—For stove repairs go to E. J. Hulse.

—Dentristy, Dr. J. N. Baird, Easton, Md.

—To-morrow is Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent.

—The corporation election in Philadelphia takes place to-day.

—Rain, rain, is still the order of the day. It's bad on business.

—A large variety of Heating Stoves considerably below cost, at G. W. Beck's.

—If you want a cheap cook stove, heating stove or fire-place heater go to E. J. Hulse.

—Genuine Havana filled cigars at P. G. Hoffman's, cor. Railroad avenue & Hanson st.

—The 22nd of February being a legal holiday, the Easton bank will be closed to-morrow.

—Old style sofa, about 100 years old in nice order, for sale at the Dover Street Furniture Depot.

—You can have your cook stove made to work like new by having it repaired at E. J. Hulse's.

—Wednesday was one of the most lovely days of the present winter, but Thursday was rainy, as usual.

—William H. Councell, Esq., of the House of Delegates, will please accept our thanks for legislative documents.

—It is an established fact that the Excelsior Cook, for sale by G. W. Beck, is the most popular cook stove in use.

—The Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church, South, commences at Fredericksburg, Virginia, on the 8th of March.

—William Maloney, colored, has been held to bail by Justice Alga Smith, of Cordova, for shooting John Wisher, colored.

—The legislature is driving business ahead, and there is no telling the number of bills that will be passed the present session.

—The Wilmington Conference of the M. E. Church, commences at Middletown, Delaware, on the 12th of March. Bishop Hurst will preside.

—The Methodist Protestant Sunday School in town will give an entertainment at the church to-morrow evening. The services will be literary and religious.

—The Easton paper mill now makes 5½ tons of straw-board daily, but the company is about to put in additional machinery, to increase the daily average to 7 tons.

—The Knights of Honor have paid Mrs. William Lister, who recently lost her husband, the $2,000 benefits she was entitled to by reason of his being a member of the order.

—Business Dilemma. A man suffering with a cough obliged to keep his room:—a note to pay and no money in bank and not a single bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup to be had for 10 miles.

—The thanks of the STAR are due to Fish Commissioner Major T. B. Ferguson, for a copy of his Report, recently sent to the Governor; a most interesting and important document by the way.

—Attention is directed to the auction sale of Mrs. Sarah A. Porter's property, near Long Woods, to take place on the 8th of March, and advertised in to-day's STAR, by Jerome B. Bennet, Esq., trustee.

—Dr. J. N. Baird is at work on a town clock, to be placed in the cupola of the Court house, with the consent of the county commissioners. The bell in the court house steeple is to be utilized for the clock, which will materially lessen the cost of it.

Don't forget Ellen Wright to-night.

—Mr. John H. K. Shannahan has torn down his old ice-house, and is putting up a new building for his ice machine. He is putting up his new building on Centreville road, and will put up an ice-house adjoining his ice factory. He means business.

—Twelve babies were born in two weeks of last January, all within a mile and a-half of Mannasses. A majority of them are boys, and as Bambury and Bolingbroke are strongly democratic, this is a good beginning for the new voters to swell the Democratic majority in Talbot in 1908.

—Mr. Hardy Councell has torn down his paint shop, on R. R. Avenue, for the purpose of building on the same site, a large furniture wareroom. He has moved his stock into the store room of Mr. Charles H. Stewart, where he intends to open a sample room of furniture, wall papers, &c., &c

—The town commissioners have already put on Railroad Avenue 17,000 bushels of oyster shells, which reaches a little beyond the Chapel gate, or about the old town limits When the Avenue is done, they intend to shell Federal street, from West street to the Brick hotel, and fill up the basin in front of the STAR office.

—We say confidently to the weak, the nervous and debilitated, if you would have strength, vigor and cheerfulness, use J. M. Larosque's Anti-Bilious Bitters; it has given new life to hundreds and there is no reason why it should not cure you. The price is low, 25 cents per package, or $1 a bottle. All druggists sell it. W. E. Thornton, proprietor, Baltimore, Md.

—Messrs. L. Jeff Milbourne & Co., 128 Baltimore, have a well established advertising agency, and those who want advertising done through the newspapers, will find them prompt and thoroughly reliable. Persons out of this county, and especially in Baltimore, who may desire to use the advertising columns of the STAR to extend their business, can contract through Messes. Milbourne & Co., on just as good terms as they can obtain from this office. Jan10-2m.

