—The County Commissioners met the Trustees of the Almshouse at the almshouse on Wednesday, to inspect the property. It was the regular monthly meeting day of the trustees.

—The town commissioners have just had a new culvert put in at the crossing on Railroad avenue and Hanson street, which, it is hoped, will more effectually drain that part of the town.

—Summer silks, Surah silks, Moire silks, Black siks, Nun's veiling, Albatross cloths, and combination check cloths are the new Dress Goods received by Jarrell, Nichols & Fox this week.

—The cool winds chill the heart of the ice-cart driver, and he now sits shivering on his box, a blue nosed victim of despair; the striking words "use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup" stare him in the face.

—A colored man named Isaac Williams had his hand badly crushed, in the fertilizer machine of F. H. Nickerson & Co., while working in the factory last Tuesday. Dr. Trippe is treating the case.

—Mr. Antonio DePasquale has just had a cellar built under his dwelling on Aurora street, and a coat of fire-proof slate paint put on the roof, which adds very much to the appearance of the property.

—Mr. R. H. T. Councell has nearly completed his new building on Railroad avenue. Mr. M. P. Flowers has commenced the building of a handsome new dwelling on Railroad avenue, on the lot next to Mr. Flynn's.

—Mr. Charles S. Dimmock has arrived from Baltimore and taken possession of his farm near Royal Oak, which he lately bought of the heirs of Tristram Cox. He has engaged Roberts & Sons to make extensive improvements in his buildings.

—The Arbuckle & Colby Grand Concert and Opera Co., is without doubt, the finest concert combination in the United States. Don't fail to hear them. Music Hall, next Friday evening. Tickets 50 and 75 cents, for sale at McK. Goldsborough's book store.

—Full lines of all the new shades Colored Surrah Silks, Rich Moire Antique, Rich Silk Moires, (colored and black), Nuns Veiling (all shades), New Spring Shades, Shuddah Cloths, Moire Beiges, &c., at THOMPSON & KERSEY'S.

—Major Wm. E. Stewart has bought the Nicols property, on Washington street, a short distance below Cabinet street, and is about to remove the old dwelling and build a new one, for a residence and office. We are glad to see that the Major is prospering in his practice.

—Received last week at Jump & Co.'s, a large addition of new laces in beautiful designs. Another very large invoice of new silks, moires, and satins. The prettiest and cheapest little boys' and youth's suits ever shown by us. New white and fancy mattings from 12½ cents to 45 cents.

J. J. JUMP & Co.

—Mr. John H. Rowlenson, who plead guilty in the Baltimore city court, was last week sentenced to 6 months imprisonment in the city jail by Judge Dobbin for libelling Judge Pinkney some weeks ago in a publication in the paper called Electric Light. Judge Dobbin subsequently reduced Rowlenson's imprisonment to one month.

—A coated tongue, headache, bad taste in the mouth, a dull, drowsy feeling, are sure indications that your liver is torpid and that there is a collection of foul humor in the stomach. J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters quickly and effectually correct these evils. 25 cents a paper and $1 a bottle. W. E. Thornton, Baltimore and Harrison streets.

—By reference to their advertisement in this morning's STAR, it will be seen that Messrs Chaffinch & Coney, who have bought out Messrs. J. W. Cheezum & Co., have not waited for the first of May to commence business, but have already bought their new stock and taken possession. They have a beautiful line of domestic dry goods, and a full stock of groceries, and go to the city again, this week, to add to their stock a full line of ladies fashionable dress goods. We notice that their selections have been made with excellent taste, and their stock cannot fail to attract a large of custom.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

—Antonio De Pasquale & Brother, the Fashionable Tailors, next door to the Bank, Easton, Md. All garments cut and made by them are guaranteed to fit, and made in the very best manner, and in the most fashionable style.

