Library Notes.

PEARSON'S MAGAZINE

for October comes to us in advance of all others. The principal steel-engraving, "An Ignominious Flight," is after one of the most popular pictures of the last Paris Salon, and is full of humor and graphic truth. There are two sheets of colored patterns, with eight different designs: alone worth the price of the number. The colored steel fashion-plate is of rare loveliness. That charming novelet and love-story, "A Fifth Avenue Romance," is finished, and a new and thrilling one, "The Mystery of the Broken," begun. There is also a racy story, beautifully illustrated, "Philosophy in the Adirondacks." Mrs. Ann Stephens, Frank Lee Benedict, etc., etc., make up the other contributors. Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

SURVEYOR-BOY AND PRESIDENT.

Young People's Life of George Washington. By William M. Thayer. Elegant edition, 466 pages, Brevier type, leaded. With illustrations. Square cloth, 60 cents; full Russia, red edges, 65 cents.

No other name has received such universal homage as that of Washington. Edward Everett spoke but the verdict of the world when he pronounced Washington, "of all the men that have ever lived, the greatest of good men, and the best of great men." Frederick the Great, whose own name ranks with those of Alexander, Cæsar, and Napoleon, declared his deeds to be "the most brilliant of any in the annals of military achievment."

Whether as school-boy, surveyor-boy, Indian fighter, member of Congress, Commander-in-Chief, or President, his life was full of striking incidents, and ever an example to thrill and inspire any youth whose heart pulsates with the free and vigorous blood of the Anglo-Saxon race.

Mr. Thayer, the author of the present work, just published, has proved by his world-famous lives of Lincoln, "From Pioneer Home to the White House," and of Garfield, "From Log Cabin to the White House," a writer whose pen is wonderfully suited to its theme. He writes with an enthusiasm worthy his subject; with vividly drawn pictures of the times and scenes through which Washington passed, quoting the language of his friends and contemporaries, and crowding the pages appropriate illustrative anecdotes, he makes the times and the characters seem present realities to the reader. His book will at once be accepted as one of the best of the lives of Washington, not for young people only, but for older folks as well. It is not sold by dealers, but only direct by the publisher, who will send a 100-page descriptive catalogue of his attractive and famously cheap publications free on request. John B. Alden, publisher, 18 Vesey St., New York.

PAPER PATTERNS REDUCED TO HALF PRICE.

We have just received Ramsdell's Fashion Paper for September. Any of our lady readers can get a copy of this paper, by sending their address to J. G. Ramsdell, 1113 Chestnut Street (side entrance), Philadelphia, Pa. Any of these patterns will be mailed to any address on receipt of half the marked price.

Public Business.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The County Commissioners have decided to put a brick culvert on Dover road, at the place known as The Willow Bridge, near Mr. John C. Bartlett's farm.

A. A. Pascault, Charles Rathell and Thomas J. Rowins have been appointed Examiners on the proposed alterations of the public road, between Harrison Austin's farm and William G. Stitchberry's store.

The Examiners have reported in favor of altering the public road near the Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church.

ORPHANS' COURT.

In the Orphan's Court, W. W. Tunis, guardian to Charles E Clough, has passed his final account.

Alga Smith, admr. of Jesse Smith, has returned an inventory of the estate and obtained an order to sell and give notice to creditors.

George W. Griffin has administered on the estate of Charles H. Underwood.

John H. Allen, admr. of Robert Sharp, has returned to the court an account of the sales of the personal estate.

Dover, Delaware.

The Sixth Annual Exposition of the Agricultural Society of Delaware, will take place at Fairview Park, Dover, September 25, 26, 27 and 28, and promises to excel all others previously held. The premium list is full and complete, embracing every article of household and mechanical manufacture as well as agricultural products and implements. Competition Open to the Whole World. The Society boasts the finest half-mile track in the country, and have already entered for the running, trotting and pacing races some of best known and speediest horses. Among other numerous attractions will be a band of music in daily attendance for the convenience of those who desire to attend the fair. The P., W. & B. R. R. has made arrangements for running a special train to Oxford and intermediate stations, leaving Fair Grounds at 5.45 p. m. Excursion tickets will be sold on the days mentioned above including admission to the Fair and good to return with until 29th inclusive, from Easton $2.00, Cordova $1.80, Woodland, Md., $1.90, Trappe $2.20, Oxford $2.25. The regular morning train will connect with a downward special for the Fair, leaving Clayton 10.04 a. m.

