—Court this week.

—Thanksgiving next Thursday.

—Spare the rabbits and birds on Thanksgiving day.

—Another heavy frost and some little ice last Wednesday morning.

—Don't fail to see Miss Lewis, at Music Hall, next Tuesday evening

—Repairs furnished for any stove manufactured by Nichols & Bro.

—The Middle Convocation of the Diocese of Easton is in session at Denton.

—Bishop Lay will preach at Trinity Chapel Thanksgiving day at 11 A. M.

—There is a protracted meeting and revival of religion in progress at the M. E. Church.

—For cheap cook, heating and fire-place stoves, go to Nichols & Bro., opposite the bank.

—Capt. Washington Nelson, of this county, died at his residence in Oxford Neck on election day.

—Secure season tickets at once for the Star Course of Entertainments, at Mr. McK. Goldsborough's book store.

—Being about to make a change in my business, I will sell at a reduced price any goods in Stock. I. L. Steinem.

—The town commissioners have just had several plank crossings put down along the streets of Easton, a much needed improvement.

—The Republican darkies, of Easton, held a torchlight procession on Thursday evening, to celebrate their late victory, and really seemed to enjoy it as much as they do a funeral.

—Rev. George W. Shreck, of Baltimore, will deliver his Lecture on "Why I Never Married," in the M. E. Church South, Trappe, on Wednesday evening Nov. 30, at 7.30 o'clock.

—Mr. A. A. Pascault, will make his first aution sale of Live Stock, at his stock yard on Dover street, on Saturday the 26th inst. The sale will embrace some 25 head of Alderny and grade cattle. See advertisement in the STAR.

—If my 5 cent natural Havana filled cigar, upon which I am trying to build a reputation, is not as represented, the money will be refunded. I have handled leaf tobacco for 21 years. P. G. Hoffman, cor. Railroad avenue and Hanson street. aug30-3m

—John Merryman, of Baltimore county, is dead. Mr. Merryman was Treasurer of the State some years ago, succeeding Mr. Fowler. He was a member of the legislature before the last, and has held a number of responsible county offices in Baltimore county.

—It is said that thrre will be a short term of Court, (November term), which speaks well for our county, but business is on the increase on Market Space at the "Citizen's Provision Depot" and all families needing supplies for the table go direct to Norris' as headquarters.

—One of my children was recently attacked with a severe case of Croup, which really assumed a distressing phase; I was recommended to try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, after other remedies had failed. The effect was most happy and speedy, causing an entire cure. F. Albrecht, 241 S. Sharp St., Baltimore, Md.

—The Star Lecture Course, will commence at Music Hall on the 29th of this month as per announcement, and the large audience which will be attracted thither, by the beautiful and accomplished lady who will deliver the first lecture will also be attracted by the beautiful bonnets purchased at Mrs. M. S. Norris' Bazaar of Fashion.

—All persons indebted to THE STAR office for subscription, job work and advertising, are requested to make immediate payment. We have been at considerable expense lately for repairs and improvements in the office, and are in need of every cent due us. We have waited a long time with not a few of our patrons, and they should now pay us, as we need the money.

—Home testimony is the best in the world. Mr. W. F. Porter, a well-known attorney-at-law, No. 40 St. Paul Street, says he has used J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters for chronic diseases of the Liver and derangement of the Stomach, and recommend it as a certain specific in those diseases—try it and be convinced. Sold by all druggists. 25 cents a paper or $1 a bottle. W. E. Thornton, proprietor, Baltimore, Md.

—No white people were in the negro torchlight procession Thursday night. The darkies had the celebration all to themselves. If they make such a parade over the partial defeat of the whites, what would they not do if they should at any time carry both the county and the State? No doubt they honestly believe that each negro is entitled to his promised 40 acres and a mule, and they confidently expect to get them, when the State comes under negro rule.

—A scribbler in the Gazette, who signs himself "gray hairs," writes as if under the impression that the author of the communication in last Tuesday's STAR signed "Young Democrat" is an office-holder. It is due to the office-holders of the county to say, "Young Democrat," is not an office-holder, has never been a candidate for office, has never held an office, and is not related to any office-holder. He is just what he signs himself, and nothing more, a young Democrat.

—A first rate machinist is a most important man to have in any community. Some short time ago, the press on which the STAR is printed collapsed. An examination disclosed the fact, that the trouble was caused by the wearing out of a most important part of the machine, and we were advised that it could only be repaired by sending it to the city, or having a city machinist came here and take the measurements, so that the work could be done at a city shop. We had Mr. William H. Withgott, of Withgott & Brother, examine it, and he said he could do it as well as a city machinist, and he did it to our entire satisfaction, making the press better than it was when new. It was a very nice job, and difficult to execute. We can endorse Mr. Withgott as a first-class practical machinist, and confidently recommend him to any one wanting work done in his line. He is an intelligent master of his business in all of its departments. We lately saw a job he did for the paper mill company, which reflected much credit on his skill, and showed that Withgott & Brother have the tools for executing the most difficult jobs in the manufacture and repair of all kinds of machinery.

