THE EASTON STAR

TUESDAY, JUNE 21, 1881.

T. K. ROBSON, Editor.

GENERAL GRANT has returned to New York, to take a part in the Conkling fight now going on at Albany.

COMPTROLLER KEATING has made the June distribution of the State school fund. Talbot's share is $2,051.45.

THE closing up of the threatened split in the Democracy of Baltimore city cannot fail to have its effect throughout the counties. When ex-Senator Whyte, letting in the interests of harmony, accepts the nominations tendered by both wings of the Democracy and then goes on to say that as to the reforms demanded by one wing, they are questions upon which there is no division in the body of the Democratic party, the statement must not only carry great weight, but must, indeed, remove all legitimate pretext for division of the Democracy throughout the State.—Cambridge Democrat.

Inconsistent.

When the anti-Masonic excitement culminated in a presidential nomination in 1832, the anti-Masons showed inconsistency and courted defeat, by making William Wirt, a strict Mason, their candidate. The Hamilton reformers have staked their political fortunes on arraigning and condemning the policy of cancelling the sinking fund and reducing the State debt, and have shown about as much consistency in nominating Gov. Whyte, who signed the bill in 1872, cancelling the sinking fund, as the Anti-Masons did in nominating a Mason for President. The Hamilton reformers showed their smartness, however, in not nominating Gov. Whyte for Mayor of Baltimore, until they ascertained it had been decided in the Democratic councils to make him the Democratic candidate. They are now assured that they will not be defeated, as the anti-Masons were in 1832; but their inconsistency and want of principle will be equally as glaring, proving that they are fighting for the spoils and not for reform. To be consistent they should have found a candidate for Mayor who in 1864 and 1872, opposed cancelling the sinking fund.

Of all the follies ever committed by any one who claimed any political sagacity, is the folly of Governor Hamilton and his friends in making an issue in the party at this time about the State sinking fund. For many years the people paid a State tax of 25 cents on the $100, to support the State government, pay the interest on the public debt, and create a sinking fund; at the same time the counties supported their own public schools without any aid from the State. The legislature cancelled the State bonds standing to the credit of the sinking fund, reduced the State debt by several millions, and reduced the State tax. New the State tax is but 18½ cents on the $100, and 10 cents of this is for public instruction, leaving the State tax, exclusive of the school tax, at only 8½ cents on the $100. The policy that brought about this result to the relief of tax payers, had the approval of all parties in the State since 1864. Now where is the sense in getting up an agitation in the Democratic party now about the sinking fund? We repeat a greater folly could not be committed. The destruction of the sinking fund is a matter of the past, and there let it rest.

A WRITER in the Ledger says, in substance, if a faithful officer like Mayor Latrobe is laid aside for policy, why should not Mr. Keating be retired for policy also? Their cases are very different. There is no difference of opinion respecting Mayor Latrobe's administration, all approve it. On the contrary, Gov. Hamilton and his followers have assailed Mr. Keating's administration as Comptroller, charging him with committing irregularities, and making him responsible for all the legislation for the past seventeen years, and for the destruction of the sinking fund by the Republicans in 1864. To retire Mr. Keating under such circumstances, would be to plead guilty to the charge and disgrace him. This Mr. Keating and his friends will not do; on the contrary, they repel the charges and denounce them as false, and they challenge any one to point out a single irregularity committed during his administration. Better nominate him in the face of certain defeat, than to damn his character by retiring him, thus confessing the truth of the charges. The charges are not true, and the people will not hold Mr. Keating responsible for what was done in the State ten years before he was elected Comptroller, and they will nominate him next Thursday and triumphantly elect him next November.

