Baltimore Grain Market.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 13.—Amount of grain in elevators: Wheat 2,410,581 bus.; corn 343,238 bus. Wheat has advanced a few cents. Good Fultz is quoted at $1.17, and prime long-berry at $1.23. Corn 54c. Oats 39c. Rye $1.02.

—Alfred J. Knight next Tuesday evening.

—We had a slight sprinkle of snow here on Saturday night—the first of the season.

—M. B. Roberts' Embrocation is the oldest Liniment in the market, it does not blister and has a reputation over all others.

—Fresh Florida Oranges, Lemons, Candy, Raisins, Nuts, etc., just received by Stevens & Hayward, Druggists and Apothecaries. nov16-4t —From Sassafras, Kent county, Md.—I find that I sell as much of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup as of all other cough remedies combined.—J. E. Hartley, Druggist.

—The Rev. J. Hannabery will preach in the Edmondson's Neck school house next Sunday afternoon Nov. 21st, at 2 o'clock p. m.—All are invited to attend.

—Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound is pleasant to the taste and a most reliable remedy for coughs and colds. Give it a trial. Price, 25 and 50c. a bottle.

—M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders will prevent diseases in horses. Every farmer should obtain a package, and see for themselves how quick it will improve their horses. For sale everywhere.

—There was never a better time to buy boots and shoes than now, if you want bargains, as we are selling them for 25 cents a pair less than last years prices, notwithstanding they cost more.

JACOB WILLIAMS & Co.

—Read the list of attractions in the Pinkney Platform Course, found elsewhere in this morning's STAR, and then purchase season tickets; they only cost $2.50. You will thus aid in the grand work of building up a Public Library.

—Wm. Mason & Sons have a large stock of new and second hand carriage which they are closing out on accommodating terms, in order to make room for spring stock. Call at their place of business, near the market house, Easton.

—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the Maryland Agency "Victor" Machine Company. They put the matter of the purchase of a machine in the right light, and we know them to be responsible for all they say. nov2-4m

—Mr. Martin F. Lucker has just added a very handsome show case, filled with fine jewelry, to the attractions of his place of business—at Minnick's—and is selling beautiful goods in his line at remarkable attractive prices.—Call and see him.

—Mr. Thomas R. Todd, on Commodore Febigers's place, near Easton, has declined farming, and will sell his live stock and farming implements at auction, on Thursday, December, 2d. His sale is advertised in the STAR.—He has some valuable stock to dispose of.

—A life of torture is often endured by the rheumatic, their pangs may however be relieved by the use of the old, reliable remedy, Roberts' Embrocation. Sold over 50 years. No mushroom growth, its reputation excels all other remedies. Price 35 cents per bottle.—Try it just once.

—There was a battle at Federalsburg, Caroline county, on election day, between some white and black men, in which sticks, brickbats and pistols were freely used. The parties engaged in it chose election day, to settle an old camp meeting dispute. Nobody was killed, but there were not a few heads badly bruised in the riot.

—Those wanting a pair of first class French calf winter boots or gaiters, should leave their measure with De Latt, 242 West Pratt street, Baltimore. His make is of the best, and prices moderate; and he guarantees an easy fitting boot, no matter how many corns or bunions you may have on your feet. Try him when you go to Baltimore.

—Alfred J. Knight, the Historical Costume Impersonator, will open the Pinkney Platform Course next Tuesday evening. Mr. Knight is remembered as the popular artist who so delighted our people last winter. Those who fail to hear him next Tuesday will miss a treat that is rarely offered. He will present an entirely different programme.

—At the late election, the voters of Cecil county, Maryland, decided by 1674 majority against licensing the sale of intoxicating liquors hereafter in that county. It was a clean local option victory. The demijohn trade between Elkton and Wilmington, and between Port Deposit and Baltimore, will soon be the biggest thing out in the transportation line.

—The Denton Union publishes the marriage of Mr. John Covey and Miss Emma J. Smith under the "deaths." This is queer.—We hope marriage in Caroline is not so serious a business as this might imply. But then the Union editor is dreadfully elated over the election of Garfield, and local option does not prevail in the whole of Caroline county. The printer is excusable under the circumstances.

—If persons were as careful of their health as they are of their wealth the death rate would be much smaller from that dreadful scourge—consumption. It carries off in the United States in one year ten times more persons than succumbed to the yellow fever in the South. Thousands of valuable lives would have been saved from consumption had they used Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound in time. In all cases of whooping cough, croup, asthma and lung affections it has proved to be a certain cure when taken in time. Sold in every drug store. Price 25cts.; extra large bottle, 50c.

