Mr. Edward Harchenhorn, engineer at the steam roller mill of Messrs. Roberts, Roop & Co., of this city, will remove to Baltimore, with his family, on Monday. He has secured a position as engineer in a large factory in that city.

The Western Maryland Railroad has filled up the unsightly mud holes on Oak avenue, between Main street and the freight depot, this city, and has given the surface of the avenue a coating of fine stone, thus greatly improving its appearance.

Mr. John Sellman, who purchased a brick house on Liberty street, this city, from the trustees who sold the real estate of the late Grove A. Shipley, is remodeling and repairing it and putting it in first-class condition preparatory to occupying it.

The Western Maryland Railroad Company will receive 20 new freight eggines in December. Eight of these engines will be used between Hagerstown and Baltimore, eight between Hagerstown and Cumberland, two on the Hanover Division and two as pushers.

The gunning season for rabbits, partridges &c. is on and the "cotton tails" in this county are being slaughtered in great numbers, some gunners getting as many as 30 in a single day. Partridges are not numerous and few have been shot. Rabbits sell for 15 to 20 cents apiece.

General Richard Thomas, of Easton, Md., by his will, left $1,000 to Easton Church; $1,000 to Wye Church, and after a few legacies, made the Superannuated Fund Society of the Maryland Conference, The Home for the Aged in this city, and the Westminster Theological Seminary his residuary legatees.

Last week's Reformed Church Messenger contained pictures of the clergymen of that denomination who are pastors of mission churches and among the number were those of Revs. D. Snyder Stephan, Albert C. Diffenbach and E. T. Rhodes, natives of this county.

A union service of the Methodist Protestant, Methodist Episcopal, Lutheran and Reformed Churches, of this city, will be held on Thanksgiving day in St. Paul's Reformed Church. The sermon on the occasion will be delivered by Rev. Harold M. Rider, of Centenary M. E. Church.

Messrs. S. S. Wilson and C. Fisher Wantz, of this city, returned on Saturday from a ten days' successful gunning expedition to North Carolina. They report that game is plenty in the regions which they visited and that they killed partridges and other birds, deer, raccoons and opossums. They brought with them a number of partridges.

A Hagerstown special dispatch to the Baltimore Evening News says: The Western Maryland Railroad Company is negotiating with real estate men here for a large number of houses sufficient, at least for the present, for homes for 60 families, which, it is reported, are to be removed from Union Bridge to Hagerstown. The heads of the families are all skilled employees of the Railroad's shops.

Mr. Francis G. Eppley, son of School Commissioner John B. Eppley, of Union Bridge, who for the past five years had been residing in Washington, D. C., has been appointed foreman of the machine shops of the G. W. Albaugh Company in Chicago and left for that city on Wednesday. He made many friends in Washington, who wish him success.

Burns Post Post No. 13, G. A. R., of this city, at its meeting last Saturday decided to have its annual oyster dinner at its next meeting, Saturday, December 8th, at which time officers for the ensuing year will be elected, and the post will be inspected by the department inspector. We are requested to say that the attendance of all members of the post on the occasion is earnestly desired.

Rev. Calvin S. Slagle, of St. Paul's Reformed Church, this city, exchanged pulpits last Sunday with Rev. James M. Mullan, of Baltimore, who preached in St. Paul's Church, morning and evening, on the subject Home Mission Work. He made a strong appeal for the support of the Church in Baltimore, of which he is pastor, and which is a mission. The collections at both services were of a substantial character.

On the 21st of July last, while living in this county, Lieut. Wm. B. Rowe, a retired officer of the Baltimore police, and his wife separated and now the husband sues Mr. Albert N. Horner, of Baltimore, for $100,000 for alienating his wife's affectionss. The suit was brought in the Court of Common Pleas on Monday. Mrs. Rowe's maiden name was Chew and she was married to Lieut. Rowe, December 25, 1905, at the home of her father on East Biddle street, Baltimore. She was arrested at the home of Mr. Horner last Saturday night for disturbing the peace, but was released upon a deposit of $100.45 collateral, for a hearing on Monday afternoon, but failed to appear. The deposit, which was made by Mr. Horner, was forfeited.