—The road between Easton and Miles River ferry was so bad last week, it was almost impossible for persons to travel it. Hughie McGinnn tells us that he will guarantee for $380 to take the road, ditch it, and drain it, and make it a good road at all seasons. All it needs is ditching and thorough draining, to make it a good road. We hope the county commissioners will see the importance of having this piece of road made good, which will not be until it is placed in competent hands, with the understanding that money enough must be spent on it to make it as it should be.

—Hon. F. S. Hoblitzell, member of Congress from Baltimore, has introduced in the House a bill providing for the construction of the Md. & Del. Ship Canal by the General Government. There is a strong feeling in Congress in favor of the Canal, especially among Western and Eastern members, but it is doubtful if the bill can be put through on its merits alone. If it passes, it will probably pass through a combination with some other similar bills for other parts of the country. All that can be done by Mr. Hoblitzell and the other Maryland Representatives and Senators will be done to secure a favorable consideration of the bill by Congress.

—In regard to the election bill introduced into the legislature by Senator Clark, of this county, the Easton says, "it virtually puts the seal of public censure upon them" (the public officers of this county is intended we suppose) "and all confederates with them." And again, it says of the bill, "it is also admirable, for the implied rebuke it gives those of this county whose nefarious practices led to and caused its preparation and introduction into the legislature." If the bill is intended to "rebuke" or "censure" anybody in this county in respect to the Tarbutton-Woodall contested election case, it will not, and ought not, to pass. There is not one particle of evidence going to prove that anybody committed any "nefarious practices" in that case, outside of the assertions of the Gazette, and for the legislature to "censure" or "rebuke" anybody on the Gazette's bald assertions, would be too small a business for a legislative body to stoop to. The bill of itself may be unobjectionable, but the ground upon which it is placed is too offensive to Democrats to permit of its passage

Personal.

Mr I. L. Stetson has resumed his position here and returned to Washington, D. C.

Rev. J. O. Bolton, of Brinkley, Ark., has been visiting Bishop Lay, at the residence in Easton.

Mr. Addison B. M. Wilson, son of Dr. Wm. G. G. Wilson, of this place, has gone to Atlanta, Georgia, to settle and practice law. Mr. Wilson is one of the most talented young men admitted to the Easton bar for years, and is doubtless destined to be a bright and shining light in his pro ession.

Mr. W. G. Loveland, who was here week before last, on invitation of a number of citizens, who desired information respecting what is wanted to establish a Woolen factory in Easton, left here last Tuesday evening for his home, Troy, Pennsylvania. Our business men look very favorably on the matter, and it now looks as if a factory would be established.

Don't forget Ellen Wright to-night.

Public Business.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The County Commissioners met on Tuesday. Commissioner Tarbutton was authorized to shell a piece of road at Skipton landing, provided the people of the neighborhood would haul the shells without expense to the county.

S. Bruff Edgar was appointed constable for St. Michaels district. The bids for working the public roads in Easton district were opened, and the contract awarded to Edward A. Matthews at $12 per mile, the commissioners to furnish the road machine free of cost to the contractor. The other bids were R. J. Shaw, at $15 per mile; and Josiah Kinnamon, $13 per mile. The Board were engaged the balance of the day hearing appeals and making transfers.

The Board met again on Thursday, and made the following appointments of road supervisors:

Keeper of Court House, Wm. H. Bostic.

The Board contracted with John W. Fooks to work the public roads in Miles River Neck for the present year, 1882, at $10 per mile.

ORPHANS' COURT.

In the Orphans' Court on Tuesday, Cornelius J. Scott, executor of Willamina Meginnis, presented an inventory of the estate and list of debts sperate. An order of sale was passed, and the executor was ordered to give notice to creditors to file their claims. The executor presented a list of sales of personal estate. Charles W. Baker, solicitor for D. R. D. Cheezum, filed a petition respecting the estate of Daniel Cheezum, late of Talbot county, deceased. A writ of subpœna was issued, against J. W. Cheezum, surviving adm'r of Daniel Cheezum, returnable on the 21st of February, inst. On application of J. B. Bennett, adm'r of Martha A. Matthews, an order was passed, authorizing Mr. Bennett to invest the balance of money in his hands belonging to the said Matthews, on mortgage on the real estate of Edward A. Matthews.

