—Sam Townsend, of Delaware, is dead.

—Fine array of Holiday goods at Minnick & Son's.

—President Arthur has taken possession of the White House.

The "Musical Ship" at Minnick & Son's is the neatest novelty out.

—Repairs furnished for any stove manufactured by Nichols & Bro.

—"Chimes of Normandy" by Royal Hand-Bell Ringers, Music Hall, Dec. 30.

—White hemstitched silk handkerchiefs, very cheap at Ball, Shannahan & Grace's.

—Malaga grapes, nuts, raisins, currants, apples, citron and candy at Stevens & Hayward's.

—For cheap cook, heating and fire-place stoves, go to Nichols & Bro., opposite the bank.

—Fish Commissioner Hughlett has put some German carp in the Nanticoke river as an experiment.

—Jarrell, Nichols & Cox's show windows are just crowded with handsome articles suitable for Christmas.

—A large supply of Christmas candies, nuts, &c., just received at MacK. Goldsborough's book store.

—The Comic Opera Company from Baltimore failed to put in an appearance last Tuesday. "Cause why?"

A very large lot of winter gloves bought at a sacrifice and for sale extra cheap by Ball, Shannahan & Grace.

—Raisins, currants, citron, plain and French candies, fancy cakes, crackers, &c., at bottom prices at Jarrell, Nichols & Cox's.

The protracted meeting at the M E. Church in this place continues with unabated interest. A number have professed conversion.

—Attention of our readers is called to the superior assortment now exhibited at the old Hardware establishment of Thos. C. Nicols.

—Read Jarrell, Nichols & Cox's new advertisement in to-day's issue. They advertise a beautiful line of goods suitable for Christmas presents.

A house on the farm of Rev. Bascom Ridgeway, of New York, rented by Mr. Thomas P. Hopkins, in Chapel district, was destroyed by fire last week.

—From Sassafras, Kent Co., Md.—I find that I sell as much of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup as of all other cough remedies combined. J. E HARTLEY, Druggist.

—We would gladly oblige our Trappe correspondent by publishing the names he wants, but we have not a list of them. Will publish them if we can get them.

—There have been more stoves sold at G. W. Beck's this season than at any other stove house in town, which is the best evidence that they are giving satisfaction.

Mr. MacKenzie Goldsborough has just returned from the city with a fresh supply of appropriate gifts for the season, including books, toys and fancy goods.

—There is on sale at the hardware establishment of Thos. C. Nicols a superior single-barrel breech-loading gun at six dollars; the best and cheapest gun we have ever seen.

—The scaffolding has been removed from around the new jail, but still the building looks too squatty. Somehow we don't, and can't, like its architectural design. There is not a single closet in the sheriff's house.

—Mr. W. H. Councell has bought Mr. Henry B. Baker's farm in Chapel district, part of the Goldsbrough Square Farm, containing 220 acras, for $6,500. Tilghman & Clark made the sale.

Mr William Hazleton has bought the Baltimore Gazette. The name is to be changed to The Times, and it is to be run as an independent paper, after the pattern of the Philadelphia Times.

Martin F. Lucker continues to repair fine watches and jewelry, and guarantees for one year. All watches and valuable jewelry left with him for repair is kept in a fire and burglar proof safe, —Stevens & Hayward have the handsomest stock of Christmas goods in town. Beautiful Plaques, French Bisque, Tiles, plush goods, glass goods and a general variety of fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents.

—Mr Geo. W. Beck, sold and shipped, Thursday night, a cook stove and utensils, to Okahumka, Florida. The stove was for Mr. T. C. Morris, son of J. G. Morris, Esq., of this county. Mr. Morris expects to make Flyrida his home.

—Mr. George H. Tarbutton has qualified as county commissioner, his commission having been received by the Clerk of the Court on Saturday. Our people are now relieved of their fear of being dominated over by negro constables and negro road supervisors.

