EASTON STAR.

TUESDAY, Jan. 4th 1881.

LOCAL RECORD.

Baltimore Grain Market.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 1.—Amount of grain in elevators: Wheat 2,000,568 bus.; corn 427,654 bus. The stock of southern wheat received is small, owing to the ice in the rivers. Good to prime Fultz is quoted at $1.06@$1.15; prime longberry $1.15@1.20. Corn by steamboat 45@47c.; choice lots are quoted at 49@50c. Oats 40c. Rye $1.00.

—It thawed considerably yesterday, the first let up of the cold wave we have had for a week.

—The Town Commissioners will meet at their office in the Masonic Temple on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

—There have been no steamboats here since last Wednesday night, when the Pratt made her last trip from Easton Point.

—Messrs Thomas & Bateman have removed their law office to the first floor on the right side of the hall, in the new Masonic Temple.

—The ice at Easton Point on Friday morning, after the first two nights of the freeze, was strong enough to bear a horse and wagon.

—Mr. James C. Norris took charge of the Brick hotel on Wednesday. Mr. Eddie, the late proprietor, has gone to Seaford, Delaware.

—We have never seen a finer sleighing snow than the one we had here last week; but it was cold sleighing, with the mercury down to zero.

—Mary Skinner, a colored woman, 104 years of age, died in Easton on Sunday week. Her family says she had eat nothing for six weeks before death.

—There was the biggest white frost yesterday morning ever seen in these parts. The sleet on the trees was perfectly beautiful, and sparkled like diamonds.

—We had another heavy snow storm here on Wednesday. It commenced to snow early in the morning, and continued to snow all day. Two inches more snow fell on Sunday.

—The county commissioners were in session on Tuesday, engaged in auditing claims, $446.-98 of which were passed and paid. Supervisor George W. C. Leonard reported the repairs on upper Lloyd's branch bridge completed.

—We understand that Mr. George E. Haddaway, who has just purchased the Ledger, will shortly move to Easton. We cordially welcome him into the editorial fraternity here, and hope he may make the paper a paying institution.

—The Maryland Association for Talbot county for the protection of game and fish, appeal to farmers to feed the partridges on their farms and prevent their starving to death during the snow. A good and sensible recommendation.

—There were a great many raffles in Easton during the holidays. Guns, pistols, rifles, robes, cigars, toilet sets, etc. were among the things disposed of by raffle. The winning throws averaged from 39 to 45. A 45 throw was pretty sure to win.

—We commence this morning the publication of a History of Freemasonry in Talbot county, by Dr. Samuel A. Harrison. The subject will not only interest Masons, but must be welcome to all who take an interest in our county's annals.

—At a regular communication of Coats Lodge, A. F. & A. M., the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing term: David C. Avery, W. M.; J. F. Bateman, S. W.; Joseph H. White, J. W.; Thomas C. Nicols, Secretary; R. H. T. Councell, Treasurer.

—Ex-sheriff Griffin exhibited on the street on Thursday a splendid pair of Hereford beaves, which he had just bought of Mr. Chas. Rathell, from his Kingston farm. Mr. Griffin had part of the beef on his block in the Easton Market on Saturday and will have more of the same kind to-day.

—Saved a Doctor's bill.—Geo. M. Walter, Messenger of the Adams Express Co., Baltimore, Md., says: "Having used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for the past ten years in my family, I wish to say that I consider it the best Cough Syrup I ever used. It has cured my children of Croup several times and saved me many a doctor's bill.

—Miller Lodge, No. 18, I. O. O. F., has elected the following officers for the ensuing term: J. A. Johnson, Jr., N. G.; Charles E. Nicols, V. G.; Peter Stevens, Secretary; A. W. Fountain, Treasurer; Joseph H. White, Marshal; J. B. Bennett, Chaplain; Joseph A. Vansant, Hall Keeper; James H. Linthicum, Representative to the Grand Lodge.

—The Maryland Editorial Association will give a banquet at the Rennart House, in Baltimore, on the evening of the 5th of January, to Hon. George Colton, in honor of his safe return from Europe. We are apprehensive that the inclemency of the season will prevent the attendance of some country editors, who would like to be present and pay their respects to Mr. Colton.

