—A post office has been established at Mannasses, Trappe district. The office is called Hughlett, and Mr. Wm. B. Ewing has been appointed post master. Those of our subscribers in Trappe district who want their papers mailed to the new post office will please notify us.

—Machinery Headquarters at Shannahan & Wrightson's, agents for the Champion Reaper, Champion Mower and Champion Cord Binder of 1882. Also Buffalo Pitts Portable Steam Engine and Thresher and the Eclipse Steam Engine and Thresher, Wheat Rakes, etc.

—Sheriff Bridges has recaptured Alexander Ross, the flour and bacon thief, who demonstrated to architect Dixon, the County Commissioners, and the Sheriff, that the Easton jail, as first built, was not as secure a place to hold prisoners as it ought to have been. Ross was captured at Claibourne.

—Lonnie, six years old, son of Capt. C. R. Leonard, about six o'clock on Sunday evening, stumped his toe and fell on the pavement, near his father's residence, and knocked himself senseless. It was about an hour before he was fully restored to consciousness, and the accident greatly alarmed for awhile Capt. Leonard and his family.

—Agricultural implements. Shannahan & Wrightson, Headquarters. Leading Plows—the South Bend Chilled, Roland Chilled, Remington Carbon Mettle, and Peacock New Ground Plows. Best Pulverizing Harrows, —The Acme, Spring Tooth, Sulky Spring Tooth, and LaDow's Pulverizer. Also the New Departure Iron Frame Cultivator with corn couering attached.

—Collector Webster, of the Baltimore Custom house, is said to be in a fair way to lose all the hair off his head. He has about 200 subordinate appointments at his disposal, and 5,000 applicants for them, all pressing their claims, and each insisting that his claim is the strongest. His perplexity has set him to scratching his head, and a great hair pulling is the consequence.

—Mr. T. T. Martin is growing on his farm near Easton rye for soiling. He has heretofore tried it on a small scale with success, and this spring he has some twenty acres in rye, which makes splendid feed for stock, and is first rate to turn under as a fertilizer for corn. He is cutting his rye with one of Walter A. Wood's one horse hay mower, which will cut from five to eight acres per day, and does the work beautifully. Those in the neighborhood wanting grass or hay cut can be accommodated by applying to him for his machine.

BALTIMORE, MD., Aug. 24th, 1880.

I have been on the Police force for 9 years and it formerly cost me annually about one hundred dollars for Dr. bills and medicine, but have for the past two or three years been using J. M. Laroque's Anti-bilious Bitters, and say positively that it is the best medicine for biliousness and Dyspepsia I ever saw or tried, and it seems especially adapted to Policeman and all persons who are much exposed to the weather. I never take any other medicine, and always keep it in the house ready for use. John Powers, Middle District.

—Attention is directed to the prospectus of the New York World, printed in this morning's STAR. The World furnishes its readers with all of the New York News. The Weekly World is an excellent family paper and very cheap. Those who cannot afford the Daily will find the Weekly to contain most that is published in the other except the advertisements. The World is now established in its new quarters, Nos. 31, and 32 Park Row, and has the most spacious, convenient, and elaborately appointed office of any newspaper in New York City, and is certainly worth visiting, when any of our citizens go to New York.

—As the Custom-house at Crisfield has been burned, the sensible thing for the treasury department now to do is to abolish the Crisfield district entirely, and establish a Custom house at Cambridge, where it should have been years ago.—[Cambridge Democrat and News.

Our contemporary is wrong. Cambringe is an out of the way place and wouldn't do any better than Crisfield. Congress ought to reestablish the Custom house at Oxford, the best place for it on the Eastern Shore, and where it had been from time immemorial, until Mr. Crisfield had it changed to help build up his town at the terminus of the Eastern Shore railroad. Oxford suits the boating interests of the Eastern Shore better than any other place that can be suggested.

—Ball, Shannahan & Grace's Grand Opening of Spring Dry Goods, to commence today and continue for one month. All the new Spring novelties can be found at their counters.

—Mr. Joseph Haid, the well-known Baltimore piano tuner, will be in Easton this week. Those wanting their pianos tuned will please send him a postal card through the Easton post office.

Dr. R. J. LaFonse, of Washington, D. C., will arrive on Saturday May 6th, 1882 at the European House, (Haddaway) corner Railroad Ave. and Washington, St., Easton, Md., where he will remain one month for the treatment and cure of all chronic diseases of the human system. Call or send for Medical Journal It costs you nothing.

Suicides at Centreville.

