FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

The Governor has issued a proclamation naming the week of October 4th-10th as Fire Prevention Week, and I feel it my duty to ask the citizens of this county to think seriously of this matter and look around and see if they can do something to lessen the danger of fires during the coming year. Last year there were over two million dollars worth of property burned in the several counties of the State, not including the City of Baltimore.

If we can do something to cut this loss by taking precaution would it not be worth while? I believe it can be done and am going to suggest just a few things that might help to prevent fires.

1. Avoid throwing lighted cigars, cigarettes and matches into waste-paper baskets or other places containing inflamable materials.

2. Avoid the filling of lighted lamps.

3. Clean your chimneys by sweeping or otherwise now that it is time to make up the winter fires.

4. Provide a sufficient number of metal cans near stoves and furnaces to receive hot ashes.

5. Keep a good Fire Extinguisher in a convenient place in your home. I suggest you keep one on each floor of your home.

Will you co-operate with us and see if you can reduce the fire losses in this good old State. Remember in many cases it is much easier to prevent fires than to extinguish them.

PLEASANT VALLEY

On Thursday evening, October 15, at 7:30 sharp, the Glee Club from St. Paul's Lutheran church, Baltimore, which is composed of about 100 voices, will come to Pleasant Valley church to sing for us. These men are members of the Bible Class which numbers between 400 and 500 and is one of the largest Bible classes in the City of Baltimore. Mr. Gundersdorff is the teacher. Don't fail to come out to hear these men sing. You will be missing a rare treat if you don't come. We hope the church may be filled to overflow. The Rev. P. A. Heilman is pastor of St. Paul's church.

A very pleasant day was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black, on last Sunday, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Black and also his son Vernon, and the third anniversary of the marriage of their oldest son Edward Black. An elegant chicken dinner was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Washington Myers, Silver Run; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zepp and daughter, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morelock, son and daughter, and Miss Laura Ebaugh, Uniontown road, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Black, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Black and daughter Carolyn.

THE DAHLIA SHOW

The third dahlia show held in Westminster by the flower committee of the Civic League in cooperation with the Extension Service, University of Maryland last Saturday and Sunday was 300 per cent better than the last year's show is the judgment of Mr. W. R. Ballard, Landscape Specialist University of Maryland who judged the show. Mr. Ballard is himself a dahlia enthusiast, and grows a large collection of the newer dahlias.

The people of Westminster and surrounding communities should feel proud of the fact that they can put on such a show as was viewed by not less than 2500 people last Saturday and Sunday in the Davis Building. It is only another demonstration of the fact that the dahlia is one of America's most beautiful flowers and is pushing the rose for first place in popularity in the home grounds. It is a beautiful flower, easily grown free from disease and not expensive. It produces a wonderful show of color and form.

The following prizes were awarded out of 325 entries, Singles—1, Mrs. Charles Everhart, 2 Leland Jordan, 3, Mrs. Charles Everhart, 4 Leland Jordan. Duplex—Leland Jordan. Peony—1, Leland Jordan, 2 Leland Jordan, 3 & 4 J. H. Yingling. Colorette—1, Leland Jordan, 2 Mrs. George A. Schaeffer, 3 & 4 Leland Jordan. Pompom—1 F. W. Fuller, 2 & 3 Leland Jordan, 4 Mrs. A. F. Lambert. Show—Leland Jordan, 2 Mrs. M. A. Sullivan, 3 J. H. Yingling, 4 Mrs. George Wantz. Decoratives—1 Leland Jordan, 2 Mrs. David Slonaker, 3 Leland Jordan, 4 J. H. Yingling. Cactus—1 Mrs. Himes, 2 & 3 Leland Jordan, 4 J. H. Yingling. Hybrid Cactus—1 & 2 Leland Jordan, 3 J. H. Yingling 4 Leland Jordan. Vase of Dahlias—1 J. H. Yingling, 2 & 3 Leland Jordan, 4 Mrs. Everhart. Vase of Fall Flowers—1 & 2 Mrs. Charles Goodwin, 3 Fannie J. Manahan, 4 Mrs. J. H. Yingling.

The dahlia which caused the most Oh's! of appreciation was the Decorative, Dr. Crawley, a seven-inch bloom of yellow and orange overlaid with peach coloring which was very effective. This dahlia won first prize and was exhibited by Leland Jordan.

The dahlias exhibited by R. Vincent and Sons, of White Marsh, Maryland was an added attraction to the show this year. It was hard to pick out any one best flower from this exhibit but Gladys Sherwood, a pure white hybrid cactus was a favorite with everybody.

Out of a possible 147 points Leland Jordan won 75, Mrs. J. H. Yingling, New Windsor 22, Mrs. C. Everhart 10. Richardson Brothers donated $8.00 worth of spring flowering bulbs to be used as a grand champion prize. This was won by Leland Jordan, Westminster.

The show was a success because of the improved quality of blooms exhibited over previous years and the setting. Mr. W. H. Davis is to be congratulated upon his beautiful show-room and thanked for the use
