THE EASTON STAR

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1881.

T. H. ROBSON, Editor.

L. JEFF. MILBOURNE & CO., Newspaper Advertising Agents, 128 West Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., are authorized to contract for advertisements for THE STAR, at our best rates.

JUDGE COX of Washington has dismissed the Star route cases, thus bluffing the prosecution. He decides that the Star route thieves are infamous and must be indicted, and cannot be proceeded with under the constitution on information.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is mild and soothing in its immediate and apparent effects, and possesses far-reaching and powerful healing qualities, which its persistent use will demonstrate in any case of coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles of any kind.

MICHAEL BANNON, the great reform light of Anne Arundel county is likely to reform himself for the gallows. He has been arrested as an accessory in the murder of Dr. T. Clay Maddux, the night of the election, at Odenton, particulars of which we publish this morning.

The Result on the Western Shore.

Baltimore city, Baltimore county, Anne Arundel, Carroll and Howard counties went democratic at the election. Washington, Allegany, Frederick, Calvert, St. Mary's and Charles counties went republican. In Harford, Montgomery, Prince George's and Garrett some of both tickets were elected.

The Result on the Eastern Shore.

Cecil, Kent, Dorchester, Wicomico and Worcester counties all went democratic on Tuesday. Caroline went Republican, Talbot, Queen Annes and Somerset elected some on both tickets. The Democrats lost two counties, Talbot and Caroline and gained two, Dorchester and Somerset.

The Judicial Elections.

Judge John Ritchie, who was the Democratic candidate for Chief Judge of the 4th Judicial circuit was elected on Tuesday, and Messrs. Stone and Brooke, Republicans, the former for chief Judge and the latter for associate Judge of the 7th circuit, were elected. The first is a Democratic gain; the latter a Republican gain

Re-Counting the Votes.

The return judges in Washington county (Republicans) and the return judges in Harford (Democrats) re-counted the ballots in their respective counties on Thursday, to ascertain the true vote. The re-count in Washington resulted in unseating Dr. Miller, Dem., for the House, and giving the election to Mayberry, Rep. The re count in Harford made no change in the returns.

Democratic Victory in New York.

On Tuesday last the Democrats gained a great victory in New York, by electing a part of the State ticket and carrying by a good working majority both branches of the State legislature—the first time the Democrats have had both branches of the legislature of New York since 1860. This assures a fair re-districting of the State into congressional districts under the census of 1880, and prevents the gerrymandering of the State, as heretofore, by the Republicans.

Repudiation and Mahoneism triumphant in Virginia.

The Readjuster and Republican combination, backed by the patronage and money of the Arthur administration at Washington, has made Repudiation triumphant in Virginia. The combination have elected their Governor, and carried the legislature, insuring the election of a Mahoneite to the United States Senate, to succeed Senator Johnson. Every honest Virginian will hereafter hang his head with shame until this dishonor is wiped out.

"It's No Use,"

Says the despondent dyspeptic. But it is of use. Your sufferings can be relieved; thousands have been cured, and you can also. Broken down desponding victims of dyspepsia, liver complaint, fever and ague, rheumatism, nervous debility or premature decay will find in Simmons Liver Regulator, prepared by J. H. Zeilin & Co., a vegetable specific which reaches the source of the trouble and effects an absolute and permanent cure. It regulates the liver, dispels despondency and restores health.

The Result in Talbot.

The Democrats have been beaten, badly beaten, in Talbot county; beaten, too, by Democrats, who, without any justifiable reason, cut and defeated the county ticket; sending wreck and ruin among those Democrats who hold the county offices, giving their places to the Republicans. It is perfectly well understood throughout the county who planned and executed the nefarious business; and when they in their turn, come before the people, if they ever do, their conduct on last Tuesday will not be forgotten, and the obligation incurred will be paid with interest.

APART from the ill effect the late election must have on the future of the Democratic party of this county, the defeat of the Democratic candidates is a matter of deep regret. The candidates are all good Democrats. They are all gentlemen of high personal character, and are specially qualified to creditably fill the several offices for which they had been nominated. There is no good reason why they should not have received the full party vote. If such a ticket is defeated by our own party, we do not know how the party can name one it can elect. Certainly not from among those who cut the ticket or absented themselves from the polls on Tuesday.

The Next Legislature.