Town Clock.

MR. ROBSON: We noticed in the editorial columns of the Easton Ledger and Gazette in this weeks issue, that mention is made of our effort in getting a town clock for Easton. We deem it proper to say that, previous to our leaving Easton a few years ago we made an attempt to procure a Town Clock with the intention of locating it in the cupola of the Court house, but finding at that time that that was so obscured by the numerous trees in front, we then interested ourself in having our old dilapidated market house removed, in its stead a new market house, over is a town hall, and on the summit of which a steeple for our town Regulator. Our efforts in this enterprise were in part gratified, but ere their completion our continued feeble health necessitated a change, and a removal from Easton was the result.

Since our return we have been frequently urged and importuned by so many of our citizens to renew their efforts again that we have decided to do so, and we shall certainly have a guaranteed reliable time keeper, should our honorable county commissioners grant the request asked and no unforseen circumstances occur.

After giving several locations a critical examination, we still find the cupola of the Court house the only eligible place and the least expense, notwithstanding some of the obstructions still exist, and am told a part of that can be remedied.

We would be pleased to have the views of anyone, pro, or con., on the subject before we take a decided step.

Respectfully,
J. N. BAIRD.

The Fire-Proof Slate Paint.

Persons wanting the roofs of their houses painted with the FIRE PROOF SLATE PAINT, to preserve them from decay and protect them from igniting from sparks, are specially directed to the advertisement of Knowlton & Co., in to-days STAR. If desired, scores of certificates can be shown by Knowlton & Co., from persons of the highest respectability, North and South, to prove the paint is all that is claimed for it. It stops leaks, and renders nearly worn out roofs good for twelve to fifteen years, besides rendering them fireproof. It is put on boiling hot, and thus applied, the oil penetrates the shingles, and with the coating of slate, renders them impervious to water. Knowlton & Co., are boarding at the frame hotel with Mr. Hacklaway, and would like to confer with any who may desire their services

School House Opening.

The handsome Public School House, built last fall by Roberts & Sons, at Tunis Mill, was formally occupied and opened yesterday week. There was a large attendance, among whom Dr. E. M. Hardcastle, of the Board of County School Commissioners, and Alex Chaplain, Esq., County Examiner, were present. Addresses were made by Mr. Chaplain, Mr. Frank T. Gibson, the teacher of the school, and by Mr. John S. Redman, one of the district trustees. The house will accomodate 100 pupils, and is one of the handsomest and best furnished school houses in the county.

Don't forget Ellen Wright to-night.

Fish Planting.

In his report to the Governor, Major T. B. Ferguson, Fish Commissioner for the Western Shore, reports the following as the number of young fish he hatched and placed in the rivers, streams and ponds on the Western Shore, during the past year:

| | |
|---|---|
| Shad, | 23,468,006 |
| Land-locked salmon, | 16,900 |
| California salmon, | 165,827 |
| California Trout, | 57,180 |
| German Carp, | 12,768 |
| Total, | 23,750,675 |

The report of Fish Commissioner Thomas Hughlett's operations on the Eastern Shore, if printed, has not been distributed.

Local Option on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

Through the kindness and courtesy of Judge Parramore, the routine of the Court room exercises was relieved of its monotony by one of the most effective speeches in behalf of temperance that it has fallen to our pleasure of your correspondent to hear. Our Commonwealth's Attorney, Hon. John Neely, in happy and appropriate terms, introduced as speaker of the occasion the Rev. L. E. Barrett, of Onancock.

Mr. B. began his speech by saying that he was not present to answer the bugle blast of any political party or heed the call of any ecclesiastical organization, but he was present as a citizen of the Commonwealth of Virginia.

He came before them as a friend of Local Option as a means for the suppression of the iniquitous liquor traffic, which like a voracious wolf was eating out the life of the country. He indicted this traffic as the deadly foe of religion, morality, education, national and individual prosperity; the deadly foe of all social, domestic and individual peace and happiness.

