Items of Local Interest

Mr. Arthur Null is ill at his home on Hersh avenue, this city.

The Reformed church reunion for 1925 will be held July 17, at Penmar on the Western Maryland Railroad.

Hog cholera is reported to exist at the farm of Emory McCullough, Maple Grove, this county.

Monday Mr. Harry C. Albaugh, Hanover, Pa., transacted business in this city.

Mrs. Beals Wright, New York, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Weant, this city.

Wednesday the students of Western Maryland College left for their homes to spend the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Emma A. Lippy, Pennsylvania avenue is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Ebaugh, Littlestown.

This week Miss Lola Wood, St. Mary's county, was a guest of Mrs. William H. Thomas, Court Place.

Mrs. Roy Barnes and daughter who were visiting Mr. Barnes' sister near this city, Sunday returned to their home in Hanover.

Tuesday Mrs. Harry Thomson moved into The Albion apartments, this city, from her former residence on Hersh avenue.

Monday evening Miss Lola Allender entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home on Willis street.

A chinaman plans to open a laundry on East Main street, near Court, in a store room belonging to Joseph L. Mathias.

This week Mr. Joseph Sheeler, of Shippensburg, Pa., visited his mother, Mrs. Josephus Sheeler, of this city, and also his brother Mr. Edward Sheeler, who is a patient at St. Joseph's hospital, Baltimore.

Saturday last George Baumgartner, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Baumgartner, East Main street, returned from St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore, where he was operated upon for appendicitis. He is recovering rapidly.

Mrs. Elizabeth Eppley died suddenly Thursday night, November 20, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Calvin Moyer, near New Windsor. She was the mother of Mrs. William H. Yingling, this city.

Friday afternoon last while hunting Dr. Glenn W. Horner, this city, was shot accidently by his nephew, Mr. George Melville, of Oakland Mills, this county. The Doctor is not injured seriously.

George W. Brown state tax commissioner of Carroll county, has moved from his home near this city to the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Young, Bond street, for the winter months.

While taking part in a game of Volley ball last week on the Manchester High school athletic grounds, Miss Margaret Keck, Manchester, tripped and fell fracturing the large bone in her left limb near the ankle.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock the Woman's Missionary Society of St. Benjamin's Lutheran church will hold its public thank offering. A pageant will be rendered. December 4th the society will hold its regular meeting at the church at 7:30 P. M. The Light Brigade will be present.

Tuesday on appeal from the Traffic Court of Baltimore which had sentenced him to two years in jail for driving an auto while intoxicated, Mr. Guy W. Caples, of Sandymount, this county, was found not guilty. Chief Judge Gorter sat in the case. Mr. Caples, who is a huckster, supplies Judge Gorter with butter, eggs, chickens etc.

Miss Josephine O. Evans and A. Sexton Holmes, Creswell, N. C., were married Tuesday, November 18 at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans, Washington, D. C. Miss Mary Hesson, Taneytown, was among the guests present. Hrs. Holmes is a graduate of Western Maryland College and taught in Taneytown High school last year.

Monday Messrs. George W. Albaugh and Guy W. Steele, this city, were appointed by the Circuit Court receivers for the Malko Milling and Lighting company of Hampstead, upon the petition of The Manchester Bank, a creditor to the amount of $40,000. A large number of farmers had their wheat stored with the company and it was used by the company to make flour and feed, but not paid for. If these farmers lose their wheat it will be a great hardship.

Prof. H. C. Benson spent the week-end with friends in Washington, D. C.

Miss Madeline Weller, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Weller, this city.

Miss Mary J. Dell, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James Boylan, this city.

Scott Hunter, an employee in The Democratic Advocate office mashed a finger badly in the press.

Mrs. John Leese, Cranberry, this county, is visiting her son Robert Leese, and family, this city.

Mr. John Boylan, of Baltimore, attended the funeral of Mr. Martin J. Leahy, this city, Monday.

Miss Agnes Trone, of Hanover, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Kaufman, this city.