—See Ball, Shannahan & Grace's show window for a very large and handsome line of silk handkerchiefs, neck wear and a number of fancy articles suitable for Christmas presents We also ask our friends to walk in and see their immense stock now on exhibition.

Mr. Wm. J. Marshrll has bought the lot at the foot of Federal street, from Mr. Thomas J. Clark, and has removed his livery stable from the lot back of his residence, to that position. He has enlarged the stable. It is 75 by 29 feet. The entrance will be on Federal street.

—It is currently reported as coming from prominent republicans, that certain Democrats heretofore high in the party, contributed money to elect the Republican ticket in this county Can this be so? or are Republicans only blowing for effect? The truth of the matter ought to be publicly known.

—Gov. Hamilton has pardoned Jesse L. Woodcock out of the penitentiary, where he was serving a sentence of eight years, for burning his jewelry store in Easton. He has been in prison only about eighteen months. He returned to Salisbury Saturday night. He is not likely to visit Easton again.

—At this bilious season the system needs cleansing toward the dreadful feelings attending an early attack, and nothing can do it more effectually than J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters, manufactured by W. E. Thornton, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists. $1 a bottle, or 25 cents a package.

—The county commissioners have sold the B. & O. R. R. bonds held to the credit of the county sinking fund. These bonds were bought in 1876 at 97; and are now sold at 1.22. $5,000 was invested in these bonds, and the gain to the county by the transaction was $1,452.75. The commissioners will invest the proceeds of the sale in the county jail bonds.

—Deputy Sheriff Lee took poor Sam Mullikin to the Maryland Hospital last Wednesday, he having been adjudged a lunatic and a pauper by a jury. Sam was very careful to let the Hospital authorities know that he was not crazy. He is a first rate painter, and if the superintendent of the Hospital will only give him work to do in his line and keep him from liquor, he will paint the whole hospital and be happy.

—On Tuesday of last week, a daughter of Mr. John Clifton, of Cordova, aged about 19 years, attempted to remove a top from the stove, using her dress as a cloth with the lifter. The garment took fire, and the child's clothes were soon ablaze. She was badly burned about the body and arms. Her mother tore the burning clothes from her and had her own hands severely burned. Dr. C. H. Rose rendered professional aid.

—Deputy Sheriff Lee assisted by ex-Sheriff Reddie on Tuesday night took off the following prisoners: to the penitentiary Madison Lewis, 6 years, for burglary, Larry Hayward, 18 months for larceny; William Brown four years for larceny; Ellen Warwick, four years for burglary, all colored, the woman Warwick taking her year old child with her. To the House of Correction, George W. Eames, white, three years for larceny.

—Bishop Lay will preach the third sermon of his Advent course of lectures at Trinity Chapel next Friday evening at 7½ o'clock.

ORPHANS' COURT.

OCTOBER TERM, FRIDAY, Nov. 25, 1881.—The Court met. Chas. R. Baker, att'y for D. R. D. Cheezum, appeared and had a citation issued for John W. Cheezum, adm'r of Dan'l Cheezum, to appear and show cause why he should not return a further account of ad'm of said deceased's estate.

TUESDAY, Nov. 29th, 1881.—The Court met. Letters of administration were granted to Robert Symons, adm'r of John Symons. Harry J. Hopkins and John A. Barwick were appointed appraisers. Letters of administration on the estate of George Stewart were granted to Joseph H. Gray. C. H. Gibson, attiy for John W. Cheezum, adm'r of Daniel Cheezum, responded to the citation issued on Friday, and Tuesday, the 6th of January, was set apart to hear the ease. O. Tilghman, att'y for Blanchard Emory and Mary G. Emory, his wife, filed issues in the case of Emory vs. Kerr. After considering the petition, letters of administration on the personal estate of David Kerr, Jr., were granted to Blanchard Emary and Mary Emory, his wife. The official bond of E. H. Roe, Register of Wills, was presented and approved. The bond of Thomas F. Bridges, sheriff elect, was presented and approved by the Court.