THE Republicans cancelled so much of the sinking fund in 1864 as was invested in Maryland bonds, four years before the Democrats came into power in the State, when Mr. Fowler was State Treasurer. The Democrats cancelled so much of the sinking fund in 1872, as was invested in Maryland bonds and Baltimore city stocks, five years before Mr. Thomas J. Keating was elected Comptroller. Yet Gov. Hamilton would hold Mr. Keating responsible for the policy. Right or wrong, Mr. Keating is no more responsible for it than the man in the moon. And if Gov. Hamilton had any criticisms to make against the policy of cancelling the sinking fund, reducing the State debt, and thereby reducing taxation, why did he not make them in 1879, when he was canvassing the State? Then he was as dumb on the subject as sheep before the shearers; now he is making a prodigious fuss about it. Is that right? We ask in all seriousness Had the State debt not been reduced, it would now be $18,000,000, and the State tax would be at least 25 cents in the $100, exclusive of the ten cents now levied to support the public schools. Exclusive of the 10 cents levied to support the public schools, the State tax is but 8½ cts. on the $100. Notwithstanding the little State of Maryland has contributed out of her public Treasury millions of dollars to build the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, the Tide-Water Canal, the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, the railroads on the Eastern Shore and in Southern Maryland, and now pays annually out of the public funds most of the money necessary to run the public schools, she is about the lightest taxed State in the Union, and her bonds are eagerly sought in the market at four per cent. And this has been accomplished by Democratic economy. And now the Democratic party in the State must be disrupted and overthrown, and the State turned over to the Republicans, because there happened to be employed what appears to be too many clerks by the last legislature. Shall this be done to gratify Gov. Hamilton's malice, for it is that and nothing else? No, never. Let us maintain the integrity of the Democratic party; if it has made mistakes, let them be corrected; if too much money has been spent, let us economise and spend less hereafter, but on no account let the State be turned over to the Republicans, not to Michael Bannon, Dr. Henkle, Dr. Taylor, and J. L. V. Findlay, which would be as bad if not worse.

THE greater the seeming danger of a split in the Democracy of Georgia and of Virginia, the greater the need that the Democracy of Maryland should stand united. Such questions as come up within the ranks of the Democracy will be settled by ourselves without Republican assistance.

THE Legislature of New Hampshire has decided not to elect a United States Senator to succeed Senator Rollins this session; This is considered a victory for William E. Chandler. Who knows but the fight between Rollins and Chandler may not result in giving the next United States Senator for that State to the Democrats. Things much more unlikely have often happened.

THE Caroline Democrat says Mr. Phil. W. Downs, of Denton, is a candidate for Comptroller. We do not think it will take the people of Talbot long to decide which to chose, Keating or Downs. If there is any Democrat in Talbot county who wants to see Mr. P. W. Downs put in charge of the Comptroller's office, we have not heard of him, and we doubt if he can be found.

HON. A. P. GORMAN has been re-elected President of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Company, the State, the private stockholders, and the boudholders, all desiring him to remain at the head of the canal, to make the important improvements he has projected, to double the receipts of the canal, by enlarging the locks. This is a great and deserved compliment to the executive ability of Senator Gorman.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Ledger complains that while the STAR counsels moderation and unanimity in the deliberations of the Democratic party, it practices the opposite, by assailing Gov. Hamilton and those acting with him. The Ledger writer should remember that Governor Hamilton and those acting with him are the assailants, and that the STAR is simply repelling their assaults on the Democratic party. While they continue their warfare, it is not expected that those who dissent from them should be silent. We are perfectly willing to ground our arms if they will desist, cease misrepresenting the party and bury the hatchet.

LATEST NEWS.

Ex-Senator Allen G. Thurman declines to be a candidate for Governor of Ohio.

General Wickham's wing—the debt paying—of the Republican party of Virginia, is opposed to Mahone's readjuster ticket.

Iroquois won two more races in England last week. He's a runner, he is.

Messrs. King and Keyser, vice presidents of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, have resigned. Mr. King on account of bad health, and Mr. Keyser to go into another business.

Who is Findlay?

Who is Findlay? A former Republican, a war man, a Union man, a Conservative, a Democrat, an independent—a man without principle, without stability, with one aim only—to hold office. No original Democrat, unless surrounded and influenced by just such men as Findlay, would make such an assertion, when all the facts are to the contrary. Gov. Whyte, in accepting the nomination of the O. L. D.'s and "independents," expressly declared that the agitations now going on were "questions upon which there is no division in the Democratic party."—Cumberland Times.

Now that dissensions in the Republican party of the North prepare the way for its overthrow in all the close States, the President turns with desperate hope to the chance of building up a Republican party in the South. Longstreet in Georgia, Key in Tennessee, Mahone in Virginia, are engaged on one line or another in efforts to split the Democratic party. But Garfield does not sufficiently esteem the immense cohesiveness of the Democracy. They differ among themselves during a preliminary canvass; but after the ticket is made they all stand together. The attempt to split the Democracy of Georgia and Virginia will in the end be as futile as an effort to split the Democracy of Maryland.

True Reformers.

The following thoroughbred reformers, all members of the old Ring, who have been kicked out of office in the act of purging the Democratic party of corruption, are Gov. Hamilton's chief fuglemen in running the Governor's reform machine: Michael Bannon, ex-Senator of Anne Arundel county; Dr. Eli J. Henkle, late member of Congress from the 5th district; J. V. L. Findlay, late Solicitor of Baltimore city; P. W. Downs, of Caroline, late Fish Commissioner for the Eastern Shore; Dr. Milton N. Taylor, late President of the Baltimore City Board of Health. What a precious batch of reformers, for a reform Governor to rely on! Was ever politician or statesman more unfortunate than Gov. Hamilton in selecting a cabinet? Does any one suppose the Democrats of the State—the people of the State—can have any confidence in a movement engineered by such a set? Is any one green enough to suppose that these men contemplate anything beyond agitating themselves again into office?

