—Oxford is still booming in the building line.

—The ice wagons will soon be seen on our streets.

—The passenger 'busses of Easton do a good business.

—Mananoses are selling at 25 cents a peck in Easton.

—Plain visiting cards are very stylish at at present.

—The next popular dish will be "bacon and greens."

—All respectable druggists sell Simmons Liver Regulator.

—The exterior of the Court House needs a coat of paint badly.

—"Dandy Jim from Ca'line" at Music Hall next Thursday night.

—It seems as if the ground-hog superstition will hold good after all.

—The Easton market was well supplied with good beef Saturday.

—We simply rise to remark that the recent rains have been wet ones.

—The Easton Fire Department held a special meeting last night.

—Cigars! For choice brands go to McK. Goldborough's Book Store.

—The firm of Dodson & Benson, druggists, of St. Michaels, has been dissolved.

—Steadily gaining favor; read the advertisement of Simmons Liver Regulator.

—Eph Horn, Jr., will give his banjo solos next Thursday evening at Music Hall.

—Fire-Place Heaters and Cook Stoves promptly repaired at Hulse's stove store.

—Fresh Oranges and Lemons at McK. Goldborough's Book Store.

—Genuine Havana filled cigars at P. G Hoffman's, cor. Railroad avenue & Hanson st

—Property is reported to have sold high at Mr. William J. Shehan's sale last Wednesday.

—What has become of the esthetes of the country who raved last season over the sunflower and lily?

—"All that a man hath will he give for his life." To prolong it, look at Charles A. Miller's advertisement.

—All olden time songs will be sung by Sanford's fun-loving crowd at Music Hall, next Thursday evening.

—The New Emerald cook stoves are full-size, heavy, and guaranteed to give satisfaction. For sale at Hulse's.

—"It pays to advertise in THE EASTON STAR," is what one of our patrons said to us this week. Right! every time!

—Take the little ones to see the pure, unadulterated, old time, plantation mokes at Music Hall next Thursday evening.

—Sam Sanford's old-time minstrels in old-time songs at Music Hall, Washington's Birthnight. Go hear them and laugh.

—Fishermen predict a good take of shad on the Choptank this Spring, should the weather be favorable for catching them.

—The sun shone forth a few hours Saturday morning, but retired behind the clouds before noon as if it were ashamed of itself.

—The Oxford M. E. Church, which has lately had $2,000 repairs placed upon it, was re-opened Sunday with interesting exercises.

—Joseph B. Seth, Esq., has sold his Jersey bull, Favorite's Greatorex, No. 5,898, 18 months old, to a gentleman of South Carolina for $150.

—The Easton Point seine haulers continue to make large hauls of rock fish, catching as much as 3,000 pounds at a haul. These fish nearly all go to the city markets.

—Tilghman & Clark have sold to Mr. Lemuel Parker, of New York, the house and 7 acres attached, belonging to Mr. James Laing, near Matthews, for $750.

—The Ledger and Gazette are doing Chapel lands injustice, by reporting them as selling at $10 per acre, when in fact they were sold at $100 per acre, as in the Laing place.

—"Dull, miserable, dark, black, leaden, moist, foggy, cloud-laden atmosphere," is what a young man remarked to us a few days since. Wonder if he exhausted all the adjectives?

—"Swanee River," "Old Kentucky Home," and "The Jersey Blue Handkerchief," are among the songs to be sung by Sanford's Minstrels, next Thursday night at Music Hall.

—Fraudulent government pension agents are said to be travelling through some of the counties. They demand $5 to look up the claims, and that is the last ever seen of them or the money.

—My Remedy, heretofore known as "Pulmona," will hereafter be called New Life, the Great Cough Remedy. Price 50 cents. Sold by all druggists. A. R. Mettee, Proprietor, Baltimore, Md. oct24-6m

—The roads continue very bad, rendering travel exceedingly unpleasant, but there is no remedy for the trouble but to wait until it stops freezing, when they will very soon settle and dry out

—We continue this morning the publication of interesting extracts from Mr. Hubbard's Log-Book. It will be seen that he gives an account of his visit to a wonderful cave on one of the small West India islands.

