The Grand Lodge of Maryland.

After the funeral service the brethren and [illegible] addressed in a sermon by the Reverend Timothy Clowes, of Chestertown, which we consider one of the [illegible] the order [illegible] the service the procession moved to the burial ground accompanied by solemn music by Mr. Roundtrees' excellent band, that had been [illegible] on this occasion. The remains of Dr. Coats were interred to the west adjoining the monument, with grand masonic honors, and after a prayer to the throne of grace the Worshipful Master of Coats Lodge, Brother William Hayward, Jr., delivered [illegible] on the occasion, in which he introduced a slight view of the cause of the erection of the monument to the deceased, passed a handsome eulogium on his character as a man, a mason and a patriot." The monument was erected in the grave yard of the Protestant Episcopal church. It was designed and executed by William Steward, Esq., of Baltimore, then the Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maryland. It is a simple obelisk of marble upon a base, about twelve feet high, and bears this inscription:

To the memory of
Doctor John Coats
First Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Maryland,

This monument is erected by his brethren of Coats Lodge,
No. 76, A. L. 5828.‡

It may be well enough to say that Coats Lodge in 1825 resolved to contribute to the fund for the erection of a monument to General Washington, which was then contemplated by the Grand Lodges of the whole Union.

At or about this time Masonry in Talbot seems to have reached its highest prosperity, and thereafter gave symptoms of decline. This decadence may be traced to several causes. One of these was the admission to the lodge of many members who were unworthy and the consequent withdrawal of others, who laid great stress on character to the society. Another cause was the introduction of party politics, members having been admitted, or applicants refused, upon purely political grounds, by which many were made to feel who had been zealous masons. But the most potent cause, also political in its nature, was one which affected the order generally throughout the country. This was the rise of what soon became a strong party in some of the northern states, whose fundamental principle was opposition to Freemasonry and all secret societies. The story of the abduction of Morgan in 1826 is well known to all, and those acquainted with the political history of this country need not be told of the Anti-Masonic party, which in the year 1832 nominated the Hon. William Wirt, a native and, at that time, a citizen of Maryland, as a candidate for the Presidency. This party had a short and a narrow life, as well it might have, with such a slight foundation. Although in this state the Anti-Masons had little strength, the discussions which originated in a political campaign upon the wisdom of tolerating secret associations in a republican government, and of electing to public place men who were united with such associations and bound by secret oaths were sufficient to render a hostile feeling to the order, or at least a jealousy of it, which soon made itself felt in a decline of its popularity and prosperity. The lodge in Talbot was affected, as all others by these depressing influences, and after languishing for a few years it finally concluded to suspend its work and to surrender its charter. The last regular meeting of Coats Lodge, No. 76, was held on St. John the Evangelist's day, December 27, 1831. Any meetings thereafter being informal and for the sake, only, of auditing accounts. Its dues and debts being all discharged, the lodge became extinct.

One of the last acts of the Lodge of a benevolent character was the appropriation of money from its common fund and the collection of other money, by private subscription of its members, for the benefit of the sufferers by a disastrous fire that had occurred in the town of Fayetteville, North Carolina, in the year 1831—a very becoming act for an expiring organization.

The following are the names of the persons who acted as Worshipful Masters of Coats' Lodge, No. 76 in the years affixed. Dr. Tristram Thomas, 1823, 1824, 1825, 1829. Hon. John Leeds, [illegible] Hon. William Hayward, Jr., 1827. George W. Nabb, Esquire, 1828. James Benny, 1829, 1830, 1831. John Wright, [illegible]

[TO BE CONTINUED NEXT WEEK.]

‡ Those who said at the time that they were not the remains of Dr. Coats, but of some poor negro, which were thus honored, said so rather in jest than seriously. There is no doubt the bones of the man whose name is inscribed on the monument lie at its foot. It would be a pious pilgrimage for some of the masons to go to this monument and remove the lichen and moss which have been accumulating more than fifty years.

A young man with an umbrella overtook an unprotected lady acquaintance in a rain storm, and, expressing his delight over her, quoted the [illegible] as her rainbow. "Oh!" exclaimed the lady, taking his arm, "you wish me to be your rain dear." The couple [illegible] single umbrella, [illegible] as one.

THE BALTIMORE GAZETTE
DAILY AND WEEKLY.

The attention of the public is called to the Daily and Weekly issues of this widely circulated journal. The dissemination of sound doctrines should command the earnest support of every true friend of the Union and the Constitution, anxious to furnish—not [illegible] but [illegible] of all classes and political complexions—a first-class journal, the Publisher now offers one not inferior to any in excellence by any other newspaper, and unhesitatingly challenges comparison with the best and most successful dailies published in the Union.

THE GAZETTE—Daily and Weekly—will be the firm and consistent advocate of Democratic principles; it will be independent; [illegible] the Constitution and the Laws; and it will make unceasing and unyielding warfare upon all forms of Wrong, Abuse, and Venality that shall show themselves among the people or in the [illegible] Municipal Governments.

