I say, boss, haint yer gwoine ter send dat message? Its berry important it should go 'megetly." Mr. Brown answered, "Why, old man, I sent the dispatch long ago; its delivered long before this." The darkey then said, "Ye can't fool dis chile; its not sent at all, it's hanging up dar on de hook; I saw ye when ye put it dar, an' I has'nt taken my eyes of'en it since." Mr. Brown tried to explain, but nothing short of sending the paper message whirling along the telegraph wires would satisfy Mr. Darkey. He don't believe yet the messags was sent.

The Hancock Boom.

The Democrats of Talbot have been rallying in force during the past week. There was a torchlight procession, music by the Easton Band, fire works, and a rousing big meeting at Oxford, on Monday evening. Colonel Clarence Peters kindly invited the club to hold the meeting in the dining room of the Riverview house. The house was filled, a number of ladies being present, to cheer the speakers with their smiles. Colonel Samuel Wetherill, the President of the club, presided. C. H. Gibson, Esq., made one of the best speeches the STAR reporter ever heard him make. J. F. Bateman followed with a handsome address, and T. K. Robson added a few words by way of conclusion. Col. Wetherill then told a humorous story, and the meeting closed with three rousing cheers for Hancock, English and Covington. The band then serenaded Col. Wetherill, who handsomely entertained all present.

Wednesday evening J. F. Bateman and T. K. Robson addressed a meeting at Bridge's store, in Broad Creek Neck.

Thursday evening there was a rousing meeting at St. Michaels, which was addressed by C. H. Gibson, J. F. Bateman, George E. Haddaway, J. Marion Wooters and others. The Easton Band furnished the music.

On Friday night C. H. Gibson, Esq., delivered one of the ablest and most effective speeches of the campaign, before the Hancock and English club of Easton, followed by a few remarks from Major Stewart. The business of the club was closed on motion of Mr. Gibson, seconded by Major Stewart, with an unanimous vote of thanks to the President, Captain James A. Ridgaway, for the very able and faithful manner in which he had discharged the duties of the office. When the vote was taken, every member rose to his feet and gave three rousing chairs.

The rain on Saturday prevented the Easton speakers from attending the meetings called for that day at Cordova and Long Woods, Bay Hundred and Tilghman's Island.

The campaign in Talbot was advertised to close with a rousing meeting and torchlight procession at Trappe on Monday night.

The county has been very thoroughly canvassed, and the claims of Hancock and English plainly presented to the voters. We hope the work of the clubs, and the eloquence of the speakers, will tell upon the vote to-day. We hope every Democrat will do his duty.

Youthful Intelligence and Patriotism.

The following lines were written by a little 12-year old girl—a pupil of the Easton High School. It will be remembered that some dastardly vandals cut down the Democratic pole and tore to shreds the flag which the enthusiasm of the young Democracy had placed upon the High School play ground. Immediately thereafter, these youthful patriots erected a taller pole, and flung to the breeze a nobler flag bearing the names of Hancock & English. In commemoration of the event, one of the smallest girls in the school penned the following patriotic lines. They were not intended for publication, nor did the youthful poetess know they were to be published. A STAR reporter succeeded in obtaining the poem, and it is presented exactly as written. We commend the sentiments to the "many far wiser than she":—

HURRAH FOR HANCOCK!

Let the constant cry of an honest, true man
Be "I'll vote for Hancock, if I can!"
The step of a Republican is very light,
For I'll tell you what one of them did Friday night.
When all were in bed and fast asleep,
Some sneaking Republican up did creep,
And cut down the pole and the High School flag,
And tore it till nothing was left but a rag.
When that fiend who brought the pole to the ground
Thinks of this act, it will soon be found
That the Democrat boys will persevere,
And never a follower of Garfield fear.
Jim Abe Garfield, the Republican nig,
Is the sap-head rogue they think so big.
I suppose they've forgotten the three twenty-nine
That was stolen by Garfield, who leads their line.
I would like to remind them of this little fact,
And also of that other sneaking act
Performed at the High School on Friday night
By some fiendish hand in the calm moon-light.
When Winfield Scott Hancock takes his seat,
No doubt friend Abram will feel very cheap.
And I hope it will teach him that our President
Should always be guided by the eighth commandment.
When the boys had learned that contemptible trick,
It made them as angry as the very "old Nick;"
They at once went to work, with spirits undaunted,
And another pole raised, from the top of which flaunted
An imperial banner, on which we distinguish
The noblest of names—HANCOCK & ENGLISH!

Easton High School, Oct. 28th, '80.

The Oyster Police Boat Dissatisfaction.