—Farmers and others desiring a genteel, lucrative agency business, by which $5 to $20 a day can be earned, send address at once, on postal, to H. C. WILKINSON & Co., 196 and 197 Fulton street, New York. dec19-6m.

—The young ladies living around Cordova and Woodland ride into town on Saturdays three in a carriage. They are jolly as they are pretty, and make the "welkin ring" with their songs as they ride to and from town.

—Col. Edward Lloyd, as trustee, has sold to Mr. Charles S. Winder a part of Presquile farm—between two and three hundred acres, including the mansion house, at $76 per acre. This is as fine land as any in Talbot county.

—Tin roofing and spouting promptly done in the best manner. Prices guaranteed to be as cheap as the cheapest, material and workmanship considered. A full stock of Tinware always on hand. E. J. HULSE.

—Antonio De Pasquale, the Fashionable Tailor, opposite M. P. Church, Easton, Md. All garments cut and made by him are guaranteed to fit, and made in the very best manner, and in the most fashionable style. feb28-1y

—St. Valentine's day was appropriately observed by those who indulge in sending a loving token or a caricature to others. Some of the valentines this year were very handsome, while the coarse penny daubs were worse than has ever been known before.

—Wilsonia will cure Paralysis, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Nervous Debility, Pain in the Back, Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and many other chronic diseases in which medicine has failed. Its record is marvellous. See advertisement on another page.

—We doubt if farmers ever experienced a worse winter for farm work than the present one. They have not been able to plow, make manure, or do their fencing, and will have all their work to do in the Spring, which will crowd them during April and May.

—We are gratified to learn that the health of Major John W. Martin, of Trappe district, is improving. He is able now to go about his house, but will not likely take the risk of going from home before Spring. The Major knows how to take good care of himself, which is really better than medicine.

—Rain on Saturday.

—Snow on Sunday.

—Geologists can find no mercury in Simmons Liver Regulator.

—"Spelling-bees" will be revived in different localities this Spring.

—The new five cent coins have not put in an appearance in Easton as yet.

—Do you want to laugh? Then go to Music Hall next Thursday evening.

—Nausea relieved and Sick Headache cured by taking Simmons Liver Regulator.

—Next year will be leap-year, and then how some of the old beaux will quake.

—The weather on Sunday cleared off in the daytime—now we shall see what we shall see.

—Just received, a large stock of Landreth's new crop Garden Seeds by Hayward & Bro.

—Sunday was an olla-podrida day—rain, wind, hail, snow, fog and sunshine went to make it complete.

—A beautiful book descriptive of "Mother, Home and Heaven," for sale at McK. Goldsborough Book Store.

—Any of our readers wishing for a situation would do well to read the business card of D. F. Atwood & Co., which is inserted in another place.

—The Ledger announces the sale of the St. Michaels Comet to Fayette Gibson, Esq., but as the Comet says nothing about it, the Ledger may be mistaken.

—The owner of the stardard horse "Hannibal" has offered some handsome premiums for his colts. For particulars see the advertising columns of THE STAR.

—Swan are so plentiful in Chestertown as wild ducks. Several have been seen in this section. They make a more delicious dish than canvas-back duck.

—"'Tis more brave to live than to die." Therefore don't wait till a slight Cough develops itself into consumption but secure a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup at the small outlay of 25 cents, cure your Cough and live on happily.

—A party in Queen Anne's county said last week he heard there was a dozen new cases of small-pox in Easton. There has not been a case of small-pox in Easton for several weeks. The town is perfectly clear of it, and we trust we shall have no more of it.

—The Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church meets at Westminster on the 14th of March. J B. Bennett, Esq., has been elected the lay delegate to represent Easton Station, and Mr. James H. Linthicum has been elected his alternate.

—How to buy Clover Seed.—A prominent farmer says the best plan yet in buying Clover Seed is to examine it before buying. Shannahan & Wrightson's is the place to go where you can find choice Clover, Timothy, Orchard Grass and Kentucky Blue Grass Seeds at prices that cannot be beat.