Notwithstanding the extraordinary course of the so-called reform Democrats in the late election campaign and at the late election, many of them affiliating with the Republicans to defeat the regular Democratic tickets, the next legislature will be largely Democratic in both branches, by 60 to 31 in the House, and 16 to 10 in the Senate. This is cause of gratulation, as it assures the re-election of Mr. Barnes Compton as Treasurer, and the retention of the Board of Public Works in the hands of the Democrats. Gov. Hamilton and his followers are welcome to all the consolation they can gather out of the result of their extraordinary craze. Many of them will doubtless go with the Republicans, and it is better for the Democratic party that these men should be its open enemies than its professed friends, using the name of Democrat to secretly and treacherously stab the party to the heart. In the two counties, Anne Arundel and Howard, where these traitors ran open tickets of their own stripe, they were swept away as by a besom of destruction, the regular Democratic tickets having been elected by large majorities.

WHAT have those Democrats to say in justification of themselves, who voted the Republican legislative ticket on Tuesday? They knew very well that the next legislature will be required to re-district the State for members of Congress under the census of 1880, and they voted that Republicans, and not Democrats, must do that important work. If the Republicans had it to do, they could so arrange the districts as to secure to themselves two if not three of our six members of congress. If the Democrats do it, they can arrange the districts so that the Republicans may not be certain of a single district in the State. In view of its effect on the Federal Congress, this is a most important political matter, involving vital principles of the opposing parties, and yet those professing to be Democrats voted against their party on Tuesday, or did not vote at all, and thus helped to give this great power to the Republicans. We would not give a pinch of snuff for such democracy. Fortunately the legislature did not go Republican, and the Democrats will have the right to re-district the State, but no thanks to those Democrats who voted the Republican ticket.

Re-Election of Thomas J. Keating Comptroller.

Notwithstanding the abominable lies which were spread broadcast over the State by the sore-heads who called themselves Old Line Democrats, uttered to defeat the democratic party at the State election, hoping thereby that the wheel of fortune would throw them to the top again, where they might make a "Ring" and hold the fort, Thomas J. Keating has been re-elected Comptroller of the Treasury by over 14,969 majority, a majority larger than Gov. Hamilton received in 1879, when he was at the zenith of his popularity! We congratulate Mr. Keating on the result, and we congratulate the Democratic party for its manhood in thus rebuking the fell spirit of mischief, which has for sometime past been bellowing around its impregnable citadel. The Democratic party will henceforth look to the young democracy of the State, to such leaders as Thomas J. Keating, of Queen Anne's, for that aggressiveness which shall repair the breaches which have been made in its ranks through the defection of the old pack horses which have buried themselves under a double wagon load of treachery and disgrace. The democratic press will stand by them, and where hard licks are to be given and received, it will ever be found in the front of the battle. Then onward, young Democrats, and turn neither to the right or to the left, and yours shall be the glory of carrying the Democratic banner to future victories in every county of the State.

THE defeat of Tuesday was anomalous. It was a defeat of democrats by democrats. It was a sad affair. After New York and Virginia, to see men who claimed to be democrats voting with the republicans, was as pitiable as it was unfortuate. No man, in a free country like ours, can gainsay any other man's right to vote as he chooses: but men ought to go to record of their political acts: and we much mistake the temper of the young democracy if they do not make a severe political alignment for the future. John Randolph never said a more pungent truth than when he said he had not, in the course of thirty years of political life, seen any man successfully accomplish the feat of riding upon two sides of a sapling at the same time. How a man demonstrates his democracy by voting the Republican ticket, or evades the issue by not voting, is one of those curious moral questions we do not see the bottom of.

We have no fear for the ultimate issue of politics in Talbot county. The white people are going to occupy and possess the political heritage, of right. And when that good day comes it will not be for the behoof of those who are among us but not of us.

Mahone said he was a better democrat than Ben Hill; and the result in Virginia was the corollary of his proposition. And so was it here with men who have been exceptionally honored by the democrats of the county. If forsooth they refuse to be animated by the usages of the democratic party, when such usages militate against their aggrandizement, they will not be allowed to dominate the democratic party by republican methods.

Meantime the true democrats must go to work right away to retrieve and reconstruct. There has been nothing to disconcert, much less to appall: and by a judicious husbandry of our proper resources, we can, and will, yet hold the fort.

An Election Tragedy in Anne Arundel county—Dr. T. Clay Maddux Shot and Instantly Killed.

