THE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR TOPIC

By the Rev. Charles E. Schaeffer, D. D.

Nov. 30. Stewardship: Our Prayers for Christ's World. Matt. 6: 9-13

This is the fourth topic on the general subject of Stewardship. It will be observed, therefore, that we are not expected to discuss primarily the idea or the meaning of prayer. That is a somewhat different subject. Prayer is communion with God. It is much more than petition. Its primary value lies in bringing ourselves in tune with the Infinite so that God can work out His plans and purposes through us. In this topic, however, we are to consider rather our prayers as a phase of stewardship. In other words, we are to ascertain how our prayers relate themselves to bringing the world to Christ and in building up His Kingdom everywhere. Our prayers are not to be selfish and directed to our own ends and purposes, but they are to be employed for others, for God's Kingdom, just as we into one common purpose and passion. It assures victory in hours of crisis. Notice how this is illustrated in the life of Jesus. In every great crisis of His memorable career He found victory in prayer.

So the Missionaries of the Cross have gone forth and they have snatched victory out of apparent defeat because they prayed. "You can do more than pray after you have prayed, but you cannot do more than pray until you have prayed." "Nothing lies beyond the reach of prayer except that which lies outside the will of God." The great Edinburgh Conference in 1910 had much to say about prayer for world Evangelism. It said, "The neglect of prayer by the Church at home means defeat at the front of battle." And again, "When the Church sets itself to pray with the same seriousness and strength of purpose that it has devoted to other forms of Christian effort, it will see the Kingdom of God come with power." John R. Mott said, "We have no right to send out missionaries unless we mean to back them up by prayer." Prayer knows no limitations of time and space. Through it the
