ALL ABOUT IT

[illegible]

Prominent Elks have New York to day for Niagara.

SENATOR BAYARD died at Atlanta on Thursday morning, while [illegible] great grandson.

The trial of Dennis Burke on Thursday resulted in Col. Lewis Wallace's Tax Commissioner, Sidney Mason, [illegible]

The place of Public Printer of Annapolis, vacated by Thomas E. Hinks, has been tendered to Mr. Sidney Mason, Tax Commissioner. Salary $2,000.

Gilmore's Theatre, New Thursday inaugurated the season which promises being both and profitable to the Managers on the Delaware.

Guiteau's counsel has made a final movement to Arrest the and compel the Sane court, sanity prisoner of the Equitable trying at Fort Reid.

Dr. THOMAS F. GALLOWAY, an eminent physician, and one time a prominent democrat politician of the State, died in Baltimore, last Wednesday. He was a ripe scholar, a skilled orator, and a high minded gentleman.

A revolution has broken out in China and the mob has slaughtered the King and Queen. The hostility to the Government grew out of opposition to the treaties with foreigners lately negotiated with the United States and England.

Mr. [illegible] Senator Conkling's speech of Secretary Robert's location question, quoted in the article which we reprint this morning from the New York Sun, Senator Ingalls puts the case up that between very stand, and as plain, that all may understand. [illegible]

THE HORSE SHOW

THE Ledger is informed that the STAR has not suggested Mayor White as a possible candidate for Governor. [illegible] winning without being a candidate himself. [illegible] accept any nomination, and is simply looking out for the welfare of his friends.

Our down town contemporary, the Ledger, invites the STAR to name a ticket for its support. This is a delicate matter for us to do, as we only know of one man that would suit it, which is the Editor of the Ledger himself. As it is for him first, last, and all the time, we will be a big apple against a second hand shoe of 7 cents, that it never goes back on him as it has on George Colton, Mayor Whyte, and [illegible]

[illegible] night to be visited by prompt Service [illegible] these slight derangements that, if neglected, often develop into serious illness. When a cold or other cause clogs the system, or the sensitive organs show that healthy action should be restored, and inflammatory symptoms removed from the system, Ayer's Pills accomplish this quickly, safely and surely.

[illegible] the arrest of Mr. E. Dwyer Gray, proprietor of the Freeman's Journal, member of Parliament for Carlow, and High Sheriff of the city of Dublin, and ex-Mayor of that city, and fined him $2,000 and sent him to prison for three months for contempt of court in publishing a letter to Mr. O'Brien, editor of the United Ireland, [illegible] Francis Hynes of the murder of John Brophy of being drunk on the night previous to the day their verdict was rendered. Mr. Gray's case has created a great sensation in our sister isle and elsewhere.

EX-SENATOR CONKLING has been furious attacked by the Albany Evening Journal for attempting to bribe Gov. [illegible] in the interest of the Mail [illegible] Gould. The New York Times also excoriates the ex-Senator for his [illegible] and corrupt methods, [illegible] himself into simply "Jay Gould's man" for [illegible] among Republicans. If Cornell should be nominated, his defeat is now certain; and it is equally certain that Conkling will not [illegible]

[illegible] Keasbey and Mr. Frederick Compton for the [illegible] which they dwelt with the appointments last Saturday. They were [illegible] understood while they were about, and they handled no words with the Governor, who [illegible] continents are made, in every body's street, his own [illegible] and let us be free to act in party matters as they may deem for the best, and let all [illegible] the decision of the majority [illegible] speak through the conventions and nominations. In this way we shall have peace and triumph over the Republicans.

The New Canal President.

