Items of Local Interest

Mr. Howard Brown has erected a garage in the rear of his residence on Pennsylvania avenue, this city.

Mrs. Lillian Franklin, East Main street, has returned from a two weeks' trip to Atlantic City.

Mr. Paul Ridinger, of the Sentinel staff, has been ill and under treatment by a specialist of Baltimore.

Mrs. Margaret Hoppe, of Baltimore, is visiting her sisters, the Misses Ella and Maude Miller, this city.

Miss Emma Hunter, of North Center street, this city, has returned from her vacation of two weeks.

This week Miss Hilda Shipley, this city, visited Miss Hortense Henry, of New Windsor, this county.

Misses Cora Winters and Elizabeth Frock, of Baltimore, are guests of Miss Alberta Sinnott, West Main street.

Mrs. Hayes Wilson and son, Hayes, Jr., of Dover, Del., are visiting Mrs Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gehr, Bond street.

Miss Nannie Massicott, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Massicott, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. Norman H. Lantz, of Harrisburg, Pa., spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Lantz, East Main street.

Tuesday last Mrs. Beniah Bankert, of Melrose, an aged lady, was attacked suddenly by vertigo and fell and broke her hip bone.

This evening at 8 o'clock the vacation Bible school of Meadow Branch Church of the Brethren, near this city, will hold its closing exercises.

Miss Ida Seis and father, this city, are enjoying a month's trip to Nova Scotia, and on their return will visit friends in Boston, Mass.

Tomorrow Mr. John O. Wadsworth, of Syracuse, N. Y., who has been visiting friends and relatives in this city, will leave for his home.

Yesterday Centenary M. E. church Sunday school went to Druid Hill Park, Baltimore, and spent the day picnicing.

Last evening Emory Grove Campmeeting was opened for this year with a sermon by Rev. Dr. Carlisle L. Hubbard, of Wilmington, Delaware, who will be in general charge of the camp.

This week Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Copenhaver, Miss Blanche Sheeler, and Mrs. Joseph Stouch, this city, and Miss Edna Lindsay, of Baltimore, enjoyed an auto trip to Harrisburg and Pittsburgh, Pa., and Niagara Falls and Buffalo, New York.

On Thursday afternoon and evening August 7, Wesley Chapel M. E. church Sunday school, at Freedom, this county, will hold its annual picnic in the grove near the church building. The usual excellent suppers will be served, and a band will furnish music.

Mr. Charles R. Stouch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stouch, this city, spent the week-end at Niagara Falls, N. Y. After graduating from Johns Hopkins University Mr. Stouch accepted a position with the General Electric Company at Schenectady, N. Y.

Mr. E. O. Cash, this city, has resigned as general manager of the Sure Foot Heel and Rubber Company of Gettysburg, Pa. He will visit the company's plant, however, about twice a month to supervise its operation. Under Mr. Cash's management the company's affairs have been placed upon a sound business basis and its business increased very much.

The State of Maryland has purchased for $110,000 the Thomas Wilson Sanitarium property on the Western Maryland Railroad between McDonogh and Roslyn stations for the purpose of a tuberculosis sanitarium in order to relieve the congested condition of Sabillasville Sanitarium in the Blue Ridge mountains.

This week the Sentinel received from The Automobile Club of America a copy of The Associated Tours Guide published by the Club at 12 East 53rd. street, New York City. Price 50 cents. The Guide contains itineraries on over 42,000 miles of selected highways including the best Transcontinental routes, maps, mileage, ferry schedules, selected hotels, small inns, garages along the road and a large amount of other valuable information. Every one contemplating a tour of any length should have a copy of the Guide.

The Boy Scouts of this city will go to camp at Camp Shellman on August 4th. They will be gone about two weeks.

The Forest and Stream Club, of this city, will go into camp at their club house on the Monocacy the second week in August.

The family of Roy Smeak, West Main street, is quarantined. A daughter, Ruthanna, aged 10, has diphtheria.