—An inquisitive gentleman took a position near the delivery window in the postoffice, on St. Valentine's day, to notice the different expressions on the faces of those who called for and received their mail. He says one lady got six envelopes, and her face assumed a dozen different expressions in a minute.

—Ex-Sheriff William Reddie has left Easton and gone to reside on his farm in Bambury, and we predict that he will make one of the best farmers in Trappe district. He has a splendid estate to improve, and as he will not spare the fertilizers and clover, he will soon make it highly productive.

—Fish Commissioner Hughlett is about to experiment with the white fish of the Northern lakes, with a view to see how they will thrive in our waters. They are very much like a shad, except in color, being almost snow white. He has recently had some 50,000 white fish eggs hatched at his Tuckahoe Creek hatching house, and the young fish will be turned out in the Choptank and its tributaries.

—Another effort is making by some of our farmers to procure German laborers for their Spring work. There are plenty of German immigrants at Castle Garden, New York, which can be secured, if the proper steps are taken to bring them here; and the Germans make the very best of farm laborers. They are industrious, sober, honest, amiable, economical and intelligent, and they make good citizens and usually stick, where they find a good situation. Those that come and remain with us are sure to prosper, and we are quite sure that every land owner in the county, who has a house to put them in, can secure a German family, if he will but take the proper steps to do so. At least a hundred German families ought to be brought to Talbot from Castle Garden this Spring.

A Star Reporter Badly Hoaxed.

Last Tuesday several young men in Easton, including a popular young attorney, an enterprising clothier, and a reporter of THE STAR, received the following through the mail:

ST. MICHAELS, Feb. 13, 1883.

You are cordially invited to attend a St. Valentine's Party and Hop, to be given in the Town Hall, St. Michaels, on Wednesday evening, Feb. 14, 1883, by the young men of St. Michaels. By order of the COMMITTEE.

The representative of the press saw, as he thought, in the invitation a chance for a first-class local, and immediately decided upon going. Securing one of Mr. Frank Wright's fast trotters, he, accompanied by a gentleman friend, started to St. Michaels about noon Wednesday, through mud up to the carriage hubs. Everything betokened an evening of rare enjoyment to the "man of pencil," and as he rode he gloated over his prospective indulging in the "Lanciers," "Boston," "German" and the "Schottische." His companion would occasionally remark that the ride back would be a bad one; but that did not deter the scribe, he determined to press on and when he reached the goal to shout "Excelsior" with a stentorian voice. At last, as "the shades of evening were falling," St. Michaels was seen in the distance, and in a short while the town was reached. After putting their horse in livery, they proceeded to the Comet office and were greeted with the inquiry:

"Why, what brought you down?"

"The hop, of course."

"What hop?" asked the Comet man

"The St. Valentine's hop to be given by the young men in the town hall," was the answer.

The Comet man had a peculiar expression on his face and smiled singularly as he said:

"The first I've heard of it; believe you are hoaxed, gentleman."

But the STAR man did not concur in his belief, and strolled out to make further inquiries. On the street he met several young men from Royal Oak, Bayside, Broad Creek Neck and other places, all dressed in their best, and each one was anxiously inquiring about "the hop." The invitations were compared, and it was discovered that the writing was the same. After a few minutes reflection, the cry went up from the crowd, "Sold!" Yes, each and every one were badly "sold," and the reporter is willing to acknowledge that he was the worst beaten of the crowd. "Blanketty blank the blanked party that sent it!" said he as he started with his friend to the house of a relative to take supper. They had heard about it there and teased him roundly. After tea he called on some lady friends and there they had heard it too. At 10 o'clock the horse was hitched to the carriage, and as the hostler received his 50 cents, he looked up into the reporter's face and, with the blandest smile possible, said, "Thank ye, sir; air ye comin' to the neg' hop?" And ever since then "hop, hop, hop," has been flung at him from all sides; but he went in search of a local, secured one, and you are now reading it, so his mission was accomplished. Should he ever discover the party who sent the pressing invitation, there is no doubt but what there will lively times. As for his companion, he says there is no pleasure for him in dancing any more, and it "will be early in the morning" before St. Michaels receives his august presence again. Of the parties in Easton who received invitations, the reporter is the only one who acknowledged it by going.

