See advertisement on another page.

—A colored convention, composed of delegates from five counties of the Eastern Shore, met at Salisbury last Tuesday. Isaiah H. Bayne, of Caroline, was elected president. The purpose of the convention was to remonstrate against the small minority of white Republicans monopolizing all the nominations and offices, while the colored Republicans do all the voting.

—The Presbyterians are making efforts to secure a suitable place in which to hold services, and also organize a congregation in Easton. As soon as a proper place can be obtained, notice will be given. Presbyterians coming to this county to purchase property are often dissatisfied because there is no Presbyterian church here. The movement is made to meet a religious want.

Mr. Whitman has had 30 years experience in storekeeping, and will doubtless do a good business in the ancient city. He is the father of Mr. S. E. Whitman, the foreman of THE STAR office, and of course has the best wishes of THE STAR for his success.

—Mr. Charles W. Bennett will please accept the thanks of THE STAR for a copy of the Kansas City Times of the 14th inst., containing an account of the great tornado which visited Missouri on the 13th inst., and was so destructive of life and property in Kansas City; one of the most violent storms ever witnessed in the west. It is said the wind was like the report of a cannon, and moved with the velocity of a cannon ball, leveling everything in its course, where the storm was the strongest.

Short Horns Sold to Talbot Stock Breeders.

Edward B. Emory, Esq., of "Poplar Grove Stock Farm, sold last Tuesday week to Clarence Levering, Esq., residing near Easton, Talbot county, the following Short Horn heifers of his own breeding: b. c. Mary's Kirklevington Prince, $150, h.c. Victoria B. 2d, $200, h.c. Catherine Princess, $300, h c. Geneva Rose 2d, $400. Mr. Levering purchased these natives of Queen Anne's after visiting the cattle ranches of the West where all strains are bred, and inspecting the Hereford breeds of Col. Edward Lloyd and others of Malbot, who raise extensively Herefords. Nearly all the bull Calves raised at "Popular Grove" have been disposed of, Queen Anne's farmers taking a goodly number. We are pleased to notice this appreciation of our local stock breeders and farmers of Mr. Emory's efforts to improve the stock of the county and make "Popular Grove" an important Short-Horn nursery of the county.

Mr. Emory, on the same day, sold the following young Berkshires to L. R. Levering, Esq., also of Talbot county, at $35 each: Lord of East Otwell, Choptank 1st, Rose of Poplar Grove 1st, Belladonna of Poplar Grove 1st and 2d. This choice breed still holds its own against all other breeds. They are particularly nice for hams, and, while they grow to enormous weights, they can be fattened at any age. Mr. Levering seems to have been struck with these good qualities of the Berkshire breed.—[Centreville Record.

Literary Notices.

THE ELZEVIR LIBRARY.

Among the recent issues of this unique, and in respect to cheapness and beauty of form and typography, really remarkable publication, are the following: "Aristotle," by Sir Alexander Grant; "Plato," by C. W. Collins; "Horace," by Theodore Martin. These are in the famous and excellent "Ancient Classics for English Readers" series, heretofore obtainable only at the price of $1.00 each, but now published in this handsome form for 15 cents each. "The Indian Song of Songs," by Edwin Arnold, author of "The Light of Asia," is published, at 6 cents, the cheapest edition heretofore issued being $1.00. We also have the "Life of Alex. H. Stephens," by F. H. Norton, author of the "Life of Gen. Hancock," and other works. It contains an excellent portrait, and a fine illustration of "Liberty Hall," Mr. Stephens' famous home. Though a copyright work, paying the usual royalty to the author, it is published at the astonishing price of 10 cents. The last issue is Schiller's celebrated "Song of the Bell," and "Hero and Leander," all for 2 cents. These publications are not sold by dealers generally, but only direct, by the publisher, John B. Alden, 18 Vesey street, New York.

Police Matters.

Mr. John W. Prettyman, white, and Abe Price, George Rasin, and Jenkins Bailey, colored, were before Justice Nicols, Thursday afternoon, charged with violating the local option law. The principal witness against the accused was one Draper Gibson, a negro of bad repute. Draper had a number of witnesses summoned to sustain him, which they failed to do. The evidence was wholly insufficient to sustain the charges, and the Justice dismissed the cases under the instructions of State's Attorney Bateman, who represented the State. C. H. Gibson, Esq., appeared for the defendants. After the dismissal of the local option cases, the State's Attorney had Draper Gibson arrested and held for violating the "Cussing Act," while drunk on Tuesday. Constable Grace, who was the officer in the other cases, made the arrest. He submitted his case, and Justice Nicols fined him $1.00 and costs, and ordered him committed to jail until the fine and costs were paid.

