Farmers Look

TO YOUR INTEREST. TO YOUR INTEREST.

When you want a Horse or a Cow come to see me before you buy, as I have some good tested, home cows. These cows have passed two tests. Have on hand, all T. B. Tested. We'll have in a few days two Carloads of Tennessee Fresh Cows and Springers.

You all know there are no cows like the Tennessee Cows. Ask those that have them, how they like them. Will also have a Carload of from Virginia by April 17, 1925, right from the mountains of Luray and Woodstock.

Horses and Mules

Come in and look them over and get my prices.

MILLERS

Last Friday night the Christian Endeavor Society held its first social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zepp, there being about 30 present. The evening was enjoyed very much by all. The sum of money received during the evening amounted to $14.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller spent Sunday at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Harry Martin, near Hampstead.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shoemaker and daughter Dorothy and Master Leroy Miller, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Miller.

Mrs. John K. Miller and son Milton accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wentz, of Greenmount, made a business trip to Baltimore last Tuesday.

Last Thursday evening Mrs. Charles Brown gave a birthday party in honor of her husband's and sister's birthdays. At 7:30 the guests arrived giving them a complete surprise as they were not looking for any visitors. The evening was pleasantly spent playing games, and with vocal and instrumental music. At 10 o'clock all were invited to the dining room where refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cakes, coffee, lemonade, candies, bananas, peanuts and apples, were served. After which all departed to their homes, wishing them many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bollinger and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, near Melrose.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garrett were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Leese and children, near Melrose, and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller and son Melvin.

The following spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Miller: Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wentz and children Vernon and Marie, of Greenmount, and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller.

Fact that federal income taxes are being cut down does not mean that the taxpayers will welcome an increase in other assessments.

People who claim that advertising is not read, should watch the crowd that visits the well advertised stores.

SWEET AIR

Sunday school Sunday morning at the usual hour. Preaching at 7:30 P. M. Everybody come out to these services.

Miss Catherine Conaway is visiting relatives in Westminster.

Those who called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey E. Pickett Sunday were Mrs. Walter Conaway and children, Misses Margaret Miller, Elizabeth Schuman, and Messrs. Edgar Robertson, Murray Davis, and Theodore Conaway.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mr. James M. Pickett Sunday at Morgan Chapel. Mr. Pickett was well known and beloved by everyone who knew him.

Don't forget the chicken supper at the hall in Winfield on Saturday evening, April 25th.

A very severe wind and rain storm passed through this vicinity Sunday afternoon, leaving the weather very cold with ice in some places.

The girls should not put on the decoration so freely that the spring rains will make it all streaked.