Old-Time Minstrels.

The Owens' Comedy Company and Literary Association, of Easton, will celebrate Washington's Birthday with an entertainment at Music Hall in the evening. They have secured "Sam Sanford's Old-Time Minstrels," who will give one of their funny and unique entertainments. Sam Sanford is now 62 years old, and has been on the stage about 47 years: he is the oldest minstrel performer living, and ranks high in the burnt-cork profession. He will appear and will be assisted by a host of brilliant stars. The home association guarantee a first-class show and an evening of innocent fun to all who go. Reserved seats at M. M. Higgins.

Washington's Birthday.

Next Thursday will be the 161st anniversary of the birthday of Washington, and will as usual, be observed by any special demonstration in Easton. In former years, "befo' the wah," the day was celebrated by a turnout of the militia, and in the evening sociables and parties held sway.

"Just So."

Little drops of printer's ink,
A little type "displayed,"
Make our merchant bosses,
And all their goods parade.

Little bits of stinginess—
Discarded printer's ink—
Busts the man of business,
And sees his credit sink.

One of the Grievances of Dry Goods Clerks.

There is nothing in the world more provoking to the clerk in a dry-goods store than to spend a whole hour and waste his best smiles, not to speak of the exertion required to take down half the goods in the store, upon a person, and then after all his trouble receive an order for a paper of pins and promise to call again. The following is an example of the aforegoing:

She stood before the counter—
The day he'll ne'er forget;
She thought the muslin dearer
Than any she'd seen yet.
He watched her playful fingers
The silk and satin toss;
The shopman looked uneasy,
And felt a little cross.

"Show me some velvet ribbon,
Barege, and satin turk,"
She said, "I want to purchase!"
Then gave the goods a jerk.
The shopman, all obedience,
Brought satins, silks and crape;
At length, with hesitation,
She bought a yard of tape!

—[Centreville Record.

From the above it would appear that the clerks of Centreville get "cross," if their customers do not buy big bills after looking over the goods displayed on their counters. This is not the case with Easton clerks, who are always ready and willing to show goods, and never even get ruffled if they fail to make a sale, which, however, is very seldom. Easton has had some model clerks in this respect. Some time ago a gentleman of this county bet an oyster supper that he could make a clerk mad and show his temper, by pulling over his goods and not buying what the clerk expected to sell. He went in professedly to buy a suit of broadcloth clothes. He priced every piece of cloth in the store, the clerk showing him first one piece and then another with the utmost politeness. About an hour was spent in looking, in pricing, examining, approving and condemning the goods. Finally he found a piece of $10 cloth he thought would suit him, took it down to the door, examined it very carefully by a strong light, talked about its holding its color, and was assured it was a genuine French cloth. After hesitating as if uncertain what to do about purchasing, he at last said, "Well, you may give me 25 cents worth of this piece." In the blandest manner possible the clerk opened the selvage end of the cloth, took out his scissors, cut out a piece about the size of a quarter dollar, wrapped it up and handed it to his customer, and politely asked, "Is there not something else I can show you." The gentleman answered "Nothing," paid for the cloth, and then went out and ordered the oysters. Easton clerks excel as salesmen because they excel in politeness, and never get "cross." That's why Easton merchants do such a staving business.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

EASTON, Feb. 13.—The Board met, President Willis presiding, Commissioners Tarbutton and Bartlett present.

The Commissioners passed an order to shell a piece of road at Royal Oak, the Board to pay for the shells, and the people residing in the neighborhood to haul them and pour them upon the road, free of expense to the county.

The Board continued the hearing of appeals, making abatements and noting transfers. After paying a few bills, the Board adjourned to meet again on Friday.

