Death of Secretary Ridgely.

Hon. James G. Ridgely, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of the United States, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, died in Baltimore city last Wednesday, aged 70 years. He was elected Grand Secretary in 1868, and has been re-elected annually ever since, holding the office at the time of his death. He organized the first Encampment ever held, and was also prime extensively that among Odd Fellows.

NEWS ITEMS.

Thurlow Weed, the veteran editor, is 79 years old.

Col. J. Howard Wells, of New York, has been arrested, imprisoned, and will be prosecuted, for sending threatening letters to Jay Gould. He wanted Mr. Gould to give him "points" for speculating in stocks, and threatened to kill him if he did not comply. The case will put in the hands of Detective Byrne, who discovered and nabbed the writer.

Stealing a Reputation.

Would you trust one dishonest enough steal the reputation of another, to make for you anything, especially your physic, knowing or what it may be compounded? How to tell the genuine Simmons Liver Regulator:—Look for the clean White Wrapper having a large red Z in the centre and the signature of J. H. Zeilin & Co. on the side. All others are worthless and injurious imitations. Don't tamper with them, however plausibly recommended, health and life are too precious to endanger.

The Assassin Shot Again.

Guiteau, the assassin, was shot at in Washington, on Saturday afternoon, between the court house and jail, while he was being conveyed from the court, where his trial was going on. He was only slightly wounded in the hand. The man who shot him was on horseback, and a man named William Jones, residing in Washington county, Maryland, was pursued, and has been arrested and identified as the man who discharged the pistol. It was a great outrage. The man is being tried for his life, and if sane will be hung. That is enough without the Joneses taking the law into their hands.

The French ministry have resigned, and Leon Gambetta has been invited by President Grevy to form a new cabinet, which has been done. The world will therefore now hear from the great Republican orator as premier of the French Republic. He enters upon office at a most critical period in the affairs of France, and his success will depend in a great measure upon his ability to restrain within proper bounds the ultra radical elements in the Republican party. It is to be hoped that he will be able to do so, and thus consolidate the Republic and maintain the liberties of the French people.

Trial of the Assassin.

The criminal court of the District of Columbia, which commenced the trial of Charles J. Guiteau for the murder of President Garfield on the 14th inst., was engaged three whole days in procuring a jury. The twelfth man of the panel was secured on Wednesday; Guiteau in the meantime being engaged in daily issuing addresses to the bar of the country, asking aid, and insisting on taking a leading part in his own defence. It is hard to determine whether he is more fool than knave. It is thought the trial will last until some time in January next. Should he be pronounced insane, he will doubtless be imprisoned for life.

Contested Election.

It is said that Mr. George H. Tarbutton, Democrat, will contest the election of Mr. Edward Woodall, Republican, candidates for the office of County Commissioner at the late election in this county. The contest has grown out of some irregularities in the counting and tallying the vote in Chapel district. We understand Mr. Tarbutton says he does not desire the office unless he was fairly elected; but if he was elected, he is entitled to the position, and desires the Circuit Court to decree him the office. Ex-Gov. P. F. Thomas and Charles H. Gibson, Esq., have been retained to conduct the case for Mr. Tarbutton. The Gazette makes as great a hubbub over the matter, as if the law did not provide for such contests. This is all nonsense. Nothing more is expected or desired than that the true vote shall be ascertained and declared; and the imputation that the returns may have been doctored is wholly gratuitous. We notice that the Republicans of Anne Arundel county have announced their intention to contest the election of the Democrats elected in that county. Nothing is said by the Gazette against that proceeding. In Washington county the return judges of election, who are Republicans, recounted the ballots on the return day in that county, and counted out Dr. Miller, Democrat, who had been returned as elected to the legislature; but nothing is said against that proceeding. The truth is, in the eyes of Republicans, every thing is right that enures to the benefit of the Republicans, and everything is wrong which may enure to the benefit of the Democrats. From such a doctrine we respectfully dissent. As the Republicans are always ready to claim all they are entitled to, and a little more, Democrats should insist on all they are entitled to; and if Mr. Tarbutton was elected, the whole Democratic party will approve of his asserting, by contest, his right to the office.