—Mr. John W. Prettyman, of Easton Point, is having pretty good luck this Spring in catching rock fish in his seine. He ships about 1,000 pounds weekly to Philadelphia by rail, and quite a quantity to Baltimore by steamer, besides furnishing some for the Easton market. Last Wednesday he caught a sea-gull in his seine, and has it now at Easton Point alive. He feeds it on fish, and it eats as heartily as an old fisherman.

—We are indebted to Mr. James Vick, seedsman and florist, Rochester, New York, for a package of flower and vegetable seed. Mr. Vick is perhaps the most reliable seedsman in the country. Persons can always depend on him to send just what they order, and that of the very best. Send for Vick's Floral Guide and order what you want, and we will guarantee that you will not be disappointed in quality.

—Col. F. C. Goldsborough, and his brother, M. T. Goldsborough, Esq., of Bailey's Neck, find it quite profitable to buy unfatted cattle in the fall, and to feed their provender to them in winter, adding enough corn to keep them in a thiving condition, and sell them as beeves in the Spring. Last week they made a sale of some 28 fine Western beeves, large steers and heifers, which they have fattened this winter, which brought in cash about $2,500.

—Messrs. Samuel Burns & Co., No. 104, Light Street, Baltimore, dealers in all kinds of lumber, shingles, laths, pickets, sash, doors, blinds, bricks, lime, hair and other building material, would like to have the readers of THE STAR call and examine their stock, when they go to the city, which cannot be excelled in the city, and their prices are as low as the lowest. They keep a full line of cart-shafts, cart-sills, axles, fellows, spokes and other lumber used by cartwrights and carriage-makers, all thoroughly seasoned, and of the very best quality.

—We took a ride around town one day last week, and was both pleased and surprised at the amount of important work that has been done on the streets, and especially at the crossings, within the past few months. The streets have been wonderfully improved by these oak plank crossings. And we were pleased to see that the colored churches and the walks leading thereto had not been neglected. A very important piece of work has been done at the north-east corner of the town, along the railroad, to prevent the big ditch from washing away its banks, which was cut to divide the Dover road floods.

—Mr. Fish Commissioner Hughlett has a station at Kingston, on the Choptank, and another on Tuckahoe creek, hatching the spawn of white perch. There were 400,000 hatched at Kingston last week. 300,000 are to be deposited in the branch of Chester river near the farm of Judge Robinson. Mr. William Wroten is in charge at Kingston, and Mr. Augustus Wroten has charge of the station on Tuckahoe. Mr. Thomas Hughlett, Jr., who has charge of the distribution, showed us yesterday morning some of the perch hatched at Kingston, so small that the little wigglers could scarcely be seen with the naked eye. The hatching of shad eggs has commenced, and it is expected that millions will be hatched at these stations and put out this season.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

Mr. Michael Nichols, of the firm of Jarrell, Nichols & Cox, spent most of last week in Philadelphia, purchasing the latest things out in ladies' dress goods. They are now prepared to show the finest line of these goods ever offered by them.

Death of Alexander H. Seth.

Alexander H. Seth, Esq., father of Joseph B. Seth, Esq., clerk of the House of Delegates, a highly respected citizen of the lower part of this county, died at the residence of his son, Dr. James Seth, in Bay Hundred, on Thursday night.

Kid Gloves! Kid Gloves!! Kid Gloves!!!

At Thompson & Kersey's will be found the following line of kid gloves: The very justly celebrated Traver kid glove, Trafousse kid glove, Alexandre kid glove, Jouvin kid glove, and the very beautiful Mosquitare kid gloves, in all shades and sizes.

Secret Cipher Table.

For corresponding or telegraphing in secret words or syllables. Contains over a million changes. Is simple, easily understood, and accurate; and any message sent by it can only be read by those who know the secret word used for that particular message. Just the thing for business men, lovers, boys and girls. Two copies of table and explanation sent on receipt of four three-cent stamps. Address J. W. HOWES, DeRuyter, N. Y.

How Long Would it Take to Count Two Millions?

