Thou Shalt Not Covet Thy Neighbor's

———New home,
But let us assist you
In planning your own.
It's not a commandment,
But just a suggestion,
To build you a home
Ere another election.
Our Plan Books are free,
And our blue prints are, too,
You may select a grand mansion,
Or a Dove-cote for two.
We'll send you a contractor,
Whose prices are right,
And who'll stay on the job
From morning 'till night.
If serve you we may,
'Phone, write or come in!
We'll be glad to have met you!
Will you give us a ring?

CARROLLTON

Announcements in the Church of God on Sunday are as follows: Sunday school 9:30 A. M., preaching services 10:45, evangelistic services in the evening. Song services will begin at 7 o'clock. Don't fail to come early and hear the singing under the direction of Mr. Smith, of Altoona, Pa. Mr. Smith is a splendid leader, it does one good to hear him.

The meetings have been very interesting and have been well attended. Mr. Smith brought a splendid message last Sunday morning. Rev. Coler, of Thurmont U. B. Church, preached on Tuesday evening; Rev. J. H. Gonso, our evangelist, on Wednesday evening; Rev. Byler, pastor of the Church of God, Westminster, on Thursday evening. We have had wonderful messages each evening and we are hoping for good results. Several cottage prayer meetings have been held in the community. Everybody is cordially invited to attend and assist in these meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Rev. and Mrs. J. L. Masemore and children visited at the home of Mrs. Mary Martin on Monday.
