Baltimore Grain Market.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 18.—Amount of grain in elevators: Wheat 2,547,346 bus.; corn 283,301 bus. Southern wheat is a shade lower, but a few cents higher than it was in the middle of the week. Good to prime Fultz $1.16a$1.18; Longberry $1.21a$1.22. The inquiry for corn is less active and the market dull, the quotations ranging from 50a53 cents. Oats 43 cents. Rye, strictly prime, $1.03.

—Second Anniversary Pinkney Literary Society Christmas night.

—The Easton Ledger is advertised to be sold at auction on the 28th inst.

—The new M. E. Church at Wye Mills, will be dedicated on Sunday, the 26th inst.—next Sunday.

—Sage in leaf and ground, pepper, spices, saltpetre, etc., for curing meats, at Stevens & Hayward's drug store. 14-4

—J. F. Bateman, Esq., of this place has been elected a corresponding member of the Maryland Historical Society.

—Fresh Florida Oranges, Lemons, Candy, Raisins, Nuts, etc., just received by Stevens & Hayward, Druggists and Apothecaries, nov16-4t

—You can buy a pair of skates at Shannahan & Weightson's from 75 cts up. First class sleigh baskets and runners at reduced prices.

—Mr. Wm. R. Martin has been elected a vestryman of St. Peter's parish, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Wm. M. Holloday, Esq.

—Don't fail to examine before leaving town, the handsome assortment of fancy goods, suitable for Christmas presents at Stevens & Hayward's drug store. 14-3

—If you want to see a lot of fun, attend the Pinkneys' Second Anniversary on Christmas night. The original play "Frantic For Fame" is brimful of humor.

—Shannahan & Wrightson have a handsome assortment of silverware in their show window, making one of the finest displays of Christmas goods in town.

—No one should have horses tied up in the stable with the Epizootic, when M. B. Robert's Horse Powders can be bought of any druggist for 25c. Guaranteed to cure.

—The contract for dredging out the river at Easton Point, has been awarded to The American Dredging Co., of Philadelphia, and the work will commence next Spring.

—John, my dear, said she tenderly, if you do not buy a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup immediately, I will go home to my mother. I can't stand this coughing any longer. He bought a bottle.

—One of the most sensible Christmas presents a lady can give her husband or son would be half a dozen of Jarrell, Nichols & Cox's Eighmie patent shirts. No shirt in the market to equal them.

—Were to buy a bargain in any kind of stoves.—Shannahan & Wrightson having on hand a large stock have determined to sell at very low figures and reduced their stock. Call and see them, it will pay.

—It is very discouraging to the industrious farmer's wife, as well as foolish to have her poultry to die from cholera or other disease, when she can buy of her druggist Roberts' Poultry Powder for 15 cents a package. And guaranteed to cure.

—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the Maryland Agency "Victor" Machine Company. They put the matter of the purchase of a machine in the right light, and we know them to be responsible for all they say. 11:2-4m —It is sad but true that many children have filled untimely graves, by the neglect of their mothers to have Sines' Syrup of Tar, Hoarhound and Wild Cherry on hand. Every thoughtful mother has a bottle this season of the year for immediate use.

—If you want to make your wife or friend a useful Christmas present, why not buy an Excelsior Cook Stove? If you have'nt one, you ought to have, as it will save both labor and fuel. They are the best. For sale by George W. Beck. Dover street. 21-2

—Those who expect to attend the entertainment of the Pinkneys on Christmas night should secure reserved seats at once, as there will be a large number present, and choice seats will be in demand. Tickets for sale at Stevens & Haywards; price 50 cents.

—Since Shannahan & Wrightson have put down the price of their buffalo robes, Scotch robes, bear and wolf robes, lap and horse blankets, they are having a big run on them. Persons needing any thing in that line should call early and secure a bargain.

—Stevens & Hayward are pleased to inform their patrons that they have secured a stock of "Pulmona," the celebrated medecine for coughs, throat and lung trouble that has been working such wonderful cures in other sections. It is worth a trial. Price 50c. nov2ow6m —Dr. J. N. Baird, of Sudlersville, Queen Anne's county, is visiting friends in Easton.—It is some five or six years since the Doctor retired from business and left Easton, and this is his first visit since. He looks as natural as life, and his many old friends here gladly welcome him.

—At the present time when there are so many worthless liniments in the market, it would be well to inquire which is the best—this will be found in M. B. Roberts' celebrated Embrocation. It is a panacea for all ailments that require rubbing either on man or beast.—For sale by all druggists.

