Christmas Selections.

A Christmas Carol.

Carol, carol Christians,
Carol joyfully,
Carol for the coming
Of Christ's Nativity;
And pray a glad some Christmas
For all good Christian men,
Carol, carol, Christians,
For Christmas come again.

Go ye to the forest,
Where the myrtles grow,
Where the pine and laurel
Bend beneath the snow:
Gather them in Jesus,
Wreath them for his shrine,
Make his temple glorious,
With the box and pine.

It shall smell like Carmel
On our festal day;
Libanus and Sharon
Shall not greener be,
Than our holy chancel,
On Christ's Nativity.
Carol, carol, &c.

Carol, carol, Christians!
Ye must have sweet incense,
Myrrh and finest gold,
At our Christmas altar,
Humbly to unfold.

Blow, blow up the trumpet,
For the solemn feast;
Gird the armor, Christian,
Wear thy surplice priest!
Go ye to the altar,
Pray with fervor, pray,
For Jesus's second coming,
And the Latter Day.
Carol, carol, &c.

Give us grace, oh Saviour,
To put off in might,
Deeds and dreams of darkness
For the robes of light!
As thy saints in glory
Shall be clothed with me,
So to rise in glory,
When thou com'st again.
Carol, carol, &c.

Santa Claus.

BY GRANDPA.

Old Mr. Chris Kingle,
With sleigh bells ajingle,
Comes sweetly to mingle
In the merry Christmas.
He comes at the door
Of gifts for the owner
Of hose in the corner
Of black chimney hung.
He comes in a rattle
Though him it make shiver,
Intent is he ever
The children to please:
He brings them sweet candy,
And plums and raisins,
And aught else that's handy
Their longing to ease.

With pride he deploys
His budget of toys
For girls and for boys,
Whom he dearly loves;
There's rattle and hobby,
A nice spotted pony,
And queer supple John ny,
Made of india rubber.

And for little misses,
Besides the sweet kisses,
There's dolls in bright dresses
Nice pillows and cozy.
Others have the bright eyes
And to laugh some would try
If they but knew
A good Mr. Kingle
With sleigh and jingle
Who comes once a year
Our sweet sons to mingle
In pleasure and cheer.
We're glad for your coming
On this Christmas morning,
For which we've been longing
This many a day!
For what boy is naughty
Or girl curly and pouty,
Who is not pretty
Or good some or shrewd?
Santa Claus knows
Who's good and who's naughty
And knows just what to bring to each one.
A pocket full of
Candy and toys
Is doubtless of
German origin. Though in its present form it is comparatively of recent date, yet its parentage is a great age, whose roots are hidden deep under the earth, but whose top, flourishing in the midst of Wellaby the old German paradise, nourised the she goat upon whose milk Jehan Heroes reared themselves. Yggdrasil was the name of this tree, and its member was still green long after Christianity had been introduced into Germany, when much of its symbolic character was transferred to the Christmas tree. It first fitted up during the Twelve Nights in honor of Berchta, the goddess of spring, it was subsequently transferred to the birthday of Christ, who, as the German, is become the "resurrection and the life." The evergreen tree, an emblem of spring time, became the symbol of an eternal spring. The burning lights were to adumbrate Him who is the "light of the world," and the gifts to remind us that God, in giving his only Son for our world's redemption, conferred upon us the most precious of all gifts. This symbolism extended also to the most usual of Christmas presents, apples and nuts, the former being considered as an emblem of youth, the latter as a profound symbol of spring, while the dog's legs, so late as Saxon, who devoured his own children, and the Knop-fel to the thunder-stone of Thor.

Until within the present century the Christmas-tree was regarded as a distinctively Protestant custom. The Reformers, in order to separate themselves more completely from the Catholic Church, dispensed with its rites, ceremonies and festivals, of the Christmas holidays among the rest. The Kripple, or holy manger, which was considered a distinctively Catholic institution, and the Christmas festival, in antiquity and kindred significance. To invest the festival with additional importance in the eyes of the children, the distribution of holiday presents was transferred from the 6th to the 25th of December, or from St. Nicholas's Eve to Christmas-eve. Such was its origin. Now the Christmas-tree, radiant with light and loaded with its rich wealth of golden fruit, is not only to be found every where throughout Germany, but has taken root and became acclimated upon the Alps of the Tyrol, and from the Kiolen to the Apennines, beneath Italian suns as well as those Tartar snows, alike on the banks of the Neva and the Po, the Ayr and the Ohio, wherever Christian civilization has penetrated or Christian Protestantism prevails.

THE GOLDEN SHEAF.

A Fertilizer specially adapted to the Soil of the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

$20 PER TON.

Sold at a very small profit on account of introduction and extensive sales.

THE COMPOSITION NO SECRET.

Made Without Sand or Dirt.

FOR SALE BY

THE OXFORD GUANO CO., Oxford, Md.

W. H. SETH, Secretary.

The attention of Farmers who desire to secure a good fertilizer at a reasonable price, is respectfully called to the composition named brand, viz:

"The object of the manufacturers has been to originate a compound of plant foods directly adapted to the soil of the Eastern Shore of Maryland, and to fix the price therefor at the lowest possible figures, cutting off all agents fees of $5 a ton and adding at the same time a small profit, only a very small profit. We think this fertilizer will prove satisfactory to those who use the high price manures, and feel confident that farmers who may think proper to use it will say that in its effects upon the soil, it will equal them."

The analysis, as made by Prof. G. A. Liebig, shows it to contain:—

Ammonia, from	.75 to 1.25	per cent.
Phosphoric Lime, from	5.00 to 7.00	"
Lime	33.10	"
Carbonic Acid	26.07	"

The lime and carbonic acid, which are supposed to be in combination, are derived from the finest quality of bone phosphate of lime. This combination not only dispenses with the necessity for dirt or sand to hold the chemicals, but is a more valuable assistant to their action.

We are the manufacturing and original brand, which we propose to put upon the market at a low price.

HELP You receive by visiting money when a golden chance is offered, thereby always keeping poverty from your door. Those who avail themselves of the good chances for making money that are offered, generally become wealthy, while those who do not improve such chances remain in poverty. We want many men, women, boys and girls to work for us right in their own localities. The business we furnish is honorable and will bear the strictest investigation. We furnish an expensive outfit and all that you need free. No one who engages fails to make money rapidly. You can devote your whole time to the work, or only your spare moments. BRICK AND TILE.

Salmon Brick, Arch Brick, Red Brick, Paving Brick, Well Brick, Pressed Brick, and

from 2 to 7 inches vent, at all prices, from $12 to $75 per thousand.

We are now prepared to deliver bricks in any part of Talbot county, or anywhere on the water or at railroad out of the county, at 20 per cent. money one year, for the cash. We have a heavy stock on hand, of splendid quality, and are determined to command the trade of this section, if superior manner and low prices will do it.

Our stock of Tile is very heavy, and we sell it very low for cash; but are prepared to enter into arrangements with farmers, who may want to put in tile, and who may not have the cash, to give them six or nine months credit. The tile ought to go in, and the money land be made productive, and we are willing to help those who are short of money.

We invite a call from all those in want of either brick or tile.
