Items of Local Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Essom, this city, spent Saturday last in Baltimore on business.

Miss Bertha Haines, Pennville, Pa., is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Carroll Stouch, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. Emily J. Weaver who spent the winter in Coatesville, Pa., returned to her home in this city Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. William Stoner and son, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. James M. Stoner, this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Leister have moved from Liberty street, this city, to the residence on Hersh avenue vacated by Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Gallion.

Miss Margaret Fitze, a nurse at Springfield State Hospital, Sykesville, is gaining strength at Sabillasville Sanatarium, where she has been a patient for some time.

Mrs. Margaret Hoppe, Baltimore, and Mrs. James Andrews, Hurlock, Md., were week-end guests of Misses Ella and Maude Miller, East Main street.

Rev. R. N. Edwards, pastor of Centenary M. E. church, this city, has been voted a salary of $2,400 per annuam by official board of the church.

After a visit to her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. T. Guy Kiler, this city, Miss Hazel Nusbaum has returned to her home in Unionville, Frederick county.

Mr. G. E. Gallion formerly with the Gulf Refining Company has accepted a position with a Baltimore concern and has moved his family to Bush River, near Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Hutchins and son Lee, this city, and Mr. and Mrs. William Yingling, of Littlestown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Yingling, this city.

Miss Geradine Pritchard, a junior of Western Maryland College, spent Friday and Saturday with Miss Ann Reifsnider, College Hill, this city, before returning to her home in Cumberland, Maryland, for spring vacation.

Monday Bishop Warren A. Candler, of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South appointed Rev. C. H. Shaw to Freedom Church, and Rev. W. E. Canoles to Mt. Airy Church, both in this county. The conference was held in Washington, D. C.

Friday afternoon last the indoor carnival for high school girls of Carroll county was held at the armory. The schools participating were Taneytown, Pleasant Valley, Charles Carroll, Mechanicsville, Sykesville, Manchester, Westminster, Hampstead, Winfield, New Windsor, Union Bridge and Mt. Airy.

Saturday night last an automobile belonging to Mr. Andrew P. Frizzell, of East Main street, this city, was stolen from in front of his residence. The thief, or thieves, however found he, or they, were being pursued and abandoned the machine and ran off.

The missionary societies of Grace Lutheran church this city, will hold a pre-Easter sale in the Koontz building, Saturday, April 4th., from 3 to 9. Home-made cakes, candy, rolls, bread, pies, etc., will be on sale; also orders taken for candy and colored eggs. They will also have for sale some very fine and beautiful hand-made lace from India.

After tests carried on for two months, Dr. James Harris Rogers, of Hyattsville, said Sunday that he succeeded Saturday night in broadcasting as far as the Pacific Coast, or a distanct of about 3,000 miles, with his underground radio transmitting set. He received a telegram Sunday morning from W. J. Nutt, of Signal Station VCZ, Los Angeles, saying the signals " were coming in finely."

Sunday afternoon last fifty members of the Men's Bible Class of Grace Lutheran church, this city, visited the Men's Bible Class of S.t Paul's Lutheran church, Baker and Longwood streets, Baltimore, Rev. P. A. Heilman. The Bible Class of St. Paul's church has a membership of 425, and G. H. Gundersdorff, a layman, is the teacher. Rev. Martin Luther Enders, pastor of the First

While cranking an automobile Mr. Sterling Snyder, this city, fractured his wrist.

Caroline Bell, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Bell, this city, is suffering from scarlet fever.

Tomorrow Mr. David Ranoull will leave the employment of D. S. Gehr, this city, and engage in farming.

Mrs. Thomas Lynch, Baltimore, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Emily Lockard, Fair Ground Hill.

Sunday last Mrs. Lee Clayburner, formerly of this city, died in Baltimore.

Mr. Paul Kuhns, this city, has moved into his new residence recently built on the Cunningham addition to Westminster.

