—Repairs for stoves at E. J. Hulse's.

—Christmas Tree Holders, at Shannahan & Wrightson's.

—Repairs furnished for any stove manufactured by Nichols & Bro.

—For cook stoves, fire-place heaters, tinware &c., go to Edgar J. Hulse.

—Read carefully Shannahan & Wrightson's new advertisement in to-day's paper.

—All valuable articles left with Martin F. Lucker are kept in a large fire-proof safe.

—If you want a good mince pie, buy none but Shannahan's Home Made Mince Meat.

—For cheap cook, heating and fire-place stoves, go to Nichols & Bro., opposite the bank.

—Large assortment of table and pocket cutlery for sale by Shannahan & Wrightson.

—Another large invoice of fine silver-plated ware, just received by Shannahan & Wrightson.

—Special attention is invited to the advertisements of Christmas goods printed in the STAR.

—Handsome Christmas presents at Jump & Co.'s mammoth establishment. Read their advertisement.

—Royal Hand Bell Ringers, at Music Hall, Friday evening, Dec. 30. Read the endorsement of Mr Pugh.

—But a few choice seats left for the Royal Hand-Bell Ringers. Those that wish them should see to it at once. For sale at Mr. McK. Goldsborough's Book Store.

—Turkeys, dressed and undressed, and poultry of all kinds may be found at Norris' Provision depot, Market Space.

—The lovely weather we have had during the fall and early part of December of 1881, will not soon be forgotten.

—Next Sunday will be Christmas. We tender our readers the compliments of the season, and with them all a merry Christmas.

—Buffalo robes, wolf robes, Scotch robes, horse blankets, and lap blankets are now offered by Shannahan & Wrightson at reduced prices.

—The first snow of the season—last Thursday morning. There was enough to make the ground look white, but it was gone before night.

—When you buy a piece of silver-ware or any kind of jewelry at Martin F. Lucker's, you can have your name engraved without further charge.

—The choicest roasts, and finest beef steaks, which have never failed to give satisfaction, are still to be found at Norris' Provision Depot, Market Space.

—Ladies' dolmans, cloaks, plush trimmed jackets, shawls, skirts—marked down, down, down. The stock is too large, and must be sold. J. J. Jump & Co.

—While buying presents for Christmas remember the useful. Fine Roger's table cutlery is usefull all the year round. Go see them at the Hardware store of Thos. C. Nicols.

—The Town Commissioners are improving Federal street. When the county puts the new pavement down along the jail lot, old acquaintances will hardly recognize the old street.

—Mrs. Judge R. B. Carmichael fell a few dags ago, in attempting to open a door, and broke her hip joint, which it is feared will render her a cripple for life, as she is advanced in years.

—Good advice. If you have a friend with a cough or a cold, tell him to try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It is a good thing, and he will thank you for your advice. The price is only 25 cents a bottle.

—Cook stoves, heating stoves, fire place stoves and ranges, can be bought at Shannahan & Wrightson at lowest city prices. It will pay you to call and examine their stock before buying elsewhere

—Silver plated ware, of the latest patterns and best styles for Christmas and wedding presents, at Shannahan & Wrightson's. Largest assortment of same ever offered in this market before. Every piece guaranteed to be the best tripple plate.

—Some colored singers from Sharp street and Bethel churches, Baltimore, visited St. Michaels last week, and gave concerts on Friday and Saturday evenings for the benefit of the African M. E. Church of St. Michaels. The music was excellent and the attendance large.

—At this bilious season the system needs cleansing toward the dreadful feelings attending an early attack, and nothing can do it more effectually than J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters, manufactured by W. E. Thornton, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all druggists. $1 a bottle, or 25 cents a package.

—The Legion of Honor, a Life Insurance Association, is specially commended as a cheap and reliable Life Insurance. What better Christmas present to your family than a certificate of membership in Griffin Council No. 513. It is providing for those you love when called to that bourne whence no traveller returns.

—Mr. Henry Shreve has been appointed Post Master of Easton. Mr. Shreve is from Ohio, and not generally known to one in one hundred of our people. He is a very clever gentleman, and it is said he beat his Maryland Republican competitors through the influence of John Sherman. But what had John Sherman to do with the Easton Postoffice?