A Day of Thanksgiving.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The following proclamation was issued from the Department of State to-day:

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

It has long been the pious custom of our people with the closing of the year to look back upon the blessings brought to them in the changing course of the seasons, and to return solemn thanks to the all-giving source from whom they flow; and although at this period, when the falling leaf admonishes us that the time of our sacred duty is at hand, our nation still lies in the shadow of a great bereavement, and the mourning which has filled our hearts still finds the powerful expression toward the God before whom we but lately bowed in grief and supplication, yet the countless benefits which have showered upon us during the past twelve months call for our fervent gratitude, and make it fitting that we should rejoice with thankfulness that the Lord—the infinite mercy has most signally favored our country and our people. Peace without and prosperity within have been vouchsafed to us; no pestilence has visited our shores; the abundant harvests of freedom which our fathers sowed in tears and sacrifice are still ripening in the sunshine of Heaven, and if in parts of our country a severe affliction has visited our brethren in their forest homes, yet even this calamity has been tempered and in a manner mitigated by the generous contribution for the sufferers which has been poured forth throughout our land. For all these things it is meet that the voice of the nation should go up to God in devout homage.

Wherefore I, Chester A. Arthur, President of the United States, do recommend that all the people observe Thursday, the 24th day of November instant, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer, by ceasing so far as they may from their secular labors, and meeting in their several places of worship, there to join in thanks and prayer and praise to Almighty God, whose goodness has been so manifest in our history and in our lives, and offering earnest prayers that His bounties may continue to us and to our children.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington this 4th day of November, in the year of our Lord 1881, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and sixth.

CHESTER A. ARTHUR.

By the President:

JAMES G. BLAINE,
Secretary of State.

The Gambetta Ministry:

PARIS, Nov. 15.—The new Ministry is gazetted in the Journal Official, as follows: M. Gambetta, President of the Council and Minister of Foreign Affairs.

M. Waldeck-Rousseau, Minister of the Interior.

M. Allain-Targe, Minister of Finance.

M. Cazot, Minister of Justice.

M. Raynal, Minister of Public Works.

M. Paven, Minister of Agriculture.

M. Heuvier, Minister of Commerce and Colonies.

M. Paul Bert, Minister of Public Instruction.

Gen. Campenon, Minister of War.

M. Antonin Proust, Minister of Fine Arts.

M. Cochery, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs.

M. Gougeard, Minister of Marine.

The following have been appointed Under Secretaries: M. Spuller, of Foreign Affairs; M. Le Faure, of War; M. Blanc, of Marine; M. Cuno, of Agriculture; M. Felix Faure, of Commerce and Colonies; M. Lesguillon, of Public Works; M. Martin-Feuille, of Justice; M. Develle, of Interior, and M. de La Porte, of Finance.

Chicago Inter-Ocean.

Perils of the Deep.

The world renowned swimmer, Capt. Paul Boyton, in an interview with a newspaper correspondent at the seashore, related the following incident in his experience:

Reporter.—"Capt in Boyton, you must have seen a large part of the world?"

Capt. Boyton.—"Yes sir, by the aid of my Rubber Life Saving Dress, I have traveled over 10,000 miles on the rivers of America and Europe; have also been presented to the crowned heads of England, France, Germany, Austria, Belgium, Italy, Holland, Spain and Portugal, and have in my possession forty-two medals and decorations; I have three times received knighthood, and been elected honorary member of committees, clubs, orders and societies."

Reporter.—"Were your various trips accompanied by much danger?"