State's Attorney Convention.

The State's Attorney Convention, composed of the delegates published in last week's STAR, met at the court house last Tuesday. John Mason, Esq., was made president, with the following vice presidents: John S. Redman, Easton; James Cox, St. Michaels; Nathaniel Leonard, Trappe; James H. Ridgaway, Chapel; Edward N. Lomax, Bay Hundred. Secretaries, Dr. J. A. Robinson and Alga Smith. On motion of Albert Lowe, Esq., Major William E. Stewart was unanimously chosen as the nominee of the Democratic party of Talbot county for the office of State's Attorney. Messrs. Redman, Lowe and Mortimer were appointed a committee to inform Major Stewart of his nomination. Having done so, the committee returned with the nominee; the chair informed him of his nomination and introduced him to the convention. He acknowledged the honor conferred with a brief speech accepting the nomination, promising, if elected, faithfully to perform the duties of the office.

Prepare for the Fall and Winter.

I can fit you out with almost anything you want in boot and shoes, coarse or fine. I have now on sale a larger stock than I have ever had before, at any one time, bought when I could get the pick, and are such goods as are fully warranted, and at such low prices as I think my patrons will not complain of. I have a job lot of men's calf, three sole boots, which I wish to call especial attention to, $3.00 per pair. I also have my full stock of gum boots and shoes. Call, on Market Space, and be convinced of what you read.

2t JACOB WILLIAMS.

The Problem Solved.

The question that has puzzled our farmers most for the last two months, is what kind of fertilizer to use. This question should now be settled without delay, and fertilizer shipped at once, if you want it in nice condition. Act wisely, and you will go at once to Shannahan & Wrightson's and order some of G. Ohler & Sons' Fertilizer—over 125 tons sold on Monday last to four of the leading and largest farmers in the county; they have tried it before and know what a good thing is, when they have tested it.

To the Ladies.

Mrs. Rosa V. Leonard, at the new millinery store on Dover street, has just returned from the city with her first stock of new goods. Which has been pronounced as pretty as was ever opened in Easton. Call and see them and be convinced as to quality and price.

—Mr. A. J. Harper will take a few pupils in oil painting, either landscape or flowers. If ladies or gentlemen desiring instruction will leave their cards at G. W. Minnick & Son's book store Mr. Harper will call on them. tf

—Antonio De Pasquale, the Fashionable Tailor, opposite M. P. Church, Easton, Md. All garments cut and made by him are guaranteed to fit, and made in the very best manner, and in the most fashionable style. feb28-1y

—The Secretary of the Treasury has ended the dispute between the Collectors of Baltimore and Annapolis over Dorchester county, by deciding that Dorchester is in the Baltimore district. The Dorchester boatmen must hereafter take out their papers in Baltimore.

—If you want a first-class fertilizer, Shannahan & Wrightson can supply you with some that has no superior in the market; some of the brands they sell have been used in this county for 10 or 15 years, and is strongly recommended by those using it. Analysis of every ton guaranteed. Try it.

—Hayward & Bro., have the finest line of cigars in Easton. Among the many brands on hand may be mentioned the celebrated "Alhambra," whose fragrance is the delight of all who smoke them; also "Doctor's Hobby," "U. C," "Principes," all solid Havana filling splendid cigars, and lovers of the weed can not fail to be suited.

—Shannahan & Wrightson can supply you with the best wheat and fertilizer drill in the market; it beats any drill ever sold here, drilling fertilizer if in bad condition. We will give you as reference 100 men in this county who will testify to the correctness of this statement. Buy an Empire Drill and you will be sure of being satisfied.

—I have just opened a large invoice of English worsteds and Scotch cassimeres which I had imported direct from Liverpool, Eng., per Steamship Nova Scotia. I confidently claim by this saving of the jobbers' profit, that I can offer such inducements to the customer that he will not fail to appreciate.

J. E. SHANNAHAN.

—Mr. George J. Meekins, of Cambridge, is an independent candidate for County Treasurer of Dorchester County. Some of the leading Democrats of Dorchester having gone back on Mr. Meekens, in his candidacy for State Comptroller, Mr. Meekins has retaliated by coming out as an independent candidate against the regular Democratic ticket. We bet on the under dog in the fight always.

—If you are sick, read the advertisement of "Wilsonia" on another page.

This is discovered to be nature's own remedy for the restoration of lost health. No medicine.

