PLEASANT VALLEY

Pleasant Valley to have electric lights.

The long looked for and needed convenience, electric lights, is coming at last. A force of men from the Consolidated Public Utilities Co., of Westminster were busy last week planting the poles from the Westminster-Littlestown state road to our town, which they expect to complete in the near future. Mr. Claude Myers is having his house wired this week.

The Rev. J. W. Reineke will celebrate Holy Communion on Sunday April 19th, at 10 A. M.

The Rev. A. G. Wolf will celebrate Holy Communion on Easter Sunday April 12, at 10 A. M.

Mrs. Elmer Zepp, who is a patient at the Annie M. Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, was given a post card and handkerchief shower on her birthday. She received 70 cards, 38 handkerchiefs, and 2 beautiful bouquets, one of sweet peas, and the other carnations. She wishes to thank all who so kindly remembered her in her illness. She is improving slowly. Her pastor, the Rev. J. W. Reinecke, paid her a visit on her birthday. The Rev. A. G. Wolf also called on her. She appreciated both these calls very much.

As bad luck has come to Elmer Zepp, his wife being at the hospital and she being so ill for several weeks before being taken there, Mr. Zepp could not make very much headway with his work. His neighbors planned to help him to haul out his manure, and on last Friday afternoon the following named persons were present to help him: Jacob W. Frock, Wm. Frock, Charles Frock, Thomas Myers, Geo. Stewart, Carroll Bemiller, Leandar Wantz, Jonas Zepp, Jacob Stonesifer, Earl Zepp, and Elmer Zepp. Three spreaders were in use. Mr. Zepp wishes to thank all who so kindly helped him.
