Items of Local Interest

William Harris, near Mexico, is ill at his home suffering from pneumonia.

Mrs. Flora Kiler, Oak Orchard, visited friends in town this week.

Wednesday evening Miss Margery Armacost ,Chase street, entertained a number of her friends at cards.

Wednesday evening Miss Catherine Waddell, East Main street, attended a dance in Hanover, Pa.

Sunday last Miss Sue Billingslea returned from a Baltimore hospital much improved from a recent operation.

Sunday morning a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shaeffer, Webster street.

This week Mr. and Mrs. John B. Rupley, this city, visited relatives in Charles Town, W. Va.

Miss Lorlynne Taylor, Fair Ground

Mrs. Sterling Snader, Baltimore, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Silas Bish, near this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nagle and daughter, Hazel, Pennsylvania avenue, spent Easter in Baltimore.

Mr. Reginald Stoner spent Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Stoner, West Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunter, John street, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter.

Miss Charlotte Blizzard, Carrollton, spent the week-end with her cousin, Miss Margaret Ebaugh, this city.

Miss Edith Beard, Liberty street, is spending this week visiting friends in Baltimore and Washington, D. C.

Tuesday Mrs. Charles Magin, East Main street, was taken to a Baltimore

MILLERS

The storm that passed over our vicinity last Sunday uprooted trees and completely demolished the coal house at the school house.

Miss Emma Giller spent the past week among relatives at Baltimore.

Mrs. George Hoover spent several days the past week visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hosfeld, of Baltimore.

Mrs. S. H. Hare spent the past week among relatives and friends at Baltimore.

Clarence Miller and son LeRoy, of Baltimore, spent last Friday visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Muffit, of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, spent last Friday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leister at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zepp.

Miss Marguerite Beam, of Patapsco, spent several days the past week visiting her sister Mrs. Clarence Bollinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller and Mrs. William Graf spent last Saturday visiting relatives and Mrs. John Eckard, Hanover, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mathias and children, near Littlestown, spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard.

Sunday school at 9; preaching at 10 by the Rev. A. G. Wolf; Y. P. S. C. E. at 7:30; topic, "What Opportunities Do Missions Offer For Life Service." Acts 13—1-3; 16—9-10; Mark 6—7-13. Everybody welcome.

Mr. Charles Black has beautified his place by giving his buildings a fresh coat of paint. Mr. Hollie Myers with his force of men did the work.

GREENMOUNT

The new canning company of this place is placing contracts for corn, tomatoes and beans. They have installed a telephone in its factory.

William Menchey had public sale last Thursday of his personal property here.

Misses Dorothy and Ruth Reed spent the Easter holidays at the home of their grandfather, George Brown, near Westminster.

Miss Dorothy Graf spent the Easter

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Spring house-cleaning time is with us.

We are prepared to serve your wants along these lines: Matting rugs, Japanese Fibre rugs, Grey, Rattannia, Wool and Fiber, Velvet, Brussells, Axminster, Rug Borders, Linoleums, Window shades, Curtain Strips, Cretons, Portiers, and Rubber Step Pads.

A complete line of house floor coverings.

Special Values In Dresses At $16.50