Sunday evening, April 5, at 7:30, Bachman's Lutheran Sunday school will hold its Easter service. The public is cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lee and son, Perryman, Md., spent the week-end as guests of Mrs. Lee's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Walsh, this city.

Last night a dance was held in the I. O. O. F. hall in New Windsor. Truman Hook's orchestra furnished the music.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hoffman, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with Mrs. Hoffman's parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. S. Patterson, this city .

Sunday last was a very gloomy and disagreeable day. Snow or rain fell during the day and night, the atmosphere was very damp, and many citizens remained indoors.

Monday, Mr. Harry Mathias moved from the home of his father-in-law on Pennsylvania avenue, to the one he recently purchased from Mr. Paul Kuhns situated on the same avenue.

Western Maryland Council No. 79, Jr. O. U. A. M., this city, have been busy giving out the work to many new members. Tonight a class will be initiated in the Oriental degree.

Saturday morning last about 10:00 a smoke house at the residence of Mr. D. S. Gehr, Belle Grove Square, this city, caught fire but the blaze was extinguished before the firemen arrived. No serious damage was done.

Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mowen, this city, entertained Dr. M. L. Bott and Mr. W. D. Kelley, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schaeffer, of Hanover, Pa., and Mrs. Mowen's mother, Mrs. Mary Schaeffer Myers, of Florida.

Monday evening in the high school building, this city, the Council of Religious Education held its quarterly meeting when the following officers were reelected: President, Prof. M. J. Shroyer, of the Westminster Theological Seminary; vice-president, William Unger, and secretary and treasurer, Prof. Carl L. Schaeffer, of Western Maryland College, this city.

Tuesday about 10:00 P. M. James E. Boylan Esq., an attorney of this city, while walking on the Washington road, near this city, was struck by an automobile driven by an unknown person, and was cut and bruised badly. His clothing was nearly torn from his body, and his eye glasses were broken. The auto had but one headlight burning, and the driver failed to stop. For several days this week Mr. Boylan was in bed suffering from shock.

Mr. Paul S. Mannino, manager of The Well-Wear Pants Company, has an advertisement in this issue of the Sentinel for girls to operate machines in the manufacture of pants. The plant, which is being very much enlarged, is located in the Davis Building, this city, and under Mr. Mannino's management the business has grown very much. The enlargement of the business bespeaks a bright future for Westminster in the matter of home manufactured goods.

On Tuesday, March 24, Ex-Senator R. Smith Snader, while working on his farm near New Windsor, this county, was bitten by a young Shepherd dog owned by him. Mr. Snader noticed the dog was acting strangely and when he attempted to pet him he bit Mr. Snader on the hand. Afterward the dog bit a colored man who works for Mr. Snader. The dog was killed and the head sent to Baltimore for examination where it was decided the dog had hydrophobia. The Senator and his colored helper are taking the Pasteur treatment. It is reported that several [illegible]

Mr. T. Arthur Smith, Washington, D. C., was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor, Fair Ground Hill.

Mrs. Paul Shaeffer and daughter, Washington, D. C., were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Gehr, Bond street.

Mr. George Reynolds, who recently leased the Boyle drug store building, has purchased the residence of Mr. William Bowers, Fair Ground Hill.

Last week Mr. John Everhart and family moved from Mr. Thomas Babylon's house to the new house built by James M. Stoner on Pennsylvania avenue extended.

Mr. J. Everett Stem, a student at the Harrisburg Academy, is spending his spring vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ezra Stem, this city.

Mrs. Harrington Smith has returned to her home in Claiborne after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Walsh, East Main street.

Mr. Lee Snyder, Pennsylvania avenue, this city, has removed a large tree which stood in his yard preparatory to erecting an addition to his residence.

Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Layton Byers and family, and Mrs. Alice Winemiller, of Riderwood, Baltimore county, visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stouch, this city. It was Mrs. Stouch's birthday and she was surprised with a shower of gifts and good things from the market houses of this city.