Stewart Harley aged 18 years, son of Rev. A. G. Harley, Principal of the Centreville Academy, committed suicide on Friday by shooting himself.

Frank E. Parvis, of Queen Anne's county, aged 27 years, also committed suicide on Wednesday by shooting himself.

Man's Ingratitude.

This is an ungrateful world to say the least. A man will act like a lunatic when he has the Itching Piles, and declare that he knows he cant live another day, yet he applies Swayne's Ointment, the intense itching is allayed at once, he gets cured, and goes down to the lodge without one whit of gratitude. When asked why he looks so cheerful, he dodges the question by an indifferent answer. It's just like a man though, isn't it?

Big Wheat.

We have received from Mr. James S. Willis, of Preston, Caroline county, a bunch of about a dozen and a-half stalks of wheat, 6 feet 4 inches tall, taken from Mr. Jacob Smith's field of 14 acres, near Preston, which Mr. Willis says will average from 2 feet 6 inches to 3 feet the field over, and said to be the best field of wheat in Caroline county, if not the best on the Eastern Shore. The field last fall was dressed with 300 pounds to the acre of Hubbard's Standard Fertilizer.

Glass Ball Shooting.

Someting during the last of May or early in June, the sportsmen hereabouts are to have a grand pigeon shooting match for a prize. Last Saturday and Saturday week some of the members of the club were practising for the occasion by shooting at glass balls, Capt. George W. W. Haddaway, preprietor of the European House, proving the best shot on both days. On Saturday Dr. Trippe tied him on the first round, but when they shot off for first honors, Capt. Haddaway won.

The Late Frost in Delaware.

FELTON, April 24.—We had the heaviest frost of the season this morning. If it does not kill something then frost never will.

Advices from Pocomoke City also report a severe frost thereabout this morning and peach growers are apprehensive of injury to the blossoms.

MILFORD, April 24.—The lowest temperature this morning was 35°. The frost disappeared rapidly and there is little fear of its effect on peaches.

Hicks Post of the G. A. R.

A Post of the Grand Army of the Republic was established in Easton last Tuesday evening by Capt. Graham Dukehart, Commander o the Department of Maryland, assisted by Captains Hayden and Thompson. The name selected was Hicks Post, No. 24, Grand Army of the Republic, and the following officers were elected: Commander, Col. J. C. Mullikin; Senior Vice Commander, Wm. T. Elbin; Junior Vice Commander, Jos. H. White; Quartermaster, R. Frank Walker; Surgeon, Wm. Q. Price; Chaplain, Thomas H. Coburn; Officer of the Day, Joseph Vannaint; Officer of the Guard, Gustavus Bell; Adjutant, J. H. Gossage. Another meeting will be held this evening to perfect the organization.

(COMMUNICATED.)

MR. EDITOR: A writer in the Easton Gazette complains that the local option law is daily violated in Easton, and points out and almost names the offenders, and then complains that no one will inform against them! A person ought not to ask or expect any one else to do what he is not willing to do himself. If what he states is true, and he knows all about these alleged violations of the law, and is anxious that the offendrs should be punished, it is his duty to have them arrested, and not go whining about, because other people who know nothing about the matter, do not do it. He should play his hand and not be afraid to show it, or stop his clapper.

POINT ROAD.

A COLD BLOODED MURDER.

C. P. Hallett Shoots and Kills a Man for Saying Good Evening.

MILFORD, Del., April 28.—About 9 o'clock last night C. P. Hallett of this town, without any provocation whatever, shot James B. Deputy, aged 22 years, inflicting a wound from which he died at 1 o'clock to-day.

The circumstances of the tragedy are as follows: Young Deputy, who lives a short distance out of town, had been in Milford in company with two friends. About 8.45 o'clock all three started home in a wagon, Deputy sitting in the centry with a friend on either side. Just outside of the town the party saw a couple sitting alongside a fence. The man they recognized as Hallet, and young Deputy thought the woman was his cousin. Acting under this impression he politely said, "Good evening."

"Go to ——," answered Hallett, adding some further very offensive personal remarks.

"I do not care to go," responded Deputy, with a laugh, "when the proprietor is not at home." The words were no sooner uttered than Hallett drew his revolver and fired. Although Deputy was about twenty yards distant the assassin's aim was perfect and the ball entered the right side. He requested that he be taken to a doctor and he was removed to the residence of his uncle in this town and medical aid was summoned, but after lingering until 1 o'clock to-day he died, first making his ante-mortem statement which detailed substantially the above facts.

Spring Flowers.