Rainfall at Easton.

Mr. Jesse H. T. Hubbard has been registering the amount of rainfall since the sixteenth of October ultimo, measured by an instrument which he had built for the purpose. The following are the figures, and the points from which the wind blew when it was raining:

October 16th, wind E. by S. half S.,	1	inch.
" 20 and 21, " "	1½	"
Nov. 8, wind W. by N., half N.,	1	"
Nov. 7 and 9, wind E. by S., half S.,	1	"
Nov. 19, wind S., changed W. by N., half north,	½	"
Whole amount of rainfall,	4½	ins.

Another Star Course of Lectures.

It is announced by the management that we are to have another Star Course of Lectures in Easton this winter. The first will be given by Miss Helen Morris Lewis. Miss Lewis is represented as both beautiful and talented, and will doubtless have a good house. The Royal Hand Bell Ringers will appear in Christmas week, Miss Nella F. Brown in January, and Miss Ellen Wright in February next. The four will complete the course. We hope the course will be sustained. Season tickets $2.25.

Store Robbed.

The store of Mr. Wm. Mason, at Hillsborough, was broken open and robbed of a quantity of goods one night about ten days ago. The three negro men who committed the robbery have been arrested—two of them are in Easton jail—the other gave bail.

Public Business.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The county commissioners on Tuesday were engaged in passing and paying bills. They paid out $1,104.37.

ORPHANS' COURT.

The Court met on Tuesday. Col. William Hayward, executor of Martha H. Smith, passed his final account. S. S. Yea adm'r of Wm. H. Duncan, presented a list of debts operate. William Henry Smith was appointed guardian of Thomas Brooks, a minor, both colored. The Court passed an order authorizing John W. Martin, executor of Eleanor M. Mills, to sell the Building Association stock belonging to Mss. Mills' estate.

COUNTY SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.

The School Board was in session on Tuesday. Mr. J. Caulk Kemp was appointed trustee of Island Creek Neck School vice Jonathan H. Leonard, resigned. The Board were engaged examining the Treasurer's account, but adjourned without completing the work. The publishers of McGuffy's readers and Butler's grammar have recently brought out revised editions of these celebrated school books, which have for several years been used in our public schools. The publishers sometime ago, proposed to exchange the new edition for the old, book for book, good, bad and indifferent, without any boot, if the school commissioners would consent to the exchange. The proposition has been accepted; the new books have been received; and Mr. Chaplain last week was engaged in classifying, counting, and shipping the old books to Baltimore. The exchange will be highly advantageous to this county.

THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE AT TUNIS' MILL.

Alexander Chaplain, Esq., Examiner of public schools, was at Tunis' Mill on Wednesday, and selected the site for the new school house. It is located on a lot the School Commissioners bought of Mrs. Redman, about 200 yards from the bridge over Leed's creek. The lot embraces one-third of an acre. The main building of the School house is 32 feet by 20 feet, with a wing 28 feet by 20 feet. It is to be a single story, with a knocked down cornish. Roberts & Sons have the contract to put up the building. The building and furnishing the house will cost between $900 and $1,000.

THE NEW SCHOOL HOUSE AT HAMBLETON.

The new School house at Hambleton, built by Mr. W. C. Greenwood, has been completed, and is now occupied. The house is 20x30 feet, and is a very nice building. It cost $600.

THE COST OF SCHOOL BELLS.

To show how public matters will be exaggerated when money is involved, we refer to the Hambleton School. The School Commissioners have latterly been putting bells on all of the new school houses, in order that those living in the neighborhood may know that the teacher is in place by the ringing of the bell at school hours. A bell was put on the new school house at Hambleton. As its tone is good, it is said it can be heard a mile and a half away. A report was lately current in the neighborhood, that the bell cost $500, and a number of persons pronounced it a great piece of extravagance. Inquiry at the office of the School Commissioners elicited the fact that the bell only cost $6.50. This is the most extravagant piece of exaggeration we have met with in a long time.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE NOVEMBER TERM OF THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR TALBOT COUNTY.

EASTON, Nov. 21.—The Circuit Court for Talbot county met to-day, present his Honor Judge Frederick Stump, presiding; J. Frank Turner, clerk; Peter Stevens, deputy clerk; J. F. Bateman, Esq., States' Attorney; William Reddie, Sheriff; William K. Rathell, crier; bailiffs, jurors, witnesses, attornoys, &c.