—The "Golden Seal" Mince Meat has become a household necessity. Everybody is using it, and everybody is praising it, therefore it has no need of self-praise. We but simply attend to its manufacture—preserving its high reputation; and it sells itself, without a word of praise from us. Prepared only by Samuel Norris, Market Space, and sold in any quantity.

—Ready for Christmas. Best line of goods ever exhibited in Easton at Martin F. Lucker's, consisting of a large assortment of solid silver and silver triple-pated ware, which will make most esthetic Christmas presents. Gold and silver watches, all movements. Gold and silver jewelry in every conceivable design. Lucker will make a key-winding watch, American movements, into a stem-winder; silver for $5.50, gold $6.50. All watches and jewelry repaired for lowest prices, and satisfaction guaranteed. Call and examine. It is a pleasure to show goods, even though you don't buy.

—Rev. Daniel Draper, colored, pastor of the Bethel African M. E. Church, in Easton, after preaching on Sunday night week, harrangued his congregation in a political speech, in which he took occasion to say, "the word white must be stricken out of the Constitution." The condition of the colored school houses was a special ground of complaint; he wants better school houses, and better furnished school houses, and more of them; and the way to get what he wants, is to strike the word "white out of the Constitution. We think the Rev. D. D., had better go slow. If he don't get better school houses until our Constitution and social fabric are moulded after the fashion he proposes, he will have to wait a long time. Democrats may cut their party candidates, but they are hardly prepared yet to cut the word "white" out of the Constitution. And yet when people commence to go down hill there is no telling where they may stop. Witness Billy Mahone and his readjuster Democratic friends.

Sad Money in Court.

On Saturday morning Benjamin Colgan and Dallas Lea, of Caroline county, were arraigned before Justice Nicols for obtaining goods under false pretences of Samuel Rice and John H. Cone, of Talbot county. Constable Grace made the arrests. State's Attorney Bateman appeared for the State and Charles H. Gibson, Esq., for the defense. The facts of the case were about as follows: On Friday morning week Colgan and Lea started from their homes, near Hillsborough, for Preston, to attend a meeting of an encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. They were both in the Home Guard army during the war. They came through this county, and went to Preston via Dover Bridge, a shorter route than going by Denton. When they reached the Bridge they wanted to buy some fish of Mr. Rice, who is the bridge keeper. Mr. Rice and Mr. Cone attend the bridge together and also fish together with a fike net. Rice being engaged at the draw of the bridge, Cone went with Colgan and Lea to get the fish. They took 12 bunches out of the net, and sold them at 25 cents a bunch, making $3 for the lot. After the fish were put in the wagon, Lea tendered Rice in payment a $5 note on a Sandusky, Ohio, bank, dated in $1848 with another $5 Massilon, Ohio, note pasted on the back, without date or signature. Rice called on Cone to give him the $2 change. On examining the note, Cone objected to it, saying he did not like its looks, and didn't think it a good note. Lea said he got it from Colgan. Colgan said he did not know whether the note was good or not, as it was a State bank note, and a good way off; but that Rice knew him, and if the note was not current he would redeem it the next evening on his return from Preston. On Colgan's promise to make good the note and protect him from loss, Rice took the note and let him have the fish. The note proved to be worthless, and Colgan and Lea not returning to redeem it on Saturday night as they promised, Rice had a warrant issued for their arrest. The excuse given for not returning according to promise, was, that as the draw is taken off the bridge at 9 o'clock at night, and they did not get out of the meeting until half-past 8, they had to return home by the other road, and Colgan had tendered to Rice a good note for the bad one before the trial, which was not accepted because the bad note was at Easton in the hands of the magistrate that issued the warrant. The good note was given for the bad one at the trial. After a full hearing of the case Esquire Nicols discharged the parties. A similar note was passed by the same parties on a man in Caroline, but it was redeemed before any complaint was made, Colgan said he found the notes on the public road, and did not know whether they were good or bad. Colgan is a man of some property, and Rice said they had had dealings before and he had always found him on the square. Mr. Cone thought it a job put up on him, and was not disposed to let them swindle him.

London Quarterly.