FRIDAY, Dec. 2.—The Court were engaged in passing creditors' bills.

TUESDAY, Dec. 6.—Rhoda C. Coburn, Executrix of John F. Coburn, presented an account of sales, and debts sperate.

The court passed decrees for the sale of the real estate of Nancy Faulkner. A. A. Pascault, adm'r of Mary Ann Stewart, colored, presented an inventory of the deceased's estate. Further time was granted John W. Cheezum to prepare his papers in the estate of Daniel Cheezum. The Court ordered the adm'rs of David Kerr, Jr., to give notice to creditors to file their claims.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The County Commissioners were in session on Tuesday, present Messrs. Willis and Bartlett. Mr. Willis was elected president pro, tem. The Board received from Baltimore the proceeds of the sale of 54 shares of preferred stock of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, $6,452.75. It was sold for the Board by Brokers John A. Hambleton & Co. The Board were engaged paying court expenses. Amount paid out $798.06.

Royal Hand-Bell Ringers.

The grand old chimes of Westminster, founded on the seven notes of the air in the third part of Handel's Messiah, "I know that my Redeemer Liveth," as performed by this company surpasses in mellow richness, even the old bells themselves.

Personal.

Dr. J. N. Baird, Dentist, has returned to Easton, to practice his profession.

Bishop Lay went to New York on Saturday, to be gone several days, on official business.

Oasis Lodge, No. 182, A. F. & A. M.

Election for officers for ensuing term will take place next Monday night, 19th inst. A full attendance is requested. By order of W. M. THOS. G. NICOLS, Sec'y.

The Christmas (December) St. Nicholas.

This year's Christmas "St. Nicholas" is the finest number of that magazine ever issued; and therefore, probably, it is the finest number of a children's magazine ever printed. Its ninety-odd pages full of fine illustrations make it a delightful Christmas present for a boy or girl.

It opens with a superb frontispiece, engraved by T. Cole, after a painting by the famous Spanish painter Zamacois, and which here figures as one of the illustrations of an article about court-jesters in the olden time.

The number contains the opening chapters of two new serial stories:—"Donald and Dorothy," by Mary Mapes Dodge, the editor of the magazine;—and "The Hoosier School-boy," by Edward Eggleston, author of "The Hoosier School-master" In it appears, also, the beginning of a series of "Stories from the Northern Myths," illustrated with a striking pictured by Robert Blum; and it includes the second installment of "Recollections of a Drummer-boy," in which are narrated some actual exciting experiences of the author when serving in the Northern army during the civil war—and especially how his regiment "got a shelling."

There is a long poem by Eva L. Ogden, engraved and illustrated by Alfred Brennan in full-page form, after the style of the now celebrated "Miller of Dee," by the same contributors.

Mrs. Clara Erskine Clement's "Stories of Art and Artists," are continued in a paper upon Raphael, splendidly illustrated with reproductions of his portrait of himself, his Sistine Madonna, and the Madonna della Sedia.

Of the contents relating especially to the holiday season, the most striking are: Some entertaining glimpses of life and manners in the United States "A Hundred Years Ago," with several pictures by Robert Blum and Alfred Brennan; the first half of a characteristic "fairy" story,—"The Poor Count's Christmas,"—by Frank R. Stockton; Washington Gladden's story of one happy Christmas-day, entitled "An Angel in an Ulster"; and the conclusion of "The Magic Pen," an operetta of which the first part printed in the November number, and which is by E. S. Brooks, author of the successful "Land of Nod" operetta of last Christmas.

The pictures, stories, poems, and lively pieces in this beautiful number will, of course, interest the boys and girls; and at least thirteen hundred members of the Agassiz Association will enjoy reading Mr. Ballard's ninth report concerning that vigorous society, and its delightful, self-imposed studies of Nature; and the "Jack-in-the-Pulpit," "Letter-box," and "Riddle-box" pages will have devoted readers;—but that one thing in this number which is most likely to rivet the attention of the young folk is "Deacon Green's Offer" of one-hundred brand-new one dollar bills to the one hundred boys and girls who best shall do a certain pleasant piece of work for him.