Trappe.

Miss Susie Leonard, daughter of Jonathan H. Leonard, Esq., of Trappe, having developed a fine talent for drawing and painting, her father has sent her to the Art School of the Maryland Institute, Baltimore, to be instructed in drawing.

Miss Sallie M. Leonard, of Trappe, has just had the exterior and interior of her dwelling painted. The work was done by Mr. John Sullivan.

The ladies of the Trappe Episcopal Church held a fair and festival with music, at the town hall last week. There was a large attendance, and the affair was a great success.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

The VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich., will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) who are afflicted with nervous debility, lost vitality and kindred troubles, guaranteeing speedy and complete restoration of health and manly vigor. Address as above. N. B.—No risk is incurred, as thirty days' trial is allowed. jan2-y.

A Grateful Man

Always acknowledges a benefit. J. P. Halbach, Bethlehem, Pa., writes: "For months I suffered with a very severe cough, so much that my friends believed I was rapidly going to the grave by that fell disease, consumption. But I commenced using New Life, the Great Cough Remedy, and in two weeks my cough was gone. I am now hale and hearty—well."

Prejudice

Has stopped many an improvement; but prejudice is born of ignorance, and in the matter of Ready-Made Clothing has fast disappeared, so that two-thirds now worn is Ready-Made. Our styles and prices, have, we think, helped this materially, and gentlemen of taste and culture are endorsing us by purchasing liberally. C. N. OHEM & SON, Hanover and Pratt Streets, Baltimore, Md.

(Communicated.)

MR. EDITOR:—Now that the Easton Gazette and Mr. Robert F. Walker have come to the front to champion Democrats and the Democratic party, it is in order for old Democrats to retire and leave them undispated possession of the field. As one of them I respectfully beg leave to hand in my chips.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

EASTON, May 15.—The Board met, President Willis presiding, and Commissioners Tarbutton and Bartlett present.

John W. Cheezum, treasurer of Dover Bridge, made his annual report. Receipts for the year from all sources $1,594.84; disbursements $1,546.36, leaving a balance in the hands of the treasurer a $48.48. There is still due by Talbot county on the levy of 1882, a balance of $200.66. There is an outstanding indebtedness of $62.52, leaving an available balance of $186.54. Of the claims paid out of the monies received during the year, $928 was for outstanding debts for repairs of the bridge in 1880, and $181.60 for the construction of a wharf, built to protect the bridge from vessels, and $426.76 for current expenses of the year, including the salary of the bridge keeper. The bridge is reported in good order, except the draw, which needs some repairs. A levy of $500 for 1883 is asked for.

The Board accepted and passed the new public road in Chapel district, made by Cornelius O'Daily, known as the Jump and Breeding road, and paid the contractor the balance due on construction account.

The following communication was received from the Judges of the Circuit Court for Talbot county:

CENTREVILLE, May 11, 1883.

To the Honorable, the County Commissioners of Talbot County:

In deference to the wishes of the General Assembly, we have for a number of years past examined and approved the accounts of the Clerks of the Circuit Court, Sheriffs and others against the county.

It must be apparent to every one that this is a duty which ought not to be imposed on the Judges, and that it is one which the Legislature have no right to impose on them.

After due consideration we have concluded that we ought not in future to pass on said accounts. We, therefore, remit them to you for such action on each as to you shall seem proper.

If you desire to know our opinion in regard to the fees proper to be charged by the respective officers, we refer you to the accounts heretofore approved by us. Signed,
JNO. M. ROBINSON,

For the Star.

In the St. Michaels Comet, of May 19th, from an Easton correspondent, who writes over the nom de plume of "Cad," I find the following modest request:

"To 'Wanderer,' who occasionally writes from town for THE STAR, (sometimes about the 'upper-ten.) 'I pray thee, masters, write me an ass.'—[Shakespeare's 'Much Ado About Nothing.'"

Certainly I will, and would have obliged to that extent without being asked.
