THE EASTON STAR

TUESDAY, MARCH 20, 1883.

T. H. ROBSON, Editor.

L. JEFF. MILBOURNE & CO., Newspaper Advertising Agents, 136 West Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., are authorized to contract for advertisements for THE STAR, at our best rates.

THE Rhode Island election takes place 4th of April.

PATRICK Egan, the Treasurer of the Irish Land League, has arrived in New York.

THE whiskey ring is about to ship 25,000,000 gallons of old Bourbon out of the country, in order to escape the Internal Revenue tax.

JUDGE David Davis, ex United States Senator from Illinois, was married at Raleigh, North Carolina, last Wednesday, to Miss Addie Burr.

THE coming coronation of the Czar of Russia, at Moscow, promises to be a lively affair. The Czar is taking every precaution to head off the Nihilists, and the Nihilists are laying their plans to off head the Czar.

HON. Thomas S. Flourney, who was the Know Nothing candidate against Hon. Henry A. Wise, in Virginia, in 1855, when Gov. Wise broke the backbone of the Know Nothing party of the country, died at Danville, Virginia, last week.

A partially successful attempt was made last Thursday evening to blow up the Government offices in London with dynamite. No lives were lost, but there was great destruction of granite and window glass, and a big scare in Parliament.

IT is said that Judge Edmunds, John Sherman and J. Randolph Tucker are of opinion that the Tariff Act is unconstitutional, on the ground that it originated in the Senate, the Constitution providing that all bills for raising revenue shall originate in the House.

COMPTROLLER Keating distributed the State school fund last week. Talbot gets a her distributive share; for white schools, $1,215.10; for colored schools $892.12. This is about $1,000 short on the usual distribution for white schools. There is a screw loose somewhere, which ought to be adjusted, and that without delay.

THE Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, met at Westminster, Carroll County, Maryland, last Wednesday, Rev. Theodore D. Valliant, President of the Conference, presiding. After the organization was completed, Rev. J. T. Murray, D. D. was elected President of the Conference for the ensuing year.

THE Baltimore Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, met at Charlestown, West Virginia, last Wednesday, Rev. Bishop J. C. Keener, D. D. of New Orleans, presiding. There was a full attendance, and the usual routine work of the session was commenced. Rev. John S. Martin was re-elected Secretary for the thirtieth time.

EX-Gov. William Sprague, lately married in Virginia, is a candidate for Governor of Rhode Island, and Genl. Benjamin F. Butler and Genl. Roger A. Pryor will stump the State in his behalf. Gov. Sprague is a live man, and as many believe that he has been badly persecuted, it would not be strange if sympathy for his wrongs elected him governor at the coming election.

IN the Garfield-Hancock campaign in 1880, the Republicans created a great rumpus in the country, by charging the Democrats with a purpose to unsettle the tariff of 1883. On this issue they carried the President and Congress; and the same Republican congress turned right around in the face of that campaign and unsettled the tariff of 1883. And now there is a rumpus in the Republican camp in Pennsylvania. Correspondent "William stadt" will please explain this inconsistancy. We want the explanation to go on the top of the next Democratic pole.

NICHOLAS L. Dukes a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, tried at Uniontown last week, for the murder of State Treasurer Nutt, was acquitted. Great indignation was expressed at the verdict, and Dukes and the jury that acquitted him were hung in effigy. But Nutt threatened to kill Dukes on sight, and we don't see but what the homicide was the natural consequence of Nutt going to Dukes' room to attack him. Had Dukes been tried for writing Nutt that brutal, villainous letter, he would probably been convicted and hung, or ought to have been. It was the vilest thing that man ever did.

IT has been generally understood for a year past that the Democratic "Bosses" in this State were all discharged, and we supposed they understood it perfectly; but it seems that Mr. A. P. Gorman does not exactly comprehend the situation, as he is again attempting to play the "Boss." His advent in the "Boss" role at Barnum's hotel last week has created very considerable uneasiness throughout the State. It is not what the democracy expected of Mr. Gorman, as the people are tired of "Bosses" and bossism. If he desires the success of the Democratic party next fall, we advise him to forbear in this respect in the future, and let the Democracy manage its affairs without the interference of "Bosses."