The Outlook.

Baltimore city's vote of 21 delegates in the State convention will be cast for Thomas J. Keating for comptroller. Allegany county has also gone for Keating. St. Mary's county is reported as having gone against Mr. Keating.

Somerset has elected delegates in favor of the nomination of Dr. Wm. H. Gale. Dorchester has gone for George J. Meekins.

Garrett county is reported as having gone for Gov. Hamilton's "ring" of reformers, Bannon, Henkle, Downs, Findlay and Dr. Taylor.

Baltimore county will cast her 7 votes for Thomas J. Keating. The following additional counties, which held elections last Saturday, also voted for Keating:—Anne Arundel, Prince George's, Howard, Frederick, Queen Anne's, Kent, Worcester, Carroll and Montgomery. These counties and the city of Baltimore assures the nomination of Thomas J. Keating for re-election as comptroller by the State convention next Thursday.

Maryland State Teachers' Association.

The annual session will be held at Frederick on the 6th, 7th and 8th of July. Tickets of Membership, (50 cents), for Teachers, School Officers and friends, may be obtained from the Examiners of the several counties, from Members of the Executive Committee, and from the Secretary. These tickets are necessary to secure the advantages of reduced fair on Railroads, Steamboats, and at Hotels.

Those who desire to go to Frederick by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad must secure a Certificate of Membership, as such will be demanded of them by the Railroad Agent from whom they purchase their ticket. These certificates will be placed in the hands of County Examiners for distribution to the teachers along the line of the B. & O. R. R. The Western Maryland Railroad will issue tickets at reduced rates

Col. Carlin, of the City Hotel, has kindly consented to furnish first class accommodations to those attending the association at $1 a day, for four days.

A large attendance of teachers and of the friends of education is expected. The Executive Committee intend to make every arrangement which they think will tend to make your visit a pleasant one.

THE WESTERN CYCLONE.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.

ALARMING PROGRESS OF THE HURRICANE—HOUSES, HOG PENS, AND HORSES CARRIED FOUR MILES—A BABY CARRIED FROM ITS CRADLE—A BANK VAULT TUMBLED OVER AND DEMOLISHED.

ST. JOSEPH, MO., June 14.—Sunday was a terrible day for cyclones in Northwest Missouri. The atmospheric pressure was very great between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and during that one short hour and a half three "twisters" dealt death and destruction in as many paths. The first was from King City and vicinity. This cyclone started near Savannah, in Andrew county. Its course was northeast through Flag Springs and King City. Many houses were destroyed and not less than twelve lives lost in Andrew county. At Flag Springs and King City the destruction was much greater, the loss of life in that vicinity being probably fifty men, women and children. The public school building in King City, a large brick structure, was razed to the ground. Hundreds of horses, cattle, hogs and sheep were killed, one man losing eighty cattle, another sixty sheep and another seven horses. Another cyclone started four miles southwest of Rosedale and passed eastward one mile south of Rosedale. The course of all the above cyclones was east by northeast. Another started eight miles northwest of Hopkins, in Nodoway county, its course for twelve miles being southeast. It was a quarter of a mile wide, and nothing escaped destruction in its track. Many lives have been lost in all of these cyclones, and the destruction to property, which cannot now be estimated, was very great.

ST. LOUIS, June 14.—Additional accounts of the cyclone in the northwestern portion of Missouri are to the effect that a very large amount of property was destroyed. A considerable number of lives were lost and a great many persons were injured. The destruction took place at or near King city and Flag springs. Later in the evening another cyclone passed north of Savannah, in Andrew county, northeast into Nodoway county. From information received it appears the cloud formed into a field near the Leasley Chapel, about eight miles northeast of Savannah, and moved south of east. It tore down trees and fences, and struck the large brick house of Nathaniel Kellogg, which it blew to pieces. Mr. Kellogg and his family were absent at the time and thus escaped. The cloud then moved east, at this time being about 100 yards wide, destroying many buildings and residences. A Baptist church near by was blown to pieces. Stoves and all kinds of household goods from the houses were carried through the air, and their owners have not as yet found any of them. The cyclone was about a-quarter of a mile wide. Fully two-thirds of the houses blown away were unoccupied, the families being away from home, either at church or visiting, otherwise the loss of life would have been frightful.

