—On Thursday night, the Odd Fellows Hall in Easton came near burning down by the bursting of a gas pipe. Fortunately the fire was discovered while the Miller Lodge was in session, and was promptly extinguished.

Samuel Burns & Co., 104 Light Street, have on hand a full stock of thoroughly seasoned building material, shingles, and all kinds of lumber. Their house is the place to find all you want in the lumber line, at bottom figures.

—Antonio De Pasquale & Brother, the Fashionable Tailors, next door to the Bank, Easton, Md. All garments cut and made by them are guaranteed to fit, and made in the very best manner, and in the most fashionable style. feb28-1y

—Capt. Jacob G. Morris, Capt. George W. W Haddaway, and Mr. Herron, returned on Sunday last from a gunning trip in Eastern bay, with 198 redheads, flock fowl, and canvas-back ducks, and two swan. They had fine sport a couple of days.

—Mr. James C. Norris, of the Brick hotel, has just put in his billiard room, a very handsome advertising clock, made by Mr. William Bellman & Co., Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. The clock is surrounded by a number of circular advertising cards, and is unique in design, and very handsome. It will be quite an ornament to the billiard room.

—The boarders of the frame hotel are now feasting on wild ducks. Mr. Haddaway has been knocking them lately, and while he enjoys the shooting, his boarders feast on the game. This is a capital arrangement for the borders. Mr. Haddaway says it is cheaper to feed his boarders on red-heads than beef. The Frame is literally a game hotel.

—The prospect for a full peach crop this year is at present very promising. There are plenty of live buds, and they look very vigorous. But the crop is not out of the bushes yet. The danger is, that the peaches are so forward that they may be injured by the late frosts, which are sure to come in April or May. Indeed the crop is never safe until June.

—The Star is the name of a new evening paper started in Baltimore on the 1st instant It is published by the Star Publishing Company, and is devoted to news and business. The Price is $3 a year, and sells at one cent a copy. It presents quite a business-like appearance, is quite newsey, and is edited with tact and judgment. It sells like hot cakes. We wish it success.

—J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly, and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid liver or billiousness, and nothing will cure you so speedily or permanently, as J. M. Laroque's anti-bilious bitters. 25 cents a paper, $1 a bottle. For sale by W. E. Thornton, sole proprietor, Baltimore.

—On Thursday night week, the cabins of the oyster sloops, Garret Wright and Potter lying at Double Mills wharf, were ransacked and robbed of $180 in the absence of their captains, Slover and Willey. The boats were left in charge of a sailor named George F. Smith, and it is supposed that he committed the robbery, as Smith left the boat the same night, and has not since been heard from. He was from Newton, Mass.

—W. G. Loveland has returned from Easton, Md., where a stock company has been formed for the purpose of putting up a woolen mill We see by an Easton paper that $30,000 will be required for the purpose, and we hope to congratulate this town on the going ahead of its enterprise. Mr. Loveland's long experience in everything that relates to a woolen factory, the satisfactory manner in which the Troy Woolen Factoey was rebuilt under his management, gives assurance that he is well suited to undertake the work.—[Troy (Pa.,) Gazette.

—Messrs. Knowlton & Co., painted the roof of Mr. Thomas J. Clark's residence last week, and have certainly made a great improvement in the appearance of the building. The old roof now looks as good as new, and they say the paint will make it last for at least fifteen years longer. The roof of Mr. John C. Bartlett's residence, on Dover road, has also been painted, and the building greatly improved in appearance. We understand Mrs. Susan G. Powell will have her house roof painted this week. It would be well for people in the country to take a look at these buildings when they come to town There is nothing that adds more to the appearance of a dwelling in the country than a coat of the fire-proof slate paint on the roof: and then the paint will make the roof last nearly as long again. We notice they are putting ridge boards on the buildings they are painting, which adds almost as much to the appearance and durability of the roof as the paint.