The Home and Family Circle will not be forgotten. Nothing as [illegible] miscellaneous matter will be published. Nothing will be found in its columns that will be offensive to the most fastidious reader. It will be essentially a Home and Family Paper, [illegible] as a political journal, in each [illegible] department. [illegible] so conducted as to give entire satisfaction and present the appearance of a live, wide-awake, and go-a-head journal.

Particular attention is directed to the great improvements that have been made in THE WEEKLY GAZETTE. It is now one of the cheapest and most attractive publications in the world. Each number is filled with carefully selected poetry, stories, news, editorial criticisms, and all kinds of choice reading for all classes of readers.

TERMS OF THE DAILY.—One copy, one year, in advance, $6; six months, $3; three months, $1.50; for any less period at the rate of 50 cents per month. Postage prepaid at this office.

TERMS OF THE WEEKLY.—One copy, one year, in advance, $1. Postage prepaid at this office. Special rates to clubs.

BRICK AND TILE.

Salmon Brick, Arch Brick
Red Brick, Paving Brick,
Well Brick, Pressed
Brick, and
from 2 to 7 inches vent, at all prices, from $12 to $75 per thousand.

We are prepared to deliver bricks any part of Talbot county or anywhere on the water or or railroad out of the county, at 20 per cent. BELOW OLD PRICES, for the cash. We have a heavy stock on hand, of splendid quality, and are determined to command the the brick trade of this section, if superior bricks and LOW PRICES will do it.

Our stock of Tile is very heavy, and we sell it very low for cash; but are prepared to enter into arrangements with farmers, who may want to put in tile, and who may not have the cash, to give them SIX or NINE months credit. The tile ought to go in, and the springy land be made productive, and we are willing to help those who are short of money.

We invite a call from all those in want of either brick or Tile.

From her long experience in the business, she flatters herself that she knows how to select a stock to meet the demands of the public. When you visit Easton, call and see her. You need only to see her stock to be induced to purchase.

The Taxes for 1880.

TAX-PAYERS are notified that the tax accounts for 1880 will be ready on Tuesday, August 17th

and on and after that date the collector will be prepared to receive the taxes, and will allow the following discounts on both State and county taxes, WHEN PAID IN CASH.

On August Payments	5 per cent
On September Payments	4 "
On October Payments	3 "

Special Notice.

The attention of tax-payers is especially called to the provision of the new Code of Public General Laws, which says, emphatically, that the collector shall collect and pay over the taxes within six months after receiving the books, and in the event of his failure to do so, he shall be liable to prosecution and severe punishment.

This means that the collector, having received the tax books on the 3d of August, 1880, is obliged by law, by his oath of office and by the bond he has given for the faithful performance of his duty according to law, "to collect and pay over the taxes within six months," that is by the third day of February, 1881.

The collector has no discretion in the matter. Having accepted the office, he is bound to execute its duties in accordance with law, and he will therefore be obliged to collect by the summary process of distress or execution of all taxes that are unpaid on the third day of February, 1881, and notice is hereby given that all taxes bills for 1880 in arrears on the third day of February, 1881, will be collected at once by legal process.

Tax-payers should therefore save costs by at once complying with the requirements of law as to pay their taxes for 1880 before February 3d, 1881, and thereby save costs, trouble and much unpleasantness.

Collector.

I have been using John Lucas & Co.'s Celebrated Enameled Ready-Mixed Paint, very extensively for the last two years and have tested it very thoroughly, and after using from eight hundred to one thousand gallons in 1879 alone, I have no hesitation in pronouncing it the best paint in the market. The following qualities make it superior to any I have ever used:

1st. It has no water in it, and can therefore be used in the coldest as well as the warmest weather.

2d. Two coats of this paint will give as much satisfaction as most other paints with three coats.

3d. One of its most desirable qualities is its uniform thickness; it is not so thin in warm weather as to be fit only for painting, nor so thick in cold weather as to not spread easily and evenly.

I have the exclusive sale of it in this county.

I have obtained the signatures of the following persons upon whose houses I have used this paint during the years 1877-78-79 (all of these houses were new and most of them finished with only two coats) and they recommend it as entirely satisfactory in solidity, brightness and durability.

NOT DANGEROUS

The "New Process" (?) known to Dentist (who has been in practice over six months), as Dental Applicator, was introduced in this county by T. J. Smithers in 1878.

Articles invented by Traveling Dentists are not generally used by other dentists, nor by themselves except on paper, the only place where some dentists operate skillfully.

Skilful dentists never have to travel, beg, steal, lie or resort to catch-penny advertising for practice.

T. J. Smithers is the only dentist in this or adjoining counties who has a license to use or make Rubber Plates, which is not only the best plate, but the only plate that ought to be used. Cost T. J. Smithers $300 for License.