THE Baltimore Sun of Friday reports an interview which one of its reporters had with some leading Democrats of this State who were stopping at Barnum's Hotel last Thursday. From the tone of this report, there appears to be a disposition on the part of some to get up a conflict between the democratic party of the City of Baltimore, and the democratic party of the counties. Now, we consider this very bad policy, and we hope neither the Democrats of the city or counties, will become a party to any such warfare. The counties look upon Baltimore City as the stronghold of the democracy of the State, and desire to rally around it rather than to war with it. We opine the city democracy is perfectly able to attend to its own affairs without dictation from the counties, as the democracy of the counties is without dictation from the city. Let every tub stand upon its own bottom, and each manage its affairs in its own way, and let bosses and wire pullers keep out of the ring. If there are any disposed to act this role. If the city undertakes to manage the affairs of the party in the counties, or if the counties attempt to run the party in the city, there will be trouble which may defeat the party next fall. So, gentlemen, hands off, if you please, and let each one attend to his own affairs, and leave every other democrat to attend to his. This alone will give us the victory. The party has no use for trouble-brooders this year, and they had better keep their hands out of the fire, without they want to burn the Democratic party. Remember, this is to be the campaign of union and harmony, and the party has no earthly use for those who may desire to stir up strife.

ONE hundred and seventy-five members of the next House of Representatives, will be new members of Congress. What an opening for a "Colt's bull"

WE like clever people and like to give them all due credit for their cleverness. Baltimore has some clever people, who have a clever organ to represent them. These very clever people, and their clever organ, have rung the changes on reform for the last two or three years, and they blow the loudest when the legislature is in session. At the last session they smuggled in a bill to except "plant" from taxation, and the tobacco growers of Southern Maryland mistaking it for a bill to exempt tobacco plants, it went through like a flash, and met the approval of the reform Governor, notwithstanding it contained a clause confining its operations to Baltimore in it. The tobacco growing members supposed it all right, as quantities of tobacco plants are sold in the city, and they had not heard of any being taxed in the counties. Now it turns out that these clever reformers were not looking out for protecting tobacco plants, but another kind of "plant" peculiar to the city, and under the operation of their reform bill, millions of dollars worth of property, in the form of "plant" of one kind and another, will hereafter escape taxation, State and municipal. So large an amount has been relieved from taxation under the operations of the law and the reform methods, that it is likely the city taxes will have to be raised on other property to make up the deficiency. There is some doubt of the constitutionality of the law, as it is not general throughout the State, giving to Baltimore advantages not accorded to the same class of property in the counties. But then it is a reform measure, advocated by reformers, enacted by reformers, approved by a reform Governor, and as the city has elected a reform court to look after reform measures, the law will probably stand. These city reformers are certainly clever, and they deserve praise for their success.

IT is bad enough for the white Republicans to grab all the offices, to the exclusion of the colored people, but when they afterwards turn around and abuse them outrageously, threatening them with dire vengeance, if they dare express an opinion about the doings of the Republican party, we don't know how the colored people do to stand it. The following from that stalwart Republican journal, The Frederick Times, is about the coolest piece of impudence we ever heard of. How the colored people do to submit to such talk we can't divine. It seems that Collector Ditty is a favorite with the colored people of Baltimore, and they have the moral courage to stand up and protest against the attempt now being made by the Half-Breeds, to kick him out of office. For this grave offence the Times threatens to kick them "Sky high," and array the whole white people against them. We respectfully think the colored Republicans ought to resent such an insult, by kicking their white would be masters "Sky high" and leaving them to paddle their own canoe.

PLAIN TALK TO COLORED HEOPLE.

From the Frederick Times, Republican.

