MANCHESTER

The Parent-Teacher's Association at a special meeting on Friday evening, May 23, in the school house, was well attended and a pleasant evening spent by all present. The following program was rendered: Vocal duet, "Serenade" (a spring song) by Miss Edna LaMotte and Mrs. John C. Keck was fine and loudly applauded for an encore, but they failed to gratify the audience; trombone solo, "Smile Through Your Tears," Prof. H. M. Loats; address by Dr. Brooks of the Johns Hopkins. The lecture was in relation to the work our association is trying to fully establish and thus raise the standard of education. It was highly appreciated being one of the most interesting of the season. He has a very fine personality and his appeal to the audience was such that all were made ready to make the home association one among the best in interest and work, and hope to have him present with us again very soon; violin solo, Mr. Carroll Royer, "Berecuse," by Greig, after which the principle, Prof. Foglesanger, displayed the boys' new baseball suits and eulogized the boys to such a degree that we fear they are under the impression they can't be beaten, but they have our best wishes that they will be able to improve at every game and wind up the season with praise for doing their best. The ladies that served lunch, bean soup, (fine) sandwiches, and coffee and ice cream have about $20.00 from their venture.

The Young People's Society of the Reformed church gave an entertainment in the lecture room of the church on the evening of the 22nd that was well attended. The floral decorations were extensive and added much cheer to the occasion. At 8:30 Miss Ross came to the front with a short introductory, followed by a selection by the school orchestra in charge of Mr. Royer, who did fine; recitation, Hilda Green; song, "Reuben and Rachel," Mable Wentz and Elizabeth Lippy; piano duet, Gertrude Abkin and Isabel Wentz; Mary Preston nicely answered her call for a solo and received worthy praise; selection by orchestra; recitation, Catherine Warner and Hazel Shower; reading, Ida Brilhart; violin solo, Mabel Wentz; sketch "The Courtship of Miles Standish;" orchestra selection, after which the social period was introduced and refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served, followed by ice cream ,and cake as a second course.

On Friday evening the members of Carroll Encampment No. 17 I. O. O. F. enjoyed the secret work of the camp and had with them the Red Lion Team, of York county, Pa., that gave out the degrees to a class of applicants according to the latest ritualistic work. They came fully prepared with a truck load of paraphernalia to give the applicants and the large attendance the best of the beautiful work, that held them until a late hour. But a committee had an abundance of refreshments of sandwiches, coffee, ice cream, and cake, that all heartily enjoyed followed by a smoker, ere the goodby's were said. There were patriachs from York, Hanover, Westminster, Taneytown, and New Windsor present and enjoyed the occasion.
