Items of Local Interest

There are several cases of diptheria in and near this city.

A freak calf with two heads was born recently on the farm of Benjamin Martin, east of Hampstead.

Mrs. Martha Foutz, this city, is spending some time with her nieces of Roop's Mill.

Miss Josephine Reese, East Main street, is visiting friends in Darlington, Md., and Philadelphia, Pa.

Miss Elizabeth Weeks, this city, spent Wednesday with her uncle, Mr. John N. Ditch, Pleasant Valley.

There are a number of cases of typhoid fever nera Oakland Mills, this county.

October 1st., being a Jewish holiday the stores of H. Rosenstock, this city, will be closed.

Mr. William H. Yingling, this city, local representative of the Evening Sun of Ha[illegible]

MANCHESTER

Although the day was damp and gloomy the funeral of George A. Shower was largely attended. At 2:30 the members of Lebanon Lodge 175, A. F. A. M. left their hall and marched to the home on North Main street where at 3 P. M. the Rev. Barnhart read the scripture and prayer. The service through the funeral cortege formed and moved to the cemetery where the members of the order formed around the grave, after the grave service by the Rev. Barnhart. The beautiful ceremony of the order was conducted by George R. Gehr, P. M. of Door to Virtue Lodge. The flowers were beautiful and bountiful

MELROSE

For a number of years, E. W. Gregory successfully conducted the ice and ice cream factory at Manchester. When death summoned him, Mr. Edward Wine purchased the plant, and is now building up a big business with these products made in his sanitary plant. Vernon Krebs, our enterprising merchant, is selling great quantities of it which is giving general satisfaction.

Mrs. John Shue and Mrs. Granville Myers, of Parkville, Hanover, Pa., visited Mr. and Mrs. Aaron G. Crumrine and family, of our town one day last week.

A native of York county, who with

Babylon & Lippy Co.