—George Colton, Esq., has retired from the editorship of the Baltimore Gazette, and has been succeeded by Mr. William T. Crosdale, late editor of the Every Evening, of Wilmington, Delaware. Mr. Crosdale is a writer of great ability, and an editor of experience, and already the Gazette shows marked improvement by the change, Mr. Colton not having the time to bestow on the paper to render it first-class. Other improvements in the Gazette are promised shortly.

—Messrs. L. Jeff Milbourne & Co., 128 Baltimore, have a well established advertising agency, and those who want advertising done through the newspapers, will find them prompt and thoroughly reliable. Persons out of this county, and especially in Baltimore, who may desire to use the advertising columns of the STAR to extend their business, can contract through Messrs. Milbourne & Co., on just as good terms as they can obtain from this office. Jan10-2m.

—The "Home and Society" department of The Century Magazine will be devoted, during the next three or four months, to a subject of first importance to home life—the proper construction of houses with reference to protection against fire, and the dangers to health arising from imperfect drainage, bad ventilation, and damp walls. The articles will be written by experts, whose aim will be to give practical hints to persons intending to build, so that they will be able to intelligently examine the plans of architects and the work of builders. In the March number appeared the first of the series, by George Martin Huss, on "House Foundations," in which attention is also given to remedies for damp walls and cellars.

Missionary Anniversary.

The Anniversary of the Missionary Society connected with the M. E. Sunday School, of this town, was celebrated by that school on Sunday night last The exercises were of an exceedingly interesting character, and intensely delighted the large audience that packed the auditorium and both galleries. The Secretary's report showed the school to be in a flourishing condition, financially and otherwise. The choruses by the school were rendered in a very nice manner, and reflected considerable credit upon Mr. R. S. Fountain, the Musical Director. The solos, duetts and quartettes sung by Mrs. J. C. Norris, Miss Mollie Fountain. Miss Laura Gattin, Miss Genie Wright and Messrs. J. J. Jump, R. S. Fountain and Olin Hough were first-class in every particular, each one of them maintaining the high reputation they have individually acquired as singers on former occasions. Miss Effie Ozman, and little Lillie Aldred each sang a solo, both agreeably surprising the audience. The two recitations, one by Mary Jump and the other by Lillie Aldred, both members of the infant class, the STAR reporter will not attempt to criticise, leaving it to some one better versed in the art of elocution. In his humble opinion, however, they "both mighty hard to beat.' The whole affair was well managed, and all the scholars acquitted themselves in a manner that must have been very gratifying to Mr. J. J. Jump, the Superintendent of the School. Mr. R. M. Todd presided at the organ with his usual skill, accompanied by a cornet. The infant class, under the charge of Mr. L. Dodson, Sr., rendered several choruses which showed remarkable training at the hands of their teacher. They were accompanied in their singing by Miss Elmira Millard, who presided at the 'baby-organ,' with both dignity and skill. It is to be regretted that the inclemency of the weather prevented a full turn out of the smaller scholars, whose appearance always lends a Sunday School entertainments.

Public Business.

ORPHANS' COURT.

The Orphans' Court met on Tuesday. Letters of administration were granted to Dr. James Seth on the personal estate of S. Orem Seth, and his bond approved. A list of debts sperate was presented, and a final account of administration, together with a distribution; all of which were examined and approved by the court, and the administration closed on the same day letters were issued. This beats the best time of Maud S.

Ruth A. Leonard was appointed guardian to Minnie M. Leonard, and filed the required bond. Margaret E. R. Thomas adm'x of Elisha Thomas, presented a list of debts sperate, and passed her final account of administration, and a distribution. R. C. Leonard and Frank C. Mason, adm'r of William Mason, passed their final account of administration.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The county commissioners met on Tuesday, and as it was the last day for hearing appeals, the Board were very busy, a number having deferred applying for abatements to the last moment. George H. Graham, appointed Supervisor on the road between Royal Oak and St. Michaels, declined the appointment, and Peter D. Hunt was appointed Supervisor, to fill the vacancy. Supervisor J. J. Barnes was authorized to shell a piece of road near St. Michaels. A number of road supervisor's bonds were approved. Bills to the amount of $651.87 were passed and paid.