This charge he demonstrated from indisputable facts and statistics.

But this dark cloud, he proceeded to say, which has hung over us so long, has now a silver lining, and here and there the bright tints and the blue sky may be seen beyond. The speaker then spoke in glowing terms of the Local Option Convention that met in Charlottesville on the 20th of last December—of its personnel in spirit, its action and its leader, ex-Governor Smith, of Virginia.

The success of Local Option, as an experiment, in Maine, Kansas and Maryland, was given.

The objections that are usually urged against it were next taken up and most ably handled.

It was a noble effort for the cause of temperance, and it friends felt grateful for it.

The court-house was filled to its utmost capacity, and no sheriff was needed to keep silence.

No one wanted to give up his place, though the speech was an hour and a-half long. The speaker was pronounced by those who heard him a true orator, and golden opinions were extorted even from anti-Local Option men.

Much good was no doubt done for the cause of Local Option on Monday, the 30th ult.

Let its friends now rally, and this deadly foe of all that is good and great will be conquered.

AN EASTERN SHORE ROMANCE.

The Child who was Married to her Stepfather Again a Bride at 14.

WESTOVER, Somerset County, Md., Feb. 15, 1882.—Ella Shores, aged 14 years, and Howard E. White, aged 16, of the Dames Quarter district were married on the 5th inst. The interest attached to this ceremony is in the fact that the girl was the divorced wife of her stepfather, Sydney Shores, aged 65.

On Feb. 5, 1880, the Rev. Z. Bowen married Sydney Shores and his stepdaughter, then 12 years old. Four days afterward Shores was arrested at his home in Dames Quarter, and the Rev. Mr. Bowen was arrested in Mount Vernon. They were taken before Justice A. K Robinson of Princess Anne and committed to jail in default of bail.

Sydney had married his uncle's widow, and she had not been dead more than two months when he induced Ella, his wife's daughter by her first husband, to marry him. The child was too young to know any better, and no blame was attached to her. In this State a penalty of $500 is imposed upon a man for taking to wife a stepdaughter, and the minister, upon conviction, is fined $1,500 for performing the ceremony. Both Shores and Bowen were indicted at the April term of Court, 1880, and were tried during the same term. Shores was convicted, and a fine of $500 was imposed upon him, he to stand committed until the fine and costs were paid. He was a poor man, and if the term of sentence were to be carried out it looked as though he would pass the remainder of his days in jail. Fortune favored him, however. He escaped from jail on May 20th, 1880. The Rev. Mr. Bowen was tried by jury, and acquitted on the ground that he did not know the girl or the relationship existing between her and Shores. The marriage of Sydney and Ella was annulled by the court. On the same day of the same month two years after her first marriage, Ella Shores was for the second time married, although only 14 years old.

Magnitude of our Oyster Trade.

Fish Commissioner Fergusen's report gives the following as the value of the oyster business of the State of Maryland:

Number of dredgers, 700; value of boats, $1,050,000; value of outfit, $70,000; number of men employed in them, 5,600; wages paid to them, $936,800; number of scrapers, 550; value of boats, $440,000; number of men employed in them, 3,300; wages paid them, $267,000; number of canoes engaged in the oyster trade, 1,825½; value of boats, $182,500; number of men engaged in them, 5,148; wages earned by them, $1,158,800; number of runners, 200; value of boats, 800,000; number of men employed on them, 800; value of wages paid them $166,400; whole number of boats 3,257; value, $2,942,500; whole number of men employed, 13,748; annual value of wages and earnings, $2,538,000; number of people supported by the oyster catching, 54,992; number of bushels of oysters taken in 1879–80, 10,579,012; number of bushels packed in the State of Md. oysters, 6,653,472—shipped out of the State, 2,021,840 bushels; consumed in Baltimore, 418,680 bushels; in other towns of the State, 200,000 bushels—in the counties, 875,000.

Humbug Advertisements.