[illegible] of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal elected Hon. Lewis Cass Smith President of the company, vice Hon. A. P. Gorman, resigned. Mr. Smith, the new President, is a lawyer of Hagerstown, Washington county. He was Speaker of the House of Delegates in 1876. He is a man of talent and culture, and possesses all the necessary business energy, to make a first rate President. [illegible] Mr. Smith will be one of the country—he has been traveling in Europe several months past—pending the scandalous controversy in the Board of Public Works about the peach [illegible] office unknown. [illegible] upon the duties of the office unknown [illegible] "If Mr. Smith makes as good a record as President of the Canal as Mr. Gorman has made the Board of Public Works will have no cause [illegible] Even Governor Hamilton, who voted for Mr. Bridges, acknowledges that Mr. Smith possesses the necessary qualities to make a good president of the Canal.

"Pro Bono Publico."

[illegible] of people refuse to read [illegible] Dr. Sawyer's little stuff about his Ointment for Itching Piles that fills so much space in the papers. The people well know that it is a sure cure for Piles and Skin Diseases. It is Pro Bono Publico. May its fame [illegible] time.

Rob Roy Kidney and Liver Pills, Kidney's Little Cathartic Pills, pleasant to take, sugar coated, [illegible] by druggists, or sent by mail for 25 cents per box or vial. Address, Dr. Kidney, Utica, New York.

Why don't you try Carter's Little Liver Pills? [illegible] Only one pill a dose.

The Maryland Guards, the Republican organ of Annapolis, in speaking of the work of the late session of Congress, says: "It has been liberal, almost [illegible] but it must be remembered that [illegible] crats as well as Republicans were equally responsible for the result. [illegible] The Guards is altogether wrong in this matter. The Democrats have nothing whatever to do with the "responsibility" for the "muddles" of Congress. The Republicans had a majority in both Houses; it had a majority of and the control of the standing committees of both houses; it [illegible] entirely excluded from the committees of [illegible] Mr. Randall and other Democrats they know would fight their jobs of all kinds and now it is too late after the "prodigals" has been argued and admitted, to say the "Democrats are responsible." Whether good or bad, the Republican party had a chance, is responsible for the appropriations of the last session of the forty-seventh Congress.

THE Cecil Democrat in its canvass against Judge Stump, has reduced its principles down to a simple question of dollars and cents. It gives the exact amount that Judge Stump, his relatives and friends, and fellow Democrats of Cecil county have received for their public services; and then argues that, because their salaries in fifteen years have amounted to so much money, therefore they ought to step down and out, and let Mr. Constable and his friend Cruikshanks come in and get as much. If the argument is sound, it can be used by Republicans just as well, and would be a good reason why the Democrats in all the democratic counties who have been in office for fifteen years past, should step down and out, and let the Republicans in to enjoy their proper share of the spoils.

But there is nothing sound in the argument. These Democrats in Cecil were nominated and elected to office and paid their salaries because they were at the time the favorites of the party; and they were the favorites because of their known devotion to democratic principles and the party service they had performed; and the fact that they have been in office, or are now in office, does not cancel their claims and preclude their re-election, if the people want them continued.

This reducing the question to dollars and cents is destructive of democratic principles, and if accepted as a party test, leaves every voter free to vote on personal grounds for those he likes best, without regard to party. Such a doctrine will be scouted by every party man of both or all parties except the "touts." It is too low and mean to be used even against the Republicans, who have held all the offices in the Federal Government for twenty years. A man who is rotten on this subject is not sound enough for a judge.

THE Ledger should follow the scriptural injunction and pluck the beam out of its own eye before it looks for motes in the eyes of others. If it had done so, it would not have charged the STAR with "flopping," as the Ledger itself has been "flopping" ever since the last election. Before the Legislature met, it "flopped" against Treasurer Compton. It failed to get the State printing, then it "flopped" from Colton to Whyte. Then it went on an exploring expedition like Mr. Micawber, waiting for something to turn up, and while on the anxious bench it "flopped" over from Whyte to German. Failing to get the promise of the Insurance Commissionership or the Tax Commissionership, it "flopped" away from German, because George Colton said he was a bad fellow. The Ledger is a "flopist" by profession and a double "flopist" by practice.