Saturday Miss Susan Black and Miss Mazie Ecker, New Windsor, spent the day with Miss Clara Sterner, Pennsylvania avenue.

Wednesday representatives of the State Health Board were in this city inspecting milk which was offered for shipment to Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Bonsack and Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Garey, this city, spent several days this week camping along the Monocacy.

Tuesday Centenary M. E. Church, this city, was filled with delegates to the annual Sunday school convention of the Sunday schools of this county, and friends of the Sunday schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Battenfelt, Pennsylvania avenue, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter born Sunday last. Mrs. Battenfelt was Miss Catherine Haines, this city.

On Saturday, August 9th, Zion M. P. church picnic will be held at the church, beginning at 1:30 P. M. Ice cream etc., will be on sale, and supper will be served for 35 cents. A band will be present.

The Westminster Chautauqua will begin August 27 and continue until September 2nd., both days included. Beginning Wednesday, August 6th. tickets will be on sale at the Westminster Savings Bank.

Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plam, Mrs. A. D. Garman, Miss Bessie Witte, Howard Jones, Allen and Hubert Witte, all of Washington, D. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Witte, this city.

Monday Rev. J. B. Rupley and family left on their vacation which will be spent at Charlestown, W. Va., and Philadelphia, Pa. There will be Sunday school each Sunday at Grace Lutheran church but no service till August 31.

Wednesday evening at a meeting of the Church Council of St. John's (Leister's) Lutheran church, near Mexico, this county, it was decided to have the charter of the church amended in order to conform with the rules and regulations of The United Lutheran Church of America.

Saturday afternoon last William Hosfelt, of Manchester, this county, an employee of the B. F. Shriver Co., this city, was struck by a truck, driven by Chester Brothers, and injured badly. Three of his ribs were broken off over his heart and he is still in a critical condition at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore. When struck Mr. Hosfelt was standing in the gutter of the state road which runs by the Shriver factory.

Saturday night last two brothers, James and Winchester Lockard, of near town, got into an argument with bailiffs Weigle and Bowers of this city, and landed in jail. They were giving the bailiffs a lot of trouble when Lieut. Peppersack, of the Maryland State Police, appeared upon the scene and picked up one of the brothers and threw him in an auto in which he was taken to jail.

This week the fourteenth annual summer conference of Methodist Protestant ministers was held at Western Maryland College, this city. At the same time the Young People's Institute of the church was held at the college. The session was opened by Rev. Dr. L. F. Warner, formerly of this city, and during the week many prominent ministers of the Methodist Protestant and other denominations delivered instructive addresses and sermons.

Tuesday evening last the rural carriers of the Union Bridge Postoffice, this county, entertained the retiring postmaster, Mr. Frank J. Shriner and his successor Mr. Clarence C. Eichelberger at a supper at the Sauble Inn, near Taneytown, this county. Among those present were Mrs. Frank J. Shriner, Mrs. Clarence C. Eichelberger, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shriner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Koontz, Mr. and Mrs. Seven E. Fogle, Meryle Wareheim, W. Edward Burke and David B. Shaum.

Miss Marguerite Stem, East Main street, is spending some time on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Officer Miller who has been stationed in this city for some months has been transferred to Hagerstown.

Monday evening Miss Bessie Roberts entertained at cards at her home on West Main street.

MANCHESTER

On Wednesday last after driving a new machine from Philadelphia, Mr. Maurice Trump entered town very tired, so tired that he dozed, which we all know is a dangerous proposition. A horse and surry driven by Mrs. Wilhelm came in the opposite direction, with no lights. The result. Mr. Trump drove on the wrong side of the road, hit the surry, threw the occupants out, badly damaging the surry and bruised Mrs. Wilhelm and children so badly they were taken to the office of Dr. Denner, who gave them the necessary medical attention.