It is the greatest scientific discovery of the age, and is doing a most wonderful work among invalids, and those given up by physicians as incurable.

—Perfect health depends upon a perfect condition of the blood. Pure blood conquers every disease and gives new life to every decayed or affected part. Strong nerves and perfect digession enables the system to stand the shock of sudden climatic changes. An occasional use of Brown's Iron Bitters will keep you in a perfect state of health. Don't be deceived by other iron preparations said to be just as good. The genuine is made only by Brown Chemical Company, Baltimore, Md. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

Personal.

Having returned from his northern trip much improved in health; the Editor of THE STAR resumes his duties this week, to take an active part in the coming campaign.

Bishop Lay was in Montreal last week. He expects to return home this week.

Mr. R. J. Trippe and wife went up the Hudson river last week on a pleasure trip, and returned on Saturday evening.

Mr. J. B. Bennett and wife left here last Friday for a trip to the Luray cave.

Mr. John W. Bell, of Philadelphia, visited Easton last week. He was one of the original partners when the house of Hopkins, Anderson & Co., carriage makers, was founded in Easton, somewhere about 1840, but subsequently drew out of the firm and became the senior partner of the firm of Bell & Stewart, in the same business. In 1861 he sold his interest in the business to Mr. William Porter, and went to farming. Not being successful as a farmer, in 1845 he sold out and went to Philadelphia to reside. In 1848 he visited Easton, and has not been here since, thirty-five years ago. The town has changed so he scarcely recognized it, except here and there an old land-mark. Mr. Bell is in his 75th year, but is remarkably well preserved. He left here for Philadelphia Friday morning.

Successful Opening of the Montrose Fair Grounds.

Montrose Fair Grounds were formally inaugurated last Saturday. Mr. T. T. Martin, one of our most enterprising citizens, feeling the necessity of Fair Grounds and a race course near Easton, has gone to the expense out of his limited private means, to establish fair grounds on his farm, "Montrose," just one mile from town, and the track having been put in good order, in response to the wishes of the horsemen of the county, gave a trial at Montrose last Saturday afternoon, which afforded some very exciting and delightful sport. Over 1500 people attended from all parts of the county and adjoining counties. There were three races, two trotting heats and one running race. In the first race, free for all, for a purse of $100, three were the entries: Thos. A. Dudley entered Mr. Chas. Rathell's black horse Charley, by Sebastopol; James M. Cowgill entered his bay mare Princess, by Black Hawk; Robert Hough entered his brown mare Brownie, by Bashaw, Jr.; Jonathan H. Leonard his sorrel gelding Frank L., by Frank Pierce. All trotted. Mr. Thomas A. Dudley drove Charley, Mr. Wm. G. Dudley drove Princess, Mr. Ernest Sherwood drove Brownie, and Mr. Charles E. Baker drove Frank L. The race was a very spirited and pretty one, and the time made 2.47. Princess won the 1st heat, and Charley the 2d, 3d and 4th, and the race. The Judges were J. Harold Wheeler, Joseph B. Seth and Louis W. Trail, Esquires. It was generally conceded that the horses were admirably handled by their respective drivers.

There were but two entries in the colt race: E. H. Roe entered his black colt Ned R., by Guy, driven by William G. Dudley, and Thomas A. Dudley entered his gray colt Driver, by Live Oak, driven by the owner. Ned R. won the 1st and 2nd heats and the race. He was beautifully handled by his admirable driver, Mr. William G. Dudley. Driver is a very smart colt, and destined to be fast. Mr. Roe's colt is one of the smartest in the county. The race was for a purse of $50, and was trotted in 3.04.

The last was a running race. Only two started, John Pascault's bay horse Fox Hunter, by Bustomenta, ridden by the owner, and Robert E. Martin's brown mare Queen Lettie, ridden by Mr. Thomas Hughlett, Jr.—a single dash of a mile. The Pascault horse won the race and took the saddle, bridle and martingale. At the end of the first quarter, Queen Lettie bolted the track, but Mr. Hughlett brought her back and made her rival put on all steam to win the race. H. Luther Martin's chestnut gelding Dom Pedro, by Village Blacksmith, was also entered for this race, but withdrawn on account of lameness.

