—The great object during the hot weather is dress for comfort, and the Ladies, Gentlemen, Misses and Children should for some of those comforts call on Market Space and get a pair of Low Cut Shoes, Slippers or almost any other kind of Shoes you may want at bottom prices. JACOB WILLIAMS.

—For some time past the lands in Bambury Neck, Trappe district, have been rapidly improved. The army worms have learned about their fertility, and this year they appeared in Bambury for the first time, to see about it. They never trouble the crops on poor land, and their advent in Bambury is proof positive that that neck is taking rank among the rich lands of the county.

Death of Mrs. Ella B. Hardenstein.

The following is the "Vicksburg Herald's" notice of the death of Mrs. Ella B. Hardenstein, the announcement of which here last week cast a deep gloom over her large circle of friends in Talbot. She and Dr. Hardenstein were married the day after the last November election, and she left here the same day a happy bride. It is with sincere sorrow that we record the news of the sudden and unexpected termination of her happy and useful life. The "Herald" says:

"All that was mortal of the lamented Mrs. Ella Bell Hardenstein was consigned to the tomb amidst many sorrowing friends yesterday evening at 5 o'clock, the funeral services having been performed at the Methodist Church in a most impressive and touching manner by Rev. B. Carradine. Arriving here only a few short months ago from her beautiful Maryland home as the lovely bride of a devoted husband, Mrs. Hardenstein at once won a warm place in the affections of all those with whom she was thrown in contact. With a superior intellect, a well cultivated mind, and a disposition as even and amiable as a Summer's day, it is no wonder that her loss should have cast a gloom over the large circle of friends of which she was the ornament and the pride. To our esteem fellow-citizen, Dr. A. O. Hardenstein, in this his hour of bitter anguish, we offer no empty condolence because we feel that a grief as profound as his cannot be assuaged by mere words of consolation. Mrs. E. K. Robinson, the venerable mother of Mrs. Hardenstein, arrived here yesterday morning too late, alas, to close the eyes of her beloved daughter. May God in his infinite mercy temper the terrible blow to this aged and afflicted lady."

A Summer Visitor.

What with April frosts, chilly spells in May, and other abnormal meteorological phenomena, the seasons of the year 1882 are in such a confused state, that anything which may be interpreted as a sign of their regular sequence is welcome on that account alone. This is one reason why we are glad to receive the Summer number of Ehrichs' Fashion Quarterly. Another reason is, that the book is full of interesting matter, and is decidedly the most agreeable melange of literature and fashion that has been issued from the press in a long time. The costumes illustrated are sufficiently diversified in style and cost to enable every lady reader to suit both her taste and pocket; and a host of well executed wood cuts serves to show each fair subscriber the last sweet things in bonnets, the latest effects in parasols, the prevailing styles of fans, and so on, through the entire range of that delightful science which the fair denominate "Shopping."

The purely literary features of the magazine are excellent. Altogether, we think the FASHION QUARTERLY is a cabinet. Its cost is only fifty cents a year, and if its publishers propose to give for that price four books of equal merits with the one before us, they quite deserve the success we wish them. The Magazine is issued by Ehrich Bros., Eighth Avenue, New York.

A Remarkable Coincidence.

It is a matter of journalistic record, that some years since, a schooner set sail from Baltimore, having on board a crew of thirteen men. By a most singular freak of nature, the entire force was attacked by a skin disease, which manifested itself in large ulcerated sores on the arms and hands, wholly incapacitating the men from duty. The result was that the vessel was towed back to the city where the men were placed in the hospital. Moral! Had Swayne's Ointment for skin diseases been used in the first place, the crew would have recovered in from 12 to 24 hours.

ORPHANS' COURT.