THE STORM IN KANSAS.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, June 14.—A correspondent describing the scene near Olivet says: A horse was lifted out of a stable and carried over a high hill and dashed upon the ground in a corn-field, a mile away. Cattle were lifted from the ground, carried into the air and dashed to pieces. Mr. Rosecrants, who lived northwest and Mrs. John Harper, who lived northeast of Melvern, are known to have been killed. Houses and buildings in the track of the cyclone were totally destroyed.

THE STORM IN IOWA.

The same storm visited portions of Western Iowa, and though not so destructive as in Missouri and Kansas, did much damage to property. In Audubon, Cass, Pattawattamie and Guthrie counties calves, hogs, chickens, ducks, &c., were killed and the cattle were badly bruised by the hail stones. The hail stones are represented in many places as of the size and shape of door-knobs, weighing over a pound apiece, and covering the ground to the depth of six inches. A farmer, coming to Atlantic, Cass county, drove through a drift of hail stones two and one-half feet deep. At Minden, Pattawattamie county, a train of cars was thrown off the track by the wind. The locomotive was overturned and much injured.

[COMMUNICATED.]

A Warning to Democrats---The Old Ring Claiming to be Reformers.

MR. EDITOR STAR:

Will you permit me through your columns to say a word in behalf of our friend and neighbor, Thomas J. Keating. A correspondent to the Ledger who signs himself "A True Democrat" is advising the Democracy to turn down Mr. Keating and put in his place some unknown and untried man. I can't see that this is just the time for such action. The Ledger's correspondent gives no reasons for the change and no plausible reason can be given. It is said he is a member of the "Ring" but what do we mean by the "Ring." Will some one tell me what "Ring" we are expected to fight. In 1871 I favored the nomination of Judge Carmichael in opposition to the 'Ring' candidate, Gov. Whyte. In 1874 I desired the return of Gov. Hamilton to the U. S. Senate in opposition to the same "Ring" candidate. In 1875 I favored the nomination of Governor Hamilton in opposition to the "Ring candidate, Gov. Carroll, and again in 1879 thought I was espousing the same cause. I was told all the time and led to believe that Messrs. Bannon, Henkle, Downs and others were the personification of corruption in the "Ring" and I always supposed that in fighting them I was fighting the "Ring." But now I find that I had made a mistake; that they are not corrupt "Ring" men, but pure Reformers. Knowing these men personally I have only to say that new if I wish to fight corruption in politics I must fight reform and not "Ring." Reform is an attractive word but people soon understand that the word is meaningless unless backed by MEN who can command confidence. Otherwise it is A DELUSION AND A SHAM. Fifty thousand dollars would not begin to square the amount pocketed by Fifteen per cent. Bannon influencing Legislation, both proper and improper. He never asked any question except as to what it would pay; and Dr. Henkle who has been in office for 15 years consecutively has sold himself oftener and cheaper than any politician in the State. The Journals of the legislature show that he always managed to get extra pay on engrossing committees, &c., (Things which Gov. Hamilton desires to reform) and on one occasion at least, if no more, was chairman on committee on printing (I think in 1874) and made a contract with Slater & Co., whom he knew to be Geo. Colton. Now being left out of office he desires to "Ring" in on the party under a cry of reform and presents legislative extravagance, and extravagance in printing. Would it not be well for him first to return to the Treasury the money he has pocketed from both these matters of extravagances. He desires to be Treasurer perhaps with a view to making a restitution. With Bannon as speaker of the House and Henckle as Treasurer we would have a curtailing of legislative expenses with a vengeance. We would have lamp lighters enough to get up a torchlight procession, and all paying fifteen per cent. to the new "Ring."

If Gov. Hamilton expects the people of Talbot to accept his reform, he must secure more reliable managers than these.

If Mr. Keating is turned down, we don't know who may be put in his place. Mr. Keating has a seat in the Board of Public Works, and the interests of Queen Anne's county are the interests of Talbot particularly on the oyster question, and we know that he will do his duty toward us. The new man might be from Somerset, or some county hostile to our interests. Better let well enough alone.

By the way it is surprising that the only counties that have thus far accepted the new reform are Somerset, Dorchester, St. Mary's, Garrett, and Washington, ALL FIVE REPUBLICAN COUNTIES. Democrats should look at this.

A LATE REFORMER.

Interesting to Ladies.

Our lady readers can hardly fail to have their attention called this week to the latest combination of improvements in that most useful of all domestic implements, the "sewing machine."