E. O. Weant Esq., this city, is recovering from a severe attack of tonsilitis, and will be out next week.

Sunday evening Mr. William Stoner moved to Baltimore where he has secured employment.

The state road between Taneytown, this county, and Frederick City has been completed.

Lawrence Hull, Carroll street, has accepted a position in the treasury department with the Fidelity and Trust Company, Baltimore.

Mrs. Mary Keitel, sister to Mr. George D. Jones, this city, died Monday afternoon last at 2 o'clock at her late residence in York, Pa.

Mrs. Allen Lukens, York, Pa., was a week-end guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Whitmore, Pennsylvania avenue.

Miss Morgan, county supervisor of music in the public schools, is spending the Thanksgiving holiday with her parents in Cumberland, Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hesson, East Main street, spent the week-end in New Windsor as guests of Mr. Calvin Moyer and family.

Sunday evening a pageant was rendered in Hawk's Lutheran Church, near Keymar, this county. The church was decorated beautifully.

Monday evening the automobile dealers of this city and vicinity held a business meeting at the Hotel Westminster, this city.

A number of citizens of this community are suffering with grippe. Several rural mail carriers are out of commission.

Mrs. Francis Miller has returned to her home in Kearneysville, W. Va., after spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Shaeffer, this city.

"Bashful Mr. Bobbs" will be repeated in the I. O. O. M. hall in New Windsor by the members of Grace Lutheran church, this city, on Monday night, December 1. A special feature will be added in the form of a male quartette.

Monday evening a meeting of the Civic League, this city, was held in McDaniel Hall, Western Maryland College. Mrs. John Sippel, of Baltimore, delivered an address on "Women In Club Work."

After a visit of several weeks to South Carolina, and Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Levi McCauley and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Merl Harrison, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Daisy Snyder, of Baltimore, accompanied Mrs. Nellie Dern to her home in Taneytown, this county.

Wednesday evening the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of St. John's (Leister's) Lutheran church rendered a play, "Patty Makes Things Hum," in the firemen's hall at Hampstead, this county, to a large and appreciative audience. The play has been given at Frizellburg, New Windsor, and Union Mills.

Yesterday morning at 6:30 the Christian Endeavor Society of Grace Lutheran Church, this city, assisted by other C. E. Societies of this city, held a special Thanksgiving service in the Sunday school room. The offering will be sent to the Near East Relief.

Thursday evening, December 4th, 1924, from 5 to 9 o'clock, the senior class of the Westminster High School will serve a chicken, ham, and salad supper in the Holland Tea Room in the High School Building for the price of 50 cents. Ice cream, cake and candy will be on sale also.

UNIONTOWN

J. Snader Devilbiss, and Alfred Simpson left Sunday for a trip to California. Mr. Devilbiss will visit his son Paul Devilbiss, who has been west several years.

Tuesday Misses Olevia and Jane Crouse went to the Aged Folks' Home at Sanmar to make their home for a time.

Mrs. Elizabeth Billmyer is visiting her children in Baltimore.

Mrs. Clara Crabbs, Hagerstown, is a guest of her sister, Miss Anna Baust.

Mrs. Alice Kemp left last Friday for Hanover, where she will make her home. Her friends are sorry to see her leave town.

The home of the late Dr. Kemp was not sold at the sale and thus far no physician has come to locate here.

The district school meet, held at the public school here, was well attended on Thursday. The Frizellburg school won the highest number of points in the contests. The children all rendered their parts well. The speakers were Miss Lula Crim, Supervisor of Carroll County schools; M. S. H. Unger, Superintendent of Education for Carroll county, and Dr. A. N. Ward, President of W. M. College. After the exercise refreshments, consisting of cake, and cocoa, were served.

The following are the points won in the different contests by the various schools:

	school	spelling	reading
Uniontown	10	6	4
Bearmount	10	2	2
Baust	8	4	8
Mayberry	3	10	10
Frizellburg	8	8	6
	Relay	D. Ball	Pageant
Uniontown	4	10	10
Bearmount	6	5	8
Baust	2	5	10
Mayberry	8	5	0
Frizellbury	10	5	9

The totals were Uniontown 44, Bearmount 33, Baust 37, Mayberry 36, and Frizellburg 46.