—Decorated plates and jewelry cases now so much the fashion, with hundreds of other beautiful things for Christmas presents, genuine meerschaum pipes, etc., for sale by Stevens & Hayward, druggists. N. B'—Prescriptions carefully compounded at any hour of the day or night. 14-8 —Christmas is next Saturday. The festival is one of joy, especially to the young folks, who are doubtless looking forward to it with great expectations. We hope none will be disappointed, and in tendering the compliments of the season, we wish our readers all a merry Christmas and a happy new year.

—McGaw & Co. have had all the work they could do since they opened their machine here on Monday week, and the cry is, still the beds and mattresses continue to come. They are doing splendid work, and all their customers express themselves satisfied. You must give them an order at once, if you want your beds purified and made comfortable, as their stay in Easton will be limited.

—Mrs. G. W. W. Haddaway has just received and has on exhibition one of the largest and most complete stocks of Christmas goods ever opened in this market. Confectionery in all its branches, American, French and German. Foreign fruits, such as oranges, bananas, figs, dates, raisins, currants. etc. Toys of all classes from the finest to the common, embracing all the latest novelties. 2t

—Patrick Ryan, blacksmith, adjoining the gas house, in Easton, informs his customers and the public, that he has secured the services of a first class horse shoer from the city of Baltimore, as an assistant, and is prepared to accommodate all with first class work, at satisfactory prices. He returns thanks for past patronage, and hopes, by continuing to do first class work, to merit a continuance of the same. 2

—We regret to learn the death of Mr. Jas. T. Conner. He died at Cambridge last Friday night. Mr. Conner was for many years clerk on the Highland Light, of the Maryland S. B Company, but resigned about two years ago, to engage as a traveling salesman for Hurst, Miller & Co., of Baltimore. He was on a business trip, when he was taken with a congestive chill and died very suddenly, lamented by a host of friends on the Eastern Shore and in Baltimore.

—A rare chance is offered the readers of this paper to buy Christmas goods of all descriptions, cheaper than the cheapest. A splendid line of fresh groceries, hominy beans, peas, sweet potatoes, and Irish potatoes. Boots and shoes selling at cost at J. T. Robinson's.

—Attention is directed to the public sale of "Cedar Grove" farm, by Charles E. Shanahan, Esq., assignee, on the 11th of January, 1881, which will be found in today's STAR. This farm is located on the Trappe road, a few miles from Easton, and is one of the best locations in the county; a most desirable farm in every respect.

—Mr. Patchett, on Dover street, has for sale some very fine and beautiful steel engravings, which are just in season for the holidays. If you want to make a handsome Christmas present, buy one and have it nicely framed, and it will be as appropriate as anything you can select, and will be for years a constant source of pleasure.

—"Mamma, is the old hen going to be sent away for the summer?" "No, Charley—but why do you ask?" "Well, I heard papa tell the new hired girl they would have a fine time when he sent the old hen away for the summer." Mamma put little Charlie to bed, after giving him a dose of Sines' Wild Cherry and Hoarhound for his cold, telling him he would be well in the morning; and then she "laid" for papa—and only for his having a bottle of Robert's Embrocation in the house, might have been a cripple for life.

For Sale.

$5,000 worth of new property, clear of any incumbrance, situated in a thriving town on the Delaware Railroad, will be sold on terms to suit, or exchanged for land in this county. Address HUSBAND & BRO.

Slate Mantels.

For the handsomest and cheapest slate and marble mantels made in Baltimore, go to Coyle & Brother, 359 West Pratt street. They have a secret in the manufacture of slate mantels not known to other workers in slate, which enables them to sell a handsomer article for less money than any other house. Their designs cannot fail to please. nov4-1y is offered the readers of this paper to buy clothing in all grades for men, boys, and children at prices that will be satisfactory. The house of C. N. Oehm & Son, 230 W. Pratt st., extending through to 55 Hanover st., is well known in this community for fair dealing, a house that will give you value for your money. They offer new fashionably cut clothes. They carry over no old stock, and to accomplish this they have marked down their whole line, therefore you may expect bargains when you call. Don't put off buying; remember, the choicest styles sell first.

A Rare Chance

New Books.

We have received of Mr. John B. Piet, publisher and book seller, No. 174 Baltimore street, Baltimore, a copy of Father Abram J. Ryan's poems, Patriotic, Religious, and Miscellaneous, just issued from the press. Father Ryan is one of the sweetest of American singers, and for a long time his poems have been going the rounds of the newspaper press, delighting all lovers of genuine poetry. His collected poems will be welcomed by thousands of readers. Mr. Piet has brought them out in a most attractive style, and they are just in time for the holiday season. Our book dealers should have them on their shelves.