Miss Henrietta Willet, Pennville, Pa., and William H. Shaffer, Mount Pleasant, Pa., eloped to this city on Thursday evening last when they were married. The ceremony was performed at 9:30 P. M. at the M. P. parsonage Rev. J. L. Nichols officiating. Mr. and Mrs. George Osborne, West Main street, witnessed the ceremony.

UNION MILLS

The following flittings have taken place in this vicinity, this spring: Frank Yingling to George Steward's house in Union Mills; Harry Bollinger to the farm which the B. F. Shriver Co., rented of Herbert Yingling, in Silver Run Valley; Carroll Myers to Frank Yingling's farm; Clarence Marsh to Adams county, Pa.; Lester Coppersmith to Paul Fitze's farm; Robert Bankert to Taneytown; Chas. Crowl to the house he bought in Union Mills; William Steward to the farm he bought of Charles Crowl; George Messinger to the William Lippy farm in Deep Run Valley; George Lippy to Charles Frock's tenant house south of Silver Run; Charles Shean to Robert T. Shriver's tenant house, and James Coppersmith to Joshua Brown's house in Union Mills.

Jacob Messinger had his right arm slightly fractured, near the wrist, one day last week. The injury was received when a mule made a forward lurch as a boy threw the harness upon him, when the arm of Mr. Messinger who was bridling the animal, was caught between the mule and the manger. And it was the same mule that kicked and so seriously injured Mr. Messinger in one of his shoulders several months ago.

Mrs. Charles Humbert, Silver Run, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Anne M. Warner hospital, Gettysburg, was discharged from the hospital last Sunday and is now a convalescent at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas N. E. Flickinger, Union Mills.

The Maryland Public Service corporation which is erecting our electric light line is at work with a large force of hands and has most of the poles planted between Silver Run and the Pennsylvania line. We are promised current by May 1, 1925.

The Jesters Club of Western Maryland College gave a pleasing entertainment at the Charles Carroll school on the evening of the 26 ult.

Holy Communion will be celebrated at St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run, Rev. E. R. Hamme, pastor, on Easter Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock and at the evening service at 7:30 o'clock. A sunrise service will also be held at this church on Easter Sunday morning.

Mrs. Harry A. DeVries, Roslyn, Md., visited Miss Mary O. Shriver, this week.

Gorbrecht brothers' orchestra, of Hanover, rendered several appropriate selections at the meeting of the St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run, last Sunday evening.

Fraternity Pin Lost

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Special Values In Ladies' Ready To Wear

Our spring assortment of coats and dresses is now complete. Here you will find coats priced from $12.50 to $35.00.

Spring Dress Values

A very pretty assortment of crepe dresses in all the leading shades, newest styles, priced at $12.50. These are exceptional for the price.

Spring Hosiery

"Humming Bird," and "Munsingwear." These are national advertise silk hose. All the leading shades for spring. Humming Bird $1.50, Munsingwear $1.50, $2.00, $2.50.

Dress Goods

All the shades in sport flannells, striped flannells, kasha cloth. Priced from $1.50 up to $3.50 the yard.

Striped Novelties

We have a striped broad cloth, yard wide, selling for 50c the yard. We have a striped cotton flannell, full yard wide, newest stripes, 50c.

Fur Trimmings

A large assortment of fur trimmings widths from one inch to six inches.

Japanese Crepes

A full assortment of 12 shades in imported crepes for dresses, kimonos, rompers. Priced at 29c.

New Spring Arrivals For Men

STETSON HATS

Stetson and Emerson Hats, Florsheim Oxfords and Shoes, Shirts, Collars and Bow Ties.

Ladies' Footwear Novelties

The new spring footwear has arrived. We are ready to serve you with Easter footwear. Oxfords, pumps, ties, and ladies' silk hose to match.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Beginning on Monday night, April 6 to 9, inclusive the Rev. A. G. Wolf will have services each evening at 7:30 o'clock; also on Good Friday morning at 10 A. M.