Dr. Toomas Clay Maddux, of Baltimore, was shot and instantly killed at Odenton, Anne Arundel county, shortly after six o'clock on the night of the election. The election had passed off quietly, and the judges had commenced to count the votes. Threats had been made by the Mike Bannon crowd, that they intended to break into the room, capture the ballot box, and break up the count. General Frank Bond, who was a Democratic candidate for the legislature, requested Dr. Maddux, Capt. Lemuel Mitchell and some others to aid him in defeating the attempt, should it be made. They consented, but soon after the counting commenced, the rowdies outside demanded to be admitted inside. Dr. Maddux, who was at the window on the outside, very positively refused to admit them, when firing commenced, and the Doctor wrs shot in the back and instantly killed. The evidence taken by the Coroner at the inquest shows that Dr. Maddux was killed with a pistol in his hand, but it was loaded, none of the chambers having been emptied, which rebuts the charge that he fired the first shot. The evidence indicates that Dr. Maddux was shot either by Claude Wheeler or by Charles Hammond, and that Mike Bannon was there perhaps urging on the shooting, as he ran away from the place as soon as Maddux was shot. The following are a few items from the testimony taken at the inquest:

Genl. Frank A. Bond testified that at about 3 P. M. on the day of election one of the clerks of election said to him that they had good reason to believe that the ballot-box would be smashed; that certain persons had combined to effect such purpose in a violent and forcible manner, and that some preventive steps should be taken. In view of this emergency the witness went to Capt. Lemuel P. Mitchell, who had brought from Annapolis the poll-books, &c.; also to John and James Goodwin and Dr. Maddux, and asked them to help protect the polls. They agreed to do so, and to endeavor to prevent any such contemplated outrage. The witness was inside the polling room when the window was closed and the counting of the ballots commenced; heard much outside demand for entrance through the window, and heard Dr. Maddux say they should not enter; almost immediately there was a single shot fired and instantly two others; went out and found Maddux doubled up in the angle of the front steps in such a position that he could not have then and there received the fatal shot; believes he must have received that shot at or near the polling window; a pistol was taken by Bordley out of Maddux's hand before he was removed from the angle of the front steps, and that pistol was handed immediately to witness by Bordley, who was assisting in removing the body to within the house. Witness put the pistol into his pocket, and so soon as the dead body was decently disposed of, examined the pistol in presence of several witnesses, and found that it had not been discharged; every chamber was loaded. Therefore Maddux could not have fired at all.

W. H. Bordly, sworn—Was present and saw shots fired at window and walked a round the house; heard some one say Maddux was shot; found him lying in the angle of the step; took a pistol from his hand and gave it to Gen. Bond; heard cries of "shoot him down"; did not see Maddux during the firing; did not know if the pistol was or not loaded.

Thomas Burns—Was at the window when the polls closed; there was a crowd trying to break in the window. Maddux said they should not go in unless the judges said so. Dr. Caleb White, of the House of Correction said: "Follow me and we'll get in." Thinks it was Marster Hammond who called out: "Arthur, kill him; kill the s—of b—." Dr. Maddux could not have fired, because he hadn't time—they crowded on him so quickly. Was in position to see if he had fired. Maddux was conspicuous in appearance and dress and seemed to be a target. Doesn't know who "Arthur" is but could recognize him easily. Evidently Maddux was fatally shot before he got round to the place where he fell ("Marster" Hammond is the nickname of Mr Charles Hammond.)

JAMES GOODWIN'S TESTIMONY.

James Goodwin saw most of the affair; was at the window close to Maddux, saw Wheeler near by; Bannon several times came close to witness; saw him take Wheeler by the coat sleeve and say something to him, and immediately run away; immediately saw Wheeler take deliberate aim, placing his pistol on the fingers of his left hand at a rest, and shoot Maddux; Wheeler was behind Maddux when he fired; saw several people shooting, but could not name them; at the shot Maddux jumped, and witness saw him back around the corner, while other shots were fired at him; the shot by Wheeler was the first shot fired; Wheeler was about five or six feet off when he fired; couldn't hear what Bannon said to Wheeler, but saw Bannon immediately run, and at the very instant Wheeler fired; Maddux had given witness a pistol [produced it]; had never fired it; is certain shots were fired four or five times at Maddux after he turned the corner of the house; doesn't know by whom.

John Goodwin was at the window; saw Wheeler at Maddux's back and saw him shoot him; Maddux jumped up high; saw people fire at Maddux around the corner, but does not know who fired; Maddux said: "There!" when he was shot and fell against witness' shoulder; saw Bannon take Wheeler by the sleeve and say something; saw Bannon hurry off. Wheeler fired immediately after Bannon left him; heard no threat during the day of breaking up the polls; is certain that Wheeler's shot struck Maddux in the back; he jumped up and fell against witness.

