Take our advice on the first approach of disease—Try it. The cost is trifling; 25 cents a paper or $1 a bottle. All druggists sell it. W. E. Thornton, proprietor, Baltimore, Md.

—There'a a constant effort on the part of that grim monster "Disease" to become master of mortal man. Only a careful observance of natural laws can render his efforts unavailing. Yet too often injudicious excesses, sudden changes, too great exposure, improper food or other abuses of nature open the gateway and Disease gains a victory. Sometimes its mastery is so complete that Nature of herself can never effect a dislodgement. In such instances reinforce nature with a judicious use of Brown's Iron Bitters and we guarantee, is a short time, all disease will be vanished.

Mr. Philip Phillips, who gives an entertainment this and to-morrow evenings at Trappe, has conducted 3,300 of his services, traveling 'round the globe, and throughout 20 different countries. It is wonderful that a man should draw such large audiences among so many people, by simply singing christian songs. But he illustrates the songs he sings, and his travels, by mens of an improved bi-unial light dissolving apparatus, which lends a charm to his entertainments that is irresistable. His pictures give to his songs an effect that is both startling and interesting. The people of Trappe district should not miss this opportunity to hear him.

—Mr. James Spence was well enough of the cut he received at the hands of some negro the night of the election to come to town last Tuesday. The stab is healing, and he is experiencing no inconvenience from the wound. Mr. Spence says he was stabbed by some sharp instrument, which penetrated in a slanting direction about three inches beyond where it entered the skin. It is a pity the rascal that cut him cannot be discovered, that he might receive justice at the hands of the law. Mr. Spence received his cut by responding to the call of officer Bostick for help, when the negroes attempted to rescue Dan. Somers out of the officer's hands.

It is well-known that great disappointment was felt here the day after the election by the non-arrival of any Baltimore papers in the mail. Having mailed the Sun as usual, Messrs. A. S. Abell & Co. applied to Postmaster Adreon to know why the Postoffice Department failed to deliver them. The following is Mr. Adreon's reply, which shows the Postoffice officials were flagrantly remiss in their duties:

Postoffice, Baltimore, Md., Mailing Division, Baltimore, November 9, 1883.—Messrs. A. S. Abell & Co., Publishers Sun, City: The morning of the 7th inst., the regular postal clerk between this city and Philadelphia did not report for duty. The clerk from this office who usually takes his run was not able to go out, and one of the through postal clerks between New York and Washington was ordered on the run. All of the Eastern Shore mail was returned to this office at 3.30 P. M. the same day. More than usual care was exercised on the morning of the 7th to get the papers off all right, and they left this office correctly.

HARRISON ADREON, Postmaster.

—The best, the cheapest remedy in the world; see advertisement of Simmons Liver Regulator.

—They are having it pretty cold in the North.

—Ice over a quarter of an inch thick last Tuesday morning.

—Quite a large number of people were in Easton last Tuesday.

—Winter set in in earnest last week with an old-fashioned northwester.

—The past week was bad for those who were not done seeding wheat in these parts.

—An exchange says: "Man's average life is 33 years." Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will always live.

—The Middle Convocation of the Diocese of Easton was held at Christ Church, Easton, last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

—Dr. Jno. C. Earle has moved from "Brooklets" to town, and occupies the residence of the late John W. Obecnum, on Dover street.

—Why not have the roof of the court house painted? It needs it. A coat of paint would preserve it for years, and would certainly add to its appearance.

—Mrs. Susan G. Powell has sold the lot on Aurora street, Easton, between the residences of Gov. Thomas and T. K. Robson, to Mrs. George W. Wilson, for $600.

—Don't forget the sale of the John A. W. Powell house, which takes place to-day at 3 o'clock, in front of the court house. The residence is one of the most desirable in town.

—The springs are said to be very low. The amount of waterfall this year has been light, although there was no protracted drought. We have had frequent showers but few heavy rains.

—Messrs. Peter Stevens, Thos. Hughlett and George E. Haddaway are the only applicants as yet for the county clerkship, to succeed Mr. Turner, when he resigns, which will not be till January.

—Sheriff-elect Thomas P. Hopkins, is not coming to town to live, having engaged Mr. Wm. T. H. Lee as his deputy, to remain in the jail and transact the business for him as he has done for Sheriff Bridges.

—Mr. Frank Wright got a bad fall last Thursday. He was in his hay loft, and fell into the scuttle hole, hurting his side badly. Fortunately he did not fall through to the lower floor. He is out and attending to business.