Pen Grove Camp season is on and quite a number of our residents are camping there, among them being the families of Arthur Burgoon, Charles Miller, Howard Hoffman, Jacob Lynerd, Rev. Wachter, Edward Kneller, Daniel Dienst, Annie Belt, and Selina Lynerd.

Mr. William Masenheimer, of Cleveland, is visiting his father Mr. John E. Masenheimer. Accompaning him are several friends.

Mr. George A. Shower celebrated his eighty eighth birthday on Thursday last. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shower and son George, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice S. H. Unger, Mrs. D. L. Dubbs, and Miss Cecelia Shower.

Mrs. Savilla Musselman, who has been ill for many weeks, is able to be around, and spends a large part of her time on her porch.

Quite a bit of excitement was caused on Saturday last when a State cop brought in a bunch of colored bootleggers. It appears they had sampled some of their wares, and started a commotion a short distance from town, with the result that they were tried here, and sent to the county jail for a further hearing.

Mr. William Hosefelt, of York street, while working at Shriver's canning factory was knocked down by a truck, which went over him, crushed his chest and broke several other bones. They rushed him to a Baltimore hospital.

Word was received here by friends that Rev. Masters, of Huntington, Pa., died very suddenly while away from home. Rev. Masters was very well known here and was a man of wonderful personality. His loss will be felt by his numerous friends.

Mr. William Burgoon is improving slowly. He is able to be out of bed

The joint picnic was quite a success. A large number attended, and the majority enjoyed a dip in the fine new pool.

Trinity Reformed church will hold its regular service on Sunday morning at 10:30, after which services will be discontinued for the period of two weeks.

Miss Cordelia Shower is visiting her cousin, Mr. George A. Shower and daughter.

CARROLLTON

Regular services in the Church of God Sunday. Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening. Ladies don't forget the Aid at the home of Mrs. Roland Rill on Saturday, August 21. The L. T. L. will meet at the home of Gussie Blizzard on Saturday afternoon, August 10th.

Several of our folks attended the county Sunday school convention which was held in Westminster on Tuesday.

Mrs. Susan Dutrow is suffering with dropsy.

Mrs. Arthur Evans and Miss Eurith Evans are visiting the former's sister in Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank, son and daughter, of Baltimore, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harpel, and two little girls were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Katie Harpel.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Crouse and family and Roscoe Blizzard spent Sunday with Wilson Crouse and family, of Middleburg.

Mrs. Jane Blizzard and family and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Abell and family spent Sunday at Bay Shore.

The Bethel Heights road is about completed, although the road leading from the Church of God to Carrollton station has not yet been repaired. The road is to be fixed but there will not be a state road.

Mrs. Lizzie Taylor and Miss Hilda Weaver spent Suaday with the formers sister, Miss Gussie Blizzard.

There will be a missionary entertainment held in the Church of God on Sunday evening, August 16th.

Miss Lizzie Ebaugh, of Baltimore, and Mr. Charles Keller, of Cumberland were week-end guests of Mrs. Sue Keller.

Mrs. Paul Leppo, of Baltimore, is visiting friends of this place.

Mrs. George Hughes, who underwent an operation at the Maryland University hospital recently, was brought home last Saturday. She is improving but is still very weak.

UNIONTOWN

Miss Ida B. Mering spent several days in the city last week.

The missionary service at the M. P. church last Sunday evening was very well rendered to a full house.

Miss Ella Smith has returned to the home of Mrs. Sophia Staub, after a visit to relatives in Union Bridge and Buckeystown, the past month.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, daughter and grandchild, of Baltimore, are guests at H. H. H.Weaver's.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Willard, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, Blue Ridge Summit, spent Sunday at H. B. Fogle's.

Mrs. Hiram Nicholson and daughters Margaret, Helen and India, of Baltimore, are visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. E. Lowe, at the Lutheran parsonage.

Theodore Eckard is a guest of his brother, L. F. Eckard, and family.