We understand there is some dissatisfaction in Dorchester respecting the second officer on the oyster Police boat Eliza Hayward, commanded by Capt. Edward S. Harrison, of this county. If we are correctly informed, the facts are as follows:—The commander of the boat is required to appoint his mate from Dorchester county. Without allowing him the right of selection, a mate was sent him from Dorchester soon after his appointment. His name was Edmondson. Capt. Harrison accepted him, presuming him to be a competent man. A very brief experience proved that Edmondson was no sailor, and therefore was wholly unfit for the position. In the event of the sickness or absence of Capt Harrison, he was not competent to take the command of the boat. As he was under a heavy bond for the proper care of the boat, it did not suit Capt. Harrison to have an incompetent man for mate. He therefore discharged Edmonson, and selected another man from Dorchester—from James Island—who was strongly recommended as a competent sailor. His name is Leonard. It is said Leonard is not good Democrat enough for the place; but he says he has voted but twice; once for Hon. Daniel M. Henry for Congress; and last fall, for Col Clement Sullivan for the State Senate; and is now for Hancock and Covington. It is alledged that Leonard voted last fall for a part of the mixed ticket. But that is no reason for ostracising him now, for the Democrats of Dorchester are working to get back those Democrats that strayed from the fold last fall, and they should be conciliated. Between such an incompetent, stringent Democrat as Edmondson, who knows nothing about sailing, and a competent, moderate Democrat, like Leonard, who has been raised on the water and knows all about sailing, we think Capt. Harrison did right in choosing the latter for his mate. If our Cambridge friends wanted the selection of the man, they should have sent Capt. Harrison a competent sailor. Capt. Harrison is a thorough going business man, and will run the boat on business principles, and all on board will be expected not only to understand their business, but to discharge their duties to the letter He feels the responsibility of the proper care of and the safety of the boat at all times, and in all weather, and he is not the man to tolerate about him, those incapable of meeting their individual responsibilities. And he is right.

Public Business.

On Tuesday, J. G. Morris declined the appointment of Judge of Election for Miles River Neck precinct, and the County Commissioners appointed Robert Hough to fill the vacancy.—Jas. H. Willis, one of the County Commissioners, was appointed to examine the new piece of road just built at Oxford, John Wesley Matthews was appointed to examine and report what repairs are needed to put Wootenauxbridge in good repair. Eliza Rodgers and Mitchell Maxfield were placed on the county out-door pension list. Bills to amount of $497.10 were passed and paid.

The Orphan's Court appointed Nicholas S Callahan guardian to Henrietty, John R, and Wm. E. Callahan, children of William S. Callahan, dec'd. John B. Fairbank was appointed administrator of Thomas Bridges. Thomas J. Clark, adm'r of John H. Matthews, presented to the Court an inventory of decd's personal estate, an order of sale was granted. Letters of adm'r on the estate of Elisha Thomas were granted to Margaret E. R. Thomas. Samuel Norris, guardian to Mary L. Norris, presented his first account. Spedden Orem was appointed guardian of George E. Battee. Henry H. Goldsborough bonded as guardian to Mary H. and Charles C. Goldsborough, and filed his release to A A. Pascault, adm'r of Elizabeth Kennard for the interest of his wards to her estate. Spedden Orem, adm'r of Ann Maria Battee, presented his final account of administration and a distribution of the balance of the estate.

The County School Commissioners were engaged in routine business. The new school house in Bambury is completed, and has been accepted. It was built by Lyons & Greenwood, and is a first class job in all respects.

Special Notice.

We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the ladies interested in the Masonic fair at the residence of Dr. E. R. Trippe, to-morrow (Wednesday) evening, at 7½ o'clock.

TO-DAY will decide who will be the next President of the United States. If there is a free vote and a fair count, and no colonizing, Gen'l Hancock will be the next President.

VOTE FOR HANCOCK!

THE time for argument is past. The time for work has come. Let every Democrat be at his post to-day, to work and vote for Hancock, English and Covington. Vote early, and then give the day to see that your friends and neighbors vote.

THE SITUATION IN NEW YORK.—The New York Herald, which has been claiming that State for Gen. Garfield since the October elections, now admits that the large increase in the registry in New York city and Brooklyn is calculated to give uneasiness to the supporters of the Garfield ticket, and adds: "In spite of their manifest advantabes, the republicans of New York are by no means out of the woods, although the chances seem to be in their favor." On the other hand Gen. Faulkner, the chairman of the democratic State committee, in a speech in Irving Hall, Thursday evening last, predicted that, with an honest vote, the democratic majority in the State of New York would be 50,000.

