The Republican Citizen.

ST. LOUIS AND CHICAGO.—In the contest between St. Louis and Chicago for trade the former city is evidently "picking up." In receipts of wheat St. Louis is ahead of Chicago, and in the manufacture of flour St. Louis last year increased 106,007 barrels, or twelve per cent., while Chicago fell off 132,586 barrels, or nearly a quarter. The statistics of the flour trade show that Chicago increased her receipts six per cent., and had 2,215,808 barrels; but she diminished three per cent, in receipts and St. Louis gained forty per cent, in receipts and forty-two in exports. Reducing both to wheat, and summarizing the returns, St. Louis seems to have gained forty-two to fifty-three per cent., and Chicago from ten to fifteen per cent. Both cities received small amounts of other grain—St. Louis 370,000 bushels less of corn, 150,000 of oats, 100,000 of rye; Chicago 2,000,000 of corn, 4,000,000 of oats, and 400,000 of rye. The pork business shows that St. Louis cut 182,913 hogs last year, against 186,930 in 1868, and Chicago 337,656, against 597,954 the previous season.

THE DILEMMA OF RECONSTRUCTION.—The New York Herald makes a sharp point in regard to the Southern States being required to ratify the fifteenth amendment as a condition of restoration to the Union. As they could not be trusted to come in and then ratify it, they ratified first and then came in. They were therefore, not in the Union when they acted on the constitution, or else they were never out of the Union. Either, then says the Herald, all the reconstruction laws of Congress are invalid, or these Southern ratifications of the fifteenth amendment are invalid. or these Southtern ratifications of the fifteenth amendment are invalid. If the States were in the Union there was no need to admit them, and if they were not in the Union they could not participate in making laws for States that are in.

THE LARGEST TOBACCO MARKET.—"Cincinati claims," according to the Philadelphia Railroad Journal of last week, "to be the largest tobacco market in the United States. The receipts for the year were 44,848 hogsheads; value of tobacco sold, $7,000,000; increase over the year 1868, $500,000." This claim of Cincinati to be the largest tobacco market in the United States, is incorrect. Baltimore being entitled to that distinction, the receipts and shipments of leaf tobacco here during 1869 being 57,921 hhds. The statistics of the trade and commerce of Baltimore, published in the American on the opening of the present year, will satisfy our Cincinati and Philadelphia friends of their mistake in this matter.—Baltimore American.

SMART.—Butler never refers to newspaper abuse, that he does not wind up with the consoling remark: "They don't call me a fool." He is willing to be called thief, liar or coward, if they confess that he's "smart" No one denies his "smartness," but he would be even smarter even if he got his deserts.