TOWN COMMISSIONERS.

The Commissioners of Easton held their regular monthly meeting yesterday morning. George W. Minnick & Son applied for permission to plant telegraph poles, for the purpose of building a telegraph line on Railroad Avenue, from the depot to their store on Washington street. The Board granted the necessary permit. Street Commissioner Bennett reported that over 21,000 bushels of shells had been put out on Railroad Avenue, and it will require 3,000 more to finish the street to the depot.

An order was passed to extend Aurora street to the northern limits of the town, arrangements having been made with the property holders on the street for the right of way; the extension being conditional on the county commissioners building the road through to Mrs. Kemp's gate, on the Centreville road.

Bills to the amount of $464 were passed and paid.

THE LENTEN SEASON.

Rules for the Conduct of the Catholics of this Diocese.

The following regulations for Lent for this diocese have been issued by Bishop Becker:

Ash Wednesday, the first day of Lent falls on February 22nd.

1. All Christians who have completed their twenty-first year are, unless lawfully dispensed, bound to observe the fast of Lent.

2. They are to make only one full meal a day, except on Sundays.

The meal allowed on fast days is not to be taken until about noon.

4. At that meal, if on any day permission should be granted for eating flesh, both flesh and fish are not to be used at the same time, even by way of seasoning. This incudes Sundays.

5. A small refreshment, commonly called collation, is allowed in the evening; no general rule as to quantity of the food at this time permitted is, or can readily be made. But the practice of the most regular Christian is never to let it exceed the fourth part of an ordinary meal.

6. The quality of the food allowed at collation is, in this diocese, bread, butter, cheese, all kinds of fruits, salads, vegetables, fish, eggs, and milk.

7. General usage has made it lawful to drink in the morning some warm liquid, as tea, coffee or plain chocolate made with water.

8. Necessity and custom have authorized the use of lard instead of butter in preparing fish, vegetables, etc.

The following persons are exempted from the obligation of fasting: Young persons under 21 years of age, the sick, pregnant and nursing women, those who are obliged to do hard labor, and all who, through weakness, cannot fast well without great prejudice to their health.

10. By dispensation, the use of flesh is allowed at any meal on Sundays, and once a day on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, with the exception of Holy Thursday and the second and last Saturday of Lent.

11. Persons dispensed from the obligation of fasting, on account of tender or advanced age, sickness or hard labor, are not bound by the restriction of using meat at only one meal, on days on which its use is granted by dispensation. It will be noticed that milk and eggs are allowed at collation.

Given at Wilmington, Feast of St. Francis de Sales, 1882.

THOMAS A. BECKER,
Bishop of Wilmington.

'The Domestic Tyrant.'

"The average man," quoth Mrs. Partington, "is a weak and irritable domestic tyrant," and Mrs. P. is correct. Tyrannical to a fault the average man will enter the blissful Paradise of a happy house, scratch himself in fearful glee, send the baby into convulsions, and for what? Why because he has the Itching Piles, and is too mean to buy Swayne's Ointment, which is an infallible cure for the worst cases of that annoying complaint.

Nearly all the Ills that Afflict Us can be prevented and cured by keeping the stomach, liver and kidneys in working order. There is no medicine known that will do this as surely as Parker's Ginger Tonic. See adv.