EASTON, Tuesday, June 13th.—The court met and passed the proceedings in the estate of John W. Martin, executor of Hanson E. Mills, and approved the distribution and settlement filed by C. Green, Josephine Kent and Eveline L. Martin, for legacies under the will of Mrs. Mills. A. A. Pascault, administrator of Elizabeth J. Pascault, presented a distribution of the estate, which was passed. Robert Bartlett, executor of H. M. Clayland, presented an inventory of the estate. John G. Adams, executor of Rev. Thomas M. Bayne, presented a distribution of the personal estate, also an account with the legacies under the will. The court passed a decree for the sale of the real estate of Martin Donlin. Letters of administration d. b. n. c. t. a. on the personal estate of Jane M. Feddeman were granted to Fayette Gibson. H. E. Bateman, attorney for Ellen F. Martin, executrix of James L. Martin, passed her sixth account.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

EASTON, Thursday, June 15th.—The commissioners met, and appointed Patrick Nichols keeper of the standard of weights and measures. Charles N. Willis was appointed supervisor of Road No. 2, Election district No. 4, vice William D. Bice, deceased. A levy was made on the assessable property of Talbot county of 65 cents on the $100, for county tax for the year 1882. The State tax fixed by law for the year 1882 is 18¾ cents on the $100, making the State and county tax together for 1882 eighty-three and three-quarter cents on the one hundred dollars—the same as it was in 1881. The levy for the public schools is $15,000. The levy for the county tax was based on an assessment of $8,465,440 real and personal property, exclusive of stocks of Maryland corporations, amounting to $400,826.

[COMMUNICATED.]

EDITOR OF THE STAR:—For some months I have intended visiting Messrs. Hubbard & Brother's phosphate factory, and while in Easton a few days ago, I had the opportunity of doing so. Having been through a number of factories of the same kind in Baltimore, I can say frankly that I never was in any place where the work of grinding bone and manipulating fertilizer was done on more scientific principles. Although I had heard a number of gentlemen speak of this establishment, I had no idea of the immensity of the concern. Those who have not had the opportunity of going through their factory will not regret the time, and it seems to be their pleasure to give to all a hearty welcome and a full explanation of the process, etc. The establishment I consider one of the most important industries of our county, and one that every farmer or citizen should show their appreciation of by giving them their custom. They have new several hundred tons made up for fall sales in the best of order for drilling, and they tell me their fertilizer will all be thoroughly dry and in the same order as that they have now on hand. I may say I used two tons of their Standard Phosphate last fall on my wheat, with three other brands. The growth of my wheat is very much in favor of their fertilizer, and such seems to be the opinion of all who have used it, so far as I can learn, in this part of the county. This letter is not written by their request, but simply from the impression I feel after going through their works, that it is due to them. BAYSIDE.

Accident to Gov. Thomas.

About 6 P. M. on Thursday Ex-Gov. P. F. Thomas with a servant and a pair of young horses started for a drive on Dover road. As he neared the railroad crossing, a fence screening the view, he did not observe a hand car, which was coming towards him at rapid speed from the direction of Oxford and making for the Easton depot, and just as he reached the crossing, the hand car struck his carriage, upset it, and knocked him and his servant both out in the road. The horses took fright and ran off with the carriage pole, and ran for six miles, to Irytown, where they were arrested and brought back. The car was thrown from the track, and one of the men in it badly hurt. Fortunately the Governor was not injured, except that he was a little bruised on his right side and arm, and received a slight scratch on his nose. His servant was slightly bruised also. Fearing internal injury, Dr. Bateman was called in, but the Doctor pronounced him all right. The Governor was out as usual on Friday. Hands at work on the railroad should not be permitted to dash over public crossings at a high rate of speed without giving notice of the approach of their cars. Gov. Thomas escaped serious injury, if not death, almost by a miracle. This accident should be a warning to hand car drivers to be more particular in future about the rate of speed at which they approach the public crossings.

Delaware & Chesapeake Railroad.