Over two million volumes of the revised edition of the New Testament were sold on the first day of its issue. These figures can only be equaled by the enormous sale of Swayne's Ointment for Itching Piles, which is universally used as a standard remedy for stopping the itching at night, when one thinks that pin worms are crawling about the rectum. To calculate the extent of its sale in actual figures, would involve the labor of a life-time. Will you be pestered longer from the aggravating Pries?

A Magnificent Exhibition at Easton, Saturday, April 15.

Batcheller & Doris' Great Inter-Ocean Show has a larger amount of canvas than any other show travelling, these mammoth tents being a matter of necessity on account of the mastodonic proportions of the entertainment furnished. In each and every department it excels all competitors in quantity, novelty and merit of its presentations. In the circus will be found the leading equestrienne, equestrians, vaulters, leapers, gymnasts, acrobats, jugglers, etc. In the museum in addition to a score of really novel attractions, will be found the greatest wonder of the world, Millie Christine, the "Two Headed Nightingale," a young woman with but one body and two heads. Miss Christine oppeared twice before Queen Victoria at her Majesty's command, and so pleased was the latter that she presented Miss Christine with a handsome diamond neclace. Unlike natural monstrosities Millie Christine is pleasant to look upon and charms all with her brilliant conversational abilities. She sings like a nightingale and dances with the grace of a fairy. It should be borne in mind that Millie Christine is a part of the big show and not a side show attraction. This great novelty was secured by Batcheller & Doris at an expense of $25,000 for the season, the highest salary ever paid any single attraction in this or any other country. The menagerie is the most complete ever seen in this country, including animals that have never before been in captivity. The street pageant is the handsomest and most gorgeous ever seen, introducing the famous $10,000 beauty, the handsomest woman in the world. In line will also be open dens of performing animals and snakes, jubilee singers, bands of music, handsome tableaux cars, gilded cages and hundreds of gayly caparisoned knights and ladies.

Public Business.

ORPHANS' COURT.

The Orphan's Court met on Tuesday and appointed Margaret E. Thomas guardian of her children. Edward S. Harris, guardian to James H. Valliant passed his 10th account, and his 8th account as guardian to Grace N. Valliant. Ernest P. Hall, adm'r of A. S. Hall presented an inventory of the estate. An order of sale was granted, and the ad'm was ordered to publish notice to creditors to file claims. James C. Mullikin, ad'm of Elizabeth C Small, bonded. William H. Rhodes acting guardian to Julia M., Walter E., Carroll A. and Caddie L. Councell passed his 1st and 2nd account with each.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The county commissioners met on Tuesday and reappointed Joseph S. Robson, clerk to the commissioners for two years from date.

The Examiners appointed to lay down a new road in Easton, extending Aurora street from the town limits to Mrs. Kemp's gate, reported favorably saying they had laid down said road, and recommend that it be built. The report was laid over for future consideration.

Bills to the amount of $191.81 were passed and paid.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

FOR THE STAR.

MR. EDITOR: Can you inform the public who the "Boss" is that called the meeting in the Ledger to nominate a candidate for town commissioner? And can you further inform the public whether or not said "Boss," or said would be Boss, has an axe to grind? and hence undertakes to run the "machine." The latter question interests the people quite as much as the first. If he knows anything about any "corruption" in the Board of town commissioners, now is the time to out with the facts. His insinuations are too contemptible for criticism. Everybody will understand them as the trick of the demagogue, unless he substantiates them with something tangible. I have never known a nomination for a candidate for town commissioner to be made by a public meeting. Who are to compose the meeting? whites or blacks. Democrats or Republicans? or, are all invited to a free fight? The last I suppose is intended, as "candidates" are to be nominated. He will hardly take them both from one party.