—In the STAR of this morning will be found the prospectus of Godey's Lady's Book for 1884. It is a charming ladies magazine. The December number, which is on our table, is a beautiful number, and not excelled by any previous number of the Lady's Book.

—Philip Phillips will give a grand illustated musical entertainment at the Southern Methodist Church at Trappe, to-night and to-morrow night. From all accounts it will be a splendid affair, and doubtless the Trappe people will fill the church, and enjoy it.

—McHale & Ryan, Market Space, Easton, advertise a splendid stock of harness, saddles, bridles, trunks, blankets, &c. They have the largest stock of goods in their line, on the Eastern shore, and cannot be undersold by any city retail house. They manufacture the harness they sell, and warrant it all they recommend it to be. Give them a call.

—The St. Michaels Comet is blowing over some big cabbages, raised by a Mr. Sutton, of Broad Creek Neck. It is well known that Broad Creek Neck can beat creation raising Democrats, and big corn, and oysters, but until the news reached us through the Comet, we did not know it was the land of big cabbages also. It deserves to be set apart as a separate election precinct.

—Remedy in the world; see advertisement of Simmons Liver Regulator.

Public Business.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

The Commissioners of Talbot county met on Tuesday, but failed to act on the bids for widening the Goldsborough's Neck road, from the Park woods to the Glebe road.

The Board took up the report of the examiners on the Park road, in Miles River Neck, and ordered the road to be made.

The Board also affirmed the report of the examiners, appointed to widen the Glebe road, and ordered the road to be widened. The report provides for putting in two brick culverts at the junction of the Goldsborough's Neck and Glebe roads.

The Board also affirmed the report of the examiners on the application for a new road in Chapel district, known as the Samest and Shanahan road, and ordered the roadsto be made.

The Commissioners were in session yesterday, closing up their old business. The new board will probably qualify and enter upon their duties to-day.

ORPHANS' COURT.

In the Orphans' Court Tuesday, Ann Botts, adm'x of George W. Botts, presented an inventory of the estate, and passed her final account of administration. Lizzie E. Warren adm'x of Wm. A. Warren, presented an inventory of the estate. An order of sale was granted, and the adm'x was ordered to publish notice to creditors. George W. Tarbutton, adm'r of Edward T. Bowdle, filed a release from Ann Bodle. E. H. Roe, the largest creditor of Mrs. G. H. Grace, deceased, applied for letters of administration on her estate.

Celebrating the Democratic Victory.

The Democrats of Talbot celebrated their great victory in the county and State by a torchlight parade and speaking at the court house, on Tuesday night. Capt. Edw. Roberts was chief marshal. He and his aids got up the affair, and it certainly did them much credit. The celebration was held under the auspices of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Easton. The torch-bearers were mostly mounted, and moved through the streets quite rapidly. The Easton Mozart Band furnished music, assisted by a fife and drum and a string band. The attendance of Democrats from all parts of the county, was very large. The procession moved through the principal streets, which were brilliantly illuminated, the houses of all the Democrats in town being lighted up. The residences of leading Democrats were enthusiastically cheered. The toches looked very pretty. The transparencies were covered with mottoes, poking fun at the Republicans. A full-rigged boat and a monument were specially noticeable. At the conclusion of the parade, the crowd went to the court house, and soon the court room was packed and jammed full. Many failed to get inside. Gov. Thomas made a splendid speech, which delighted all present. Speeches were also made by Messrs. Joseph B. Seth, J. Frank Turner, T. K. Robson and P. Addison Morgan. It was a season of great joy with the Democracy of Talbot, which will be long remembered.

Personal.

Mr. Charles A. Bryan, of Oakley, Louisiana, is visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. John Charles Adams, of "Ray's Point," St. Michaels district. We had a call from him on Saturday. Mr. Bryan is President of the New Orleans, Natchez and Northwestern Railroad, projected to run from New Orleans to Nachez, on the east side of the Mississippi river, to cross the river at Natchez, and thence running northwest to Pine Bluff, Arkansas, and is on his way to New York in the interest of his road. Mr. Bryan is a native of Cecil county, Maryland, and well known in Maryland and Delaware. He is very confident that the construction of the N. O., N. and N. railroad will do much to develop the northern portion of Louisiana, and it will certainly make the shortest line between Natchez and New Orleans.

The STAR on Saturday had also a call from Mr. Fred Emory, of the editorial staff of the Baltimore Sun, who visited Easton to gather some data for an article for the Sun on Easton, its institutions and industries

A Beautiful Ornament.