The time never has been and never will be when the people of this or any other country can buy a gold dollar for seventy-five cents. Neither can you, dear reader, purchase an organ worth three or four hundred dollars for $60. This is all nonsense. Still we have no objection to other people doing their business just as they see fit. We are selling a good, honest Organ (not all stops) for from $48 to $475. All our goods are made upon honor, and we send to any part of the world on test trial, and if no please no keeps, as the German would say. For the past ten years we have sent both Pianos and Organs to every part of the world, and our instruments give the most universal satisfaction. If you wish a good instrument, one that will always last you, we shall be pleased to send you our catalogue and prices; and if you purchase one of the Thomas Brothers' SILVER TONE INSTRUMENTS you will get what you require, and one instrument sold in the neighborhood always sells us more. Address, for prices, etc.,

JAMES H. THOMAS,
Successor to Thomas Brothers,
Catskill, N. Y., U. S. A.

A Carnival.

While persons living in larger cities have every opportunity to spend the winter afternoons and evenings pleasantly with theatres, operas, balls, masked carnivals, &c., to "drive dull care away," those living in smaller towns and rural villages are compelled very frequently to rely on their own ingenuity for amusement. Easton has for a long time felt the need of some one to take the "lead" in this matter of amusement, and we find Thompson & Kersey, who are always "leaders," inaugurating a "grand carnival" of Special Low Prices. They mean to dispose of winter stock at a great sacrifice, and during the carnival season of thirty days, you can buy Clothing, Ready-Made, at cost of manufacture—all classes of winter goods at and in many instances less than the cost of production. We would advise our readers to patronize them. They ask no price of admission.

Pulmona.

Stevens & Hayward, druggists, Easton, always have a full supply of Pulmona, the greatest known remedy for coughs, throat and lung trouble. It requires only a fair trial to convince one of its efficacy. Free from Morphia or any other anodyne. Price 50 cents. oct11-6m

The Virginia War.

The Northern oyster dredgers, who visit the waters of the Rappahannock and Pocomoke rivers, in Virginia, for dredging in violation of the oyster laws of that State, have been doing their work thoroughly armed with long-ranged rifles, and have shot at and driven off the local authorities that attempted to bring them to justice. Application last week was made to Gov. Cameron for military assistance, and he promptly started from Norfolk with two steamers, a battery of artillery, and one company of infantry, all under his personal command, and proceeded to the Rappahannock and captured seven of the lawless dredgers, and turned the fleet and men over to the sheriff of Matthews county. The boats will be confiscated under the Virginia law, and the crews are liable to be sent to the penitentiary.

A New Departure in the Carpet Trade.

Hand & Primrose, 135 Lexington Street, Baltimore, the new and enterprising carpet firm, have taken a new departure, and propose at their own expense, to send samples by express to the country, to all who may desire carpets. Their stock embraces all the latest and most fashionable styles of Ingrain, Tapestries, and Body Brussels. See their advertisement in the STAR, send for samples, and you cannot fail to be pleased with their styles and prices.

Special Notice.

If you want a cheap and fashionable suit of clothes made, go to John Satterfiald's; get him to choose the cloth for you from his samples; have him order the goods at wholesale price; or at the stores in town, if you prefer. He is a first-rate judge of goods, and if you buy through him, you won't be cheated. He has the latest fashions, and warrants everything he makes to fit and give satisfaction. He also does all kinds of cutting promptly to order. Feb21-tf.

A Large Owl Caught.

A large owl, measuring three feet from tip to tip of wings, was caught on the farm of Mr. Joseph T. Bartlett under peculiar circumstances. A steel trap was entangled about its feet. Upon alighting on a pole, the trap became hung. A shot at the bird by J. T. Bartlett, Jr., failed to bring it down. The climbing of the pole by a colored boy was more successful.

The Night-Watchman Shot At.

A negro named Joe Bantum shot at Officer Burrows on the Point road, between midnight and day, Friday morning. When charged with the offence by Mr. Burrows, he admitted the shooting, but said he mistook the officer for a ghost. This is too thin, and the scamp should be punished for the outrage. He has been held to bail.

The 22nd of February.

As tomorrow, the 22nd, Washington's birth-day, is a legal holiday in this State, we presume business in town will be suspended. The clerks think it ought to be.

The Eastern Virginian is responsible for the assertion that three gunners, at a single fire, killed 361 birds.

An Old Lady writes us: "I am 65 years old and was feeble and nervous all the time, when I bought a bottle of Parker's Ginger Tonic. I have used little more than one bottle and feel as well as at 30." See other columns.