The London Quarterly Review for October has been received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, 41 Barcley Street, New York. The following are the contents: "The New Testament Revision—the New Greek Text;" "The Past and Future of the Conservative party;" "Dean Stanley's Christian Institutions;" The Development of Electric Lightning;" "The Works of Alexander Pope;" "Luxury—Ancient and Mordern;" "Jebb's Attic Orators;" and "Fair Trade and British Labor." The article on Electric Lightning is a very interesting one, and will be read with pleasure by those who are hoping for the early general use of the electric light. The article on the New Testament Revision will create a sensation. The reviewer literally makes mince meat of the work of the rivisors. He says they have corrected the Greek text by by a spurious copy, and then they have made but an indifferent translation of the fraudulent Greek. This is coming down heavy on those who bossed the revision. Every minister of religion ought to buy a copy of the review and read this learned article before endorsing the new translation, which has been made at the expense of the everlasting gospel as it has been held for nearly two thousand years by most of the Christian world. If the facts given by the reviewer are true, then the translators have made a most sorry both of their sacred work.

Wedding Bells.

Mr. Gustavus K. Benson and Miss Cora E. Dodson, of St. Michaels were married at 6½ o'clock, P. M., at the M. E. church in that town, last Tuesday, by Rev. J. E. Mowbray, pastor of the Church. The altar was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, and a large congregation was present to witness the ceremony There were no bridesmaids or groomsmen, but they were preceded to the alter by Mr. Kemp Benson, of Baltimore, brother of the groom, and Mr. Charles E. Benson, son of James Benson, Esq., of St. Michaels. The bride was tastefully attired in a traveling suit of gray camels hair, the groom wearing the conventional black suit and white necktie. Mr. Percy Minnick, of Easton, presided at the organ and rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march with great expression. After the congratulatisn of friends they took a carriage for Easton Point, where they took the steamer Highland Light for Baltimore, from whence they went to Washington on a wedding trip.

From High Authority.

The following letter was received by Mr. Patchett, from T. B. Pugh, Esq., manager of the celebrated course of lectures at the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, in answer to a letter of inquiry concerning the Royal Hand-Bell Ringers:

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 16, 1881.

S. ELLWOOD PATCHETT, Esq., Easton, Md.

Dear Sir:—In reply to yours of the 13th inst., making inquiry concerning the Royal Hand-Bell Ringers of London, I would say most emphatically, that they are the best organization of the kind that has ever appeared in this country. Their manipulation of the Bells is simply incomparable. They were received with great enthusiasm by the vast audience which greeted them on their first appearance in the Star Course, last fall. They have been engaged for a second appearance on the Spring Series, which is as high a compliment as can be paid any company of artists. Yours truly, T. B. PUGH.

Remember the Poor.

While providing for the enjoyments of our own households at Christmas, we should not forget those who are not able to provide for themselves. The poor should be remembered, and something done for them to cheer their lonesome Christmas. Let each and all look around them for those in need, in order that they may contribute to their Christmas dinners, or something to keep them warm in winter. And what a boon will a nice book, or a pretty toy, be to those children whose parents are unable to buy such thing for them. And the consciousness of having done such an act of kindness will do us even more good than the trifle we give may do the child. None should have to say, we had no Christmas this year.

Royal Hand-Bell Ringers.

The following speaks for itself:

FROM THE RIGHT HON. THE EARL OF SHAFTESBURY, K. C. B.:

"24, GROSVERNOR SQUARE, London, W., April 9th, 1881.

"DEAR MR. MILLER,—If you can do as much good in America as you and your Company have done in England you will be a positive benefactor to the human race.

"The entertainment you offer to the people is of a high order, refined, attractive and in good taste; and anyone "who has music in his soul" must be delighted with your performances.

"I heartily wish you success. I also trust that you may return home again in safety and very soon. Your obedient servant,

"SHAFTESBURY.

"TO DUNCAN MILLER, Esq."

A Beautiful Book.

Vick's Illustrated Floral Guide for 1882 is received, and it is certainly a beautiful book; the handsomest one of the kind we have ever seen. It contains 180 pages, and covers every subject that the gardener or florist may desire, with price lists of all kinds of seed and plants. Its two colored plates are superb. Send for it. It only costs 10 cents.

Vick's Illustrated Monthly Magazine is still published at $1.25 per annum, and is certainly one of the best floral magazines published. Its monthly numbers abound with beautiful colored plates and the most useful information about flowers. Address James Vick, Rochester, N. Y.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The county commissioners met on Tuesday, Mr. George H. Tarbutton, having previously qualified, appeared and took his seat at the Board. On motion of Mr. Tarbutton, Mr. James H. Willis was unanimously elected President of the Board, vice Mr. Edward Woodall retired. The commissioners sold at auction the frame meat house that stood in front of the jail; bought by Patrick Nichols at $22.50. The commissioners were engaged paying court expenses, November term. Adjourned to meet again to-day.

