THE EASTON STAR

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13, 1883.

T. E. ROBINSON, EDITOR.

L. JEFF MILBOURNE & CO., Newspaper Advertising Agents, 136 West Baltimore street, Baltimore, Md., are authorized to contract for advertisements for THE STAR, at our best rates.

THE Friend's yearly meeting in Baltimore commenced on Saturday.

EX GOVERNOR RANDOLPH, of New Jersey, died suddenly, of heart disease, one day last week.

GOV. HAMILTON has appointed Judge R. H. Alvey Chief Judge of the Maryland Court of Appeals, vice Justice Bartol, resigned.

THE editor of the Gazette, it is said, cannot understand how the Republicans were beat in this county last Tuesday. It was by votes, man, votes, white votes, Democratic votes! We have plenty of them, and a large margin to spare.

Honor to Whom Honor is Due.

We congratulate the Republicans on the great victory which Capt. Ridgeway and Mr. Edwin Jump brought them on Tuesday. To them all the glory is due. A place at Washington or in the Baltimore custom house ought to be made for them at once.

Western Maryland.

We are glad to note that Western Maryland is coming back to her old love. The Democrats carried Washington County, elected their Senator, Mr. Noah Bowlus, in Frederick, and made large gains throughout Western Maryland. "Everything is lovely and the goose hangs high."

Hail to the Roosters!

We know our friends, particularly the ladies, would be greatly disappointed today if we did not bring out the STAR roosters. Tuesday's work put them in splendid crowing condition. And while flopping their wings and crowing over old Talbot and the State of Maryland, we hope they will not fail to give an extra flop and a prodigious crow, over the downfall of Mahone and Mahoneism.

The Republican party must go!

GOV. BENJAMIN F. BUTLER has increased the Democratic vote in Massachusetts from 112,000 to 152,000, yet he was defeated by 8,000, the Republicans polling 160,000, the heaviest vote ever cast in Massachusetts. There are strong reasons to suspect fraud or bribery in the big Republican vote cast on Tuesday. Gov. Butler says he is going for them again next year. A man who can increase his vote 40,000 in two years is not easily squelched, and the Republicans had better look out for him.

WHAT THE FIGURES SAY.

Gov. McLane received in the State on Tuesday 1,927 more votes than Gov. Hamilton received in 1879. Mr. J. Frank Thruer, for Comptroller, received in the State 799 more votes than Mr. McLane. Hart B. Holton received in the 5th, Congressional district, in 1882, a majority of 1,536. McLane carried the 5th district, on Tuesday by 109 majority. Mr. Turner's majority in the State is 13,349; McLane's majority, 12,950. Charles B. Roberts is the foremost man on the ticket, his majority being 13,854.

MR THOMAS S. HODSON, Republican, returned a State Senator from Somerset county, is said to be constitutionally ineligible to a seat in the legislature, being a local Methodist preacher. Mr. Jones, his Democratic competitor, will probably contest his seat. Under the Republican decision, in the case of Hart B. Holton against Dr. Maclin, the votes cast for Hodson were thrown away, and Mr Jones is the legally elected Senator from Somerset county. Whether the Democrats will or will not follow the decision in the Holton-Maclin case in adjudicating this case we are unable to tell. Mr. Hodson will not be likely to get Mr. Holton to argue the case for him.

THE new tariff shows a surplus revenue of over $100,000,000. In 15 years this surplus will pay off the national debt. Then the national banks will have to go, as there will be no U. S. bonds to bank, on. Which do the people want to go, the banks or the high tariff? Both can't stay, that is very certain. And to allow the banks to issue their circulation without any guarantee is not to be thought of. If the tariff is lowered, and the surplus reduced, the banks may live, and not otherwise. Will the banks be for a reduction of the tariff? That's the question, and we shall see what we shall see. This is a serious question for the Democratic House of Representatives to deal with.

THE 10th of this November was the 400th anniversary of the birth of Martin Luther, who fired the first gun of reform that waked a sleeping world and started into activity those great principles of liberty of thought and action which gave birth to our present high civilization and religious culture. Of all the great men who adorn the pages of history, none did more for the benefit of mankind, the glory of civilization and christian liberty, than the great German reformer, Martin Luther. Even those who opposed him have now great cause to rejoice at the glorious results of Luther's work. What the world would be to-day, had not Luther, or some other such reformer, lived to protest against the abuses of of the 16th century, it is impossible to say.

