Items of Local Interest

Mrs. Harry C. Albaugh, Hanover, Pa., is visiting her niece, Mrs. C. Levine Billingslea, East Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Miller, Madison street, are visiting Mrs. Charles Walters, Washington, D. C.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Levine Billingslea, East Main street, spent this week in New York.

Mr. John B. Gray, Prince Frederick, is a guest of his daughter, Mrs. Charles O. Clemson, Court street.

June 3rd, beginning at 6 P. M., Medford Grange will hold an ice cream and strawberry festival in its hall at Medford.

Saturday Mrs. Frank Freyman, near this city, was taken to the Woman's Hospital, Baltimore, where she underwent an operation.

Harry Nagle, Pennsylvania avenue, has bought a lot from Jesse Reese on Pennsylvania avenue and intends to build a house in the near future.

Today the children and teachers of the West End Primary School will hold a festival for the benefit of the school.

Mrs. John Whitmore and daughter, Ruth, Pennsylvania avenue, are visiting Mrs. Whitmore's mother, Mrs. Allan Lukens, York, Pa.

At a recent meeting of the State Board of Education Dr. H. M. Fitzhugh was reelected president of the board.

Rev. John B. Rupley, pastor of Grace Lutheran church and delegate S. C. Stoner attended the sessions of the Maryland Synod meeting in Frederick this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mitchell and children, Mr. U. L. Reaver and Miss Mary Reaver, this city, have returned from a visit to Mr. Reaver's daughter, Mrs. Millard Stevens, Lancaster, Pa.

The eleventh annual Maryland Olympic Meet for the public schools of Maryland and Baltimore city, will be staged at the Baltimore stadium on Friday, June 5.

Thursday last Lester Giggard, Cranberry Valley, had his arm broken between the elbow and shoulder when he attempted to ride a mule belonging to Roy Reese. The mule jumped up and threw him over its head.

Last evening Miss Rita Christine Hoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan L. Hoff, this city, was one of a class of 64 young women to graduate from Johns Hipkins School for Nurses, Baltimore.

William Starner, son of William Starner, near this city, who had his leg broken on May 17, has returned from the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, where he was a patient and is getting along nicely.

The alumni of the Christian Endeavor Society of Grace Lutheran church conducted services at the county home Sunday afternoon. Each Sunday some organization of the Christian Endeavor Society will conduct services during the vacation of the seminary.

St. Benjamin's Lutheran Sunday school will hold its Children's Day services on Sunday, June 7th at 10:30 A. M. At the conclusion of the program they will hold a memorial service in the cemetery at which time flowers will be placed on the graves by children of the Sunday school.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pickens, Easley, South Carolina, are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Pickens, Pennsylvania avenue. Miss Sally Low Pickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pickens will be one of the graduates of Western Maryland College.

Tuesday, James F. Dunn, Jr., an expert accountant, of Baltimore, and well known in this city, committed suicide at his residence by shooting himself in his heart. He was the expert accountant for the Public Service Commission and recently suffered a nervous breakdown from overwork in auditing the books of the C. & P. Telephone Company.

The young son of Charles E. Biddinger, near Middleburg station, died on Friday, May 22, from a fractured skull caused by the kick of a horse. The boy was in the hay mow and fell through into the stable behind the horse. His arm was broken in the fall and the frightened animal kicked the boy so severely that his skull was fractured. The accident happened on Thursday.

Mrs. Annie Farber, Baltimore, was a week-end guest of Judge and Mrs. James A. C. Bond, East Main street.

During the storm Sunday last two cows belonging to Mr. Clayton Roser, near Stone Chapel, this county, were killed by lightning.

Prof. and Mrs. Carl Schaeffer, of Western Maryland College, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a son.

Tuesday evening the members of the Sewing Society of Grace Lutheran church met at the home of Mrs. Levi Myers, Pleasant Valley.

Mr. William Hughes, of Baltimore, spent the past week-end with his brother Mr. Harry Hughes and family of near Shipley, this county.

This evening a dance will be held in Medford Grange Hall, Medford, this county. The Truman Hook orchestra will furnish the music.

Yesterday an all-day meeting of the Carroll County Federation of Homemakers' Clubs was held in the office of the County Agent, this city. The afternoon meeting adjourned to the Newark Shoe Factory.

Tomorrow Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. Steele and their daughter Muriel will go to Chatham, Va., to attend the commencement exercises of Chatham Episcopal Institute from which their daughter Gwendolyn will graduate.