The July term was called and adjourned. The November term called. Col. Samuel Wetherill was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury; the Grand Jury drawn, charged by the Judge, and sent to their room.

The following is the GRAND JURY.

Samuel Wetherill, Joseph H. Fairbank, John A. Catrup, John V. Lowe, James M. Wooters, Samuel W. Neavitt, Levi T. Dukes, William H. Cummings, John F. Kersey, William J. Marvell, William E. Lowe, Luther Cortelyou, James C. Tarbutton, Charles H. Denny, Benjamin Taylor, William S. Denny, Robert J. Dawson, Thomas J. Griffin, David C. Avery, Edward G. Harrison, James P. Hambleton, I. L. Adkins (excused), John W. Martin (excused).

PETIT JURY.

John C. Bartlett, John F. Saulsbury, James H. Sutton, P. T. Pasterfield, Frank S. Orem, Charles M. Jump, Samuel H. Wrightson, Charles R. Mullikin, Joseph A. Collison, John W. Knotts, Thomas P. Reese, Frank Dawson, Henry B. Leverton, Robert H. Kemp, John T. Rathell, George M. Jenkins, Jonathan Leonard, R. H. T. Councell, Thos. G. Reynolds, Samuel H. Seth, Joseph O. Kemp, N. B. Leonard, James Thomas Bartlett.

Gov. Thomas moved the admission of Mr. Wilfred Bateman as an attorney of this court.

J. Clayland Mullikin, Esq., moved the admission of Mr. George T. Baggs.

The criminal appearance docket was called.

State vs. George Santom, presented for wilfully disturbing the neighborhood near Graham Hall, Easton, on the night of July 16th, 1880. Tried before the court; plea not guilty; Bateman for the State, not guilty.

State vs. William Hinson, presented for swearing within the public streets in the town of Easton. Tried before the court; plea not guilty; Bateman for the State, Gibson for the defense; guilty—fined $1 and costs.

State vs. Alexander D. Pratt, presented for shooting George M. Killman in a row at Royal Oak, February 18th, 1881. Trial by jury; plea not guilty; Bateman and Gibson for the State, Stewart for the defense; evidence nearly all in.

A Grand Success.

Miss Helen Morris Lewis, the beautiful and accomplished artiste, who has so delighted all who have ever had the pleasure of listening to her, will appear at Music Hall, Tuesday evening Nov. 29. Read the splended testimonial from the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel:

The handsome young elocutionist was not long in obtaining the admiration of her hearers, for it soon seemed that Georgia and Carolina were vying with each other in enthusiasm. "The Death of Minnehaha" and "Lady Clare" were the star pieces of the first part. The quaint legendary verse of Longfellow and the simple ballad of Tennyson were beautifully wrought up. The "Love Chase" was also very spirited and fine. "The Maniac" was decidedly the best rendition of the evening, nor do we ever recollect to have seen or heard a more perfect portrayal of this poem. The plaintive appeal, the despairing wail, the convulsive throes, and the weird ravings of this remarkable piece received ample justice from Miss Lewis last night. Her "Battle of Ivry" was likewise a splendid piece of declamation. Miss Lewis is undoubtedly a lady of great talent. Her bearing is superb, her manner magnetic, and her genius striking.

Choked to Death.

The negroes in jail had a tustle last Friday night, in which one of them came very near losing his life. There were five or six of them in one room, and while they were amusing themselves in the dark by wrestling, and shoving each other, and sparring, a negro named Madison Lewis, arrested for robbing Mason's store, threw down another negro named Wm. Brown, arrested for stealing a boat on Tilghman's Island, put his knees on Brown's breast, and his hand at his throat, and choked him until he was lifeless. The other negroes hearing the choking sound, lit a match, and instantly taking in the situation, went to the relief of Brown. It took two of them sometime to disengage the fingers of Lewis from Brown's throat, and when they were separated, Brown was found to be insensible. The jailor was called, and Dr. Johnson sent for; and it took the doctor two hours to resuscitate the almost lifeless Brown. For sometime it looked as if the man would not recover.

Runaway.

As Mr. Thos. Quimby was returning home from Easton last Tuesday evening, his horse become frightened at Wilson's steam mill, near town, ran off, collided with Mr. Shade Carmine's wagon, threw Mr. Quimby out, and then went at the height of his speed up the Centreville road. Mr. Edward Stoops, of Delaware, was in the carriage with Mr. Quimby, and managed to jump out while the horse was running. The horse tore himself from the buggy at Tanyard bridge, and kept the road until he reached Mr. William Cole's when he took to the woods. Mr. Quimby did not find him until Thursday morning, when he was found on Mrs. Sarah Stoop's farm, with the harness on him, and with check rein fastened just as it was when he was hitched to the carriage. He was badly gry enough, and seemed to be very thankful to be caught and given his oats. The breast strap and traces are missing, and Mr. Quimby will pay liberally for their return to the STAR office.