President of the Senate and Speaker of the House.

The Maryland Republican names Hon. Noah Bowlus, of Frederick, for President of the Senate, and Joseph B. Seth, Esq., of Talbot, for Speaker of the House of Delegates. There is no doubt that these gentlemen would make admirable presiding officers of the two houses of the legislature. Mr. Seth made a most efficient Clerk of the House, and certainly possesses special qualifications for the office of Speaker. His selection would doubtless give general satisfaction to the people and the party. The fact Mr. Bowlus carried the Republican county of Frederick and gave the Democrats the Senate, together with his eminent qualifications, are cogent reasons why he should be chosen President of the Senate. It is very important to place the right kind of men in these very important positions.

THE Gazette compares the vote in this county on Tuesday with the vote of 1879. Why did it not compare it with the vote of 1881, when the editor of the Gazette was elected. Everybody knows that Col. Lloyd's 14 majority over Mr. R. B. Dixon under the circumstances of Tuesday was a much more glorious victory than his defeat of Mr. R. Tharp by 141 in 1877. The Gazette knows the Republican party was thoroughly demoralized and literally run over in 1879, when Mr. Turner was elected Clerk over Col. Mullikin by 428 majority. But on Tuesday it was thoroughly organized, under a hand to hand fight and had more money than it could use. The victory of Tuesday was the most decisive and glorious triumph the Democracy of this county has ever won.

VICTORY!

THE RESULT IN THE STATE.

The State of Maryland has nobly stood by her principles, and the whole Democratic State ticket is elected by about 12,000 majority. Holton, Stockett and Mullikin are nowhere. The legislature is Democratic in both branches, and the Republican hopes of carrying the Senate are blasted.

FROM OTHER STATES.

VIRGINIA.

We have glorious news from the Old Dominion. For some time she has been under a cloud, but, thank God, day is breaking. On Tuesday Virginia gave Mahone and Mahoneism their death blow. The Democrats swept the State, and carried both branches of the legislature by handsome majorities. The Governor holds over but he will have to go. Mahone is dead gosling. The legislature will stand, in the Senate, 22 Democrats, 18 Republicans; in the House, 69 Democrats, 29 Republicans. The Democrats carry the State by a popular majority of 20,000. Virginia is certain for the Democratic candidate for President in 1884.

NEW JERSEY.

The Democrats elect their candidate for Governor of New Jersey by nearly 7,000 majority.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Pennsylvania has gone Republican as usual. Gov. Pattison made a great mistake in calling an extra session of the legislature, to spend money and do nothing.

NEW YORK.

The Democrats lose the legislature of New York through the war between Tammany and Anti Tammany, which broke out on the eve of election. The Democratic State ticket, except Maynard, who was badly scratched by the liquor men, is elected by 20,000 majority.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Gov. Butler is defeated in Massachusetts by some 10,000 plurality.

The western states, Minnesota and Nebraska, have gone Republican by reduced majorities.

Connecticut elected a Republican legislature.

THE Gazette appears very happy over Tuesday's work. If it can find any consolation in such a defeat it is more than welcome to enjoy it.

THE Republicans have tried both James A. Garey and Hart B. Holton, and ought to be satisfied by this time that money cannot win in Maryland.

BALTIMORE gave Robert M. McLane nearly 8,000 majority on Tuesday. She has never failed to respond nobly whenever Robert M. McLane has asked for the support of the city.

THE average Democratic majority in Talbot county on the legislative ticket is 734. Mr. Seth beats Mr. Dixon 59 votes; Gov. Thomas beat Mr. Councell 88 votes; and Col. Lloyd beats Mr. Grace 73 votes. Mr. Seth, our highest man, beats Mr. Grace, the lowest Republican, 118 votes.

THE Republican leaders say the counties cheated them on Tuesday. Instead of carrying the State outside of the city of Baltimore, as they confidently expected, the Democrats carried it by over 4,000 majority. Who sunk Holten's money? Somebody must have gobbled and pocketed it.

THE next legislature will be Democratic by 39 majority on joint ballot. The Democrats have two 2 majority in the Senate and 37 in the House. Mr. Cresswell may as well hang his harp upon the willow, for he will not occupy Senator Groome's seat in the United States Senate this time.