Geo. W. McGinnew was present when Gen. Band examined the pistol taken from Maddux' hand. He looked at the chambers carefully and each one was loaded.

Jeremiah Jones heard George Murray and others say, "That's the stuff!" Some said they were going in that window. Saw Bannon near the window two minutes before the shooting.

P. Frank Watts met Bannon a few minutes after 6 o'clock coming rapidly down the road a short distance from the polls. Asked him who was hurt. He said, "I don't know; I wasn't there."

The jury of inquest in their verdict failed to agree as to who was the murderer of Dr. Maddux, but State's Attorney Asquith had Michael Bannon and Claudius Wheeler arrested—Bannon gave $10,000 bail for a hearing, but Wheeler, who is a farm laborer, and a tool of Bannon's, was lodged in jail at Annapolis.

"The doctors said my wife had consumption. Tried Lindsey's Blood Searcher," and she has better health than ever." G. H. Hubbard, Hampden, Ohio.

How they hold Elections in Calvert county.

In the second precinct of the first election district of Calvert county there was great excitement. Judge Daniel R. Magruder who was present, objected to the regularly appointed judges of election and swore in three justices of the peace—Messrs. Grover, Dorsey and Wall. Mr. N. W. Brome, the return judge, then took forcible possession of the voting list, and with the other judge, opened the polls. For awhile there was intense excitement and pistols were drawn. Judge Magruder left the ground declaring that the election would not be legal.

In the third election district no election was held. The judges were preparing to open the polls, and when they requested the persons occupying the room to go out, they were met with a positive refusal, and one of the number pulled out some sort of a writ ordering the arrest of the judges of election. The judges refused to hold the election unless the room was cleared, and, as this was not done, no election was held. Judge Magruder reached the polls of the third district about 2:30 o'clock P. M., and sustained those who were opposed to the election being held with closed doors.

PROCLAMATION

STATE OF MARYLAND, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, ANNAPOLIS, November 10, 1881.

I, WILLIAM T. HAMILTON, Governor of the State of Maryland, in compliance with a long-established usage, and in reverent acknowledgment of the peace, prosperity, and other kindred blessings which the people of this State have enjoyed during the year, do hereby designate THURSDAY, the 24th day of November, instant, as a day of THANKSGIVING AND PRAYER, and recommend that the people thereof abstain from their secular employments, and in all other respects duly observe the same.

Given under my hand and the great seal of the State of Maryland, at the city of Annapolis, on the 10th day of November, A. D. 1881.

WILLIAM T. HAMILTON, Governor.

By the Governor: JAS. T. BRISCOE, Secretary of State.

THE SUN.

NEW YORK, 1882.

THE SUN for 1882 will make its fifteenth annual revolution under the present management, shining, as always, for all, big and little, mean and gracious, contented and unhappy, Republican and Democratic, depraved and virtuous, intelligent and obtuse. THE SUN's light for mankind and womankind of every sort, but its genial warmth is for the good, while it pours hot discomfort on the blistering backs of the persistently wicked.

THE SUN of 1882 was a newspaper of a new kind. It discarded many of the forms, and a multitude of the superfluous words and phrases of ancient journalism. It undertook to report in a fresh, acutest, unconventional way all the news of the world, omitting no event of human interest, and commenting upon affairs with the fearlessness of absolute independence. The success of this experiment was the success of THE SUN. It effected a permanent change in the style of American newspapers. Every important journal already existing has been modified and bettered by the force of THE SUN's example.

THE SUN of 1882 will be the same outspoken, truth-telling, and interesting newspaper.

By a liberal use of the means which an abundant prosperity affords, we shall make it better than ever before.

We shall print all the news, putting it into readable shape, and measuring its importance, not by the traditional yardstick, but by its real interest to the people. Distance from Printing House Square is not the first consideration with THE SUN. Whenever anything happens worth reporting we get the particulars, whether it happens in Brooklyn or in Bokhara.

In politics we have decided opinions, and are accustomed to express them in language that can be understood. We say what we think about men and events. That habit is the only secret of THE SUN's political course.

THE WEEKLY SUN gathers into eight pages the best matter of the seven daily issues. An Agricultural Department of unequaled merit, full market reports, and a liberal proportion of literary, scientific, and domestic intelligence complete THE WEEKLY SUN, and make it the best newspaper for the farmer's household that was ever printed.