Death of Mr. Lemon J. Catrup.

Mr. Lemon J. Catrup, formerly of this unty, died in Baltimore city last week.

[COMMUNICATED.]

MR. EDITOR: The writhes with which "Gray Hairs" flies to the defense of those who defeated the Democratic ticket, and the readiness with which he repeats those expressions he had been chewing over and grumbling about for days before the election, serve to cast doubt upon his voting the straight ticket, although he professes to have done so. He is "in" now, and doubtless feels himself safe, but the young Democracy will remember him, and settle up with him, when he, like the badger hog," he may have to go into his hole, leaving no shadow behind. Such chronic grumblers do the Democratic party more harm than pronounced Republicans. It is true that the young Democracy have been transformed into a feline race; so say "Gray Hairs" claims: "Kilkenny cats," with cannibalistic ideas; but rather a tribe whose paws will do a terrible site of "scratching," should any Maltese Half Breeds chance to be upon the ticket in the future; provided, it can be done without destroying the Democratic supremacy in the State.

YOUNG DEMOCRACY.

The Best Time.

Many of our most prudent customers and citizens are now buying their clothing for themselves and boys for the fall and winter. We have everything ready, and there is no reason for delay, and there is reason for buying now. You may as well have a house full of clothing to select from and plenty of time to pick it out, as to come in a crowd after a while after the first cold snap has caught you unprepared. Largest stock in Baltimore. Lower Prices than all at C. N. Oehm & Son, One Price Clothiers, Hanover and Pratt sts. We have not asked permission but we will chance it and refer to the publisher of this paper.

THE STAR can confidently recommend both goods and prices.

Personal.

Dr. Joseph Dawson, of this county, has removed to Suddlersville, Queen Anne's county, to practice his profession, in the place of Dr. Dudley, who has been elected clerk of the county.

Mike Bannon, charged as being accessory to the murder of Dr. Maddux, has been discharged by Judge Hammond under a writ of habeas corpus.

John L. Hopkins, Esq., of this couuty has gone to California on a pleasure trip.

EAST AVON, Nov. 18th, 1881.

MR. EDITOR: As the impression that I am selling out seems to prevail, because some things are to be sold next Wednesday, I shall be glad if you will allow me to say that such is not the fact. I trust there are many years of farming life in store for me, and in old Talbot. Yours truly,

WM. W. HEMSLEY.

Legal Holiday.

Thursday next being Thanksgiving day and a legal holiday, the Post Office in Easton will only be open from 6:30 to A. M. to 8 A. M. and from 1 P. M. to 4 P. M. No money orders will be issued or letters registered during the day.

MARRIAGES.

BRIDGES—JAMES.—At Chatham Chapel, November 10th, 1881, by Rev. John Warthman, Mr J. Perry Bridges and Miss Ida James, both of Broad Creek Neck.

MURPHY—NEWELL.—At Woodberry, Baltimore county, November 1, 1881, by Rev. J. E. Amos, George W. Murphy and Miss Mollie A. Newell, both of that place.

DEATHS.

LEGG.—On Kent Island, November 12th, 1881, Mrs. Kate C. Legg, wife of Edward C. Legg.

JONES.—On Kent Island, November 9th 1881, David Columbus Jones, in the 80th year of his age.

WRIGHT.—On the 20th inst., Frank Gibson Wright, Jr., son of Wm. P. Wright, aged 21 years.

[Balto. Sun and American please copy.]

STAFFORD.—Near Wye Mills, Nov. 8th, 1881, Charles Hill, youngest child of the late Joseph Stafford, in the 23d year of his age.

Thus has death, with his rude and cruel hand, laid in the grave three of our loved ones, father, sister and brother, but not forever. They shall arise! Oh, blessed Hope! that again we shall see them in that "Home of the Soul," where there will be no pain, sickness, death nor parting.

As Charlie neared that Haven of Rest he could say, "I am going home!" "Praise Him!" "I am going over on the other shore—forever —forever." He had been suffering for about two years with a complication of diseases, and at times, great and painful were his sufferings; but he bore them without a murmur. His afflictions wrought for him a crown that fadeth not away. So when the summons came it found him ready. Calmly he laid his plans of life by, and took up anticipations of the better world. And as he said to the writer a few minutes before his departure "Come and go with me," it behooves all who loved Charlie so dearly here, to prepare to meet him "In that Beautiful Land, the far-away home of the Soul." Calmly he sleeps in his narrow bed, awaiting the resurrection of the just, when he will arise to join the throng "who have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb."
