IN MEMORIAM

STARNER—In sad but loving remembrance of by dear brother, Calvin Starner Sr., who departed this life March 5, 1925.

From this world of grief and trouble
To the land of peace and rest
God has taken you, dear brother,
Where there is eternal rest.

Oh, dear brother, who is like you?
No one on earth can take your place.
Farewell, dear brother, a sad farewell!
The loss no tongue can tell.

And when on earth I breathe no more,
I'll meet you on that heavenly shore.
Gone from earth, yes, gone forever,
But as long as life and memory lasts I will remember thee.

Tear dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain.
I shall hear his voice, no, never.
Never more on earth again.

Where storms assail no more
The streams of endless pleasure flow,
On that celestial shore.
May he rest in peace.

By his sister,
MRS. JOSEPH G. PETRY.

MANCHESTER

Our school authorities made arrangements with the trustees, or rental committee, of the Lineboro firemen for their hall on Saturday evening 28th to give an entertainment. Those scholars of our high school that were in the cast of the "Gypsy Rover" had a rehearsal and were taken to the hall fully equipped and gave that musical comedy to an appreciative audience, and to the performers $40.00, besides the fun in transit to and from home by the boys and girls.

The firemen's lot on North Main street was the attraction on Monday morning when the first ground was broken and John Karrit, of Hanover, fully equipped, he being the lowest bidder, to begin the work of excavation. It is 80x45x10. It is said that he will be ready to bid for the foundation wall.

Mrs. Cornelius who, for a long time, has been a subject of heart trouble, is quite ill at her home in Baltimore on North avenue, but at this writing she is being cared for in the home of Mrs. T. J. Kopp. She has the sympathy of a large circle of friends here among whom she was always an active unit.

The members of the U. B. church on High street had their church wired and enjoy three drop lights, and one on the outside.

Farmers are busy plowing and getting their acres ready for planting. From the loads of fertilizer that are being hauled there will be a large acereage of sweet corn cultivated in our section.

Rev. Watchter will hold early Easter service in his church. Rev. Rehmeyer will preach the sermon.

John Lynerd, of Baltimore, spent from Saturday till Monday at the cottage home. His mother is very much indisposed with bronchial trouble. The coughing spells have reduced her weight and her strength.

Persons in general were attracted by a peculiar noise to the front to see nine planes nicely grouped in their flight N. W. at 9:15 they passed directly over us.

The Mayor and Council election will be held on Saturday, 4th, between the hours of one and four P. M. The vote, no doubt, will be light. At a citizen's meeting the Mayor and Council endorsed the old board to further administer the corporation for another year.

It is astonishing at the great number of large trucks with jumbo loads of fruits and vegetables that pass through town north. It is said that some of them are for York, Pa.

The choir of Immanuel Lutheran church of Manchester will render a cantata "Victorious Redeemer" (by Thomas) on Easter Sunday evening which promises to be very good. The choir will be assisted by Miss Edna LaMotte soprano and Mrs. John C. Keck alto. Come and hear it.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw, of Hyattsville, spent from Friday morning till Sunday evening with their aunts, the Misses LaMotte, in the dear old home on North Main street.

Miss Carrie LaMotte was proud to have a hundred per cent of her 28 scholars present last week. With Old Glory in the lead, she took up the march and paraded through all the rooms with applause in each. Only 4 of her scholars missed a day last month.