Now, Mr. Editor, it has been customary to re-elect our commissioners where their course has the approval of the community, but, more especially, the approval of the party they represent. Capt. C. R. Leonard has been a commissioner one term; and have we ever had a better one? The present Board has been guilty of no extravagance; they have made every dollar expended tell for the good of the town. The condition of the streets was never better—the crossings never so good. The fire department is kept in complete order, and the police made to do its duty. The lamps are properly lighted, and when a man is hired to work for the town, the commissioners see that he does a day's work. The taxes are promptly collected and all bills against the town are as promptly paid in cash; and an exhibit of all expenditures has been published in the newspapers. The credit of the town was never better, and while much has been done in the past year in the way of improvements the town debt has been materially reduced.

If a public meeting is to be called, let it meet and pass resolutions, saying "well done, good and faithful servants," and unanimously nominate Capt. C. R. Leonard for re-election, if he will consent to serve. The town does not need any "boss," and the "boss" of the proposed meeting, although he may think he is, is not the man to "boss" the town. He may grind and whet his "machine," and shout "corruption," but the thing won't work. I venture to aver that there is not a taxpayer in town, our would be "boss" excepted, who is not perfectly willing to entrust Capt. Leonard with the duties of the office for three years longer.

VOX POPULI.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

The Judgeship.

The name of John R. Brown, Esq., of Queen Anne's county, having been named in connection with the nomination for the judgeship, the Centreville Observer of Tuesday says:

"We have Mr. Brown's authority for saying that the announcement is an error. He is not a candidate for the place, but favors the re-election of the present judges, whom he regards as gentlemen eminently fitted for the positions they occupy, and fully entitled to re-election by the people."

The Denton Journal, speaking in reference to the mention of the Annapolis correspondent of the Baltimore Sun of Mr George M. Russum's candidacy for the judgeship says authoritatively:

"Mr. Russum would not be indifferent to the distinction his county would thus give him, but will not allow his name used in opposition to either of the present judges, and in common with our whole people he earnestly desires the renomination of our present bench."

The Denton Journal asks:

"Have we not honest, dignified, fearless and impartial judges now on the bench of this circuit? If so, in Heaven's name let us retain them. The people cannot be benefitted by the election of new men. Change is not reform—not always, and rarely in the substitution of judges. The last great barrier of public liberty and private rights, is an honest, capable and impartial judicary. Let the people beware that it is not trifled with."

A correspondent of the Cecil News denies that Henry W. Archer, of Harford, has had anything to do with bringing out Mr. Cruikshanks as a candidate for Judge against Judge Stump. With all the best lawyers of the circuit in favor of the re-election of the present judges, "judicial timber," from which to make up an opposition, will be scarce.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

History of the English People.

Green's justly celebrated "Larger History of the English People," ought certainly now to find a place in every home. The Elevir edition, in five handy and tasteful volumes, cloth-binding, all for $1 50, (by mail $1.80) is certainly a specimen of book-making that will delight the eye of those who rejoice in beautiful books, and is hardly less than a marvel in economy of cost. But the Model Octavo edition, in one voluume, utility binding, caps the climax for cheapdess—only 50 cents, or by mail 65 cents! These editions are being published by The Useful Knowledge Publishing Co., 162 William Street, New York, and are examples of the quality and prices of numerous standard works which they are publishing. At these prices they sell only to buyers direct, discounts to dealers and agents being impossible, and the editions published are limited to the orders which reach them promptly. Catalogues and specimen pages are sent free on request. Specimens of several of their publications can be seen at the office of this paper.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

The American Farmer

for April is a number replete with matter for the agriculturalist, and calculated to make it a welcome and profitable visitor to every farm and farm household. Its editors are now publishing the Essays for which they offered prizes of twenty-five dollars each. In the last, that on "The Crops or System best adapted to replace in part Tobacco Planting" was given. In this, appears the on "The Routine of Successful Trucking for Baltimore and the Northern Markets," and others will follow in succeeding numbers. A great variety of matter is given for the farm and garden, and a Home Department which will please the ladies. The associate editor, Dr. Pollard, ex-Commissioner of Agriculture of Viginia, continues his admirable and practical papers on "Southern Agriculture—Its Needs and Opportunities." The Farmer is handsomely printed and contains some attractive illustrations. Subscription $1.50 a year, or $1.00 to clubs of five or more. Samuel Sands & Son, Baltimore, publishers.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

The Fireproof Slate Paint.