The Masonic Fair.

A Fair will be held at Music Hall, by the ladies of Easton under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity, for the purpose of raising funds to assist Coats' Lodge, A. F. & A. M., in paying for the beautiful new Temple they have erected, and which will soon be dedicated with imposing ceremonies.

The Fair will be open during the entire week, commencing on Monday next, November 15th. A large variety of useful and fancy articles will be on sale at reasonable prices.

Dinner will be provided daily from 12 to 3 o'clock, and persons attending Court are cordially invited to call, as the best the market affords will be provided. Refreshments will be served at all hours.

All persons friendly to the Order, and interested in the great improvement the Masons have made on Washington street, are earnestly invited to make donations of food and fancy or household articles.

The Fair will be under the management of the following officers:

President—Mrs. J. A. Johnson.

Vice Presidents—Mrs. R. H. T. Councell, Mrs Ella G. Kennard and Mrs. John W. Cheezum.

Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Fannie Thomas.

Refreshment Table No. 1—Mrs. Wm. H. Smith.

Refreshment Table No. 2—Mrs. R. H. T. Councell.

Dinner Table—Mrs. R. C. Hollyday, Mrs. Wm. H. Councell.

Supper Table—Mrs. Julia A. Hall.

Fancy Table No. 1—Mrs. Edw. R. Trippe.

Fancy Table No. 2—Mrs. Sophie K. Trippe.

Bric-a-Brac Table—Mrs. T. J. Smithers.

Everything will be done to make the time of visitors pass pleasantly and many interesting social features will be inagurated for the amusement and entertainment of all who attend.

The public generally are invited to aid the ladies in the good work they have undertaken.

The Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

Will send their celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts to the afflicted upon 30 days trial. Speedy cures guaranteed. They mean what they say. Write to them without delay. mh16

Piano for Sale or Rent.

Apply to Major William E. Stewart, attorney-at-law, Easton. Will be sold very cheap. nov2-3t

Religious Notice.

There will be service at Cordova in the Grangers' Hall next Sunday afternoon at 3½ o'clock, and thereafter every other Sunday.

Business Change.

Messrs Thompson & Kersey have sold their grocery store to Mr. John S. Griffith, and will hereafter devote their whole energies exclusively to the dry goods businefs. Mr. Griffith has conducted their grocery department for several yerrs, and his many friends will be gratified to deal with him hereafter on his own account.

Important to All.

The new regulations require all those indebted to the STAR for subscription, job work or advertising, to call and settle the same in time of court. We expect a great rush at this office. It is like voting; it should not be put off an hour; but all should call, and call early. We need the money; in fact we cannot do without it. We have a big pile of blank receipts printed, all ready to be filled up, and we hope to use them all before court is over. We should be glad to see all at once.

Town Talk.

The splendid assortment of Men's, Boys and Children's Clothing for Fall and Winter wear, now in stock at our stores, meets all possible wants and finds unqualified approval. The order department pleases the most fastidious, and we invite the inspection of every one in need of first-class garments to call on C. N. Ochm & Son's largest one price clothing house, 230 W. Pratt street, extending through to order departmen, 55 Hanover street. tf.

The Poor.

The 46th Annual Report of the Union Dorcas Society of Easton will be found in the STAR this Morning. It will be seen by the report, that the ladies are still doing a good work, assisting the poor. It is now the season for them to solicit subscriptions, and doubtless they will make an early call. It is to be hoped that our citizens will make a liberal response. The poor of the town must be provided for in some way, and there is no better medium for relieving them than through this most excellent charitable institution.

The Magazines and The Star.

We will furnish the STAR and either of the following magazines at the lowest club rates as follows, cash in advance:

The STAR and Godey's Lady's Book	$3.00
" Peterson's Magazine	3.00
" Scribner's Monthly	5.50
" St. Nicholas	4.50
" Atlantic Monthly	5.50
" Appleton's Journal	4.50
" either Blackwood's Magazine, Edinburg Review, British Review, or London Quarterly Review	5.50

Caroline Extends Her Territory.

The line between Caroline and Dorchester counties runs through the town of Federalsburg, which has been a cause of trouble in the management of the affairs of the town and the schools. At the recent election, a constitutional amendment was submitted to the voters of that part of the town lying in Dorchester providing for its annexation to Caroline county, and 68 voters out of the 72 living in the district voted for the annexation. This enlarges the borders of Caroline. The amount of property assessed in the territory annexed is valued at $80,000 and Caroline is to pay $600 a year to Dorchester, until the railroad bond debt is paid.