The following bill to tax dogs is now pending in the legislature. It is intended primarily to indemnify farmers for the loss of sheep by dogs:

A BILL

Entitled an Act to provide for the valuation and protection of Dogs and to encourage Sheep husbandry—

SEC. 1. Be it Enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the County Commissioners of each and every county in this State shall, at some time prior to the first day of April in each and every year, divide the Election Districts of their respective county into as many parts or divisions as there may be constables appointed in such Districts, and shall assign one of such divisions to each Constable, so appointed, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of each constable to go over the division so assigned to him and make an inventory of all the dogs in his division, and also the property they most frequent at their home, giving an accurate list of the number of dogs to each piece of property, which said list shall be made out and returned under oath to to the County Commissioners before the first day of May of such year, and at the time of taking such list said constable shall leave at or upon the property a list of all the dogs charged by him to said property, which list shall stand against such property unless the party owning the property shall appear before the County Commissioners within ten days after said notice and convince them by evidence that such dogs or any number thereof have been destroyed, and the said County Commissioners shall have power to correct the return of the constables in their discretion, and shall allow said constables such compensation for their services as they may think proper.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That upon the return of such lists by the constable as hereinbefore provided, the County Commissioners shall proceed to fix and appraise a value upon each dog, so returned, after having corrected such notice as aforesaid, which value shall be ($25.00) twenty-five dollars for each and every dog, and no less; provided, however, that the owner may have the privilege of fixing a higher valuation upon any dog.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That after the County Commissioner shall have appraised and valued said dogs as aforesaid, they shall cause their appraisements to be added to the assessments of the party or parties to whom the property may then be assessed, giving to the said assessment all the dogs charged to said property by the return of the constable, which said assessment shall be treated as other assessment of property and be taxed accordingly.

SEC. 5, And be it enacted, That the party or parties to whom any dog shall be assessed shall have the same rights and title to such dog that he or they would have in any other property, and shall be responsible for all injuries done by such dog to person or property, (whether they be aware of his vicious propensities or not) and shall be entitled to sue for and recover any damage done to such dog; provided, however, that they shall not be allowed to recover for any dog a greater amount than that for which he is assessed; and provided, further that no one shall be liable for killing a dog in self defence or when such dog is actually engaged in the destruction of stock or poultry.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That any one who shall suffer loss or injury to stock or poultry by the action of dog or dogs, shall be permitted to sue the owner or owners of such dog or dogs and recover the value of his damages, or may within ten days from the time of the doing of such damage apply to the County Commissioners and have the damages valued by two discreet persons to be selected by the said County Commissioners, and the County Commissioners shall, upon the return of the said appointees, (which return shall be under oath) pay to the said party or parties damaged two-thirds of the value of his or their said damages as shown by said return, upon the assignment by said damaged party or parties of all his or their claim for damages as aforesaid, to the said County Commissioners, and the said County Commissioners may then in their discretion maintain a suit in their name in the same manner as the assignor might have done, and any recovery thereon shall be paid into the Treasury of the county.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That for any failure by a constable to perform the duties imposed upon him by the County Commissioners under this act, or for any wilful error or errors in his return as herein provided for, he shall be subjected to a fine of five hundred dollars to be collected out of his official bond, by suit in the name of the County Commissioners.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

For the STAR.

MR. EDITOR:—I notice by the papers, that much is being said about the bad roads we have had in this county this winter; and the impression is being made that the road supervisors do not understand their business, and make the roads worse rather than better. If half that is hinted against them be true, they must be a worthless set of customers. Now, with the permission of the STAR, I want to put in a word in defence of these much abused people. In the first place, they are not permitted to work the roads in winter, and they are not permitted in summer to cut a new ditch, to drain the roads, without a special permit. The roads cannot be made good without money is spent to drain them. In the second place, I have been traveling the roads of Talbot county for thirty years, and I have always noticed that, when we have an open, warm, wet winter, as we have had this winter, we are sure to have bad roads. We have hardly had three consecutive days of sunshine the whole winter, and although we have had a great deal of wet weather, we have had very few heavy dashes of rain, to settle the roads. It has been a constant drizzle, just the weather to render the roads soft and make them cut into holes. This is the secret of our bad roads. Neither the supervisors nor the county commissioners can change or regulate the weather, nor can they change the character of the soil through which the roads run; and it is hardly fair that they should be held responsible for what cannot be helped. A week of dry, windy weather will make the roads good, and if those who are fast to scribble against road supervisors, because the winter has been wet, and the roads cut into holes, will only have a little patience, the whole trouble will correct itself without much cost to the county. I therefore claim that the supervisors are not to blame, and it is unjust to them, for writers to try to prejudice them in the eyes of the community for what they could not prevent. TRAVELER.