The annual stockholders meeting of the Delaware & Chesapeake Railway took place at Oxford, on Monday, the 12th inst. The following gentlemen were elected directors:—Col. Samuel Wetherill, Sr., and Hon. James B. Groome, of Maryland; David J. Cummings, of Delaware; Samuel M. Felton, Henry M. Phillips, Wistar Morris, Edmund Smith, John P. Green, and Isaac Hinckley, of Pennsylvania. Mr. Wm. T. Hart, of Boston, was re-elected President, and Mr. John W. Scott, of Oxford, was re-elected Treasurer and Secretary. Immediately after the election the President and Treasurer tendered their resignations, to take effect on the first of July. It is necessary to state in order that they might execute a deed of conveyance and transfer of the road to the Pennsylvania company, which has bought it for $400,000, payable in bonds endorsed by the Pennsylvania road. The bonds are secured by a mortgage on the Delaware & Chesapeake road. On the first of July the Pennsylvania company will take formal possession of the property and run the road, making such changes in the time table and fare as the business interests along the line of the road may require.

The Adeline Patti Head Attachment for all Sewing Machines.

There has long been a demand for a good Hand Attachment for Sewing Machines, and the want has never been filled until now. Every sewing machine agent knows that many women cannot use the treadle without suffering injury. The doctors tell them they must not use a sewing machine. But now that they may be run by hand by the Patti Attachment, these unfortunate ladies may do their work with sewing machines without injury. The attachment can be used with any make of machines; it is sold cheap; it can be attached or detached as easily as a bonnet; it can remain in place for use while not in use; it is entirely disconnected with the machinery of the sewing machine, the handle is in the most convenient position for use, it can be used by an assistant, if necessary; it is small, light and compact, and so simple it cannot get out of order. It is different from all other hand attachments, and superior to all others. Every sewing machine agent ought to sell them, and every lady that has a machine ought to buy one. Address

Commencement Soiree Musicale.

The commencement of Miss Bett's Boarding School for young ladies took place on Thursday. The examination shows that the pupils have industriously improved their excellent opportunities for study. In the evening there was a soiree musicale, the patrons of the school and a number of invited visitors being present. The entertainment was under the management of Miss Eaton, the head music teacher of the school and a splendid performer on the piano. Some songs and choruses were sung by the school, and a number of pieces, sacred and popular, comic and operatic were rendered on the piano by the pupils, showing great proficiency in their musical studies and reflecting credit on their teacher. Miss Eaton also played and Miss Hotchkiss sang. All present expressed their unmixed delight with the entertainment.—Miss Bett's is an excellent teacher, and we understand her school is to be continued.

Special Notice.

If you want a cheap and fashionable suit of clothes made, go to John Satterfield's; get him to choose the cloth for you from his samples; have him order the goods at wholesale price; or at the stores in town, if you prefer. He is a first-rate judge of goods, and if you buy through him, you won't be cheated. He has the latest fashions, and warrants everything he makes to fit and give satisfaction. He also does all kinds of cutting promptly to order. Feb21-tf.

The July Magazines.

We have received and brought the matter notice at length, the following magazines for July: Godey's Ladies' Book; Peterson's Ladies' Magazine; Lippincott's Magazine, and the Atlantic Monthly. Each contains its usual variety of poems, stories, essays, illustrations, gossips, etc.

"HAY FOR SALE BY MANAGO," said a lady to her friend, "to appear so happy all the time. I always have Parker's Ginger Tonic handy, was the reply, and then keep myself and family in good health and spirits." See adv.

The greatest incentive to engage in silk culture is the knowledge that there is a home market for $100,000,000 worth of cocoons, which American manufacturers are obliged to import from foreign lands. The object in view is to get silk culture started, women and children in the rural districts, with a congenial occupation that does not require constant attention, and so will not interfere with household duties.

In view of these facts the Women's Silk Culture Association of Philadelphia was organized two years ago, for the purpose of calling the attention of the women of the country to the opportunity given them to establish a new industry, both suitable and profitable; and also to give the necessary instructions to all desiring to engage in silk culture.

The success of this pioneer association is remarkable; there has been aroused a wide spread interest in the cultivation of cocoons, that must go on increasing until the aim of the association is fulfilled.

The fact was most forcibly presented at the last exhibition of the association, at which the display of cocoons was very fine and interesting. The chief feature of the exhibition was the display of specimen cocoons by the twenty-six contestants for the Strawbridge & Clothier premiums. The first one of which, by the way, was carried off by Mrs. Rebecca Taylor, (mother of the late Bayard Taylor), who is over 82 years of age, and a sufferer from paralysis.