The Miller Bros. Co's. chrysanthemum exhibit this year is the finest they have ever shown. In the windows of the company's store, East Main street, near the railroad, this city, are many superb plants, while others, equally fine, are to be found in the stores. These elegant flowers are to be given away to customers of the company tomorrow.

The individual deposits subject to check, in the National Banks, of this city and New Windsor, at the close of business on the 12th inst., were: First National Bank of New Windsor, $88,016.96; Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Westminster, $165,368.03; Union National Bank of Westminster, $301,425.36; First National Bank of Westminster, $328,791.32. At the same time the deposits in the Westminster Deposit and Trust Company were $624,464.83, and in the Westminster Savings Bank $961,390.40.

The funeral of Mrs. Eva Grace Yingling, wife of Mr. Charles E. Yingling, of Baltimore, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Handley, of this city, which took place from Grace Lutheran Church on Saturday afternoon last, was very largely attended. A profusion of beautiful floral tributes marked the affection and regard in which the deceased was held by a large circle of friends. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Dr. P. H. Miller, and the pall-bearers were: Messrs. C. Carroll Henry, Wm. Black, J. Thomas Anders, J. Walter Grumbine, Wm. Utz and Harry Hoffacker. Interment was in Benjamin's Cemetery. Mr. F. C. Sharrer was funeral director.

The home of Mr. George P. Panebaker, of Bachman's Valley, was the scene of an unusually interesting barn-raising on Tuesday last. 100 of Mr. Panebaker's neighbors and friends assisted in raising the frame work of the large structure and it was put in place without any mishap. The new barn stands on the site of that recently destroyed by fire, and its dimensions are 80x47 feet. It is to be an up-to-date structure, with all necessary conveniences. A sumptuous and elegant dinner was served by Mrs. Panekaker, assisted by lady friends, to all who participated in the work, the labor of which was supplemented by a good social time and instead of a task proved a pleasure and recreation.

Although the authorities of this city are endeavoring to have the sidewalks improved there are still many pavements so uneven that numerous puddles of water stand along them for a time after every rain, to the great discomfort of pedestrians. That was the condition last Sunday night, when the writer saw a young lady unwittingly step into one of these puddles and splash the water over her clothing. Others doubtless had the same experience, as the puddles were so numerous as to make it almost impossible to avoid them entirely, even when exercising the greatest care. It is probably too late to mend matters much before the winter shall be over and gone, but the ordinances of the corporation on the subject should then be rigidly enforced and further legislation had, if necessary, to insure proper pavements.

Upon the information of Rev. Dr. James Frazer, president of New Windsor College, Police Justice Edwin W. Shriver, of this city, has issued a warrant for the arrest of a man who called himself A. M. Stone, for obtaining a check from the informant for $25, by false pretences. The story as related to us is, that Stone visited the college, of which he claimed to have been a former student, and expressed his intention to enter his son at the institution. He was genteel in appearance, plausible in manner and displayed so much knowledge of former events at the college and of citizens of New Windsor and vicinity, that he entirely won the confidence of Dr. Frazer and when he proposed to pay his son's expenses at the college with a check, which he drew for a sum $25 in excess thereof and requested the doctor's check for that amount in exchange, his request was readily granted. Dr. Frazer's check was promptly cashed, but Mr. Stone's to the doctor was returned dishonored. The warrant for Stone's arrest has not been served, as he has not been located.

Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. George Albert Chrest, of this city, the latter of whom was Miss Jane Fowble, celebrated their golden wedding, at their home on East Main street on Sunday last, by entertaining their sons and their wives, one daughter and her husband, and their grandchildren at a sumptuous and elegant dinner. It was a pleasant occasion, not only to the aged couple who had journeyed hand in hand down life's pathway for fifty years, but to their descendants who joined with them in celebrating their golden anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Chrest received a substantial token of the event in a present of a purse containing a handsome sum of money. One daughter, Mrs. Chas. E. Cootes, and her husband and children were unavoidably absent in consequence of the illness of Mr. Cootes. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Albert Chrest; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Chrest and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chrest and one son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chrest and four children, all of Woodberry; Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Chrest and four children, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Chrest and two children, Mr. and Mrs. James Massicott and three children, of this city.

Teachers' Institute.