The evangelistic services at the Bethel closed Sunday evening with the observance of the Lord's supper.

Aunt Nancy Plowman passed her 93rd mile-stone Monday, November 24th. She has been confined to her bed for five years and is well cared for by her son Aaron Plowman, and wife.

"Grandmother" Stone, widow of the late John Stone, died Monday at the home of her son John Stone, Clear Ridge. She has been an invalid a long time. Funeral was held Thanksgiving morning at Pipe Creek.

Uniontown Lutheran Charge.

St. Paul: 9:30 Sunday school; special program and promotion of children; 7:00 P. M. C. E.; Woman's Missionary Society at Mrs. H. B. Fogle's Tuesday, December 2, 7:30 P. M.

Mt. Union: 9:15 Sunday school; 10:30 morning worship; 7:30 P. M. annual thank offering service of the Young People's Missionary Society; special program of music and speakers.

Winter's: 1:30 P. M. Sunday school; 2:30 worship and sermon.

STONE CHAPEL

Sunday school 1:30 P. M. and preaching 2:30.

Epworth League was well attended November 23rd. The next meeting, December 1st, 7:30 P. M. Leader, C. W. Duvall. A fine topic, and an interesting meeting is anticipated. All are welcome.

Farmers will finish husking corn this week. Beautiful weather.

The party who purchased E. A. Zile's property, near Stone Chapel, moved on Monday. They lived in Baltimore. We hope the people of the community will welcomely receive them.

The health of the community is not very good. A number in the past week have been suffering with colds, or grippe. Benton Stoner and several in his family, Mrs. C. W. Duvall, Calvin Cook, and others were among the victims.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koontz, of Westminster, spent a few days with their daughter, Mrs. William Breitweiser and family.

J. W. Robertson, daughter Lois, Paul E. Robertson, and Mrs. Sellman spent a few hours with Mr. Vinton Caple and family, of Eastview Sunday afternoon. They found Mrs. Caples improving, and in excellent spirits.

Miss Emma Bradburn went to Manchester Friday evening. She will spend Thanksgiving Day with her parents in Lonaconing, Md.

The squeal of the porkers can be heard every day. Next week it will continue in full force. I will publish the weights of those 200 lbs. and over. Please send me the weights of your hogs. We will see who has the champion.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duvall are busy filling and delivering orders for their canned goods.

A friend inquires what "folk songs" are. Well, you can hear them every morning when the folks sing after the men, "Don't forget the yeast cake."

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mrs. J. Elmer Myers received word of the death of her uncle, Mr. Uriah Fleagle, who died Monday afternoon in Toledo, Ohio. Mr. Fleagle had many friends around here, who were sorry to hear of his death. He was a son of the late Jesse and Mary Nusbaum Fleagle, and was born near Mayberry, this county, and went west when a young man. He is survived by his widow and a number of children, all residing in Ohio, at which place his remains were laid to rest on Wednesday. He is also survived by the following sisters: Mrs. Mary Dailey, Berkley Spring, West Virginia; Mrs. Agnes Hull, Littlestown; Mrs. Martha Shriner, and Mrs. Belle Fleagle, in the West; Mrs. Rachel Wantz, near Pleasant Valley; Mrs. Alice Koontz, near Westminster; Mrs. Ida Spangler, Mayberry; Mrs. Barbara Feeser, Taneytown; Mrs. Cordelia Koontz, Sykesville, and Mrs. Annie Harver, Westminster, and a number of nieces and cousins in this county.

Mrs. Robert Wantz received word of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward Ditch, Bismarck, North Dakota.

Mr. Theodore J. Myers, who had been at the hospital, is now able to be out again, and attended church on Sunday for the first time in twelve weeks.