We are indebted to Miller and Hunt, florists, Chicago, for a package of their ten cent everblooming roses, nice, well rooted, stocky plants, the cheapest we have ever seen. They were received by mail, arrived in good condition, were at once planted, and are looking lovely.

Mrs. Hughey McGuinn will accept our thanks for a dozen fine verbena plants, from McGuinn's chapel road greenhouse. Mac has a fine assortment this Spring of well-grown, healthy plants, geraniums, roses, verbenas, heliotropes, coleus, lantanas, ivies, and other bedding plants. His flower stand is at the corner of Washington and Dover streets, and open every market day.

We are indebted to the Dingee & Conard Company, West Grove, Chester county, Pennsylvania, for a package of very choice hybred and ever blooming roses. They came by express with the balls from the pots attached. It will pay persons who order roses from this company to incur the additional expense and get them by express in the balls, as they will be much more certain to live, and will go right off to growing as soon as planted. The Dingee & Conard Company have all the desirable roses and sell them cheap enough.

Mr. Frank P. Robson has at his greenhouse on South Street a beautiful assortment of roses and bedding out plants of all kinds, which he is selling very cheap. On market days he has a specimen lot on his stand in front of Shannahan & Wrightson's store.

It is the Height of Folly to wait until you are in bed with disease that may last months, when you can be cured by a timely use of Parker's Ginger Tonic. We have known sickly families made the healthiest by it.—[Observer.

The Union Conference.

The Thirty Ninth Regular Session of the Middle Convocation of the Diocese of Easton, was held in Christ Church, Cambridge, on the 25th, 26th, and 27th of April. The clergy present, and participating in the services, besides the Bishop, were the Reverend Drs. Barber and Wilson, and the Rev. Messrs. Adkins, W. Y. Beaven, Dashiell, Green, Hall, Larmour, Mitchell and Walker. The first service was held on the evening of the 25th inst. Evening Prayer was read by the Rev. F. B. Adkins, and the Rev. Dr. Wilson. The Bishop then announced as the topic for discussion: "The Soul Sickness, and its Cure." The Rev. W. W. Green spoke of the "Soul Sickness," the Rev. A. R. Walker of "Remedy," the Rev. E. F. Dashiell of "The Physician," and the Bishop of "The Treatment." On Wednesday morning there was Morning Prayer by the Rev. Messrs. Beaven and Larmour, a sermon by the Rev. Dr. Wilson, followed by the celebration of the Holy Communion, by the Dean, the Rev. Dr. Barber, in which he was assisted by the Rev. Dr. Wilson. After service a business meeting was held, the Dean called the Rev. E. F. Dashiell to the chair who announced that the first thing in order was the election of officers for the ensuing year, on motion, the Rev. Dr. Barber was unanimously nominated for, reappointed as Dean, and the Rev'd James A. Mitchell, was re-elected Secretary. At night a mission service was held, which was followed by addresses by the Rev. J. W. Larmour on "Non-attendence at Church with its Remedies," the Rev. A. R. Walker on "Woman's Work in the Parish," the Rev. Dr. Wilson on "Men's Work in the Parish," and the Rev'd S. D. Hall, on "Systematic Alms-giving and the objects in the Church to which its members owe a contribution." On Thursday morning after Morning Prayer by the Rev. F. B. Adkins and the Rev. Dr. Wilson, there was a sermon by the Rev. W. Y. Beaven, and the concluding service was held at night, when Evening Prayer was read by the Rev. Messrs. Walker and Green, after which the Bishop announced as the topic for discussion: "The Communion of Spirits," the Rev. Dr. Wilson, and the Rev. Messrs. Beaven and Mitchell being the speakers, the Bishop concluding with a brief address. The session was a very pleasant one throughout, and considering the fact that it was "Court week," and every one was busy, the services were very well attended. The weather, with the exception of one rainy evening, was all that could have been desired for such a meeting It was the writers first visit to Cambridge, and he was impressed with the many signs of prosperity and improvement that manifested themselves. Boats were being built, new dwellings were being erected, and signs of life and activity were visible on every side. May the march of improvement still continue until the good old town becomes as celebrated as a business centre, as it now is for the beauty of its situation and the kindness and hospitality of its people.

Public Business.

ORPHANS' COURT.