On Easter morning at 6 o'clock there will be a union service held in the church, to which you are cordially invited. There will be special music for the occasion. Sunday school at 9 A. M., and Holy Communion at 10 A. M. by the Rev. A. G. Wolf. Easter services in the evening at 7:30.

Sunday school Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Preaching at 2 by the Rev. J. W. Reinecke. Y. P. S. at 7:30 P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. George F. Heltibridle and daughter Betty Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Deyhoff and daughters Lillian, Olive and Naomi, of Northern Carroll.

Mrs. Emory C. Ebaugh, Patapsco, spent Saturday evening and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Hahn.

Mr. Ray Hahn and son Edward, of Baltimore, visited his parents over Sunday.

Roy Myers and Edward J. Myers are having their houses wired for electric lights.

Theodore Leister, son of A. Daniel Leister, fell from a mule and had his collar bone broken.

Mr. Charles Geiman moved from his farm to the new bungalo on High street, which was recently built by the Pleasant Valley Packing Co. About thirty people attended the moving.

Paul Brown moved to the farm vacated by Mr. Geiman, Roy Heiner

SANDYVILLE

Sandy Mount Sunday school was reorganized last Sunday morning with the following officers elected: Superintendent, J. Fillmore Hoff; assistant, Ernest Stocksdale; secretaries, Bettie Flater and Sterling Caple; treasurer, Mrs. Annie Tawney; organist, Mrs. Claude T. Buckingham; missionary president, Mrs. Bertrand Caple; primary teachers, Misses Ida Greene, Grace Yingling, and Mrs. Luther Brown; cradle roll superintendent, Mrs. Herbert Buckingham, and temperance superintendent, Mrs. C. G. Buckingham.

Sunday school this Sunday morning at 9:30. Primary scholars will be given their parts for Easter service, which will be held Sunday morning, April 19, instead of Easter Sunday.

The Mite Society will meet this Saturday afternoon, April 4, at the home of Mrs. George H. Caple, Westminster. Members cordially invited.

The C. E. entertainment held last Thursday night was a great success. Large crowd present. All could not get inside. Forty-five dollars were realized.

Miss Grace Yingling directed and trained the young people. All deserve much credit. They have been asked to repeat the play later at some other place.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Flater and family, moved into the tenant house of Bertrand Caples, Wednesday, for a few months, until their new bungalow is completed at Finksburg.

Mrs. L. W. Caple is still sick with grip and bronchitis. She has had it for a couple weeks.

Ralph Lockard, of Baltimore, visited Sterling Caple, Sunday.

A number of children have had chicken pox in this community reference held at Annapolis this week.

Mrs. Thomas Shilling are visiting relatives in Baltimore this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Arnold spent several days visiting relatives in Baltimore last week.

JOHN J. REESE

RESOLUTION OF RESPECT

Adopted Sunday, March 29, 1925, by the Men's Adult Bible Class of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Westminster, Maryland.

Whereas, John J. Reese, of Westminster, Maryland, a members and former teacher of the Men's Adult Bible Class of Grace Evangelical Lutheran church, of Westminster, Maryland, on Saturday the 28th day of March A. D. 1925, after a short illness, departed this life, leaving a loving and devoted family and a large number of sincere friends to mourn their loss.

Resolved, by the members of the Men's Adult Bible Class of Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church of Westminster, Maryland, that in the death of John J. Reese the said class has lost a valuable member, each member thereof a sincere friend, Westminster an upright, honorable, and valuable citizen, and Grace church, of which he was a member since childhood, a devout member and servant of God.

And be it further resolved, that a committee composed of members of the class be appointed by the President of the same to attend the funeral of our deceased brother, and procure a proper floral tribute to be placed upon his bier; and that a copy of this resolution be published in the newspapers of Westminster, and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.