Last Thursday was visiting day at our school and a number of parents and friends spent part of the day visiting the different rooms and appreciated the work which was done by the teachers and pupils. Too much praise can not be given our excellent corps of teachers, and we hope we may be able to keep them many years. The Home Economics teacher, Miss Ward and her assistants served a splendid dinner which was enjoyed very much, consisted of roast pork, donated by Miss Anna Myers, roast beef, donated by Mr. Theodore King. Sweet potatoes, peas, crackers and gravey, rolls, bread, butter and coffee, and cocoa, and excellent desert.

One of the best Parent-Teacher meetings that was ever held here was the one held on last Thursday evening. The program committee deserve credit for arranging such a splendid program and for securing such able speakers. We hope we may soon have the pleasure of hearing them all again in the near future. After the exercises were over, hot roast beef sandwiches and hot coffee were served, also chocolate milkshakes were served to the children by the Child Welfare Committee. The beef and coffee were donated by the Pleasant Valley Canning Co., A. Daniel Leister president. The teachers and different committees express their appreciation and thanks to the company for their liberal donation.

The Woman's Home and Foregin Missionary Society of St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Pleasant Valley, will hold its annual thank offering service on Sunday evening, November 30 at 7:30. A very interesting program will be rendered, consisting of singing, recitations, a pageant and several prominent speakers will be present. Everybody invited. Come one and all.

The following persons spent a day last week with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bemiller and family: Mr. Harry Thompson, Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bemiller, sons Bernell and Kenneth, Mr. Reaver and Mr. Smith, Hanover, Pa.

Jacob Stonesifer and Carroll Bemiller with his "raccoon dogs" were out hunting on Monday night and brought home a nice large "coon."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shriver, and daughter Miss Edith, and son Carroll, Mrs. Florence A. Eckard and Miss Olga Bell, all of Baltimore.

Mrs. Emma Lawyer spent last week with her daughter Mrs. Catherine Slaugenhaupt, Frederick, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig were royally entertained at a Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. Kindig's sister, Mrs. Augustus Study, in Littlestown. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bish and family, and Mrs. Cecelia Kindig.

Mr. William Bowers, Baltimore, is visiting his friend Mr. Frederick Myers.

Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig and her sister Mrs. Carroll Myers Westminster, spent Saturday in Baltimore.

The base ball game between the H. S. boys and the men of Pleasant Valley which was played here went 13-1 in favor of the H. S. boys.

Mrs. Gladys Myers who had been quite ill last week, we are glad to say, is improving.

Mr. Edward W. Devilbiss was able to gather one-inch ice from the dam one morning last week.

A very pleasant surprise birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver L. Heltibridle near Mayberry on last Friday evening, November 21st in honor of Mr. Hiltebridle's birthday. The P. O. S. of A. band of which he has been a faithful member for twenty-eight years was present and rendered some fine selections. The young folks enjoyed themselves playing games. Several fine selections were rendered by Mr. Noah Arbaugh, trombone; Mr. Upton E. Myers, cornet, and Prof. Edward P. Zepp, organ, accompaniment which was enjoyed by all. Refreshments consisting of ham and peanut butter sandwiches, cake, cheese and crackers, candy, coffee, cocoa and lemonade was served to all. After wishing Mr. Heltibridle many happy returns of the day all departed for their homes. In spite of traveling through the rain and mud, all felt it was good to have been there. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Oliver L. Heltibridle, A. F. Heltibridle, Geo. F. Heltibridle, Charles Foglesong, Roy Keefer, Daniel Willet, George L. Dutterer, Charles Brown, Edward Welk, Upton E. Myers, Joseph Myers, Harry M. Myers, Oliver Bowman, Arthur Deyhoff; Mesdames Charles E. Eckard, Minnie Keefer; Misses Mary Alice Brown, Viola Keefer, Margaret Keefer, Evelyn Brown, Grace Keefer, Mildred Stottlemyer, Lillian Deyhoff, Olive Deyhoff, Naomi Deyhoff, Charlotte Bowman, Helen Brown, Ruth Dutterer, Betty Jean Heltibridle, Carrie Keefer, Messrs. Noah Arbaugh, Prof. Edward P. Zepp, Messrs. David Hahn, Wilmer Myers, Atlee Arbaugh, Oliver Brown, Ross Myers, George Myers, Walter Keefer, Herman Logue, Lester Myers, Thomas Myers, Lewis Myers, Franklin Keefer, Carroll Keefer, Edgar Keefer, Howard Myers, Truman Heltibridle, Luther Heltibridle and Norman Willet.