SINCE the Democrats have been in power in this State they have voted out of the treasury of Maryland for the negro schools and education of negroes' children over one million of dollars. The negroes have had an opportunity, by their votes, to declare their approval or disapproval of the democratic policy towards them. They have voted almost unanimously to condemn it. As they ought to know better than any one else what they want and what they don't want, it is time for the Democratic party to consider the expediency of reversing its policy towards them, and withdrawing the appropriation for their schools. If the negroes say they did'nt understand what they were voting against, their white DRIVERS cannot say so. If they have driven the negroes into voting wrong, they should frankly tell them so, and allow them to vote right hereafter. If their school appropriation was taken from them it would probably put them to thinking; and the next time they voted, they would not allow themselves to be herded and driven to the polls by white drivers, to vote in the interest of a few aspirants for office and obviously against their own interests. If they won't think what they are doing when voting, it is time to compel them to think, and, perhaps, the best way to get them to thinking, and make them vote more intelligently, is to withdraw their school appropriation from them. They will soon inquire the cause of it, and when they learn it was done because they voted against it, they may cut loose from the control of the negro drivers. Such conduct as theirs would not be tolerated by any party for a moment on the part of the whites, and there is no reason why the blacks should be treated more leniently than white voters.

IN the bright autumnal days the temptation to comfortable exposure yields its fruit in a most pernicious cough and irritation of the throat. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup stands unrivaled as a remedy for throat and lung diseases. 25c a bottle.

A Great Historical Work.

Comprehensive and Popular History of the United States, from the Discovery of the American Continent to the present time. By Alexander H. Stephens.

The National Publishing Co., of Philadelphia, Chicago, St. Louis and Atlanta, have just issued a magnificent volume bearing the above title. This is by far the most important historical publication that has appeared in this country for many years, and is destined to take rank as the standard "History of the United States." We most heartily commend this work to our readers. It is no dry mass of details, no bombastic effort to inflame the national pride, but a clear, vivid, and brilliant narrative of the events of our history from the discovery of the American Continent to the present time. It gives a most interesting account of the Indians of North America, from the time of the coming of the white men. The voyages of Columbus, the explorations of the different nations of Europe and the final conquest and occupation of the land by England, are told with graphic power.

Every step of our colonial history is traced with patient fidelity, and the sources of those noble, and, we trust, enduring institutions which have made our country free and great, are shown with remarkable clearness. The causes of our great struggle for Independence are told with a logical force and ability unsurpassed in any other work. Then follows a clear and succinct account of the events of our history until the breaking out of the Second War with England, the long period of peace, the Mexican War, and the great Civil War. Mr. Stephens' position as Vice-President of the Confederacy enables him to give the inner history of that eventful period. The Reconstruction Measures, the Centennial of our Independence, and the administrations of Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Arthur, are received ample and able treatment at the hands of the author, rendering it the most complete and valuable history of our country ever published.

The great fame of the distinguished author of this work—is a sufficient guarantee of the ability and care with which he has performed his task. Mr. Stephens has enjoyed peculiar advantages which no other historian of our country has ever possessed. For almost half a century he has been one of the most prominent Statesmen of America, and a leader in many of the events which he describes. He has a personal knowledge of the men who were the great actors in our national drama, and the secret motives which inspired them. Mr. Stephens writes, not as a partisan, but as a Statesman, viewing men and measures from a stand-point which few historians ever reach—the stand-point of personal knowledge, based upon profound conviction and the keenest insight into human nature. He tells his story in the most graphic and brilliant manner, producing as his last and greatest work, the most valuable History of the United States that has yet appeared—a History which is in all respects worthy of the great fame of its author.

It is comprised in one royal octavo volume of over 1,000 large double-column pages, and illustrated with over 300 fine engravings on steel and wood, embracing battles and other historical scenes, portraits of the distinguished men of our history, views of our principal cities, etc. The price is so low that all can afford to purchase a copy. It is for sale by subscription only, and Mr. W. W. Bulette, who is the authorized agent for this section, is now canvassing for it.

49th Annual Report of the Union Dorcas Society.

To the people of Easton and vicinity the Officers and Managers respectfully submit their Annual Report.