J. Howard Brough, and sons, Elmer, John R., and Franklin Brough spent this week at Mrs. A. L. Brough's.

Miss Nellie Haines, Baltimore, is a guest at Mrs. D. Myers Englar's.

Uniontown Circuit, Church of God. 9:30 S. S.; 10:30 preaching; theme, "The Holy spirit on Living Water."

Frizellburg: 2:00 P. M. S. S. The pastor will be present to teach the lesson.

Wakefield: Sunday evening C. E. and evening worship. All welcome.

Uniontown Lutheran Charge.

St. Paul's: 9:30 S. S.; 10:30 morning worship; 7:30 C. E.

Emmanuel (Baust): 7:00 P. M. Union S. S.; 8:00 P. M. evening worship.

Mt. Union: 9:30 S. S.; 10:30 Jr. C. E.; 7:30 Senior C .E.

St. Luke's: 9:30 Sunday school, Missionary meeting Thursday, August 7, in the evening at Mrs. Charles Crumbacker's.

MELROSE

(Death of Mrs. Serepta Feeser.)

Recently a ten-year-old daughter of Erwin Kreitzer of near here, had the misfortune to break an arm. Dr. J. H. Sherman reduced the fracture.

Mr. George Shaffer, living north of here, is improving and enlarging the residence he acquired about a year ago. He is also making other improvements to this property once familiarly known as the "Joe James Place."

Wentz's Union Sunday school members are now rehearsing for an "Olden Time Uicnic," with a program of dialogs, recitations, solos, duets and quartettes, interspersed with instrumental music, which will be held on Saturday afternoon and evening, August 16th, in the beautiful grove adjoining Sherman's church along the public highway. Lunch will be served on the grounds. Good speakers will be present from Carroll and York counties.

Mrs. Serepta Feeser, widow of the late Rufus Feeser, died on Friday, July 25th, at the ripe, old age of 75 years, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Ruhlman. Two sons, George and Abraham, and one daughter, Mrs. Katie Ruhlman, a number of grandchildren, and a host of relatives and friends mourn her loss. Her remains were laid to rest at Sherman's church on Tuesday morning, Rev. Hollinger officiating.

A Mr. Hosfield, of Manchester, working at the B. F. Shriver canning factory, near Westminster, was accidentally struck by a passing automobile, injuring him so severely that he was hurried to a Baltimore hospital.

Mr. Wilhelm, of near Hampstead, delivered 150 bushels of beans to the Smith-Yingling canning factory from the first picking of beans from one acre of ground.

MILLERS

A number of our people attended the Hampstead carnival the past week.

Myrl Miller and lady friend, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller.

Miss Ethel McGee, of Alesia, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Earl Hann.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Mofitt, of Hanover, spent several days the past week visiting Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leister at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zepp.

Miss Ida Brilhart, of Manchester, spent last Saturday and Sunday visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brilhart.

Judge and Mrs. J. W. Ebaugh, of Westminster, spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Miller.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redding and daughter Doris, of Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Lee Logsdon, Mr. and Mrs. George Redding and children, of Baltimore; Mrs. Isabelle Ebaugh and son Russell, of Greenmount; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, of Hampstead, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and daughter Frances, of Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller and children, of Baltimore, spent last Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bollinger Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hann and daughter spent last Sunday evening visiting Mrs. Hann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee McGee, of Alesia.

The following spent last Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Miller: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miller and daughter Evelyn and son Leroy, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shoemaker, and daughter, Dorothy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hoffacker, of Manchester, spent last Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Berkheimer.

Mrs. George Hoover and son Oliver spent several days the past week visiting the former's daughter Mrs. Harry Hosfeld, of Baltimore.

Sunday, visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hann were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Harmon and children, of Ortana; Mrs. Emma Hann, Mrs. Stella Wagner and son, of Baltimore, and Mr. Clinton Rohrbaugh, of near here.