An Affidavit from Morey's Mother.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—The following has been issued from the headquarters of the democratic national committee: "The following is an affidavit of Clara S. Morey, of Lynn, Mass., mother of H. L. Morey, to whom Gen. Garfield is said to have written the famous 'Chinese letter':

"I, the undersigned, Clara S. Morey, of the city of Lynn, county of Essex, and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, on oath, do depose and say that I have lived in Lynn aforesaid from ten to fourteen years last past, and that my son Mr. H. L. Morey, has visited me frequently from time to time until the beginning of the past eleven months, and that since I know nothing of his whereabouts. Witness my hand and seal this 26th day of October, A. D. 1880. CLARA S. MOREY.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FALL AND WINTER, 1880.

J. J. JUMP & CO.

EASTON, MD.

For the past six weeks we have been diligently searching the markets and making purchases for the present Fall and Winter.

We pronounce our every deparment more thoroughly complete, better selected, and goods at better value for the price than ever before; and we pledge in every case to make our goods as low in price as in any city in the United States.

Our Ladies and Misses Dress Goods Department embraces the newest and latest effects in Silk, Wool and Mixed Fabrics, from desirable Low priced Goods to expensive French Novelties. We call special attention to our large stock of

Black and Colored Silks,
Black and Colored Cashmeres,
Camel Hair and Suit Flannels, which by actual and frequent comparisons are pronounced at less than city prices, and invite comparison.

For Dress and Cloak Trimmings, we have a magnificent assortment of Black and Colored Silk Velvets, Satins, Damasses, Plaids, Skirting Skrines, &c. Cord and Tassel, Spikes, Balls, Blackberry Jet and Jet Crochet Buttons, as well as the largest and handsomest line of Fancy Dress and Coat Buttons it has ever been our good fortune to exhibit.

Handsomely Trimmed Cloaks & Dolmans,

Beautiful Shawls, Ulster Cloths and Repellants.

Full Lines of New Hosiery, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Corsets, &c.

In fact every part of a Lady's or Child's wardrobe, (except bonnets and shoes) in great variety. Handsome designs and lowest prices.

Gentlemen's and Boys' Cloths and Cassimeres, and Ready Made Clothing is always a large and important feature in our business; and this season the styles are unusually handsome and at attractive prices.

Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs and Mats

in such beautiful designs as to please the most fastidious, and at such low prices as to make the heart of the housekeeper happy. In addition to our large stock of Carpets, we continue the practice instituted by us over a year ago, of keeping a large line of samples of Carpet just as they come from the loom. In this way we can show a stock equal to the large city carpet houses, and at less price. Come, and be convinced.

And now we ask your special attention to a few comments on the past and present: For over ten years we have catered to the wants of the people of this peninsula From the smallest beginning we have become the owners and proprietors of our present handsome establishment. We have done this in the face of continued prophecies of our failure and ruin, and the evil effects such prophecies are sure to make. In spite of all this, the last year was the most prosperous and showed better results than any year of the past. There is always a cause for success. People will continue to go where they find what they want and where they get the best value for their money.

There has been some complaint at our constantly changing clerks, but as we turn out more merchants than all our competitors combined, we must have new clerks to fill the old places, and we get the very best we can find.

We respectfully ask your consideration and patronage.

GEO. P. ROWELL & CO'S
SELECT LIST OF LOCAL NEWSPAPERS.

An advertiser who spends upwards of $5,000 a year, and who invested less than $250 of it in this List, writes: "Your Select Local List paid me better last year THAN ALL THE OTHER ADVERTISING I DID."

IT IS NOT A CO-OPERATIVE LIST.
IT IS NOT A CHEAP LIST.
IT IS AN HONEST LIST.

The catalogue states exactly what the papers are When the name of a paper is printed in FULL FACE TYPE it is in every instance the BEST. When printed in CAPITALS it is the ONLY paper in the place. The list gives the population of every town and the circulation of every paper.

The rates charged for advertising are barely one-fifth the publishers' schedule. The price for single States ranges from $2 to $96. The price for one inch one month in the entire list is $666. The regular rates of the papers for the same space and time are $2,980.16. The list includes 952 newspapers of which 187 are issued DAILY and 765 WEEKLY. They are located in 788 different cities and towns, of which 26 are State Capitals, 363 places of over 5,000 population and 466 County Seats. Per copy of List and other information address GEO. P. ROWELL & CO., 10 Spruce St., New York.

STRAY SOW.

STATE OF MARYLAND, TALBOT COUNTY, to-wit:—This is to certify that on this 16th day of October, 1880, before me, the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Talbot county, personally appeared Charles Rathell, and made oath in due form of law, that there came to his farm, wherein he now resides, near Wye Mills, Talbot county, sometime about the first of July last, A SPOTTED SOW, mostly black, and is now trespassing as an estray within his enclosures. Given before,
N. E. NICOLS, J. P.

The owner of the above sow is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges, including this advertisement, and take her away.