Royal Hand-Bell Ringers.

The following speaks for itself:

FROM THE RIGHT HON. THE EARL OF SHAFTESBURY, K. C. B.:

"24, GROSVENOR SQUARE, London, W., April 9th, 1881.

"DEAR MR. MILLER,—If you can do as much good in America as you and your Company have done in England you will be a positive benefactor to the human race.

"The entertainment you offer to the people is of a high order, refined, attractive and in good taste; and anyone "who has music in his soul" must be delighted with your performances.

"I heartily wish you success. I also trust that you may return home again in safety and very soon. Your obedient servant,

"SHAFTSBURY.

"To DUNCAN MILLER, Esq."

Music Hall, Friday evening, December 30.

Admitted to the Bar.

On Monday night of last week, the Circuit Caurt held a session to examine Messrs Wilfred Bateman and Rothwell Henry Evans, the first a law student in the office of Thomas & Bateman, and the latter a student in the office of Maj. Wm. E. Stewart, whose admission to the bar had been proposed at the beginning of the term. Messrs. Powell & Gibson made the examination in the presence of the Court. It being entirely satisfactory, they were admitted to practice in the Courts of this State. They are both young men of talent, who will be an honor to the profession.

Beatty Organs and Pianos.

We learn that Mayor Beatty, of Washington, New Jersey, is receiving hundreds of orders for his Pianos and Organs for Christmas presents. We advise our readers to order early and avoid the rush. Read his advertisement.

Special Notice.

The town commissioners have just had a general cleaning up of the streets and gutters of the town, and they request us to notify the public, that they will hereafter strictly enforce the ordinance against housekeepers and merchants sweeping their garbage and packing into the streets and gutters. If they will put their offal, suds, &c., in a barrel, the commissioners will have them removed free of expense weekly. If they won't do it voluntarily, they must be made to do it, and that's the end of it.

A Nice Little Farm for Sale.

On the 7th of January next, Mr. Silas A. Simpson, trustee, will offer at public sale, at the town of Trappe, the farm at Hambleton belonging to the estate of the late Miss Nancy Faulkner. This is a most desirable piece of property, both on account of its location and the quality of the land. See the advertisement in the STAR.

Pulmona.

Stevens & Hayward, duggists, Easton, always have a full supply of Pulmona, the greatest known remedy for coughs, throat and lung trouble. It requires only a fair trial to convince one of its efficacy. Free from Morphia or any other anodyne. Price 50 cents. oct11-6m

Election of Officers.

At a meeting of Miller Lodge, No. 18 I. O. O. F. held on Tuesday evening, Dec. 6, 1881, the following officers were elected to serve for the term commencing January 1, 1882: N. G., David C. Avery; V. G., T. J. Smithers; Secretary, Peter Stevens; Treasurer, A. W. Fountain; Hallkeeper, Joseph A. Vickers; Representative to Grand Lodge of Maryland, Dr. J. A. Johnson.

Frazer Axle Grease.

One trial will convince you that it is the best. Ask your dealer for the Frazer Axle Grease, and take no other. Every box has our trade mark on it. 3m.

Errata.

In the report of the Tarbutton-Woodall case on the first page of to-day's STAR two errors occur. The report states that the interview between Mr. J. F. Turner and Mr. William H. Councell took place before the judges of election made their return,—it should have been the day after the return. And Mr. Caleb Griffin is made to say he could stay all day with Bassett, while it should be, could not stay all day.

Old Reputation—New Ideas.

For thirty long years we have been satisfactorily clothing you and your sons, and we publicly promise to do all in our power to both deserve and retain your patronage by honest dealing and genuine low prices.