The association announces that through the liberality of Messrs. Strawbridge & Clothier the well known dry goods merchants of Philadelphia, it is again enabled to offer to the silk culturists the sum of five hundred dollars in ten premiums, as follows: first premium, $100; second premium, $75; third premium, $65; fourth premium, $60; fifth premium, $50; sixth premium, $45; seventh premium, $40; eighth premium, $30; ninth premium, $25; tenth premium, $10. For these premiums any resident of the United States may contest. From the ten largest amounts of cocoons, one pound will be taken, without selection, and the lot of reeling applied; the quantity and quality will be the conditions for premium. Application for competition must be endorsed and the amount of this year's cocoons raised by the culturist, testified to by some responsible person. Stock must be sent not later than December 1, 1882.

Anyone with sufficient land to grow a few mulberry trees can add the rearing of silk worms to the daily care and find it a source of pleasure and profit. The work occupies but a small portion of the year, and a child can attend to the daily gathering of leaves and feeding the worms. If a supply of mulberry leaves cannot be had, an osage orange hedge will answer every purpose. The osage orange leaf is admirable food for the silk worms, from which they spin splendid silk.

A very interesting event of national interest, connected with this subject of silk culture, has just occurred in Philadelphia. The Women's Silk Culture Association selected silk from twenty-six families living in thirteen states; had it spun on a "Yankee" reel, made into a web of twenty-eight thousand threads of silk, and woven as a brocade on a Jacquard loom, requiring three thousand six hundred needles to form the original and striking design. This is the first brocade ever woven in America of American silk; and probably the heaviest in texture of any brocade ever woven. It is known as the Garfield dress, as it is the intention of the association to present this magnificent fabric to Mrs. James A. Garfield.

Best ever made, Emory's Little Cathartic Pills, pleasant to take, sugar-coated; no griping; only 15 cents a box, of Druggists or by mail. Standard Cure Co., 114 Nassau Street, New York.

A garden party was given on Wednesday at the residence of Ex Gov. Claflin in Newtonville, Mass., in honor of the 70th birthday of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe. Among those present were Oliver Wendell Holmes, John G. Whittier, J. T. Trowbridge, Bronson Alcott, W. D. Howells, Thomas Bailey Aldrich, Henry Ward Beecher and others. Letters were read from George Cary Egleston, Prof. Harrison, of Lexington, Va., (ex-Confederates,) and G. W. Cable, the Southern author. Mrs. Stowe made a brief address.

DEATHS.

HARDENSTEIN.—At Vicksburg, Mississippi, on Sunday, the 11th of June, Mrs. Ella B. wife of Dr. A. O. Hardenstein, and daughter of the late Charles Robinson, of Easton, aged 26 years.

Brief the time since Ella left our side,
Going far away a happy bride;
Sad forebodings filled our hearts that we,
Never more our lov'd one here might see.

Still our fancy glad reunions planned,
When she'd visit us from that far land;
Happy seasons of rehearsing o'er.
Joys and sorrows since we met before.

Little thought we in so short a time,
Flashing o'er the wires of southern clime;
Like a thunderbolt from cloudless skies,
We should tiding, hear of her denise.

Is she gone? Not dead! We loved her so,
Our fond hearts would gladly answer, no;
On a brighter far than southern shore,
Dwells she now in bliss forever more.

Then the veil twixt heaven and earth, ajar,
Golden gates oft seen, and never far;
We shall know our loved ones when we meet,
And join in casting crowns at Jesus feet. S.

Lindia W. Bates
vs.
William W. Bates.

In the Circuit Court for Talbot County in Equity.

The object of this Bill is to procure a divorce a vinculo matrimonii of the complainant from the defendant William W. Bates.

The Bill alleges that the complainant and defendant were married on the twenty-eighth day of September, in the year eighteen hundred and seventy-five, that they lived together until May 15th, 1879, that the defendant is and has for a long time (more than three years) been a non-resident of the State of Maryland; that the complainant is and has been for a long time (more than three years) a resident of Talbot county, State aforesaid. The grievance alleged in the Bill of Complaint is that the defendant has abandoned the complainant, and that such abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years and is deliberate and final, and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconciliation.

