BALTIMORE, MD., Aug. 24th, 1880.

I have been on the Police force for 9 years and it formerly cost me annually about one hundred dollars for Dr. bills and medicine, but have for the past two or three years been using J. M. Larroque's Anti-bilious Bitters, and say positively that it is the best medicine for biliousness and Dyspepsia I ever saw or tried, and it seems especially adapted to Policeman and all persons who are much exposed to the weather. I never take any other medicine, and always keep it in the house ready for use. John Powers, Middle District.

A $2000 Bible Reward.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer ten valuable rewards in their Monthly for May, among which is the following:

We will give $20 00 in gold to the person telling us which is the shortest verse in the New Testament Scriptures (not the New Revision), by May 10th, 1882. Should two or more correct answers be received the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner May 15th, 1882 Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the June monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published. This may be worth $20.00 to you; cut it out. Address, Rutledge Publishing Company, Easton, Pa.

St. Nicholas for May

Is a phenomenal issue in regard to both the quality and the number of its illustrations. There are, in all, sixty-eight pictures, eleven of them full-page engravings.

The most fully illustrated article is that by Mr. C. L. Brace, Secretary of the Children's Aid Society, New York, on "Wolf-reared Children," the waifs and strays of humanity, drifting about without friends or home in a great metropolis, and how this excellent Society takes them from the evil influences in which they are growing up, and sends them out to good homes on Western farms. One of its twenty pictures is a full-page engraving of a New York boot-black, from a painting by W. M. Chase. And full-page reproductions of three of Correggio's masterpieces accompany Mrs. Clement's "Art and Artists" story.

Ordination of Rev. Mr. Frank B. Adkins—Service at Christ Church on Sunday Morning.

The services at Christ Church on Sunday morning last, were of an exceedingly impressive and interesting character, it being the occasion of the Ordination to the Diaconate of Mr. Frank B. Adkins, son of Dr. Isaac Adkins, President of the Easton National Bank.

The weather was not at all favorable for church going, but notwithstanding this, the church was well filled, and the brightness within, was in marked contrast with the weather without. The chancel presented a very attractive appearance, and the floral decoration of the altar, pulpit and Lectern were in perfect taste.

At the appointed hour of service, the Bishop of the Diocese, and the officiating clergy, accompanied by the candidate for ordination entered the chancel, singing as a Processional the 202nd Hymn, "The Church's One Foundation." After all had taken their places the regular Morning Prayer was read. The 273d Hymn, "Go Forth ye Heralds in My Name," was then sung, and this was followed by a sermon, "declaring the duty and office of them that come to be admitted Deacons," by the Rev. Dr. Wilson, the Rector of St. Peter's Parish. The preacher took for his text the 10th and 13th verses of the 3d chapter of St. Paul's 1st Epistle to Timothy. The sermon was a clear and forcible setting forth, of the Scriptural warrant for the office of Deacon in the Church, the reasons why such an order was instituted, and the duties pertaining to it, and concluded with a few well chosen words to the candidate, as to the manner and spirit in which he should enter upon the performance of his duties. The sermon being ended, the candidate was presented to the Bishop, by the Rev. Dr. Stearns, one of the examining Chaplains of the Diocese, and the Bishop, after commending him to the prayers of the congregation, said the Litany. The 133d psalm was then sung, which was followed by the ante communion service, the Rev. Dr. Stearn's reading the Epistle. The Bishop then propounded the usual questions to the candidate, after which he ordained him, by laying his hands upon his head, and saying, "Take thou authority to execute the office of a Deacon in the Church of God committed unto thee: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, Amen." Then placing the New Testament in his hands, he said, "Take thou authority to read the Gospel in the Church of God, and to preach the same, if thou be thereto licensed by the Bishop himself." The newly ordained Deacon, rising from his knees, turned to the congregation and read the appointed Gospel, and the service was concluded with the Celebration of the Communion. The entire service was a very pleasant one, the music was very appropriate, and the excellent manner in which it was rendered, reflected credit upon the choir of Christ Church, as well as the organist, Mr. Nichols, of St. Timothy's Church, Catonsville, Baltimore county, who came here for the occasion. Mr. Adkins has been assigned by the Bishop to duty in Spring Hill Parish, Wicomico county. He expects to leave for his field of labor this week, and he will carry with him the best wishes of his many friends in this community, for a long career of usefulness in the work to which he has been set apart. At night, after a sermon by the Rev. Mr. Adkins, the Bishop delivered an address, and confirmed two persons.