The prettiest thing for a store ornament, ever seen in Easton, is the new show case just purchased by Messrs. Hayward & Brother, to display their splendid line of Christmas goods It is of unique pattern, ebony and gold, and five feet high, divided into three sections, two of which are revolving, and may be placed in any angle desired. It shows off the goods magnificently, and is the only one of the kind in the State. Every one who has seen it says it is the prettiest thing in town These young gentlemen have now one of the prettiest drug stores in the State, among the other improvements lately added, in having their floor covered with linoleum, making you feel almost as if you were in a parlor. The whole store is a credit to any town.

The Fall Fashions.

John Satterfield, Tailor, opposite Frame Hotel, Easton, announces to his friends and the public, that he has received the New York and Paris fashions of 1883-4, which he would like to have the gentlemen of the county call and examine. They will be found very pretty. He continues to cut, fit, and make suits in the best style, and will be pleased to furnish the cloth, samples of which may be seen at his shop. He thinks he can furnish a better article for the money than can be found in town

WYE MILLS, Nov. 17th, 1883.

MR. EDITOR:—Hoping that I am not intruding on your time, and begging a little space in your much appreciated paper in which to say a few words in regard to the late festival given by the ladies of Wye M. E. Church, held at the Grange hall last week. Some of the ladies felt the weight of the debt still on the organ, and went to work with a zeal, the consequence of which—in one week a first-class festival in full blast. Everything gotten up in the best style. Supper each evening, and the table, under the management of Mrs. Thos. Quimby and Mrs. James T. Mortgrage, was so tempting few could resist its charms. The ladies loaned their "best," and the spotless damask linen and cut-glass vied with the brightness of the silver, to say nothing of the delicious viands served in them. The refreshment and fancy tables were very attractive, to say the least of them; and it would be a pity to forget to mention the lemonade well, which was a model, and the peanut stand with Miss Mary Burnite as peanut girl. She made a capital one, her long black hair escaping from under her "red bandanna," and her ready wit, made her a great favorite.

Mr. Editor, be patient with me: as the festival is the topic of all social circles here, I want you to hear all about it.

A number of things were voted off, among which I can only mention a few. They ran Miss Joe Dulin and Miss Mollie Bartlett for a silver butter dish, Miss Dulin got it. It brought $38.45. Double pickle caster Miss Sallie Dulin got, brought $18.55. The large pyramid cake brought $23; Miss Cora Story got it. The largest doll was won by little Eva Hopkins, and brought $12. Lots of other things went off just as well.

The whole was a success, cashing $230; paid for the organ and the largest portion of a debt of unpaid subscriptions. The gentlemen deserve thanks for the liberal use of their money, and the ladies for their untiring and courageous efforts.

Begging to be excused for so lengthy a letter, I subscribe myself,

VIC.

The New Time Standard.

The new time standard commenced at noon on Sunday, and it is understood that all the railroads of the country will conform to it, and run by the time agreed upon. The clocks of Baltimore city have been advanced to the 75th meridian time, which is six minutes and twenty-eight seconds faster than the old time of the city. There will be little change in our railroad time, it having been governed by Philadelphia time, but the steamboat time will be advanced about six minutes earlier than formerly, both at Baltimore and Easton Point.

"Thanksgiving Day" Excursions.

Announcement is made by the Passenger Department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, that a general excursion for Thanksgiving Day has been arranged, and excursion tickets will be sold at all ticket stations on the Pennsylvania Railroad, Northern Central Railway, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, Baltimore and Potomac Railroad, and West Jersey Railroad, on November 28th and 29th, good for the return trip until December 3d.

On Thirty Days' Trial.

The VOLTAIC BELT Co., Marshall, Mich., will send Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belts and Electric Appliances on trial for thirty days to men (young or old) who are afflicted with nervous debility, lost vitality and kindred troubles, guaranteeing speedy and complete restoration of health and manly vigor. Address as above. N. B—No risk is incurred, as thirty days' trial is allowed. jan2-y.

Body Found.

The body of Gilbert Banks, the negro man run over and drowned some two or three weeks ago by the steamer Pratt, was found one day last week on Castle Haven bar, and buried in Dorchester. Subsequently, on learning the facts, Major John W. Martin had the body taken up, brought over the river, and buried in Island Creek Neck, Talbot county.

For the Star.

MR. EDITOR:—I wish you would put it on record, and quote it the next time the Gazette preaches "local option, that that immaculate "local option" paper considers it "straining at a goat and swallowing a camel" to condemn the illegal use of whiskey on ELECTION DAY, to promote the election of Republican candidates. TEMPERANCE.