The annual Teachers' Institute for this county will be held in the High School Building, this city, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 26, 27 and 28 inst., the days immediately preceding that of Thanksgiving. Dr. Simpson, the county superintendent, announces that "special instruction will be given in up to-date methods of governing and teaching a public school," and enjoins all teachers to attend regularly the several sessions of the institute, as required by law, as "in a general way, regularity of attendance and careful attention will mark the teachers who are most satisfactory and successful in school work."

The following persons will be the instructors: Dr. M. Bates Stephens, State Superintendent of Education, who will have charge of the institute; Dr. George W. Ward, principal of the State Normal School; Miss L. Tall, Baltimore Teachers' Training School; Miss Lelia E. Patridge, author of "Quincy Methods"; Miss Bell Upshur and Prof. Gibson, State Normal School; Prof. W. A. Garrison and Acting President W. R. McDaniel, Western Maryland College; visiting superintendents Geo. Biddle, of Cecil county, and H. Crawford Bounds, of Wicomico county. Two sessions will be held each day, beginning at 9 A. M. and 1.30 P. M.

An Anniversary Birthday Surprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Jones, Sr., of this city, were the subjects of a very happy surprise family reunion, at their home on Liberty street, on Monday evening. It was the occasion of the anniversary of Mr. Jones' 71st birthday, and was held as a celebration of that event. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Jones were aware of the design of their visitors until the arrival of the company, which consisted of the sons and daughters and their wives and husbands, respectively, and the grandchildren of the aged couple. During the evening Mr. Jones was presented with a very handsome Morris chair, which he accepted in a quiet but pleasant and appreciative manner. The ladies of the company went prepared with the means of providing an elegant supper, which consisted of oysters—fried, stewed and raw—chicken, meats, celery, fruits, &c., and of which all partook with keen appetites and enjoyment. The hour was late when the visitors left for their homes after having spent a very delightful evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Thos. S. Jones, Sr., Mrs. Lily M. Hooper, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Myerly, Mr. and Mrs John Brown, Mrs. Katie Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Jones, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. David F. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Ranoull, Mr. and Mrs. John Shuman, Misses Katie Myerly, Evalyn Jones, Agnes Jones, Mathis Jones, Ruth Jones, Ethel Ranoull, Elizabeth C. Hooper, Norah and Catharine Shuman, Mr. Harry Bond, Master Herman Jones and Mr. John H. Mitten, a neighbor.

WEDDING BELLS.

Maus-Carbaugh.

Miss Carrie Carbaugh, daughter of Mr. Edward Carbaugh, of Mayberry, and Mr. Charles H. Maus, of Tyrone, were married at the parsonage of the Lutheran Church, in Uniontown, on Sunday last, the pastor, Rev. G. W. Baughman, performing the ceremony. It was a quiet but very intesesting and pretty wedding, the young people being well known and popular. They have the best wishes of many friends for a long and prosperous life.

Seipp-Adams.

Miss Lillian Adams, daughter of Mr. Emory Adams, of Mount Airy, was married at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon to Mr. George Seipp at the home of Mr. John C. Woehike, 1136 Battery avenue, Baltimore, by Rev. Ernst Arning Von Hahmann. Mr. Herbert A. Adams, brother of the bride, was best man, and Miss Bertha Petri maid of honor. The bride wore a white lace gown over white silk and carried white chrysanthemums. Miss Petri wore Persian lawn and carried chrysanthemums. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Seipp left for a trip North, and on their return will live at 1932 Light street, Baltimore.

Shriver-Miller.

The Methodist Protestant Church of this city was the scene of one of the most interesting of recent weddings in this locality, at half after five o'clock, Wednesday afternoon. The contraction parties were Miss Cora Edith Miller and Mr. Edward Slingluff Shriver. The bride is the only daughter of Mr George A. Miller, the widely known chief deputy clerk of the Circuit Court for this county, and the groom is a son of Mrs. Clementine M., and the late D. Keener Shriver, of this city. The church was very handsomely decorated with palms, ferns and potted plants. The only attendants were the ushers—Messrs. D. Eltinge Shriver, of Baltimore, brother of the groom; Theodore Shilling, George R. Babylon, of Baltimore, and William D. Reese, of this city. The bride, who is tall and graceful, was handsonely gowned in a robe of venise lace, embroidered in roses and maiden hair fern, over white taffetta. The wedding marches were played by Miss Anna Elizabeth Shriver, sister of the groom, and the marriage ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. L. F. Warner.