Public Business.

The County Commissioners were in session on Tuesday, and received the new piece of public road at Oxford, built by Cornelius O'Daly, commissioner Willis having examined it, and found it built according to contract.—Bills to the amount of $1684.53 were examined and passed.

The Orphans' Court was also in session, Judge Hammond being absent in Indiana.—Letters testamentary on the estate of Nancy Faulkner were granted to Silas A. Simpson. J. B. Fairbank, adm of Thomas Bridges, presented an inventory of the estate. An order of sale was granted, and the adm was directed to publish a notice to creditors to file claims. S. C. Dawson, guardian to S. E. Newnam, presented a supplementary account with his ward, and a final release for the balance due thereon.

Resignation of Joseph Graham, Esq.—Changes in the Officers of the Easton National Bank.

Joseph Graham, Esq., teller of the Easton National Bank, resigned his position some weeks ago, and on Monday, the 8th inst., his resignation was formally accepted by the President and directors. Mr. Graham resigned because of his advanced age. He will be 77 years old next January. He entered the bank as discount clerk on the 12th of September 1849, was subsequently promoted to book-keeper, and elected teller in 1854. He has been an officer of the bank over 31 years, and leaves with the sincere regrets of all the officers and directors, and the best wishes of this entire community. Mr. Graham has been prominent as a business man through his long and useful career. When a young man he taught school in St. Michaels, his native place. He afterwards embarked in merchandising.—When Joshua M. Faulkner was elected Sheriff in 1830, Mr. Graham became his deputy, and transacted the business for him. In 1832 Mr. Faulkner failed to bond, and Mr. Graham was appointed Sheriff for the balance of his term. In 1833 he was elected Sheriff of the county, and served 3 years. He was elected a county commissioner in 1839 for 3 years, and re-elected for a second term in 1842. In 1845 he engaged with the late Col. Wm. Hughlett, to assist him in the management of his large estate, where he remained until he was elected an officer of the bank. Truly it can be said of him, that he can look back upon a long life well spent, and we sincerely trust he may live many years to enjoy his honorable retirement.

The resignation of Mr. Graham has caused some changes to be made in the personal staff of the bank. Mr. L. Dodson, Sr., has been promoted to teller; Mr. Henry Hollyday to personal book-keeper; Mr. Charles H. Hughes to general book-kooper; and Mr. Robert M. Todd, from Messrs. Thompson & Kersey's store, has been elected discount clerk.

Annual Report of the Union Dorcas Society.

Again this Society appears before the public, presenting, on this occasion, its forty-sixth annual statement. Although these may have grown dull and wearisome to many, from the regularity of their appearance year after year, yet we feel confident there are others who welcome these stated reports, and who have a warm place in their hearts for this time honored society. During most of these forty-six years the Union Dorcas Society has stood alone as the one charitable organization of the town of Easton, and, being a union of all the denominations of the town, it possesses, on that account, certain advantages. Only a few, perhaps, remain in our midst, who remember it in its infancy; it has grown old amongst us; and, for the good it has done through these many years, let it still commend itself to your interest and support.

Within the year just closed many sick and needy persons have been visited and relieved, and the "widows and fatherless" have been the especial care of the society, as also the sick, who have always received assistance in proportion to their needs and the ability of the Society. We ask the continued assistance of the charitable public, that we may be able to continue our aid to the needy during the approaching winter. Many there are who will require it, and who will appeal to us as heretofore for it. We cannot turn a deaf ear to these, and see our fellow creatures suffer.—And surely, none who read these words would be willing that we should. We pray you, therefore, kind friends, withhold not your benefactions from us, but generously bestow them for the relief of Christ's poor. We sometimes need to be reminded of His own words, "The poor shall never cease out of the land;" and, as we have "freely received," so we must "freely give." And then there is a promise for us—"The Lord will strengthen us upon the bed of languishing. He will make all our bed in our sickness."

AMUSEMENTS FOR THE WINTER.

The Pinkney Platform Course of Attractions.

As announced a short time ago the Pinkney Literary Society has arranged for a first class course of entertainments for the amusement and instruction of our citizens during the present season. The following are the attractions:

Alfred J. Knight—Shakesperean costume impersonator and humorous character delineator, Tuesday evening, Nov. 23.

Versatile Guests Combination—Classical and Comical Character Creations Consistently Considered; the Combination also contains one of the foremost Crayon Sketch Artists of the country. Tuesday, Nov. 30.