Who does not know and read and like THE SUNDAY SUN, each number of which is a Golconda of interesting literature, with the best poetry of the day, prose every line worth reading, news humor—matter enough to fill a good-sized book, and infinitely more varied and entertaining than any book, big or little?

If our idea of what a newspaper should be pleases you, send for THE SUN.

Our terms are as follows:

For the daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post-paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents per month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of THE SUN is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the WEEKLY SUN, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

"The Children's Magazine of America."

ST. NICHOLAS.

The illustrated magazine for young folks has now attained a circulation larger, probably, than that of any other monthly magazine of its class. It has been called "a marvel of perfection, both as regards its literary excellence and its artistic merit." It was the first to give to boys and girls the very best illustrations that could be had, and has earned the name of

"The Children's Art Magazine."

The greatest living writers of Europe and America are among its Distinguished Contributors:

Charles Dudley Warner, Henry W. Longfellow, John G. Whittier, H. H. Boyesen, Sara Holm, Bret Harte, Gail Hamilton, Thomas Hughes, Louisa M. Alcott, Donald G. Michell, Harriet Prescot Spofford, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, George MacDonald, Washington Gladden, The Goodale Sisters, Alfred Tennyson, John Hay, Clarence Cook, Rossiter Johnson, Susan Coolidge, Edward Eggleston, Prof. R. A. Proctor, Christina G. Rossetti, Mrs. A. D. T. Whitney, Frances Hodgson Burnett, Celia Thaxter, Marion Harland, T. W. Higginson, Lucy Larcom, Noah Brooks, Author of "Alice in Wonderland," Mrs. Oliphant, T. B. Aldrich, and hundreds of others.

What England Says of It.

London Daily News: "We wish we could point out its equal in our own periodical literature." The Spectator: "It is the best of all children's magazines." Literary World: "There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal it," etc.

Brilliant Features of The Coming Year.

The ninth volume, which begins with the November issue, number, will contain a new

Serial Story,

By Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, editor of ST. NICHOLAS, author of "Hans Brinker, or the Silver Skates," etc., etc. A second serial story, full of lively incident,

"The Hoosier School-Boy,"

By Edward Eggleston, author of "The Hoosier School-master," etc. A single article of universal interest:

"How Children Should Learn Music,"

By Richard Wagner,

the eminent composer. Two other serials, one dealing with campaign life in the late war, and the other with Girl and Boy Life in the 15th Century. Plays for Home and School, Embroidery for Girls, Amateur Newspapers, Illustrated Practical and Descriptive Papers, Articles on Sports, and The Treasure-box of Literature will be among the features of this great volume.

system on Ready-Made Clothing, and prophesied success on the new departure, because the system was based on RIGHT BUSINESS PRINCIPLE. This we assert that to the present date, we have to the best of our knowledge lost but one sale because of price.

Our clothing is of best make and style, marked in plain figures at one price, and that price so low that no one can undersell us, and our customers are astonished at the low figures.

Our stock is larger than ever before, and any one wanting a suit that does come and see us before buying, makes a grand mistake.

HUBBARD & BROTHER, EASTON, MD.

Is a compound of the virtues of sarsaparilla, stillingia, mandrake, yellow dock, with the iodide of potash and iron, all powerful blood-making, blood-cleansing, and life-sustaining elements. It is the purest, safest, and most effectual alterative medicine known or available to the public. The sciences of medicine and chemistry have never produced so valuable a remedy, nor one so potent to cure all diseases resulting from impure blood. It cures Scrofula and all scrofulous diseases, Erysipelas, Rose, or St. Anthony's Fire, Pimples and Face-grubs, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Humors, Salt Rheum, Scald-head, Ring-worm, Ulcers, Sores, Rheumatism, Mercurial Disease, Neuralgia, Female Weaknesses and Irregularities, Jaundice, Affections of the Liver, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility.

By its searching and cleansing qualities it purges out the foul corruptions which contaminate the blood and cause derangement and decay. It stimulates and enlivens the vital functions, promotes energy and strength, restores and preserves health, and infuses new life and vigor throughout the whole system. No sufferer from any disease which arises from impurity of the blood need despair who will give AYER's SARSAPARILLA a fair trial.

It is folly to experiment with the numerous low-priced mixtures, of cheap materials, and without medicinal virtues, offered as blood-purifiers, while disease becomes more firmly seated. AYER's SARSAPARILLA is a medicine of such concentrated curative power, that it is by far the best, cheapest, and most reliable blood-purifier known. Physicians know its composition, and prescribe it. It has been widely used for forty years, and has won the unqualified confidence of millions whom it has benefited.