Now about the "flopping" of the STAR. Admit that the STAR was a warm supporter of the so called Managers; but who are the managers now? They have quarreled and separated, and left their friends free to follow either or neither of them, as they may feel disposed. We have chosen under these circumstances to go for what we consider the best interests of the Democratic party without respect to persons, leaving those who have quarreled to settle their disputes among themselves.

In noticing the pretty pass they have brought the party to, we simply remarked that if "Gov. Whyte or any other man" could extricate the party from these embarrassments and bring it victory, he was "the man the people are looking for." Thats all the "flopping" we have done. And does the Ledger really consider this "flopping?" Is it not as ready as the STAR to raise the Whyte flag, or any other flag, that will assure a democratic victory? If it is not prepared to "flop" again in this direction, we are sorry for it.

It is perfectly plain that some of those who have for sometime past been at the front must go to the rear, and other men must take their places. There are just as good men in the party as they are, men just as capable of organizing it and leading it to victory, and the services of those gentlemen are now in demand. The party must steer clear of the old wrangles and the old wranglers and professional "flopists," and look to the strongest man in it to guide and direct it to victory. We need all the strength we have, and cannot afford to take any risks. We do not detract from nor depreciate the good service any of these gentlemen have done in the past. We award them all praise where they have deserved it; but we think they have recently made such grave mistakes as totally implaire their present influence, for which reason a wise policy requires them to fall into the ranks and give place to others.

This is the way we "flop." We ask nothing for ourself, and expect nothing. And in response to the Ledger's insinuations that we are looking out for ourself, we have simply to say, we have only been fighting the battles of the party for forty years, and have not yet asked a title to a position, and we therefore feel at liberty to give the Ledger advice gratis. It should not be so anxious to run up the ladder, as it fear its brethren in the attempt, for it knows the old adage, that the higher a monkey climbs the plainer it shows its tail.

Horse Notes.

"I take pleasure in saying that when my horses were sick with what was called lung fever, last Spring, I gave Simmons Liver Regulator (liquid) in one ounce doses, twice a day. They all recovered speedily."

E. T. MCKEEVER

Prop'r Methner's Express, Jeffersontown, PA.

"I wish to state that a valuable horse of mine was taken with colic, and after using all means available, the thought struck me (as I had no pills in the house) to use Simmons Liver Regulator. After giving about four ounces of it, in the space of a half hour, he had an operation and was cured. I think it valuable information to prospector and to stock raisers. Yours respectfully,

"W. A. HALLARD

Jeffersville, Ga."

"MY WIFE AND I WAS PAINFULLY AFFLICTED for years with Dyspepsia. But before we broke up in housekeeping we had tested and tried every known remedy, and we thought we had exhausted all hope, when we thought we would try Simmons Liver Regulator, and we are happy to say it has proved a blessing to us. We cannot say too much in its favor."

We Desire to Call your Attention to the Superior Merits of

ORCHILLA GUANO

AS A FERTILIZER FOR WHEAT AND GRASS.

The advantages resulting from its use are not only an increased yield, but the permanent improvement of the soil from the abundant growth of grass which is sure to follow.

ORCHILLA GUANO has been used extensively in Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia for several years, and from its abundant success everywhere, the farmers of [illegible] in its use is being well adapted to your soils. No fertilizer offered for your use has had such unmistakable testimony and continued popularity. Some of the largest and best farmers in them [illegible] its almost continued use.

It is successful and, because it is Nature's own provision for her exhausted fields.

It is low priced, because we have none of the expense of manufacture, and disregarding its high grades of Phosphates, we have based our price upon its actual cost to import.

We refer you below to some of your people who have used it, and ask you to enquire of them as to its merits.

WOOLDRIDGE, TRAVERS & CO., IMPORTERS, BALTIMORE, MD.