Public Business.

ORPHANS' COURT.

The Orphans' Court met on Tuesday. The will of Rob't Braithwait, from the office of the surrogate of Monroe county, New York, was received and filed. Eleanor McJames was appointed guardian to her son, Frederick McJames. Charles H. Gibson, ad'm of Martha H. Trippe, presented an inventory of the personal estate. An order of sale was granted, and the ad'm was directed to publish notice to creditors to file claims. John H. Allen and George W. Schuyler, adm's of John Schuyler, presented an inventory of the estate. An order of sale was granted, and the ad'ms were directed to publish notice to creditors to file their claims. O. Hammond, guardian to Thomas F. and Frederick M. Didier, passed his 6th account with each. Wm. S. Grace, acting guardian to Mollie E. Bridges, passed his final account. Letters of ad'm on the estate of Elizabeth J. Pascault were granted to A. A. Pascault. With the consent of all the parties, Wm. L. McMullen, bound to James P. Reese, was delivered back to his mother, and Mr. Reese relieved of all responsibility in the premises.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The County Commissioners were in session last Tuesday. Horace Lowrey applied to the Board to have a private road laid down for him, through the lands of Caleb Stanfield, in Deep Neck, St. Michaels district. William S. Denny, Samuel Stewart, and Frank A Benson were appointed commissioners to lay down the road. The Board levied 18½ cents on the $100 on the assessable property of Talbot county, to pay the State tax for 1882. A petition was filed by George R. Goldsborough, John McDowell Goldsborough and Wm. Goldsborough praying the Commissioners to record the piece of road in Goldsborough's Neck, from Hayland's school house to the bridge near the Myrtle Grove gate, as a public road. Laid over. The Board passed an order fixing the officers' fee for carrying prisoners the State Penitentiary, the House of Correction, and House of Reformation at $10 and expenses. Bills amounting to $364.85 were passed and paid.

The May Century.

The May Century presents the third of the five covers designed by Mr. Vedder: the chief items of which are the figure of a young girl (Spring) with sunlight, flying bird, and a frame of blossoms, the three appropriate signs of the zodiac being combined as before in a medallion at the left, and the blossoms are carried up into the borders of the title. The general effect is animated, and the composition of the page is well arranged.

The emphasis thus laid upon the outside has its counterpart in the table of contents. Here, and also accompanying their several contributions (an innovation which, despite its drawbacks, seems to be called for, and is to be permanent) we find the names of Thomas Carlyle, James Russell Lowell, John G. Saxe, E. C. Stedman, W. D. Howells, Mrs. F. H. Burnett, Miss Constance F. Woolson, "Uncle Remus," Richard Grant White, Emma Lazarus, Archibald Forbes, H. C. Bunner, Edward Everett Hale, Lang and Gosse, the English poets, and Tooker and Saxton, two promising writers among the younger poets of this country.

The opening paper is entitled "The Canadian Mecca," the subject being the Catholic pilgrimages to the village of St. Anne de Beaupre, on the St. Lawrence, and its alleged miracle-working spring This is fully and interestingly illustrated by Henry Sandham. The article is a picturesque one, and is written by Dr. W. George Beers. Mrs. Mitchell's Sculpture paper is on "Hellenic Age," and the relations at that time of Greek life and art are treated in a popular way. The article contains a number of beautiful engravings of the period under consideration, and the series is likely to be of permanent value in both text and cuts.

Real Estate Sales.

Through the agency of Charles E. Shannahan, the following sales have recently been made: the farm of D. C. Avery, in Chapel district, 107 acres, to Caleb Secrist, of Kansas, for $1,100; the farm of Edward Morris, in Trappe district, 73 acres, to George T. Flaherty, of Talbot county, for $1,600; the farm of Capt. James E. Todd, at Lewistown, Chapel district, 65 acres, to John N. Spencer, of Garrett county, Md., $1,600.

Mr. Charles E. Shannahan, trustee, has sold Sharp's Island to General F. A. Starring, of Baltimore, containing some 200 acres, for $4,200.