ORPHANS' COURT.

In the Orphans' Court on Tuesday, Robert Symons, adm'r of John Symons, presented an inventory of the estate. The Court passed an order of sale, and directed a notice be published for creditors to file their claims. Rhoda C. Coburn, executrix of John F. Coburn, passed her final account of administration. The account of Wm. H. Rhodes, adm'r of Dennis L. F. Councell, was passed. J. C. Mullikin, att'y for H. Edgar Mullikin, presented a petition representing that Alfred Bromwell is entitled to certain monies of the estate of Emly J. Bromwell, and that he is absent and has not been heard from for more than seven years, although inquiry has been made for him, and praying the Court to appoint him adm'r on the estate of Alfred Bromwell. The petition was granted as prayed for, and J. C. Mullikin was appointed adm'r, the parties entitled to administer having renounced their right in his favor.

COUNTY SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS.

The school commissioners were in session on Tuesday. Several communications were received from parents, requesting that their children might be relieved from the study of French in the high schools. They were referred to the Examiner and teachers, to be reported on at the next meeting of the Board. E. J. Guiteau, Baltimore, agent of the Publishing Company, Cincinnati, appeared before the Board to adjudicate the account of exchange of books. The matter was referred to the Examiner, to be reported on at the next meeting. The Examiner was instructed to have the new school house at Tunis' Mill insured. The Examiner was appointed to improve the heating arrangements of the St. Michaels High School building. William W. Webb, colored teacher at Unionville, was transferred to Ivytown, and George W. Milford, teacher at Ivytown, was transferred to Unionville. The balance of the day was occupied in passing the accounts of teachers and others.

TOWN COMMISSIONERS.

The commissioners of Easton held their regular monthly meeting last Tuesday. Bills to the amount of $237.22 were passed and paid. Peter Stevens, collector, paid the Board $437,-34, less commissions, $21.33. Charles H. Gibson, Esq., resigned the office of clerk to the commissioners, and Mr. A. W. P. Robinson was elected clerk, to fill the vacancy, William H. Bostick was appointed garbage master, vice Mart Hubbard, gone to the paper mill.

MURDER IN CAROLINE.

A Free Fight in which John A. Blanch lost his life.

John A. Blanch, an old man 63 years of age, has been renting a farm of Jas. L. Payne, near Hog Creek, in Caroline county. There has been trouble between the two men during the year, growing out of the allegation that Blanch had not fulfilled his contract. On Wednesday last, about 11 o'clock A. M, the dispute culminated in a fight. While Payne was lamming young Blanch with a bean pole, old Blanch struck Payne twice with a stone, cutting his head badly in two places. The fight between the two old men excited their sons, and young Sam Payne went for old Blanch with a stick, and John F Blanch pitched into Sam Payne with a bludgeon. It is alleged that while the young men were fighting, Jas. L. Payne struck John A. Blanch on the head with a shingle. Blanch died about 6 o'clock P. M. of the same day, from the effect of blows received in the fight. On Thursday Justice W. W. Williamson held an inquest to investigate the case, but no arrests were made. The verdict of the jury is to the effect that John A. Blanch's death was caused by blows received in the fight, but who struck the fatal blow was not proved.

Death of an Estimable Lady.

Mrs. Thomas H. Trippe died at her residence in Easton yesterday morning. She leaves to the care of her grief-stricken husband four young children. Her death is a matter of general regret, as she was a most estimable lady. Mrs. Trippe was a daughter of the late Rev. Henry Mason, D. D., so long rector of St. Peter's Parish.

A SOLILOQUY

To buy or not to buy, that's the question:
Whether 'tis more economical to buy my new suit now,
Or put it off, and suffer all the ills and shakes of winter,
Or to purchase, and thus put an end to a thousand and one heartaches.
To freeze and shake, aye, there's the rub,
For in those heartless blasts of old Boreas,
Such biting air will come as will freeze the marrow in my bones;
And thus the native hue of resolution grows bright within me,
And I'll go direct to Thompson & Kersey's Clothing Emporium
And buy my new suit and overcoat for Christmas,
And thus put an end to the doubts that harass me.