Miss Ellen Wright—An attractive lady elocutionist and impersonator of historical characters, in costume. Tuesday Dec. 14.

Second Anniversary Pinkney Society—An original entertainment by local talent, consisting of orations, poems, recitations, etc., to conclude with an original burlesque entitled "Frantic for Fame; being the proceedings of the Junktown Literary and Debating Club," written by one of the Society members. Christmas Night.

Curti's Original Spanish Students Concert Co.—Consisting of ten young men, the rough musicians, who perform upon a variety of musical instruments, including the following: Mandolins, Guitars, Harpettas, Harps, etc. This combination produces music of the most exquisite description, and is identically that which gained for the Company the plaudits of the most select audiences throughout the greater portion of Europe.—Tuesday, Dec. 28.

William Mason Evans, A. M., "The Star of the Rostrum"—Lecturer. Subject—"Crochety People." The N. Y. Herald says of him: "The audience was closely critical, learned, wildly demonstrative and treated to an entertainment it has seldom been the privilege of New York to enjoy. His presence bears the impress of genius, his eyes the sparkle of vitality and vigorous intellect, and his features all the mobility and facial demonstration found in a delicate susceptibility to emotion, and a ready subordination to grand thoughts and burning periods. * * Mr. Evans has hardly been equa'led. The audience seemed amazed at the fertile imagination that inspired his magic tongue."—Tuesday, Jan. 11, '81.

From the above it will be seen that the Pinkneys propose to have only the best artists that could be secured. Their Platform Course should receive the hearty support of our citizens especially since they invest their earnings in books for their library. Course tickets $2.50 For sale at Stevens & Hayward's drug store.

The Masonic Fair.

The ladies were busily engaged at Music Hall yesterday morning, dressing the hall and tables for the Masonic Fair. It will be one of the handsomest fairs ever held in Easton, and none of our citizens, and none who visit court this week, should fail to attend. The hall is handsomely decorated with plants, evergreens, fancy designs in paper, flowers, chinese lanterns, &c., and the tables are gorgeous with beautiful needle work and fancy goods in great variety. The managers of the fair have received numerous handsome presents, to be sold or disposed of by raffle, among which we may mention a very handsome first-class rosewood upright Knabe piano, from the celebrated firm of Knabe & Co., Baltimore, worth $800. Sanders & Stayman, Baltimore, contribute two handsome Estey organs, worth respectively $290 and $390. Messrs. Sirmon & Co., Delmar, Delaware, contribute one of their fine organs, worth $120. A very handsome wolf robe, worth $25, has been received from Kennedy & Willing, Philadelphia. C. B. Day, also of Philadelphia, contributes a handsome lap blanket worth $25. Robert Lawson & Co., Baltimore, have donated a handsome saddle and bridle worth $20, and Alex. Dodd & Co., also of Baltimore, a large Saratoga trunk. Two dozen razor strops, worth $6 per dozen, have been received from Moritz & Kidder, of Baltimore. Allen & Co., of Philadelphia, send an Advance chilled plow, worth $15, and Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, contribute a fodder cutter, worth $15. A parlor stove, worth $15, has been donated by John Kern, Jr., & Co., Baltimore. J. A. Shannahan, of Wilmington, contributes an American sewing machine, worth $50. A New Home sewing machine, worth $50, has been contributed by J. H. Linthicum, of Easton. Shirley & Sons, Baltimore, contribute a very handsome china dining set of 132 pieces, worth $100. Capelle & Co., of Philadelphia, send a very handsome ivory handle carving knife and fork, worth $10. Keene & Haggerty, of Baltimore, contribute some handsomely painted tin chamber sets, worth $5 each. A very handsome assortment of baskets have been received from Haines & Small, of Baltimore. The ladies of Easton and vicinity have contributed a great variety of fancy goods and needle work. Valuable donations of confectionery, fruits, &c., have been received from dealers in Baltimore.

The traditional goat and greased pole are on exhibition, for the benefit of those wishing to take the first degree in Masonry. The ladies will serve dinners and suppers throughout the week, and will be glad to have a call from the court, the bar, the jury, witnesses, the public generally, and all who may feel disposed to aid them in making the fair a success. The Order has just erected a handsome Masonic Temple in Easton, which will be an ornament to the town, and the fair has been projected, to aid paying for it. The enterprise appeals to the liberality of our citizens, and of the many handsome and useful articles the ladies have for sale, we are quite sure they can be purchased at the fair as cheaply as anywhere else in Easton, or in the city. We hope to have the pleasure next week of recording that the fair has proved a grand success.