FRIDAY, Feb. 16.—The Board met, and continued the hearing of appeals and noting transfers, and adjourned to meet again on Tuesday, the 20th.

ORPHANS' COURT.—DECEMBER TERM.

EASTON, Feb. 13.—The court met, Chief Judge O. Hammond presiding, Associate Judges Rose and Merrick present.

Alfred Wilson and Annie D. R. Wilson, executors of George W. Wilson, presented an inventory of the real estate, so far as the same is to be sold under the provisions of the will of the deceased. Also an additional inventory of the personal estate. An order of sale was granted as to the paper mill stock.

Robert Symons, administrator of John Symons, passed a dividend and a distribution of the balance of the personal estate in his hands to the general creditors.

John W. Knotts, administrator of Mary A. Rolph, presented an inventory of the personal estate, and the Court passed an order authorizing the administrator to sell the same, and directed him to publish notice to creditors to file their claims.

Gen. E. L. F. Hardcastle, guardian to Thos. H., and Edward B. Hardcastle, passed his 16th, 17th and 18th accounts with each, and his final account as to the first.

Samuel J. Merrick, administrator of Daniel Merrick, presented an account of sales of deceased's personal estate.

On petition of Alfred Wilson and Annie D. R. Wilson, executors of George W. Wilson, the Court passed an order, authorizing and empowering the said executors to execute a deed to one Harrison Hicks, for a lot of 6½ acres of ground, which the said Hicks bought of the said George W. Wilson in his lifetime, all the balance of the purchase money having been paid to the said executors since the death of the said George W. Wilson.

Literary Notices.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE

For March is already on our table. The contents are varied, and include a number of articles of special interest, among which are "Portraits of Columbus," "Polanders in Texas," "Invalid Life in the South," and "The Civilized Indians." "An Ocean Swordsman," the leading article, is beautifully illustrated. The stories and poetry are excellent.

THE LADIES' FLORAL CABINET

For February is replete with articles which cannot fail to interest those who give attention to the cultivation of flowers. This number contains a fine illustration of the foliage of the "Lavatura Arborea Variegata." "Lilies and their culture," by C. L. Allen, will specially interest those who cultivate lilies.

"HOW TO DESTROY INSECTS ON PLANTS AND FLOWERS IN THE GARDEN AND THE HOUSE,"

By Henry T. Williams, is a nicely printed little pamphlet which every lady who grows flowers ought to possess. There is scarcely a plant but what is infested by some insect that feeds upon its foliage and destroys its beauty, and the question, "What ails my plants?" is constantly asked, and when told it is insects, the next question is, "how am I to get rid of them?" Now this little book explains exactly what to do to protect plants from the ravages of the red spider, the green fly, the thrips, the mealy bugs, the rose slugs, ants, lice, worms, grubs, mildew, &c. The receipe for protecting verbenas from the rust is specially valuable.

PETERSON'S LADIES' NATIONAL MAGAZINE

For March contains Peterson's variety of illustrations and fashion gossip, and some excellent stories. "A Century of Female Novelties," illustrated, by Emily J. Mackintosh, will be found specially interesting. It contains portraits of Madame D'Arblay, Miss Anna Maria Porter, Miss Jane Porter, Mrs. Inchbald, Miss Jane Austin, Mrs. Opie, Mrs. Charles Gore, the Hon. Mrs. Norton, Mrs. Gaskell, Charlotte Brontie, and George Eliot.

First-Class Store For Sale.

It will be seen from an advertisement which we publish this morning, that the Dry Goods establishment of Messrs. J. J. Jump & Co. is for sale. We understand the store will be sold at a bargain, and on very easy terms. We know of no better opening for any one who may wish to go into the dry goods trade. The room is one of the handsomest and best arranged on the Shore. The store is most desirably situated, and has done a heavy business from the start, and is now doing a heavy business. It is a splendid stand and best opening in the State. Mr. Jump does not want to renew the stock, on account of his age, but must do so in the Spring unless he sells out this winter. He offers a long lease on the store room to any one who may purchase the stock. We consider this a rare chance for a number one stand.