Literary Notices.

FRANK LESLIE'S SUNDAY MAGAZINE

The December number comes to us, outwardly greatly improved by a new and very tasteful cover. Inwardly, we think the magazine is greatly capable of improvement; the present number brilliantly closes the fourteenth volume. "Religious Denominations in the United States" is continued, and "What is Swedenborgianism?" is explained by Rev. J. C. Ager. There are articles on "Buddhism and its Early Literature," "The Episcopal General Convention," "Sacred Musicians of the XIXth Century," "The Shapira Manuscript of Deuteronomy," "The Knights of the Temple," "Woman's Work in Germany," etc., etc. Most of these are admirably illustrated. There are Sketches, Essays, Poems, and a rich department of Fiction, with the conclusion of the serial, "Mr. Burke's Nieces," and short stories by Eben E. Rexford, E. F. Gordon Cumming, and other celebrated writers. The editor, T. DeWitt Talmage, D. D., contributes a sermon, and indeed the number abounds with interesting and edifying reading. A single number is sold for 25 cents, or $4 a year, postpaid. Mss. FRANK LESLIE, Publisher, 53, 55 and 57 Park Place, New York.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE

for December is, as usual, ahead of all the lady's books. Splendid as this magazine has been in the past, the present number quite outstrips itself. There are more than a hundred pages of reading matter; two superb steel plates; a colored pattern, costlier even than a chromo; a colored fashion, double size, printed from steel; and more than half a hundred wood-cuts of fashions, work-table patterns, etc., etc. The stories are, as always, exceptionally good: "Peterson" has long had the reputation of giving the best. It is a standing wonder to us how this magazine can be furnished at its low price: it can only be explained by the enormous circulation which "Peterson" has had now for more than thirty years. We really suppose there are few families, at all pretending to refinement, in which this magazine is not to be found. It claims, and not undeservedly, to give more for the money—and of a better quality—than any other. The December number ends the year. Now, therefore, is the time to subscribe for no magazine till they have seen a copy of this. Specimens are sent gratis, if written for in good faith. The price is but TWO DOLLARS a year to single subscribers. To clubs, it is cheaper still, viz: Four copies for six dollars and a half, with an extra copy of the Magazine as a premium to the person getting up the club. Or five copies for eight dollars, with both an extra copy of the Magazine for getting up the club, and also a superb illustrated book of the poets, called "The Golden Gift," or a large-size steel engraving, for framing, "Tired Out." No other magazine gives such premiums. For larger clubs, the price is still lower, while even more premiums are given. Address PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE BIOGRAPHICAL MAGAZINE.

Illustrated. Vol. 1, No. 1. November, 1883. Price $1.00 a year. Monthly. Published by The Pictorial Associated Press, New York. The first number contains portraits and biographical sketches of Alphonso XII, Lieut. A. W. Greely, Gov. George Hoadly, Henry Villard, Fred Douglas, Gov. Butler, Lord Coleridge, William S. Holman, Monsignor Capel, Li Hung Chang, Jules Ferry, Gov. Leon Abbett, Gov. George D. Robinson, Patrick O'Donnell, Count Bismark, Hugh J. Hastings, Martin Luther, Catharine De Bora, John A. Logan, Sir Moses Montefiore, Gov. J. Proctor Knott, Gov. Buren R. Sherman, Henry Irving, Julia Ward Howe, Judge Jonathan Dixon, and Harriet Beecher Stowe. The Biographical Magazine will be welcome as filling a much needed place in contemporary literature. Of course it contains some errors. It represents "Tuckahoe Neck," where Fred Dougias claims to have been born, as "a place noted for the sterility of its soil and wretchedness of its inhabitants," whereas it is one of the finest and richest wheat growing sections in Maryland, where there is as little "wretchedness" among its inhabitants as exists in any agricultural section anywhere.

Serious Accident.

Murphy Shannahan, little son of Mr. John H. K. Shannahan, was very seriously hurt on Saturday last, by a fall from a horse. It seems that he and William Voshell were out to the ice pond, on Railroad Avenue road, skating. Coming home they both mounted one of Mr. Covey's horses. The horse kicked up and threw the boys off, Murphy falling on his head under the horse. He has since been in the hands of Dr. Nickerson, his life being in great danger. He was considered better yesterday evening.

A Fast Run.

Thursday night the steamer Ida left Baltimore at 9 o'clock and made her landing at Easton Point before 2 o'clock Friday morning, making the run in less than 5 hours.