Miss Virginia Downing ,of Baltimore, spent last Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Brown.

Miss Evelyn Richarts and William Richarts, of Woodlawn, spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hare.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bollinger and son spent last Sunday visiting at Baltimore.

While oratory is a great help in getting elected to office, it does not help a great deal to run the country's business more economically.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

August Reduction Sale.

We have made some drastic reductions in seasonable merchandise for the month of August. These prices take effect at once.

Dress Voiles

All Summer Dress Voiles that sold up at 45c, 50c, 59c the yard. These are all placed on sale at 35c the yard. Three yards for $1.

Palm Beach Suits

We have about 14 Palm Beach Suits in stock. Sold regular for $11.75, close out price now $8.75. Come early and get your size. No more when these are gone.

Up-to-date Style Pumps

All our regular price $5.00 Pumps in Satin, Gray Suede, Tan, Elk, and Suede on sale now at $1.98. Take advantage of this opportunity.

Men's Athletic Underwear

A full cut regular Athletic Unionsuit, Check Dimity, on sale for 69c.

Remarkable Value in Wash Dresses

Our window display, without advertising has already sold 10 dozen of this dress for $1.00. A regular $1.50 value. Neatly made, Linene Material, all colors, trimmed in white with white belt.

White Oxford & Pump Sale

All our regular stock of White Canvass Oxfords and Pumps sold up to $2.00 the pair. All go on sale for 98c. Don't miss this.

Boston Bags

A good size Boston Bag, our regular price $1.50, in Tan and Black. For this sale we say $1.29.

A Straw Hat Sale

We are going to have a Dollar Sale on Men's Straw Hats. All hats sold up to $2.00, each, now go on sale for $1.00. Get your straw hat now for $1.00.

Munsingwear Unionsuits

A special lot of Munsingwear Unionsuits regular price $1.00. We have sizes five and six only. The price we say is 29c. They are the regular Umbrella style garments.

Silk Hose

A White Fibre Silk Hose in Ladies' size, 19-inch boot. Some slightly soiled on sale 19c.

Boys' Blouses

A Regular and Sport Blouse in all leading colors and stripes. Regular price is $1.00, we say 79c. See the quality.

Embroideries

A lot of Embroideries in fine and neat patterns. Sold up to 25c the yard, now to be closed out at 12½c the yard.

Nineteen Cent Table

Here is a table loaded with Ginghams, Voiles, Percales, and Shirtings. Nothing sold for less than 25c the yard. All go at 19c.

Silk Stripe Shirting Madrass

32-inch Silk Stripe Shirting Madrass, neat and fancy stripes, to be sold at 39c the yard.

Hot Weather Talcum Powder

A pound can of Talcum Powder in Rose Violet 15c the can.

Twenty-five Cent Table

On this table you will find White Madrass with corded stripe, imported Gingham Checks, Gaze Marvel Clothes, Dimity Underwear Checks. On this table for 25c.

Boys' Wash Suits

A lot of Boys' Wash Suits, regular $1.00 to $1.50, close out 79c. Two dozen in this lot.

Children's Gingham Dresses

Five dozen Children's Gingham Dresses sold up $1.00, $1.50, and $2.00, to close out on this sale 79c.

Belts & Beads

Just received a new line of unusual numbers in neck Beads. Priced from 29c to $2.50 the string. Wide Belts, White, Black, and Tan with perforations, 50c.

When Thomas Jefferson said, "give me Liberty or give me Death," in New York City, on July the 4th 1776, the people never dreamed of automobiles, but they are here, and we are headquarters for

Painting, Trimming and Body Building,

also agents for the celebrated

COLUMBIA LIGHT SIX,

Write, phone or call us for prices.

Phone 104-J. Residence 275-M.

George W. Babylon

Herman M. Snyder

Funeral Director

Ridgeville, Maryland.

Phone Mt. Airy 24-R. P. O. Mt. Airy, Md.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2317-0262