Tilghman & Clark, real estate agents, have sold Wheatland, Capt. David A. Martin's farm, on Miles River, in Miles River Neck, to Mr. L. W. Trail, of Baltimore city, for $25,000 cash. The farm contains 270 acres. Also a house and lot belonging to Mr. Henry Nichols, in Easton, to Mrs. John W. Fooks for $1,000.

Mr. Tilghman N. Chance has sold his home farm in Chapel district, 225 acres, through the land agency of Mr. Wm. Halstean, to Hilley Mercer, of Genesee county, New York, for $9,500.

How Long Would it Take to Count Two Millions?

Over two million volumes of the revised edition of the New Testament were sold on the first day of its issue. These figures can only be equaled by the enormous sale of Swayne's Ointment for Itching Piles, which is universally used as a standard remedy for stopping the itching at night, when one thinks that pin worms are crawling about the rectum. To calculate the extent of its sale in actual figures, would involve the labor of a life-time. Will you be pestered longer from the aggravating Piles?

Officers' Commissions Received.

The commissions for the recently appointed officers of Talbot county, including, Justices of the Peace, Coroner, and officers of Registration have been received by the Clerk of the Circuit Court. The law requires that the appointees shall qualify within thirty days.

The venerable Ex-Judge Richard B. Carmichael was in Easton last week.

Mr. William Oliver Rotzer, of Boston, Supreme Secretary of the Royal Arcanum, was in Easton Sunday and Monday, visiting his father's family. He left for Baltimore Sunday night, to meet the Supreme Council of the Arcanum, which commences its annual meeting at the Eutaw House, Baltimore, this afternoon.

Lippincott's Magazine.

Lippincott's Magazine for May opens with an article on the "Ranches and Ranchmen of the Far West," by George Rex Buckman, which is beautifully illustrated, and besides giving a lively description of pastoral life in Wyoming Territory and other parts of the Northwest, offers much information in regard to the resources and attractiveness of the country and the extent to which it is being peopled by a superior class of settlers—men of education and refinement—from England and from the Eastern States.

Another Easton Belle Gone.

Miss C. Rosalie Hollyday, daughter of the late Wm. M. Hollyday, and Mr. James B. Bocock, of Lynchburg, Virginia, were married at Christ Church last Wednesday morning, and immediately took the train for Philadelphia. The marriage was largely attended, and the floral decorations at the church were on a magnificent scale and very beautiful. The The knot was tied by Rev. Dr. Wilson, and the bride was given away by her uncle, Judge Carmichael, of Queen Anne's county. The bridal presents were numerous and handsome.

EARLY SPRING WEAR,

and invite to an early inspection, as the choicest things are already being sold.

We advertise only to the ladies this week, but our stock of Gentlemen's Cassimeres and Suitings is just immense.

The first purchase a lady makes this spring is of the new imported Cotton Dress Goods. We show as the latest the new Silk Surahs, in many colored checks and plaids at 40c per yard. The combination Sateens in patterns only—very choice and scarce—at 50c per yard. Scotch and French Zephyrs at 25, 30 and 37½c; and all the new Laces and new Buttons for trimming them.

The next in order for early spring wear are the Woollen Fabrics. It seems to us, that the new shadings as well as new weavings are just superb. Faules, Shoodahs, Beiges, and Flannels in the new illuminated and check effects, perhaps will take the lead; but the Fabrics so popular last season still have a hold on the popular taste, such as Nuns' Veilings, Buntings, Cashmeres and others. Our present showing we believe will not disappoint our friends.

The designers in Satins, Silks, Moires, Surahs, and Silk Grenadies have opened out the most beautiful designs we have ever beheld. We cannot in this limited space tell you about them, but as this department has always received our most earnest attention, you may be sure we are not behind our old standard. Our ladies in buying these fine goods are too apt to think they must send to the city to be suited; we have no objection to this opinion because we sell every time when the lady examines our stock and prices; this is not bluster but FACT.

At a Bargain we have just added $300.00 worth of Hosiery to our previous large stock, and can show some special bargains worthy of attention.

Quite a $1,000.00 in Towels, Table Linens, Napkins, and general House-keeping Linens that we bought so that the prices for them make us a grand advertisement.

Our new Laces and Hamburgs have received so many compliments this spring, that it has swelled our head a little—but not the prices.

J. J. JUMP & CO.

Lastly and amen. We ask an examination, but not a single purchase if we cannot please you.
