THE EASTON STAR

TUESDAY, APRIL [illegible], 1882.

T. E. ROBSON, Editor.

[illegible] Lockwood & Co., Newspaper Advertising Agents, 16 West Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., are authorized to contract for advertisements for THE STAR, at lowest rates.

MR. HURLBUT, United States Minister to Persia, is dead.

BISHOP BOWMAN, of the M. E. Church, is dangerously ill.

IT is now said President Arthur will veto the Chinese bill, because it violates treaty obligations.

THREE Fenian assassinations have occurred in Dublin, Ireland, within a month, causing great consternation in official circles.

CORNELIUS J. VANDERBILT, brother of William H. Vanderbilt, the railroad king, committed suicide, by shooting himself through the head with a pistol, last Sunday.

EX-GOVERNOR MOSES, of South Carolina, is again in jail in New York, on the charge of forgery and swindling. He has been arraigned several times for swindling, but has managed to get off, but the New Yorkers think they have got his excellency for certain this time.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy to take in the spring of the year to purify the blood, invigorate the system, excite the liver to action, and restore the health tone and vigor of the whole physical mechanism, which often becomes impaired during the winter, by lack of open air exercise, and the want of sufficient care in the matter of diet.

WHEN the Jersey City Water Front bill was called up in the New Jersey House of Delegates at Trenton, on Wednesday, Mr. Shinn created a sensation by submitting an affidavit to the effect that he had been bribed to vote against sustaining the veto of the Governor. A committee was appointed to inquire into the matter, and quite a number who were going for the bill immediately took the back track.

HENRY WATTERSON, of the Louisville Courier-Journal, considers a government debt of $1,000,000,000 the perfection of republican institutions, and advises the Democratic party to go for such a debt, nothing more, nothing less—the debt never to be paid. We think the Hon. Henry must be a little cranked. His may be Watterson democracy, but it certainly is not Jackson democracy. We decidedly prefer a government out of debt, and its consequent—low taxes.

THE EMINENT PHYSICIAN, MARION SIMS, M. D., NEW YORK: "I am convinced that Prof. Darbys Prophylactic Fluid is a most valuable disinfectant."

For smallpox and other contagious diseases use Darbys Prophylactic Fluid. Persons waiting on the sick should use it freely. It will prevent smallpox, scarlet fever, diphtheria or any contagious disease from spreading, and the worst cases will yield to its purifying and cleansing effects.

More Appointments Confirmed by the Senate.

The Senate again went into executive session on Monday evening, 27th ultimo, and confirmed Patrick Mullen, inspector of steam boilers; Thomas Hughlett and Gustavus W. Delawder, commissioners of fisheries; Wm. B. Tumbleson, justice of the peace for the fifteenth ward, vice Geo. J. Kreis, rejected; Wilbur F. Jackson, director in the Maryland penitentiary, vice Janice Holmes, rejected; also Lawrence W. Considerman, director in penitentiary; Thomas Brown, inspector of mines; the notaries public, ducking police, coroners and all the justices of the peace for Cecil county except Henry Jones, withdrawn, and Thomas H. Cleaver nominated and confirmed in his stead. The nomination George P. Williar for director in the penitentiary was favorably reported and recommitted.

A Terrible Disaster.

MEMPHIS, March 30.—At 4.30 o'clock this morning fire was discovered among the cargo of the steamship Golden City, from New Orleans en route for Cincinnati. Second Engineer Robert Kelly immediately gave the alarm to the pilot, Captain Boyce Purcell, Sr., who headed the bow for the shore. Marion Purcell, one of the pilots, was in the clerk's office when the alarm first sounded, and he rushed through the cabin, bursting in state-room doors and awakening passengers. So rapidly did the flames spread that within five minutes after the discovery of the fire, which broke out amidships, the after part of the steamer was all ablaze.