—The New York Observer is an interesting and valuable family paper. We can recommend it to our readers, who wish to take a New York paper, as pure and safe. The publishers have this year issued a volume of Irenæus letters, with a fine portrait of the author, which they offer to old subscribers. Anyone can get the terms by sending to New York Observer, New York.

—There is a very strong feeling in town against building the new jail on the public square; if another convenient location can be obtained; and as the commissioners are going to build a jail to last a hundred years, at least, it would be well for them to heed the wish of Eastonians in the matter. There will be little or no difference in the expense, as it will cost about as much to provide quarters for the Sheriff and prisoners while the new jail is building as it would to buy a lot for the new structure.

—Guardian Council, No. 510, Royal Arcanum, has elected the following officers: Regent, Wm. R. Martin; Vice Regent, Wm. Redlie; Orator, Rev. Robert Wilson; Past Regent, D. C. Avery; Secretary, S. E. Whitman; Collector, John C. Henry; Treasurer, R. F. Walker; Chaplain, C. E. Shanahan; Guide, John C. Mead; Warden, Wm. A. Pratt; Sentinel, Wm. J. Biery; Trustees, Wm. P. Powell, Edwin J. Stevens and E. H. Roe; Representative to Grand Council, Rev. R. Wilson; Alternate, D. C. Avery.

—"Justice Sparks recently imposed a fine of $100 on a dredger arrested by Capt. Clements for dredging at night. The State's attorney has taken an appeal, for the purpose of testing the jurisdiction of the justices and their right to impose a fine for a violation of that section of the oyster law."

We copy the above from the Comet. We understand from Mr. Bateman, the State's attorney, that the appeal was taken for an altogether different purpose than that mentioned in the Comet's article.

—Blackwood's Magazine for December has been received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, N. Y. It is an unusually interesting number. This house also publishes The London Quarterly Review, The Edinburg Review, The Westminster Review, and The British Quarterly Review. Each publication $4 a year, or all four for $15, postage prepaid. The publishers are offering strong inducements now for new subscribers, giving without extra charge all the numbers of 1880 as premiums if application is made direct to them; that is, for $15 cash, subscribers may obtain all the numbers of all these great periodicals for 1880 and 1881.

—In the northern towns, where they have heavy snow falls in winter, the corporations keep on hand snow plows, to clean the side walks of snow as soon as it falls. All that is necessary to be done, is to hitch a horse to the snow plow and go up and down on the side walks, to clear a track wide enough for two people to walk abreast. We understand the cost of a snow plow is comparatively trifling. Would it not be well for the commissioners of Easton to purchase a snow plow, and have the side walks cleared of snow after a storm? It would be a great comfort to pedestrians, and certainly much better than to have the side walks blocked with snow for weeks together.

[COMMUNICATED.]

The congregation worshipping in Trinity Chapel is much disappointed in not being able to retain the services of the Rev. Dr. Malcom who has lately come to assist the Bishop.

This gentleman, before fairly entering on his work in Easton, has been offered the position of Secretary of the Church Building Association, having its headquarters in New York, a position of responsibility and usefulness.

Under the circumstances the Bishop of this Diocese has felt himself bound to waive personal wish and convenience and to place no obstacle in the way of an arrangement recommended by several considerations. H. C. L.

Easton, Dec. 28th, 1880.

The Home Journal.

We invite attention to the prospectus of the Home Journal for 1881, which will be found in this morning's paper. It is the leading Society paper in the United States, and in all respects a first class family journal.

The Baltimore Gazette.

The prospectus for 1881 of the Baltimore Daily and Weekly Gazette will be found in to-day's STAR. The paper is democratic in politics, and conducted in a manner to commend it not only to democrats but to the public generally. Subscribe with the beginning of the year.

Public Business.

The Orphan's Court met on Tuesday, the 28th of Dec. Henry P. Hopkins, admr of Samuel Scott, presented an account of interest and distribution and passed his final account of administration. James H. Willis was appointed guardian to Mary S. Beall. After passing sundry creditors' bills the Court adjourned.

Cold Weather.

We have no recollection of ever having experienced as cold weather here as we had last week. On Thursday morning the thermometer registered 4 degrees below zero; on Friday morning it was 11 degrees below; and on Saturday morning it was 12 degrees below. The air was very dry, and the cold was not so unpleasant as it is sometimes when the temperature is higher with a damp atmosphere.

The Ice Blockade.