As we understand it, a machine for family use should meet first of all these requirements: It should be simple in its mechanism, so as to be easily managed; it should run easily, so as not to weary the worker unduly; it should do a wide range of work, that the owner need not wish for any other machine; it should be as nearly noiseless as possible, that it may not be a nuisance; it should be light, handsome, durable, and as cheap as is consistent with excellence throughout.

These conditions the "Light Running New Home" certainly meets.

It has also several very important and useful attachments and "notions" of its own, which go far to make good its claims to popular favor.

Now a great many families have been and are still using the old machines—waiting for the times to improve; waiting for the latest improvements in design and mechanical excellence.

But why delay longer? Considering the low price at which good machines are now sold, and the improvements that have been made, now is a good time to buy, and the "New Home" specially recommends itself to purchasers on account of its superior mechanical construction, ease of management and reasonable price. Nearly half a million have been sold in the last three years, all of which are giving universal satisfaction. This unrivalled machine is warranted by JOHNSON, CLARK & CO., 30 Union Square, New York, who wish us to say that all who will send for their new illustrated catalogue and enclose their advertisement (printed on another page), will receive a set of fancy advertising novelties of value to those collecting cards, &c.

The Excursionists in Washington.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun of Saturday gives the following account of the Easton excursionists in Washington on Friday:

A MARYLAND DELEGATION.

The President to-day gave audience to the largest Maryland delegation that has ever filled within the walls of the White House. It was 350 strong, and was composed of followers of the Prince of Peace. Youth and age were almost equally represented, and all wore happy and smiling faces. The delegation comprised members of the Ebenezer M. E. Church at Easton, with the Sunday School teachers and scholars. The pastor, Rev. E. P. Aldred and Messrs. J. J. Jump, Walter H. Thompson, Leonidas Dodson and Maj. Wm. E. Stewart, officers of the church and of the Sunday School, were in charge. Maj. Stewart, who is the assistant superintendent of the Sunday School, wrote to the President some days ago to know if he would see them to-day, and the President replied that he would. The excursionists left Easton at half-past five o'clock this morning in the midst of a driving rainstorm, and the number would have been twice as large had it not been for the inclement weather. The steamer Georgeanna, Captain Beckwith, conveyed them to Annapolis, from whence they came to Washington via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. They spent an hour or more at the Capitol, and were very much interested in inspecting the sights and curiosities of that fine edifice. They then took the street cars to the White House. The President was very much engaged at the time in the midst of important cabinet deliberations, but he came down and received them with very little delay. Major Stewart, who acted as master of ceremonies, made the introductions. He said to the President that they had come a long way to see him, that they had been much impressed with what they had seen in Washington to instruct and amuse; that the event longest to be remembered in their visit would be their reception by the President, and they would take the more pleasure in it from the fact that it was a Christian President whom they were meeting. The President said he regretted that he could spare but a moment or two from the cabinet meeting, but the members of the cabinet would be impatient if he did not quickly return. He would be very glad to make a speech, but that was impossible. He smiled very kindly on the children and said he was most happy to see them and to know that they were Sunday School pupils, and that their feet were turned in the right direction. The President then withdrew, and, after looking at the public rooms of the White House, the excursionists went over to the Corcoran Gallery, where they were admitted free of charge, although to-day was pay day. They visited various other places of interest and left at six o'clock for home, very much pleased with their visit. They attracted much attention wherever they went, and the children were particularly commended for their neat appearance and orderly behavior.

THE BUCKEYE BINDER

is the Most Perfect Product of invention in Binding Machines.

It has fewer Gears and Fewer Parts than any other Binder.

It has greater Durability and Reliability in Binding.

Makes Round Bundles and consumes the least material.

Ties as Tightly as the Material used will admit of.

Is as easily Handled as any Reaper.

Is Raised or Lowered as Easily as any Reaper.

Saves all the grain, whether Straight or Tangled.

Works as well in Wet, Tangled Grain as any other.

Saves Crops Cheaper and Easier, and in Better Shape.

Requires less Horse Power than any other.

Has the Simplest and most form of compressor.

Has the Best Adjustable Deflector.

Elevators are 30 inches wide, having a larger capacity than those of any other Binder.

is furnished with either Wire or Twine Self-Binding Attachments, as may be desired, and we challenge the world to produce harvesting machines of any description whatever that have given better satisfaction in the field for perfect work, for durability or for simplicity, than the Buckeye Binder.

No Binder is more Perfectly Balanced.

Binds Long and Short Grain with Equal Facility.

Makes Bundles Automatically, or at will of the Driver.

Threshes no Grain in Process of Binding.