A scene of indescribable confusion ensued. People dashed frantically from their state-rooms clad only in their night clothes. In four minutes after the alarm was given the bow of the boat touched the wharf at Beach street where the coal fleet was moored. A line was hastily thrown and made fast to the barges, but it soon parted and the burning ship drifted down the stream. Many passengers leaped to the barges in the brief interval of their contact with the steamer and crossing them gained the shore. Others jumped overboard and were either drowned or succeeded in keeping themselves afloat until help came. To add to the confusion the flames had communicated to the coal barges and several of them were consumed. The Golden City floated down with the current and sank about three miles below near the Tennessee shore.

It is estimated that thirty-five lives were lost by the disaster. Of the twenty-three ladies but two are known to be saved.

All the officers of the steamer, except Second Engineer Robert Kelly, escaped. After he gave the alarm of fire he remained at his post of duty until cut off by the flames, the fire having spread with lightning rapidity, and thus he sacrificed his life to save others.

Municipal Election in Hagerstown.

HAGERSTOWN, March 27.—The election for mayor and members of town council from wards 2 and 4 took place to-day, and was hotly contested, the vote polled being the largest ever cast in the town. The candidates for mayor were W. F. Orndorf, democrat; and Samuel D. Martin, republican; for councilman in ward 2, C. M. Futterer, democrat, and J. C. Dayhoof, republican; in ward 4, Henry Dornberger, democrat, and A. B. Sechrist, republican. Orndorf, democrat, was elected mayor by a majority of 53, the vote being 722 to 669. Futterer, democrat, was elected councilman by a majority of 19, and Dornberger by 417.

A Month's Debate on the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The tariff discussion, which has been impending all winter and for that matter for several winters, is now fairly before the House. It is said that there are a hundred members prepared to speak on the subject and that the debate will run a month. However that may be, it is evident that the subject will be fully treated. Mr. Kasson's speech was an argumentative effort of considerable ability, and according to the programme he was replied to by Mr. Carlisle of Kentucky, who by common consent leads the Democratic side on matters of this character. The opening guns therefore having been discharged the battle is begun.

Fire at Amherst College.

AMHERST, Mass., Mar. 29.—Fire broke out in Walker Hall, the finest of the Amherst College buildings, at 11 o'clock tonight and is still raging at midnight. The whole interior is burned, and only the four bare walls will remain. The estimated loss is not far from a quarter of a million, including the building itself which is valued at $125,000.

The Cloture Resolution in the House of Commons.

LONDON, March 31.—In the House of Commons last night the Cloture resolution came up and was passed by a vote of 318 to 279.

Richard T. Merrick to Assist Col. Bliss.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Hon. Richard T. Merrick has been appointed counsel to assist Colonel George Bliss in the prosecution of the Star Route cases, to take the place held by Mr. Brewster prior to his elevation to the Attorney Generalship.

Increase of Postal Business.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—During the quarter which expires with this month there were forty-five post offices of the fourth class, the receipts of which reached the amount necessary to admit of their classification as presidential offices. This is the largest increase for a similar period yet recorded.

Why don't you try Carter's Little Liver Pills? They are a positive cure for the sick headach, and all the ills produced by disordered Liver. Only one pill a dose.

Fighting for Dakota's Admission.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Republicans will make a strong effort to get Dakota admitted as a State, but will be antagonized by the Democrats, who see in it only an attempt to clinch the power of the Republicans by adding another rottenborough in the Senate.

BiG Results From Little Causes.

"Do you know?" remarked a man to his friends on Chestnut Street, a day or two since, "I believe both Conkling and Platt had a bad case of skin disease when they resigned!" "What makes you think so?" inquired the listener in astonishment. "Well, you see they acted in such an eruptive manner—so rash—ly as it were. Save? "Oh! yes, I save, "they were boil—ing over and merely resigned to humor themselves, I suppose." If such be the case, the National difficulty might have been averted by applying Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases.

MANY MISERABLE PEOPLE drag themselves about with failing strength, feeling that they are sinking into their graves when Parker's Ginger Tonic would begin with the first dose to bring vitality and strength back to them.—Sun.