We wish the President would either notify Irving Ditty that he intends keeping him in office or turning him out. The reading public are becoming nauseated. There's entirely too much Ditty in the newspapers. In this connection we may refer to the action of the colored brothers regarding Mr. Ditty. The colored people of Baltimore appear to be endorsing him enthusiastically, and their orators have commenced to make threats about what they'll do if Mr. Ditty is not retained. Now the colored brother may get his tribe into trouble if he is not careful. Of course he may sell his influence and vote for cash or office, but if he persists, not only in this sort of conduct, but at the same time indulges in almost bloody threats, it will not be many years before he will find himself badly in the lurch. He will disgust decent Republicans, and the result will be that the party which gave him his freedom will drop him to his fate. It may be that the Republican party will then suffer defeat, but in the eyes of many this world be preferable to an existence depending on the support of the colored floater and broker of his own manhood. The colored brother must be careful not to go too rapidly. He has his freedom, but he hasn't got the world at his feet by a long way. He cannot make and unmake the universe. We think we know the place of the colored brother, and as long as he is in his place we are his friends. When he moves out of his place he will make enemies, just as other people do; and if he does not keep in his place it will not be many years before he has no place to keep to. We just throw in this sort of a Mother Shipton's prophesy free of charge. If the colored brother does not mind his p's and q's, in less than ten years time he will find the races arrayed against each other, and then he'll begin to realize the falseness of his position and the powerlessness of it.

The colored brother ought to go to work and let force of circumstance push him up in the world. He'll never win collectively by the force of his jaw. He will have to w..it to be called by the world. He can't call the world. The world moves around in one direction and the colored brother needn't expect to turn it the other way by getting on the other edge. The only result will be that he'll be flung sky high.

OPINION OF EMINENT DR R. S. STEUART, President Maryland Hospital, Baltimore: "* I have used COLDEN'S LIQUID BEEF TONIC for more than a year, and recommend it as one of the most efficient preparations I have ever met with. It combines the virtue of food and tonic in a remarkable way, and I am satisfied has saved life when no other medicine could do so." (Remember the name, COLDEN'S—take no other.) Of druggists generally.

TRAPPE, March 19th, 1883.

In answer to the challenge published in the STAR and Ledger of certain well known owners of fast stallions, I will trot the Stallion HANNIBAL, No. 2191, next September, on any track in Maryland or Delaware, for the sum of $500 a side—$250 forfeit; the balance to be put up two weeks before the race; or I will trot for any sum that will pay for the time, trouble and expense in fitting a horse for a race, to say nothing about curtailment in the stud. Or if the object is not to make money, but simply to show the speed of the horses to the patrons and people of Talbot, I will enter into an exhibition race at Hambleton Park next September, which would suit me as I never bet, (but the owner of Hannibal will back him for any amount) which I think would satisfy the people as to the relative speed of the horses. JNO. K. Caulk, Trappe, Md.

P. S.—If the above should meet the approval of said parties, they will please notify me by the first of April. J. K. C.

"I am the Last of Six."

One rainy forenoon, something less than a year ago, a pale, cadaverous youth walked into the store of C. N. Crittenton, New York, and in weak, husky tones, interrupted frequently by a dry hacking cough, stated that he wanted a couple of bottles of HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR. "I am the last of six," he said; "the others all died of consumption, and I am going fast. I will try this new remedy, but I have no hope." He did try it, and to some purpose. *He took in all twelve bottles, and is to-day in perfect health—*lungs sound, cough gone, not a sign of pulmonary disease remaining. Sold by druggists.

FITS! A Leading London Physician established an office in New York for the cure of EPILEPTIC FITS. From Am. Journal of Medicine. Dr. Ab. Meserole (late of London), who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any other living physician. His success has simply been astonishing; we have heard of cases of over 20 years' standing successfully cured by him. He has published a work on this disease, which he sends with a large bottle of his medical cure free to any sufferer who may send their express and P. O. Address. Delay means more wishing; act at once.