German Carp.

Mr. Fish Commissioner Hughlett requests us to state, that he has obtained a number of German carp, from Professor Baird, of the United States Fish Commission, and will be pleased to furnish all persons who have a pond, forty to the pond, free of all cost except the can, if application is made while he is dirtributing other fish. Those who have not a pond ready, he will be happy to furnish in the spring, provided they are not all distributed. He is decidedly of the opinion that the carp is the fish for this section, and those having ponds to raise them, will find them extremely profitable. As they are a vegetable fish, they can be fed entirely from the kitchen. They grow rapidly. Mr. Richard Hollyday, of Queen Anne's, has taken some out of his pond this fall, put in young last winter, that weighed over a pound. He thinks them in flavor equal to the taylor. Mr. Hughlett has the highest authority for saying, they can be raised per pound cheaper than pork, poultry or beef. He will be very much obliged to the Eastern Shore papers, if they will publish for the benefit of their readers, the substance of this article.

Slate Mantels.

For the handsomest and cheiapest slate and marble mantels made in Baltimore, go to Coyle & Brother, 359 West Pratt street. They have a secret in the manufacture of slate mantels not known to other workers in slate, which enables them to sell a handsomer article for less money than any other house. Their designs cannot fail to please. nov4-1y

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FALL AND WINTER, 1880.

J. J. JUMP & CO.

EASTON, MD.

For the past six weeks we have been diligently searching the markets and making purchases for the present Fall and Winter.

We pronounce our every department more thoroughly complete, better selected, and goods at better value for the price than ever before; and we pledge in every case to make our goods as low in price as in any city in the United States.

Our Ladies and Misses Dress Goods Department embraces the newest and latest effects in Silk, Wool and Mixed Fabrics, from desirable Low-priced Goods to expensive French Novelties. We call special attention to our large stock of

Black and Colored Silks,
Black and Colored Cashmeres,
Camel Hair and Suit Flannels, which by actual and frequent comparisons are pronounced at less than city prices, and invite comparison.

For Dress and Cloak Trimmings, we have a magnificent assortment of Black and Colored Silk Velvets, Satins, Damasses, Plaids, Skirting Strines, &c. Cord and Tassel, Spikes, Balls, Blackberry Jet and Jet Crochet Buttons, as well as the largest and handsomest line of Fancy Dress and Coat Buttons it has ever been our good fortune to exhibit.

Handsomely Trimmed Cloaks & Dolmans,

Beautiful Shawls, Ulster Cloths and Repellants.

Full Lines of New Hosiery, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Corsets, &c.

In fact every part of a Lady's or Child's wardrobe, (except bonnets and shoes) in great variety. Handsome designs and lowest prices.

Gentlemen's and Boys' Cloths and Cassimeres, and Ready Made Clothing is always a large and important feature in our business; and this season the styles are unusually handsome and at attractive prices.

Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs and Mats

in such beautiful designs as to please the most fastidious, and at such low prices as to make the heart of the housekeeper happy. In addition to our large stock of Carpets, we continue the practice instituted by us over a year ago, of keeping a large line of samples of Carpet just as they come from the loom. In this way we can show a stock equal to the large city carpet houses, and at less price. Come, and be convinced.

And now we ask your special attention to a few comments on the past and present: For over ten years we have catered to the wants of the people of this peninsula. From the smallest beginning we have become the owners and proprietors of our present handsome establishment. We have done this in the face of continued prophecies of our failure and ruin, and the evil effects such prophecies are sure to make. In spite of all this, the last year was the most prosperous and showed better results than any year of the past. There is always a cause for success. People will continue to go where they find what they want and where they get the best value for their money.

There has been some complaint at our constantly changing clerks, but as we turn out more merchants than all our competitors combined, we must have new clerks to fill the old places, and we get the very best we can find.

We respectfully ask your consideration and patronage.

THE IMPROVED

VICTOR

SHUTTLE SEWING MACHINE,

(1876 Patents)

Is the Cheapest Machine in the world.

IT IS EASY, SILENT, SELF-SETTING AND THREADING.

It has stop-motion, four wheel castors, its friction parts are of steel and compensating, its journals are cased.

I will sell you a machine with box top, extra leaf, two drawers, fancy paneled wood, or $25. If it don't suit, return in one month, and I will refund the money less freight. I refer to the editor of this paper. Now don't let any one lie you out of your common sense, but send for an illustrated descriptive circular. Why pay $60 or $70 for what you can buy for $25.