It is thereupon ordered by the Court this twenty-ninth day of May, in the year eighteen hundred and eighty-two, that the complainant cause a copy of this order, together with the object and substance of the bill, to be inserted in some newspaper published in Talbot county, once a week for four successive weeks before the twenty-eighth day of June next, giving notice to the defendant in said bill and warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the twenty-eighth day of September next, to show cause if any he has why a decree shall not pass as prayed.

Favorite's Graetorex, No. 5,898,

Sire Graetorex, 4,218; Grand-Sire Rex, 1,330. Dam, Gay Primrose, 10,545. Dropped May 15th, 1881. Bred by Lyman A. Mills, Middlefield, Connecticut.

Among the Jersey families of recognized excellence none stand higher than the Rex family. Graetorex 4,218 stands at the head of the Broadmoor farm herd, Portland, Maine, at $100 per service, and Rex 1,330 is at the head of the Simpson herd, New York, and stands also at $100 per service (see advertisement "Country Gentleman). Rex 1,330 is considered the best bull in America, and was purchased last December by his present owner at a cost of $3,500. "Favorite of the Elms" 1656, the Grand-dam of Gay Primrose, has a butter record of 17 pounds 5 ounces per week, and her owner, Mr. John J. Holly, of New Jersey, has refused $2,500 for her.

At the auction sale of the herd of Jersey cattle of Messrs. Corps, Maddux & Co., at New York on Friday, May 12th, 65 head of cattle brought an avsrage of $622.77 per head. This sale shows the present value of high-bred Jerseys.

"Favorite's Graetorex" 5,898 will be permitted to serve a few registered cows this season at $10 per service. Cows for service will be cared for at $1 per week.

OUR SUMMER SILKS

which the ladies say have no equal in this market this season, and we believe what they say for they do know.

OUR SURAH SILKS

are a wonder to our patrons, and more so to competitors who cannot understand how

THOMPSON & KERSEY

can sell such silks at the price they do. Our varied assortment of colors in the beautiful

Foule Nuns' Veiling

is also a conundrum of equally difficult solution to some, but very plain to us, and very pleasant to our lady customers, and what is true of this particular item of our DRESS FABRICS holds good throughout our entire line of DRESS GOODS. Our stock of

Parasols, Fans and Sun Umbrellas

was never more complete, and must be seen to be appreciated, and we feel that we are entirely safe in saying (only judging from what we are told at our counters and from the immense quantities sold) that our stock of 5 cts. MUSIC 5 cts.

When retrograding o'er the past,
We must confess thisage is fast.—
The grand desideratum is attained at last
By Goldsborough's cent place,
Where'er you wander on the street,
The air seems filled with music sweet;
And in almost every house a sheet
Of Goldsborough's 5 cent Music.

The stranger, as he passes by,
With careful, scrutinizing eye,
Is amazed when invited in to buy
Goldsborough's 5 cent Music.
He buys, and to his home repairs,
Laden with all the latest airs;
Astonishes the family when he declares
"Tis Goldsborough's 5 cent Music.
To those who would their parlors grace,
Must this great offer now embrace,
And straightway note the only place
To buy Goldsborough's 5 cent Music.

New and Fashionable
MUSIC
Five Cents
Big Lot Just Received.

This music is NOT the cheaply gotten up five cent TRASH of late so largely disseminated in the cities. Neither is it stale, accumulated, shopworn stock. It is

Genuine, Legitimate, Copyright and non-Copyright Popular Music of the Day, executed in the highest style of the art from Electrotype Plates, and which has been formerly sold for 30, 50, 75 and 100 cents, and now sold by us for FIVE CENTS. This departure from long established rates is really a Great Revolution in the Divine Art.

The above big lot, together with the large stock previously on hand makes our collection larger than any other Music Store on the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

We will freely give sensible and practical hints in the art of selecting Music to all who call on us.