READ THE FOLLOWING LETTERS:

JOSEPH E. MCKNETT, of Hillsboro, Dorchester County, Md., says: I purchased at Mr. [illegible] the fertilizer Orchilla Guano and used it in this county. Either [illegible] it by the use of Phosphate that I did not make [illegible] Phosphate [illegible] it by the side of another. Fertilized with the latter [illegible] every year in succession [illegible] with one or more dressings [illegible] and in every case it has done better for me than any other fertilizer I have used. For the future I don't think I shall use any other, unless it be some quantities for test, [illegible] Orchilla.

JESSE MIDDLETON, of Eden Station, Somerset Co., Md., says: I have been using Orchilla Guano for a number of years, and I have tried it carefully on my own land, and I have seen its results on many neighbors' farms also, and I cannot say enough in its praise. From the condition my land is in now, I am free to say that I consider it [illegible] Phosphate [illegible] Orchilla, I would far rather take Orchilla, because I have proved to my satisfaction that it is not only [illegible] for the crop, but it is a permanent improvement of the soil; and will [illegible] to be [illegible] for a long time.

JOHN R. VINCENT, of Linkwood, Md., has been selling Orchilla for years, and he writes us that it has given great satisfaction to his customers, and that the sales will no longer [illegible] them over [illegible]. He writes that he has some few testimonials, only two of which have yet come to hand.

WM. C. SATTERFIELD, Greensboro, Caroline Co., Md., August 1, 1882, says: I have been using Orchilla Guano for three years largely. I have frequently [illegible] other fertilizers, but fell back on Orchilla. I believe it is equal to any fertilizer in the market at the same price as Orchilla. I would far rather take Orchilla, because I have proved to my satisfaction that it is not only [illegible] for the crop, but it is a permanent improvement of the soil; and will [illegible] to be [illegible] for a long time.

JOHN M. ANDREW, Hillsboro, Dorchester Co., Md., Aug. 1, 1882, says: I used Orchilla Guano on a barren hill-side, the soil having been so washed away as to leave the ground pretty much like a barren hill-side, the soil having been so washed away as to leave the ground pretty much like the sandy, and above all not [illegible] there is virtue in it. I [illegible] Orchilla.

WASHINGTON D. WATKINS, Cambridge, Dorchester Co., Md., July 31, 1882, says: I have found Orchilla to be a good fertilizer and satisfactory in its results. I shall use it [illegible] for a long time.

JAMES W. BOWDEN, Bayside, Hooper's Co., Md., July 31, 1882, says: I used Orchilla last fall on a piece of rye, [illegible] of 20 pounds per acre. The result was very satisfactory. The rye [illegible] and will, I believe, be to me an [illegible] fertilizer, and shall use it again this fall.

SOLOMON F. KIRWIN, Bayside, Hooper's Island, Dorchester Co., Md., Aug. 1, 1882, says: I used Orchilla on a piece of [illegible] with good results. I shall use it again [illegible] this fall.

THOS. W. SPICER, Taylor's Island, Dorchester Co., Md., Aug. 1, 1882, says: I applied Orchilla on a piece of wheat, [illegible] of 20 pounds per acre. The result was very satisfactory. The rye [illegible] and will, I believe, be to me an excellent fertilizer, and shall use it again this fall.

[illegible] Md., Aug. 1, 1882, says: I used Orchilla on [illegible] and I find it to be an excellent fertilizer, and shall use it again this fall.

[illegible] Md., Aug. 1, 1882, says: I used Orchilla on [illegible] and I find it to be an excellent fertilizer, and shall use it again this fall.

TO FARMERS.

I have for sale a new variety of wheat which has been grown in the counties of Queen Anne's and Talbot for the past six years. The yield has never been less than 18 bushels per acre, and has been as high as 40 per acre. The grain in appearance is like "Fulcaster," but is free from chaff, and the size of the kernel is twenty hundred, some of the heads in my field this year contained as many as [illegible] kernels. I have limited quantity [illegible] and shall be glad to give further particulars to any dealing to try what Tomlinson an unusually productive wheat. Price at my barn $2.00 per bushel, and the chaff of this paper.