For the STAR.]

The late numbers of the STAR giving an account of the many Easton worthies who had gone to rest with their Fathers, has given rise to the following story of Mr. Robert Kennard, who when on earth, was the terror of debating societies and Negro meetings After Mr. Kennard took his departure to the lower world, and had been there a week, walking about with his funk bottle under his arm, hunting up his old friends and acquaintances, he met his Satanic Majesty, when the following conversation took place:

"Well, Mr. Kennard, I am glad to see you; how long have you been in my dominions?"

Mr. Kennard's reply was, "about a week; quite busy, looking up debating societies, and negro meetings, and I would like to know where I can find my many friends who have gone before."

His Majesty quickly replied, "I had to turn them all into different kinds of burning wood to keep up my fires."

"Wood! wood!! exclaimed Robert, and where is the wood?"

"Well," said the old gentleman, "when they reached here, they were all so green I had to put them in my drying room."

"You are mistaken," said Robert, "I never found them green; for when we were together in Easton, I could never get a square funk on any of them."

A New Hotel for Easton.

We understand a gentleman from New York has been making explorations about Easton, with a view to the erection of another hotel in town. He has plenty of capital, and if he builds, the new hotel will be first-class, with all modern improvements and conveniences, including hot and cold water and gas all through the building. Several sites have been inspected—Jump's store building, including Mr. Samuel E. Shannahan's residence; the frame hotel, including Covey's stables, the Steinem store, and Mrs. Pritchett's residence; the brick building corner of Dover and Washington streets, including the stores of Elliott & Ratbell, T. C. Nicols, John H. McHale, and D. C. Avery & Co. The gentleman seemed to be very favorably impressed with the frame hotel site. From all we can learn, there is scarcely a doubt that the hotel will be built this summer, if the proper site can be secured. We have no doubt that such a hotel as is talked of would do a large and profitable business.

A Significant Election.

The late Senator Wagner, of the New York Senate, who was killed recently by a railroad accident on the Hudson River Railroad, represented one of the strongest Republican districts in the State of New York. An election took place last week to fill the vacancy in the Senate, which resulted in the triumphant success of Mr. A. B. Bancus, Democrat, by a large majority. The Democratic convention which nominated Mr. Bancus publicly denounced the coalition of Republicans and Tammany Democrats in the New York legislature, and hundreds of Republicans branded the coalition as infamous by voting for Mr. Bancus. The result of the election caused jaw odious John Kelley and his followers are held to be by the honorable Republicans of Renslaer county. This election appears to have sent terror into the Republican ranks in New York. As coming events cast their shadows before, this election is significant of a revolution in the Empire State.

Large Bequests to Charitable Institutions.

General James M. Coale, of Frederick county, who died last week, and whose estate is valued at from $550,000 to $600,000, left in his will the following liberal bequests to charitable institutions:

To the St. Mary's Industrial School for Boys, of the city of Baltimore, for St. James's House, belonging to said institution, $10,000; to the Little Sisters of the Poor, of Baltimore City, $10,000; to the House of the Good Shepherd, of the city of Baltimore, $3,000; to St. Agnes Hospital, Mt. Dougherty, Baltimore, $2,000; to St. Peter's Catholic Male School of the City of Baltimore, $5,000; to the president and directors of Georgetown College, Georgetown, D. C., $10,000; to St. John's Literary Institution, of Frederick, practically for the use of the Jesuit Fathers at the Novitiate at Frederick, $16,500.