Sunday school Sunday at 9:00 A. M. preaching at 10 by the Rev. Reinecke. W. H. and F. M. thank offering services in the evening at 7:30.

Mrs. Benjamin Myers, Green Valley, spent Saturday with Mrs. Archie F. Myers.

Also the same inquiry is made about "folk dances." Well you can see considerable folk dancing when they step on a hornet's nest out in the country.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Thanksgiving Linens

Linen Table Cloth two yards wide $2.00, Napkins to match $5.00 the dozen. Table Damask in White Mercerized 65c, $1.00, $1.50, $2.00 the yard. Two-yard-wide Mercerized Colored Damask, now so popular, in shades of Blue, Rose, Maize, priced at $1.00 yard.

Aluminum Round Roasters

We have a special roaster for Thanksgiving. Round roaster, large enough for small fowl, with steam vent in top. Priced for this season $1.29.

Knit Goods For The Kiddies

This department has a well selected line of Infants' knit goods. Boots, Sacques, Sweaters, Brushed Wool sets, Leggins, Caps.

Dress Flannels

All shades in Dress Flannels. Priced from $1.50 to $3.50 the yard.

The Coat Department

Our Ladies' Coat Department has been replenished with new numbers in Ladies' Coats. We have on sale a Lustre Bolivia Coat with large collar in Black, Tacpe, Brown, priced $25.00, $30.00

Ladies' Millinery

Millinery reduced. Fifty hats that sold up to $5.00 now sold for $3.98. Hats that sold up to $7.50 now sold for $5.00.

Children's Rompers

An assortment of styles in Children's Rompers, regular values $1.50, on sale for 98c. You will appreciate their value when you see them.

This Is Blanket Season

We are headquarters for Beacon Blankets for Bead Spreads. Beacon Bath Robe sets, Beacon Indian Blankets, Beacon Crib Blankets. English Army Blankets 85 per cent wool on sale for $2.75.

Little Prices On Domestic Dry Goods

Canton Flannels bleached and unbleached Gingham 20, 25, & 30c yard. Light Outings 19c. Dress Ginghams 19c. 25c Quilting Calicos 15c. Apron Gingham 12, 15 & 20c the yard. Unbleached Muslin Heavy 14c the yard.

Munsingwear Underwear

Munsingwear Union Suits everybody! Boys, Girls, Ladies, Men—Cotton, Wool, Silk and Wool, priced from 98c up.

Announcement

We Will Remain At The Same Old Stand With Our

Battery, Generator, And Starter Service.

Boyd Battery Co.

Westminster, Md.

MILLERS

Miss Emma Giller spent the past week with relatives at Baltimore.

Miss Myrl Miller, of Baltimore, spent last Saturday, and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Miller and son Milton spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Keck, of Manchester.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller a daughter, Ethel Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Shaffer, of Baltimore, spent last Sunday at the home of the former's mother, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Hare.

Mrs. Harry Martin, near Hampstead, spent last Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brilhart and son Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller and son Melvin, and Fern Miller spent last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wentz, of Greenmount. Mr. and Mrs. Jonn K. Miller and son Milton also spent Sunday evening at the above home.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller, and Mr. and Mrs. John Rinehart and grandson Charles Graf and Miss Alverta Hoffacker, of Manchester, attended the sale of Mrs. Mary Landis, of near Reisterstown, last Saturday.

Mr. William Dandy and bride, of Iowa, spent several days the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2317-0403