The Chesapeake bay is frozen over below Annapolis, but the Baltimore city ice boats Marylander and Latrobe keep a track open, so that steamers can come and go. A great many vessels are frozen in the ice in various parts of the bay. The Choptank is frozen over as far down as Sharp's Island. On Friday the Light House keeper at Benoni's Point Light walked ashore to Oxford. Miles and Wye rivers and the Eastern bay are also frozen over, and navigation to this Shore is at an end until there is a thaw.

Press Items.

The Easton Ledger was sold at auction on Tuesday, and bought by George E. Haddaway, Esq., of the St. Michaels Comet for $2,410.

William W. Busteed, Esq., of the Centreville Observer, was in Easton last Tuesday, looking remarkably well.

Hon. George Colton, Editor of the Maryland Republican, has returned from his European tour in excellent health and spirits. His letters to the Baltimorean while abroad were exceedingly interesting notes of foreign travel.

Wm. H. Councell, Esq., has associated with him his two sons, Messrs Harry G. and William F. Councell, in the publication of the Gazette. The firm will hereafter be W. H. councell & Sons.

The New-Year's "St. Nicholas."

The January issue of St. Nicholas, "the New Year's number," was published on Tuesday, December 28th, giving the young people time to forget the glories of "the wonderful Christmas number." Among the contents are several capital things which were crowded out of December. "Bright Eyes," the young Indian girl, makes her first contribution to literature in a charming story of Indian child-life. There is an account of "The Children's Fan Brigade," another of the novel entertainments for children's festivals which have been suggested in the pages of St. Nicholas; "Every Boy His Own Ice-Boat," describing a splendid new sport for all skaters; the first of Mrs. Clara Erskine Clement's "Stories of Art and Artists," which are to be one of the special features of St. Nicholas during the coming year; one of Frank R. Stockton's funniest fairy stories, a poem by H. H. Boyesen, pictures grave and gay, continuations of the serials, etc., etc. The issue rivals the Christmas number in good things.

The Cars Blockaded by the Snow.

The mail train on the Chesapeake & Delaware Railway, which starts from Clayton about noon, had a hard time to reach Easton during the snow storm on Wednesday. The drifting snow had filled the cuts on the road, and delayed the arrival of the train here until 3 o'clock Friday morning. It was due here at 2 p. m. on Wednesday. On Thursday morning, the road boss, Mr. Baygard, went up the road with a large force, but the snow drifts were so heavy that, after working hard all day, with the thermometer down to zero, a number of the men getting frost bitten, the train only reached Henderson, where it had to remain, out of wood and water. The locomotive of the freight train got thrown off the track at Henderson, going up on Wednesday and there it had to remain, frozen up until Saturday, when it was placed again on the track and started on its course. We had no Northern mail here of course on Wednesday and Thursday. Late Friday evening a heavy locomotive from Wilmington was sent down from Clayton to clear the road and relieve the snowed up mail train, which was still at Henderson. It had hard work to clear the track, but it did it, and got the mail train safely to Clayton Friday night. As soon as it got the mails and passengers on board, the cars started for Easton, and reached here at 1 o'clock Saturday morning. This is the worst snow blockade ever experienced on our road.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

—No one should have horses tied up in the stable with the Epizootic, when M. B. Robert's Horse Powders can be bought of any druggist for 25c. Guaranteed to cure.

—Mrs. Ewing, whose card we noticed some time since, is now ready at her residence to receive pupils for instruction in Vocal and Instrumental Music; either in classes or in private lessons, for adults or children. 28-3

—J. T. Robinson has the best boot for $2 per pair you ever saw, also a good shoe at $1.-25 per pair. A splendid apple at 35cts per peck, also dry goods and groceries in variety. Don't fail to call and see him before leaving town.

—It is very discouraging to the industrious farmer's wife, as well as foolish to have her poultry to die from cholera or other disease, when she can buy of her druggist Roberts' Poultry Powder for 15 cents a package. And guaranteed to cure.

—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the Maryland Agency "Victor" Machine Company. They put the matter of the purchase of a machine in the right light, and we know them to be responsible for all they say. 11:2-4m

—It is sad but true that many children have filled untimely graves, by the neglect of their mothers to have Sines' Syrup of Tar, Hoarhound and Wild Cherry on hand. Every thoughtful mother has a bottle this season of the year for immediate use.