The Society has now been in existence nearly half a century, and our Annual Meeting has sometimes found us with a very small balance in our Treasury, but this year finds us with the merest pittance wherewith to begin our labor of charity for the coming winter.

During the last year our collections have been unusually light, while the demands of the poor have not been correspondingly abated; and so we have been compelled to limit our charities to the most necessitous cases.

That our collections are smaller than formerly is undoubtedly owing to the fact that each Church has its own organized method of relieving the needs of its poorer members; but we have found in many cases that it has taken all the resources of the Dorcas Society to help and supplement the good work of the churches. We know that there is in this community charitable work for us all, and enough and to spare to make all needful provision for the deserving poor.

The Lord of the harvest has bountifully blest this community during the past year. While in other sections of our country the blighting drought has withered the food for man and beast, or the dreadful cyclone has in one awful moment swept away the earnings of a lifetime, or the still more dreaded pestilence has raised the finger of warning—our fields have been green with waving crops, and these calamities have passed us by.

It is unfortunately true that we are all prone to selfishness, and if not reminded of our duty to the poor, we are too apt to forget it. It is the duty of our Society to annually refresh the memories of our people in regard to their Christian obligations in this respect, and to entreat them not to allow the poor to suffer for want of the help they can so easily bestow.

It is our business as the almoners of your bounty to seek out and relieve their wants, as far as our means will allow. One needs food, another medicine, others fuel and clothing. It takes comparatively little to relieve the necessities of each individual case; but the aggregate amounts to a considerable sum, and we urgently entreat you to supply us with the means to continue a work which has been an honor to our town and a blessing to its poor. We trust that we shall not appeal to your liberality in vain, but that the generous kindness which has smoothed the pillow of many a dying one, or eked out the scanty means of the widow and the fatherless, may still go on to bless and comfort—for, alas! we know the poor can never cease out of the land.

A committee of the Society will call upon you personally, and we will only remind you that "he who giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord."

During the past year we have paid nearly one hundred visits to our pensioners, and have had many calls upon us which we had not funds to respond to. Three of our pensioners have died.

The following is our Treasurer's report, which is respectfully submitted:

ANNA K. DAWSON, Treas.

Easton, Nov. 1st, 1883.

For the Star.

CAPTAIN JINK'S WAIL.

O, widows! how my heart grew dejected,
As election day did end;
For I was sure I'd be elected,
And be one of the widows' men!

CHORUS—"O, darkies! how my heart grows weary," etc.

O, may I never more be selected,
To make another fight,
For the people have me rejected,
And also brother Wright.

CHORUS—"O, darkies! how my heart grows weary," etc.

O, my dearest, dearest treasure,
Put me in my little bed,
That I may have some peace and pleasure,
From the Waterloo I dread.

CHORUS—"O, darkies! how my heart grows weary," etc.

O, why should I have been so treated,
I can never tell;
For my pocket I depleted
To make the chorus swell.

CHORUS—"O, darkies! how my heart grows weary," etc.

O, widows! now farewell forever!
I do never more intend
To quote Shakespeare to the darkies, ever,
Or claim to be the widow's friend!

FULL CHORUS—All the world grows sad and dreary,
Everywhere I roam,
O, darkies, how my heart grows weary,
At the thought of staying home.

A Man Badly Cut.

About midnight on Tuesday, when many voters, white and black, were congregated about the court house, waiting for the election returns, a drunken young negro named Dan. Somers was heard to curse Col. Lloyd, and say he didn't crre for any d—n white man. The Democrats standing near were so enraged at the insult, that they went for Somers, and would have made mince meat of him, but Officer Bostick interferred, arrested him, and deposited him temporarily in the STAR office for protection. Some negroes attempted to rescue him, but they were promptly driven off by the whites. Somers was subsequently taken to jail by officers Bostick and Grace, after which the trouble ended. After the affair was over, Mr. James Spence, a quiet, good citizen, and a Democrat, discovered by the blood trickling down his side, that he had been cut, in the side with a razor or some other sharp instrument, by one of the negroes. He went into Hayward & Brother's drug store, and Dr. Johnson was summoned and dressed the wound. Mr. Spence has since been confined to his room by the wound. The gash was made with a sharp instrument, which cut through his coat, vest, and undergarments, and clean to his ribs. The officers have not been able to discover who cut him, and Mr. Spence appears not to know when he was cut.