A Good Showing.

The executive committee of the Maryland State Grange, T. F. Shepherd, John, Dodd, E. L. F. Hardcastle, Geo. Thomas, G. W. Smith and Edwin Austin, met in Baltmore recently, and elected Harry M. Murray, of Anne Aruddel county, treasurer, vice Jos. N. Chiswell, of Frederick county, deceased, and Mr. Harris, of Kent county, in place of W. H. Hughlett, resigned, as produce salesman. During the seven years that this agency has been established sales have been made to the members and customers at the lowest rates; but no dividend has been declared, and the profits have been accumulating, until there is now over $20,000 in the treasury. The profits will probably be divided after next fall.

A $20.00 Bible Reward.

The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for March, among which is the following:

We will give $20.00 in gold to the person telling us which is the longest verse in the Bible by March 10th, 1883. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner March 15th, 1883. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the April Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address, RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Pa.

Dry Epizooty.

A disease called "dry epizooty" has broken out among horses in the upper part of the Peninsula. It is different from the epizooty of several summers ago—contagious and more fatal. The manifestations are those of a severe cold, fever, but no cough, hanging down of the head, loss of appetite, and in addition a cracking of the mouth and very sore tongue, raw in fact—so sore that the animal when persuaded to, can only eat bran mashes or something of that kind. In extreme cases the horse becomes swollen and rigid, so much so that it cannot lie down. It is said that the disease can be readily managed if treated properly and taken in time, but the mode of treatment is not stated.

He Wanted to Sell.

A Point Road boy came along to one of our neighbors' houses, a few days since, holding a very dirty dog, and asked the gentleman of the house:

"Don't you want to buy a dog, Mister?"

"What kind of a dog is it?" asked the gentleman.

The boy looked puzzled. "Well," said he, "it is part terrier."

"And what is the rest?" queried the gentleman.

"The rest," answered the boy, "why, the rest is dog."

An Odd Street Scene.

He was seen in front of the office rubbing himself against the telegraph post like a fleabitten dog. "What is wrong?" we ventured to ask. "Got 'em, gent," he said laconically; "have 'em every Spring, small lumps form about the rectum; sore to the touch; they itch like blazes; a telegraph pole's like an oasis in the desert to me." Here then was poor humanity suffering from a complaint which a few applications of Swayne's Ointment for Itching Piles would have thoroughly eradicated.

Land-Hungry England

Holds conquests tenaciously. Man-hungry consumption revels in death. To repel England you must thrash her. To repel consumption you must remove it. Uncle Sam can lick England, and New Life can draw the fangs of consumption. Rev. R. Henderson, pastor of Court Street Presbyterian Church, Portsmouth, Va., was speedily cured of a protracted and terrible cough by New Life. Try it. Price 50 cents.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

The VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich., will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) who are afflicted with nervous debility, lost vitality and kindred troubles, guaranteeing speedy and complete restoration of health and manly vigor. Address as above. N. B.—No risk is incurred, as thirty days trial is allowed. jan2-y.

Fall Fashions.

If you want a cheap and fashionabie suit of clothes made, go to John Satterfield's; he has just received the fall and winter fashions, 1882; has a splendid line of samples; sells at wholesale prices, and guarantees a perfect fit. All kinds of cutting done to order.

Every citizen of the counties of Talbot, Queen Anne's and Caroline is hereby invited to come to our commodious and well supplied establishment and judge for themselves whether or not they can get better supplied in Holiday supplies and staple articles in our line than anywhere else on the peninsula.

In Books alone we have a larger and be ter selected stock than all the dealers on the shore combined.

In Fancy Articles we have the finest display of any store between the two bays.

In Fine and Staple Stationery, we carry the fullest stock of any house south of Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Our Holiday stock is selected from the largest and best importing houses in New York and other great cities. Come and see us and we will try to make you happy. Send us your address and we will send you a copy of our new and humorous illustrated paper, "Easton Christmas Bells."