Knowlton & Co., having just painted the roofs of the houses of Mr. O. Tilghman, Mrs. Charles Robinson, Mrs. Antonio DePasquale, and others heretofore mentioned, with the fire proof slate paint, the public have an opportunity to observe the decided change for the better the paint makes in the appearance of a house. But this is the least important part of the matter. The boiled oil preserves the durability of the shingles, and the slate and other chemicals in the paint renders it absolutely fireproof and impervious to water. Leaks in roofs are stopped with it, and shingles are made to last from 15 to 20 years longer by being painted with the slate paint. Knowlton & Co., are still at the Frame Hotel, and would like to confer with such as may desire to have their roofs painted. They can only remain in the county while they have work, and those desiring, at small cost, to protect their roofs from fire and decay, while they have the opportunity, should lose no time in giving them an order.

—Arbuckle & Colby, next Friday night.

There Will be Considerable Change

left in your pocket-books this season, if you patronize the acknowledged leaders in the clothing trade in Baltimore. Their superior garments for men, boys and children insure a style in elegance not obtainable elsewhere and they carry the largest stock of clothing in the State and sell it for the least money. When you go to the city go at once to C. N. Cohen & Son, Hanover & Pratt sts., who also give a handsome souvenir to each patron

Special Notice.

If you want a cheap and fashionable suit of clothes made, go to John Satterfiald's; get him to choose the cloth for you from his samples; have him order the goods at wholesale price; or at the stores in town, if you prefer. J. J. JUMP & CO.

Have been carefully inspecting the large markets, selecting the choicest productions in Styles and Fabrics, from the largest importing houses in the United States.

Many choice things bought for the early summer, we have laid away and will bring them forth at the proper time; we buy early that we may get the choice styles that cannot be had later.

We are now displaying our early purchases of goods wanted for and invite to an early inspection, as the choicest things are already being sold.

We advertise only to the ladies this week, but our stock of Gentlemen's Cassimeres and Suitings is just immense.

The first purchase a lady makes this spring is of the new imported Cotton Dress Goods. We show as the latest the new Silk Surahs, in many colored checks and plaids at 40c per yard. The combination Sateens in patterns only—very choice and scarce—at 50c per yard. Scotch and French Zephyrs at 25, 30 and 37½c; and all the new Laces and new Buttons for trimming them.

The next in order for early spring wear are the Woollen Fabrics. It seems to us, that the new shadings as well as new weavings are just superb. Faules, Shoodahs, Beiges, and Flannels, in the new illuminated and check effects, perhaps will take the lead; but the Fabrics so popular last season still have a hold on the popular taste, such as Nuns' Veilings, Buntings, Cashmeres and others. Our present showing we believe will not disappoint our friends.

The designers in Satins, Silks, Moires, Surahs, and Silk Grenadies have opened out the most beautiful designs we have ever beheld. We cannot in this limited space tell you about them, but as this department has always received our most earnest attention, you may be sure we are not behind our old standard. Our ladies in buying these fine goods are too apt to think they must send to the city to be suited; we have no objection to this opinion because we sell every time when the lady examines our stock and prices; this is not bluster but FACT.

J. J. JUMP & CO.

At a Bargain we have just added $800.00 worth of Hosiery to our previous large stock, and can show some special bargains worthy of attention.

Quite a $1,000.00 in Towels, Table Linens, Napkins, and general House-keeping Linens that we bought so that the prices for them make us a grand advertisement.

Our new Laces and Hamburgs have received so many compliments this spring, that it has swelled our head a little—but not the prices.

J. J. JUMP & CO.

Lastly and amen. We ask an examination, but not a single purchase if we cannot please you.