Capt. Boyton.—"That depends upon what you may call dangerous. During my trip down the river Tagus in Spain I had to descend one hundred and two waterfalls, the highest being about eighty-five, and innumerable rapids. Crossing the Straits of Messina, I had three ribs broken in a fight with sharks, and coming down the Somme, a river in France, I received a charge of shot from and startled huntsman. Although all this was not very pleasant, and might be termed dangerous, I felt nothing more on my trip than intense cold; for as long as my limbs are easy, and not cramped or benumbed, I am all right. Of late I carry stock of St. Jacobs Oil in my little boat,—(the Captain calls it "Baby Mine and has stored therein signal rockets, thermometer, provisions etc.)—and I have had but little trouble. Before starting out I rub myself thoroughly with the article, and its action on the muscles is wonderful. From constant exposure I am somewhat subject to rheumatic pains, and nothing would ever benefit me, until I got hold of this Great German Remedy. Why, on my travels I have met people who had been suffering with Rheumatism for years; by my advice they tried the Oil, and it cured them. I would sooner do without food for days than be without this remedy for one hour. In fact, I would not attempt a trip without it."

The Captain became very enthusiastic on the subject of St. Jacobs Oil, and we left him citing instances of the curative qualities of the Great German Remedy to a party around him.

(Communicated.)

Thanksgiving Day.

The President has recommended next Thursday (24th inst.) to be observed by all the people of the United States as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer, and he requests every one to cease, as far as may be, from secular labor, and to meet in their respective places of worship; there to join in ascribing honor and praise to God, whose goodness has been so manifest in our history and our lives; and to offer up earnest prayers that his bounties may continue to us and our children. The Governors of all the States in accordance with the recommendation of the President have issued proclamations designating the 24th as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

It has long been the pious custom for the people of these United States after the ingathering of their harvests, to render thanks to the Giver of every good and perfect gift for His manifold kindnesses, and to beseech a continuance of his blessings.

Three thousand three hundred and seventy-one years ago, The Lord spake unto Moses, saying, the fifteenth day of the seventh month shall be the Feast of Tabernacles unto the Lord: Ye shall do no servile work therein. (In Exodus it is called the Feast of Ingathering—when thou hast gathered in the labors out of the field.) The 7th month among the Jews was called Ethanim or Tisri. It corresponded with the last of September and the first of October with us. At the Feast of Tabernacles the people were commanded by the Lord to take boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm trees and the willows of the brook, and to rejoice before the Lord their God.

We should observe Thanksgiving-day with gladness and praises to God, for the services of religion are not incompatible with the highest enjoyment. We should remember God's mercies and rejoice in His grace; we should thank Him for past and present blessings, and pray for future ones. We should exclaim, Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, and our hearts should be lifted up to God in thankfulness for the unspeakable gift of His Holy Son our Saviour.

Thanksgiving-day should be a Feast of Rest, of Worship, and of Rejoicing. On this day the people should commune with God and keep before them the fact that all prosperity comes from Him, and thus awaken feelings of gratitude and liberality. The people should preserve a religious fealty to God. Every one should carefully consider his personal responsibility to Almighty God and understand that all are placed upon a common level of dependence upon the great I AM. We are compelled to acknowledge that God alone is the only absolute owner of the Earth, and that the people are only His stewards. God's generosity, which opposes man's selfishness, should teach us to be kind to each other, for the Earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof. We are God's; we are bought with a price, therefore let us glorify Him in our bodies and in our spirits which are His.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,
FOR RESTORING GRAY HAIR TO ITS NATURAL VITALITY AND COLOR.

It is a most agreeable dressing, which is at once harmless and effectual, for preserving the hair. It restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray, light, and red hair, to a rich brown, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use thin hair is thickened, and baldness often though not always cured. It checks falling of the hair immediately, and causes a new growth in all cases where the glands are not decayed; while to brashy, weak, or otherwise diseased hair, it imparts vitality and strength, and renders it pliable.

The Vigor cleanses the scalp, cures and prevents the formation of dandruff; and, by its cooling, stimulating, and soothing properties, it heals most if not all of the humors and diseases peculiar to the scalp, keeping it cool, clean, and soft, under which conditions diseases of the scalp and hair are impossible.

As a Dressing for Ladies' Hair

The Vigor is incomparable. It is colorless, contains neither oil nor dye, and will not soil white cambric. It imparts an agreeable and lasting perfume, and as an article for the toilet it is economical and unsurpassed in its excellence.