—Stevens & Hayward are pleased to inform their patrons that they have secured a stock of "Pulmona," the celebrated medecine for coughs, throat and lung trouble that has been working such wonderful cures in other sections. It is worth a trial. Price 50c. nov2eow6m

—At the present time when there are so many worthless liniments in the market, it would be well to inquire which is the best—this will be found in M. B. Roberts' celebrated Embrocation. It is a panacea for all ailments that require rubbing either on man or beast.—For sale by all druggists.

—"Mamma, is the old hen going to be sent away for the summer?" "No, Charley—but why do you ask?" "Well, I heard papa tell the new hired girl they would have a fine time when he sent the old hen away for the summer." Mamma put little Charlie to bed, after giving him a dose of Sines' Wild Cherry and Hoarhound for his cold, telling him he would be well in the morning; and then she "laid" for papa—and only for his having a bottle of Robert's Embrocation in the house, might have been a cripple for life.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Maryland Agricultural Society for the Eastern Shore, held at Elkton-borough, the residence of Col. F. Carroll Goldsborough, on Thursday, the 23rd ult., the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased an All-Wise Providence to remove from our board, an old, well beloved and esteemed member, Wm. M. Holloday, we deem it proper that a due notice of his death be entered on our minutes; therefore,

Resolved, That in the death of Mr. Holloday this board has lost one of its oldest, most active, useful, and intelligent members, whose devotion to agriculture was illustrated by his unflagging zeal and industry as a farmer. An upright, reliable and good man, in every relation of life, he was endeared to us all by his consistent, amiable, genial and gentlemanly intercourse, during a membership of 23 years, and his memory will always be cherished by his surviving fellow members.

Resolved, that these proceedings be published in the county papers, and a copy thereof sent to his bereaved family.

EDMD. L. F. HARDCASTLE,
Secretary.

Literary Notes.

Scribner's Monthly is about to do a thing perhaps without precedent in our magazines, namely, reprint a serial story which has already run through six numbers of another American magazine.

The serial of Mrs. Burnett "A Fair Barbarian," which is announced for the "Midwinter Number," is said to be altogether the brightest and most amusing this popular author has ever written.

It will occupy only two or three numbers of Scribner's, the first installment covering about twenty-three pages. It has been printed already in six numbers of another magazine, with a large circulation, but with an entirely different circle of readers.

There is at least one recent Parisian precedent for such a course as Scribner has adopted. A novel by a popular French writer, written the last year or two, appeared in a prominent daily paper as a serial. After this it came out in book form, and when it had reached a sale of some forty or fifty thousand, one fine morning this very novel was announced far and wide as the leading serial of a daily newspaper, Le Petit Journal, which, as every one knows who has read its gigantic sign on the sides of the seven-story Paris houses, boasts the unequaled circulation of 650,000 copies daily.

Mrs. Burnett has revised her story for its re-appearance in Scribner, but has made no material change in it.

Marriages.

ROSS—ROSS.—On the 29th ult., in Easton M. E. Church, by Rev. E. P. Aldred, Leonidas Scott Ross to Mary Frances Ross, both of this county.

DAILY AND WEEKLY.

The attention of the public is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound doctrines should command the earnest support of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution. Anxious to furnish—not only to political friends but also to the general reader of all classes and political complexions—a first-class journal, the Publisher now offers one not excelled in point of excellence by any other newspaper, and unhesitatingly challenges comparison with the best and most successful dailies published in the Union.

THE GAZETTE—Daily and Weekly—will be the firm and consistent advocate of Democratic principles; it will be independent in all things and neutral in nothing; it will continue to be the bold and fearless defender of the Union, the Constitution and the Laws; and it will make unceasing and unyielding warfare upon all forms of Wrong, Abuse, and Venality that show themselves among the people or in the administration of the General, State or Municipal Governments.

The Home and Family Circle will not be forgotten. As often as practicable interesting miscellaneous matter will be published. Nothing will be found in its columns that should be excluded from any reader's notice. It will be essentially a Home and Family Paper, as well as a political journal. In fact, every department will be so conducted as to give entire satisfaction and present the appearance of a live, wide-awake, and go-a-head journal.

Particular attention is directed to the great improvements that have been made in THE WEEKLY GAZETTE. It is now one of the cheapest and most attractive publications in the world. Each number is filled with carefully selected poetry, stories, news, editorial criticisms, and all kinds of choice reading for all classes of readers.