Sunday last Dr. George W. Cook the evangelist, started a three-weeks' campaign in Hampstead M. E. church Hampstead, this county. Many Methodists of this city are planning to attend the meetings.

This week at the meeting of the Maryland Synod of the Lutheran church Mr. S. C. Stoner, this city, was elected a member of the executive committee of the Synod for a term of three years. All the officers of the Synod were reelected.

The Civic League will hold a supper, consisting of sandwiches, salads, ice cream, cake and coffee, on the lawn of Mr. Walter H. Davis East Main street, Thursday evening, June 11. They ask fo ra liberal patronage. If Thursday evening should be rainy it will be held the next evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Baust their daughter, Mrs. Francis Boylan, and their granddaughter, Miss Jane Boylan spent the week-end in Harrisburg, Pa., where they attended the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of The Church of God in Harrisburg.

Monday evening last at a meeting of the Epworth League in Centenary M. E. church, this city, Miss Isabelle Cobb, told of her recent trip to the Holy Land. She exhibited a model of a plow that was used by the Jews in the days of Christ. The talk was very interesting and instructive.

Yesterday morning Mr. Harry Coffman resumed his position with the Hunter Market, Mr. Geo. N. Hunter, proprietor. About a year ago Mr. Coffman met with a serious accident and was unable to attend to his duties. His many friends rejoice in his recovery and to learn that he is again at work with The Hunter Market.

During the past week Police Justice R. E. Lee Hutchins fined Walter Bennett, of New Windsor, this county, $100 and costs for driving an auto while under the influence of liquor, and Vernon Ebaugh $120 and costs for the same offence, and Albert Blizzard $100 and costs for allowing Ebaugh to drive his car while Ebaugh was under the inbuence of liquor.

The Children's Home and Manual Training school, popularly known as the "Daddy" Draper Home, who are making a tour of the country stopped in town over night. This home is located in Des Moines, Washington. They left home on last June 7, and since that time have passed through Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Utah, Nebraska, Kansas, Mississippi, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Georgia, South Carolina, Florida, North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Washington, D. C., and Pennsylvania. They travel by auto, one auto for beds and bath, one for baggage, dining car and kitchen, one for "Dad" and Kiddies and advance car. There are 22 children in the group ranging in age from six to 17 years. A teacher is with the children who teaches them while traveling. This home was started by Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Draper. They expect to be back home by September 1. Each of the children is taught to play some musical instrument by Mr. Draper, the superintendent.

Mrs. James Gordon Crawford, this city, a patient at Union Memorial hospital, Baltimore, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoppe, Baltimore, spent Sunday at the former's home in this city.

Sunday evening the college students will attend services in Centenary M. E. church, this city. They were to have attended last Sunday night but the severe storm detained them.

Monday evening the cast of "Princess Chrysanthemum," given by St. John's Parochial school, this city, was entertained at Lehman's Hall, Baltimore, by their directress, Madame Cracye.

Monday evening at the annual meeting of The Forest and Stream Club, this city, Guy W. Steele, Esq., was elected president; S. S. Wilson, vice-president; H. L. Hobby, secretary; F. T. Butler, treasurer; J. Albert Mitten, assistant secretary, and W. L. Seabrook, historian. Board of managers, Guy W. Steele, Sereck S. Wilson, H. L. Hobby, F. T. Butler, J. Albert Mitten, W. L. Seabrook, Dr. Glenn W. Horner, Harry W. Handley, and George R. Babylon. One new member was elected, Dr. W. C. Stone, the health officer. The annual camp will be held at the club grounds on the Monocacy River, August 6 to 16 inclusive. The dam on the Monocacy River is now completed and several of the members are expecting to purchase boats and canoes to be used on the dam.

MANCHESTER

Miss Gertrude Abkin last week, gave an entertainment at the Old Fort school west of town and standing room was at a premium to see "The Crowning of the May Queen." The costumes were fine and on par with the acting that held the crowded room with silence to see those 8 to 12 years old scholars wrap and unwrap the pole as they joyfully hopped with song and merriment around the pole. There were quite a number of persons from town present and so well pleased that they prevailed on Miss Gertrude to bring it to town in the hall where there was a fairly good attendance to enjoy the play and extend to the teacher their congratulations. She was at the piano and had them so well drilled that they knew her every touch without any prompting. The home orchestra furnished the music under the special direction of Prof. H. M. Loats.

The Parent-Teacheer Association met on the 22nd. The coming together was not so large, yet interesting. At 8:30, the secretary and president in place, the audience arose and sang "America," followed by prayer. Roll call and reading of he minutes. Next in order was approved. Under new business a general business talk was indulged in. The program: A reading, "The Answer," Mary Petrie; solo, "It Was For Me," Mary Leese, and reading, "The Two Little Imps," Martha Smith. Adjourned to meet on June 12th.