We understand Mr. Martin will give another race for a purse of $500 in October, when the flyers from abroad will be invited to contend on the course. We think the inauguration of the Montrose Fair Grounds was a grand success. Everything was well arranged. Officers were supplied with silk badges signifying their respective grades. Mr. Daniel Marshall was chief marshal, mounted on his charger, with his Oriole sash flying in the wind. A novel thing was a cord stretched across the track from the judges' stand to the grand stand, with a purse of gold suspended over the track, for each winner. The elite of the county, ladies and gentlemen, were out in force, over 350 carriages being stationed around the track during the raceing.

Thompson, Kersey & Co.'s Grand Re-Opening.

Messrs. Thompson, Kersey & Co. moved into their new store the first of last week, and were all the week fitting up, and on Saturday their grand re-opening took place. Their store is the most spacious of any on the Peninsula; 30 feet wide by 125 feet deep; two stories; 15 feet ceilings; and lighted by a magnificent skylight, in the centre of the building. The front of the store on the first floor, is devoted to dry goods and notions; the rear to carpets; at the extreme rear is their counting-room, handsomely furnished with chairs, desks, and Brussels carpet. The second floor is devoted to their ready-made clothing department, and is a very large and beautiful room. A large and fancy sign surmounts the front and makes a handsome finish. The front of the store is of plate glass and iron, with two doors for the ingress and egress of their customers. Their building is the handsomest on the street, and was put up in four weeks by Messrs. Wm. D. Roberts & Sons, architects and builders, Mr. R. H. T. Councell doing the painting.

On Saturday the store was decorated with paintings, engravings, and other pictures, vases of flowers, cut flowers, chinese lanterns, and at night it was beautifully illuminated, and looked magnificent. Weber's orchestra, from Baltimore, was engaged for the day, occupied a stand in the centre of the store, and played many delightful tunes during the morning, afternoon and evening. The large store was jammed full all day and throughout the whole evening, and it took 18 efficient clerks and salesmen, to wait on the hundreds of customers, all eager to procure some of the splendid bargains which were for sale at their counters. Each customer was given a souvenir of the occasion, some of them said to be very pretty. The "grand re-opening" was certainly a grand success, really the biggest thing of the kind ever seen in the State. Late in the evening eloquent addresses were made by Rev. Mr. Lightbourne and Hon. Charles H. Gibson, congratulating the firm upon its great triumph, and the town on possessing such a mammoth store, with the enterprise and facilities to supply the public's every want in the dry goods and clothing line. The addresses were received with rounds of applause, and Mr. W. H. Thompson, the senior partner, acknowledged the compliment with a few appropriate remarks. They have a winning stock of goods, all the latest styles for the ladies, and every lady in the county, and every gentleman, too, will doubtless call and see the great store for themselves.

For the Star.

MR. EDITOR:—As the Ledger of Thursday published a ticket, to be made by the Republicans on Tuesday, I enclose another ticket, which I would be glad if you would print in the STAR. It is supported by a large portion of the Republican party. The ticket:

State's Attorney—A. L. Tolson.

House of Delegates—Dr. J. E. M. Chamberlaine, James Valliant, Geo. E. Jenkins.

County Commissioners—Edward S. Harris, John Jump, John C. Bartlett.

Judges of the Orphans Court—N. C. Fitzjarrell, Wm. P. Wright, Chas. E. Shanahan.

Sheriff—Perry W. Stewart, Jr.

You might say also, that the formidable candidate for United States Senator, Col. J. C. Mullikin, is the choice of the whole party for County Surveyor, but rather than force the nomination on him against his consent, they will leave this important part of the ticket blank. REPUBLICAN.

Announcement.

I would respectfully inform my friends and the citizens generally of Talbot and Caroline counties that I am now engaged with Messrs. C. N. Oehm & Son, Popular One Price Clothiers, Baltimore. A. M. LLOYD,

An Ex-Penitentiary Gentleman in Trouble.

On Monday night of last week Officer Griffin arrested Lars Hayward, negro, on the charge of stealing Dr. W. G. G. Wilson's watch. The arrest was made at Easton Point, on board the steamboat, and Lars was about to slide for Baltimore. The watch was found up his coat sleeve. He was lodged in jail. He has served one term in the penitentiary.

Death of Hon. Daniel Fields.

Hon. Daniel Fields, Ex-President of the Maryland State Senate, died very suddenly, of apoplexy, at his residence, "Oak Grove," near Federalsburg, Caroline county, on Sunday night, in the 72d year of his age. His death will be lamented by his many personal and political friends throughout the State.