We have also received from the same publisher, issued in the same handsome style, the Adventures of a Donkey, from the French, of Mme La Comtesse De Segur, and translated by "P. S.," a graduate of St. Joseph's, Emmittsburg, Md. The book is a series of clever stories, intended for the amusement of youths; an autobiography, purporting to have been written by "Cadichon," a donkey endowed with human intelligence, understanding everything said within his hearing, and describing his various owners, good and bad, and the conversations and plays of the children that had him as a pet his adventures; at fairs and races; his wicked tricks, and his compunctions of conscience for having been bad. It is a book of excellent moral tone, that cannot fail to amuse and delight children.

The Christmas Night Entertainment.

The Second Anniversary of the Pinkney Literary Society which has been announced for Christmas night, gives promise of being one of the most enjoyable affairs ever gotten up by this organization. The programme embraces orations, poems. recitations, and an original play written for the occasion by a member of the Society, entitled "Frantic For Fame; being the Proceedings of the Junktown Literary and Debating Club." The Anniversary celebrated by the Pinkneys last year is still favorably remembered, and we are sure the second one to be given on Christmas night will be not a whit behind its predecessor.

Public Business.

In the Orphan's Court on Tuesday, E. L. F. Hardcastle, executor of Alcade Pratt, passed his final account of administration, together with a distribution of the estate. Mary A. Cooper, adm'r of George R. Cooper, presented an additional account of sale, an account of dividends, and his final account of administration and an inventory of the real estate. The last will and testament of Wm. M. Hollyday was admitted to probate, naming Mrs. Louisa P. Hollyday his executrix. D. C Trimble and John C. Henry were appointed to appraise the estate. Rebecca Cooper, guardian to James E., Robert K., and Addie J. Cooper, presented her guardian bond which was approved. The guardian passed her first account with each of her wards. James M. Warner, guardian to Bennett T. Rust, presented his final account and release.

The County Commissioners on Tuesday were engaged auditing accounts. Bills to the am't of $830.93 were passed and paid.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

FALL AND WINTER, 1880.

J. J. JUMP & CO.
EASTON, MD.

For the past six weeks we have been diligently searching the markets and making purchases for the present Fall and Winter.

We pronounce our every deparment more thoroughly complete, better selected, and goods at better value for the price than ever before; and we pledge in every case to make our goods as low in price as in any city in the United States.

Our Ladies and Misses Dress Good Department embraces the newest and latest effects in Silk, Wool and Mixed Fabrics, from desirable Low priced Goods to expensive French Novelties. We call special attention to our large stock of Black and Colored Silks,
Black and Colored Cashmeres,
Camel Hair and Salt Flannels, which by actual and frequent comparisons are pronounced at less than city prices, and invite comparison.

For Dress and Cloak Trimmings, we have a magnificent assortment of Black and Colored Silk Velvets, Satins, Damasses, Plaids, Skirting Strines. &c. Cord and Tassel, Spikes, Balts, Blackberry Jet and Jet Crochet Buttons, as well as the largest and handsomest line of Fancy Dress and Coat Buttons it has ever been our good fortune to exhibit.

Handsomely Trimmed Cloaks & Dolmans,
Beautiful Shawls, Ulster Cloths and Repellants.

Full Lines of New Hosiery, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Corsets, &c.
In fact every part of a Lady's or Child's wardrobe, (except bonnets and shoes) in great variety. Handsome designs and lowest prices.

Gentlemen's and Boys' Cloths and Cassimeres, and Ready Made Clothing is always a large and important feature in our business; and this season the styles are unusually handsome and at attractive prices.

Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs and Mats
in such beautiful designs as to please the most fastidious, and at such low prices as to make the heart of the housekeeper happy. In addition to our large stock of carpets, we continue the practice instituted by us over a year ago, of keeping a large line of samples of Carpet just as they come from the loom. In this way we can show a stock equal to the large city carpet houses, and at less price. Come, and be convinced.

And now we ask your special attention to a few comments on the past and present: For over ten years we have catered to the wants of the people of this peninsula. From the smallest beginning we have become the owners and proprietors of our present handsome establishment. We have done this in the face of continued prophecies of our failure and ruin, and the evil effects such prophecies are sure to make. In spite of all this, the last year was the most prosperous and showed better results than any year of the past. There is always a cause for success. People will continue to go where they find what they want and where they get the best value for their money.

There has been some complaint at our constantly changing clerks, but as we turn out more merchants than all our competitors combined, we must have new clerks to fill the old places, and we get the very best we can find.

We respectfully ask your consideration and patronage.

To the Farmers.

THE TALBOT COUNTY PAPER MILLS COMPANY will now contract for WHEAT STRAW, to be delivered at a convenient time hereafter. A little more than a ton to the acre, and yielding, will insure so much better income to enable farmers to spare at least half of their straw, the use of it for years, and nearly pay for their ploughing. Apply to

R. R. DIXON,
President. Treasurer.