Mrs. Charles Hively, on North Main street, received the sad intelligence that her nephew, George Kuhn, had passed away at the Otterbein Hospital, in North Carolina, where he lay on his back for 29 weeks. His remains were taken home in Jacksonville, Florida, and laid to rest on Thursday the 21st., aged 48 years. He leaves his wife and four children. Mrs. H. has a number of cards showing the buildings and surroundings of the hospital where they have 1100 patients.

The sale of George Ensor on South Main street on Saturday was largely attended and fairly good prices were realized.

Quite a number of our people went to Hampstead on Saturday taking in the firemen's festivity.

C. Walter Wallace a blind organist and pianist will hold a recital in Trinity Reformed church on June 10, at 8:00 P. M., under the auspices of the Willing Workers' Society.

A lodge of Woodmen was organized on Monday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall with twenty-five charter members. That fills the evenings of the organizations in the hall. Monday evening Woodmen; Tuesday evening, Rebekahs; Wednesday evening, Carroll encampment No. 17, I. O. O. F.; Thursday evening, Pochahontas Tribe of Red Men; Friday evening, Lebanon Lodge No. 175 A. F. & A. M., and the first and third (Fridays), and Saturday evening Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23, I. O. O. F.

Work on the macadam road from the hard road a mile from town to Lineboro is being widened and graded to the home of Warren Strevig, where, if the work is carried on any further this year, Mr. S. will have to move his wagon shed that is on the breadth of the new road. He had the house built by his father adjacent to the farm house moved across the road several hundred feet that is now occupied by a tenant.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Graduation Dresses

We are stocked with a good assortment of novelties suitable for graduation presents. Suggestions as follows.

Pearl Beads, Necklaces, Chokers, variety of colors and sizes. Silk Underwear, Novelty Silk and Cotton Underwear, Silk Scarfs, Silk Hose in all colors, Belts, Jewelry, Gloves, Umbrellas, Vanity Sets, White Kid Pumps and White Kid Oxfords. These are useful presents and will be appreciated.

Summer Dress Materials

New Patterns in Wide Striped Broad Cloths, Novelty Patterns in Assorted Dots in Silk and Cotton Materials, Printed Novelties in Bubble Dot Materials now popular, Lkye Silk Materials Yard-wide.

Our Foot Comfort Expert

Is in charge of our Foot Comfort Department. He will gladly show you how to rid yourself of all your foot troubles. If you suffer from tired, aching feet, weak and broken down arches, weak ankles, bunions, corns or callouses, you should see him without delay. No matter what your foot trouble may be, he will show you how to get prompt and sure relief. His services are absolutely free.

Dr. Scholl's Foot-Eazer

positively relieves weak and fallen arches, tired aching, burning feet, weak ankles, cramped toes, etc. Light and comfortable. Worn in any shoe.

WHY NOT DROP IN TODAY WHEN YOU ARE DOWN TOWN AND KNOW THE JOY OF FOOT COMFORT AGAIN.

MILLERS

The orange social held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Caltrider proved successful with a large number in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Miller and son Melvin spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shoemaker and daughter Dorothy, of Baltimore, spent Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Miller. Mrs. Miller accompanied them to their home Friday evening where she spent several days returning to her home Sunday.

Mrs. Ross Rohrbaugh and sons Harry and Clarence spent Saturday at Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Zepp and son Calvin, of Baltimore, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wareheim and children, Helen and Noah, of near Mayberry, spent Sunday at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller and Mr. and Mrs. George Bollinger.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller spent Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Miller, of Alesia. Mrs. Miller is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hare have returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown, after spending several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Zepp, of Baltimore.

The pageant given by the C. E. Society Sunday evening was well attended, considering the disagreeable weather.

UNIONTOWN

Do not forget Decoration Day services Saturday 6:00 P. M. Meet at the Bethel.

Rev. J. H. Hoch attended the General Eldership of the Churches of God Sunday and Monday held in Harrisburg, Pa.

Rev. J. E. Lowe, Jr., and Edward Eckard, of the Uniontown pastorate, attended the Maryland Synod of the United Lutheran church, held in Frederick this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stonesifer, Westminster, spent Sunday at Charles Fritz's.

Harry B. Mering has been on the sick list the past week and confined to bed most of the time.

The M. P. Sunday school will have Children's Day services Sunday, June 14, at 8 P. M.