Property Sales.

Col. Edward Lloyd has sold to Pennsylvania speculators, the oak timber on his lands in Miles River Neck, as it stands in the woods, and expects to realize from $30,000 to $40,000 from the sale.

Col. William Hayward on Tuesday sold his house in town to Messrs. R. J. Tripps and Joseph H. White for $600, and the next day they sold the property to Solomon Pippin for $750 cash.

William T. Elliott has sold his canning house in Oxford for $600.

Special Notice.

If you want a cheap and fashionable suit of clothes made, go to John Satterfield's; get him to choose the cloth for you from his samples; have him order the goods at wholesale price; or at the stores in town, if you prefer. He is a first-rate judge of goods, and if you buy through him, you won't be cheated. He has the latest fashions and warrants everything he makes to fit and give satisfaction. KNOWLTON & CO.'S

Elastic Slate

AND

FIRE-PROOF PAINT,

For Old and New Shingle Roofs.

We beg to call the attention of the Public and all interested in the preservation of their Roofs, from Fire and decay, to our celebrated ELASTIC SLATE PAINT.

It is put on hot, and by so doing it penetrates into the shingles, and forms a heavy coating, which will not crack or peal, and when applied to shingles, we guarantee them to last from Ten to Fifteen Years Longer than without it, and a sure preventative against sparks and cinders from other burning buildings. Having made FIRE-PROOF PAINTS a study for several years past, we feel confident, and fully assured that we have the BEST AND ONLY FIRE-PROOF PAINT in existence, and for color it surpasses all other paints, it being a rich Chocolate Brown, ADDING 50 PER CENT. to the appearance of one's residence. We also guarantee to make old and leaky roofs water-tight by the use of it.

TESTIMONIALS.

NORMAL AND AGRICULTURAL INSTITUTE.
Hampton, Va., Feb. 1st, 1881.

We have over fifty-one thousand square feet of Knowlton & Co.'s Elastic Slate and Fire-Proof Paint applied to our buildings and believe their measurements to be correct, and we further believe it to be a protection against fire, decay, and adds much to the appearance of our institution, and would most sincerely recommend its application to similar institutions.

Very Respectfully,
S. C. ARMSTRONG, Principal.
F. F. B. RAMSDALL, Treasurer.
F. G. BURNS, Business Agent.
J. B. H. GOFF, Chief Engineer.

Hampton, Va., Nov. 8th, 1881.

The paint applied to my tin roofs by Knowlton & Co., which were in a bad and leaky condition, has stopped all leaks, and I would recommend it to all who have old and leaky roofs.

G. O. MEARS, Dry-Goods and Groceries.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 8th, 1881.

Being troubled greatly by the leaky condition of the roofs of my houses, and hearing of Knowlton & Co.'s Elastic Slate Paint, I had them apply their paint to my houses, and since then can say that my houses have not leaked a drop, to my knowledge, and I can most heartily recommend it the public.

B. F. RATCHLIFFE,
Lumber Merchant, 124 & 126 Bank St.

SOLDIERS' HOME,
Hampton, Va., Nov. 17th, 1881.

O. P. FRENALD.—Sir: I have the honorable report that I have measured the roofs of Buildings painted by Knowlton & Co., and find the total number of squares to be 21,625. The roof of the Main Building has caused no much trouble from leaking, as also did my Engine House and D. Building. I have had other paints applied to my buildings, but believe this surpasses them all in durability and color, and would most heartily recommend their Elastic Slate Paint to the public.

P. T. WOODSIDE, Gov. and Treas.

R. A. RUTH, Chief Home Fire Dept.

Hampton, Va., Jan. 23rd, 1882.

About one year ago I commenced to have my Roofs painted with a patent paint, but not coming up to my expectation, I discarded it and hearing of Knowlton & Co.'s Elastic Slate Paint I procured their services and had my Roofs painted with their paint, which has given entire satisfaction.