The Orphans' Court met on Tuesday. Jonathan H. Leonard, guardian to George H Jenkins, passed his 4th account. Mary P. Campbell, guardian to Levin H. Milton, and Clarence H. Campbell, her children, passed her 9th account with each, and final account as to Levin. Daniel H. McNeal, guardian to Daniel R., Carroll C., Luther S., Charles H. and Ella B. McNeal, passsed his 3d account with each. The Court ordered a correction to be made in the appraisement of the property belodging to the estate of John Schuyler, by striking out certain property erroneously appraised and included in the inventory.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The County Commissioners on Tuesday appointed J. B. Bennett, John Chilcutt, and William N. Powell, Examiners, to lay down a new public road in Easton district, to connect the Centreville and Goldsborough Neck roads on the lines of the farms of Dr. E. M. Chamberlaine and B. C. Town, if in their opinion the public convenience requires the road to be built.

The Board directed Edward A. Matthews, contractor to work the Easton district roads, to put in a trunk where he cut across the road leading into Col. R. C. Hollyday's lane

The following county appointments were made by the Commissioners:

Keeper of Oxford Ferry—B. F. Harrison.

Keeper of Miles River Bridge—Wm. H. Dulin.

Keeper of Standard of Weights and Measures—John W. Matthews.

Director of Dover Bridge—A. A. Pascault.

The coupons for the April interest on the county railroad bonds, amounting to $1,440, paid through the Easton bank, were received from the bank and cancelled.

The Trustees of the Talbot County Almshouse, through their Treasurer, John W. Cheezum, submitted their annual report for the year ending April 1st, 1882.

Bills amounting to $608.99 were passed and paid. The Board adjourned to Thursday.

THURSDAY, April 27th.—The Board met as per adjournment on Tuesday. George E. Haddaway was reappointed collector of State and county taxes, at 1½ per cent. commissions. The following Trustees of the Almshouse were appointed: John W. Cheezum, James Cox, Solomon S. Hopkins, Charles H. Rigby and John V. Lowe—no change in the Board. In the afternoon the Board inspected the roads in Miles River Neck, worked by John W. Fooks.

The Peninsula Press Pressing Rev. Vaughan Smith to the Wall.

The Rev. Vaughan Smith's bitter letter to Mr. Anderson, of Deal's Island, calls forth the following from the Pocomoke Record and Gazette: "If any man among you seem to be righteous, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is in vain (James 1, 26).—Does Mr. Smith ever say his prayers, and ask God to forgive his trespasses as he forgive those who trespass against him? Does he remember that it is written in the Scriptures "So speak ye and so do, as that ye may be judged by the law of liberty, for he shall have judgment without mercy that hath shown no mercy, &c.?" Does Mr. Smith remember that St. James says: "The tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and retteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell. Therewith bless we God, even the Father; and therewith cure we men which are made after the similitude of God, out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren these things ought not to be? " Does Mr. Smith know that St. Paul says: "Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, does not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil?"

Mr. Smith also receives the following attention from the Middletown Transcript:

"These are certainly queer doctrines for a preacher of the Gospel to promulgate. We have not read the Good Book perhaps as thoroughly as the Rev. Vaughan Smith has, but we certainly do not believe he has found such teachings between its covers. He seems to be a very poor specimen of a Christian, and politics is evidently a very great proportion of his religion. No dobbt he had a hard road to travel on Deal's Island during the war, for his letter proves that he is entirely devoid of that better judgment which teaches man not to take hold of a hornet by the business end. The Rev. Vaughan Smith seems to need a new balance wheel in his head."

The Wilmington Sunday Star gives the subject the following:

"According to the current orthodox view a great many sinners are now roasting in Hades for crimes of a much milder type than that committed by the Rev. Vaughan Smith in writing the disgraceful letter to Mr. Anderson published a few days ago. It was simply devilish in conception, considering all the circumstances, and ought to be a sufficient reason for the expulsion of the Reveread gentleman from the ministry."

There Will be Considerable Change

left in your pocket-books this season, if you patronize the acknowledged leaders in the clothing trade in Baltimore. Their superior garments for men, boys and children insure a style in elegance not obtainable elsewhere and they carry the largest stock of clothing in the State and sell it for the least money. When you go to the city go at once to C. N. Oehm & Son, Hanover & Pratt sts., who also give a handsome souvenir to each patron

Special Notice.

If you want a cheap and fashionable suit of clothes made, go to John Satterfiald's; get him to choose the cloth for you from his samples; have him order the goods at wholesale price; or at the stores in town, if you prefer. He is a first-rate judge of goods, and if you buy through him, you won't be cheated. He has the latest fashions, and warrants everything he makes to fit and give satisfaction. He also does all kinds of cutting promptly to order. Feb21-tf.