B. L. Cookson returned home from Atlantic City, N. J., Monday evening, after several days stay.

Ezra M. Smith and grandson, Henry Hutton, Chambersburg, Pa., visited Mrs. M. Singer, Saturday. Since then word has been received of the accidental drowning of Mr. Smith's, 10-year-old grandson, son of Leroy Smith, Trenton, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Edgar Myers, and daughter Virginia, were week-end guests of Robert Roland's family, Hagerstown.

EASTVIEW

On Wednesday of last week Mr. James Barnes had a very sick horse but owing to prompt attention it is better.

Mr. Hayden Bollinger also had to call a doctor to attend one of his horses. The doctor responded promptly and the horse is better. With careful attention it will come out alright.

The neighborhood has been visited by a stray horse which some seem to think belongs to Mrs. Kate Hill. It is now in charge of Grammer Phillips, who has it stabled.

Mr. Christopher Schnaubel has been improving his home by putting in a water cistern. The work is being done by Samuel Arnold Jr., and Mr. Edmondson.

On Friday night a flitting was seen passing through this village. It stopped at the summer home of Mr. George Wicks. By all signs they will be in the village soon for the summer.

On Thursday noon Mrs. John Conaway and daughter Elsie, and Emma Arnold, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leppo and son Albert, made a trip to Baltimore visiting Rev. and Mrs. Link and family, also took in Mrs. Leppo, after which all went to the church where supper was served to all, as they held a chicken supper. All enjoyed themselves, after which they returned to Mr. Link's home in company with many others.

On Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hook and Hilda Arnold made a trip to Baltimore, stopping at Rev. Mr. Link's and attending the sea food supper at the church he has in charge.

Mr .Raymond Hoffman and Ethel Hoffman are home visiting their parents.

Mr. Wishmyer is improving slowly from his accident.

Surely the farmers who were ready to plant wormseed and tomatoes rejoiced to see the recent rain but we are not partial to making changes in temperature. One can don his overcoat.

Many of our farmers had to furrow out their corn fields and replant them, the weather being so cold and dry.

It is drawing to the time when the school will close and the youngsters are surely glad. They do not, at this age, realize what education means to them. They are tired of books and tasks.

Saturday night between twelve and one o'clock the wind blew a perfect hurricane, making one sit up and take notice.

Mrs. John Beard is improving slowly. We trust she will soon be out.

UNION MILLS

On the evenings of May 21 and 23, the pupils of the Charles Carroll school gave a three-act comedy entitled "Making The Music," in the school auditorium. They acted well and were patronized by good audiences. The school orchestra, Prof. Edward Zepp, leader, filled in between the acts with some first rate music. Miss Mildred Haack, one of the teachers of the school, was the stage manager. The following named appeared in the cast: Misses Kathryn Kroh, Larue Wetzel, Beulah Strevig and Grace Dutterer, and Masters Dale Nusbaum, Ralph Bankert, Charles Bankert, Paul Bankert, Ellis Cover and Willard Cratin.

On Ascension Day the following officers were elected at the congregational meeting held at the Reformed church, Silver Run: Elders, Jacob W. Frock and Edward L. Formwalt; deacons, George V. Maus and Eli C. Dutterer.

Charles O. Bloom, who spent the winter at Glenburnie, Md., with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Woodfall, returned to Union Mills, several days last week, to finally close up his housekeeping affairs at that place. Mrs. Woodfall was with him, and his son, Arthur T. Bloom, with his family, of Wellsburg, W. Va., was also here. Mr. Bloom gave to these two children such of his furniture as they could make use of and the remainder he placed in the hands of John W. B. Flickinger, who will dispose of it at public sale and forward the proceeds to Mr. Bloom, who has been in ill health for some time and he will in the future reside with the Woodfalls at Glenburnie, Md. He was an upright and popular resident of our village and the good wishes of his many friends at Union Mills will go with him to his new home.

Miss Aileen De Chant, a returned foreign missionary, of Hanover, Pa., will make an address at the regular service in the Reformed church, Silver Run, next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and also at an afternoon service. Miss De Chant is a daughter of Rev. Dr. Abner S. De Chant, pastor of Emmanuel Reformed church, Hanover, Pa.

There is a demand for more hemen, but it-men are said to be more common.

A Card of Thanks

We return our sincere thanks to the friends for the use of their automobiles, and for other kindnesses, extended to us at the funeral of our deceased mother, Mrs. O. H. P. Mathias.

William Mathias
Mrs. Joseph S. Witter. 1t*

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2318-0181