On Tuesday evening the bride entertained the ushers and the families of herself and the groom. Among those present at the wedding from a distance were: Mrs. Julia A. Horner, of Baltimore, grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Goodwin, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Heiatzman, Mr. Herbert Heiatzman, Mr. and Mrs. D, Eltinge Shriver, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Babylon, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Dorsey, of Pittsburg, Pa; Mr. and Mrs. L. Wood Wingate, of Clarksburg, W Va.; Miss Grace Smith, of Wakefield; Mrs. Margaret Bush and family, of Reese, and others. The bridal presents have never been surpassed in number and beauty at any nuptial event in this county. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Shriver left by an evening train for a bridal trip to Philadelphia, Atlantic City and New York.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

J. A. Benedict.

Mr. J. A. Benedict, of Chambersburg, Pa., a former clerk of the Franklin county courts, died very suddenly at Union Bridge, on Friday last, in his 52nd year. He leaves a widow, two daughters and a son residing in Chambersburg.

Willard Melvin.

Mr. Willard Melvin, for many years one of the most prominent members of the M. P. Church at Chestertown, died on Saturday morning last. He was a brother of the late Rev. Dr. A. D. Melvin and closely related to Rev. Drs. Thos. H. Lewis and Walter R. Graham.

Wesley Koons.

Mr. Wesley Koons, a well known resident of Franklin county, Pa., died at the home of his son, George A. Koons, in that county, a few days ago, in his 79th year. He was born near Double Pipe Creek, in Frederick county, but removed to Pennsylvania in early life. He leaves a number of relatives in this county.

Albert Robert Blasse.

Mr. Albert Robert Blasse, who upwards of 30 years ago conducted a bakery, a confectionery store and ice cream parlor in this city, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Josiah Ford, in Frostburg, last week, aged about 80 years. Mrs. Ford and one son, Charles Blasse, of Chicago, survive him.

George F. Wheeler, Sr.

Mr. George F. Wheeler, Sr., who was bailiff in the Orphans' Court at Towson, Baltimore county, for 20 years, died at his home at Towson at 11.15 P. M. Sunday. Mr. Wheeler was a brother of the late F. I. Wheeler, who kept the old Westminster City Hotel, Main and Court streets, this city, more than thirty years ago and was widely known in this county.

Samuel Ott.

Mr. Samuel Ott, a well known Frederick county farmer, died suddenly at his home, near Emmitsburg, on Wednesday week. Mr. Ott was 71 years of age, was butchering, and had just killed a hog, when he was taken ill, and died in a few minutes. He leaves a widow and two children. Many of his relatives reside in Taneytown district, this county, where he was well known.

John Henry Deeds.

Mr. John Henry Deeds, a well known Washington county farmer, died at the home of his son, William Bruce Deeds, of Clearspring, on Saturday, aged 83 years, 8 months, 15 days. He was a native of Frederick county. He was twice married and his second wife died about 30 years ago. He leaves two children by his first wife—Mr. John E. Deeds, of this city, and Mrs. Samuel Glover, near Shipley; also two sons by his second wife—Wm. Bruce, at whose home he died, and John H., of Philadelphia.

Gloyd E. Eckenrode.

Mr. Gloyd E. Eckenrode, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Eckenrode, of this city, died very suddenly, at the home of his parents, on George street, shortly before noon yesterday. He had been suffering with pulmonary trouble since last spring, but was able to be about and his death was entirely unexpected. He started to carry food to the fowls at the chicken-yard, but, when half-way to it, retraced his steps to the house and died of a hemorrhage, in the presence of his mother, in a few minutes. He was nearly nineteen years old and was an exemplary young man. His funeral will take place tomorrow morning from St. John's Catholic Church, of which he was a member.

Edward Benton Fisher.

Mr. Edward Benton Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel Fisher, of this city, was run over by an engine at Hagerstown on Wednesday and instantly killed. His head was severed from his body, his arms and breast were crushed, exposing his lungs, and one leg was cut off. Mr. Fisher was a brakeman on the Western Maryland Railroad and was on his way to the train dispatcher's office in Hagerstown, when the accident occurred. One account says he was struck by the engine at a sharp curve, but another report is that he was attempting to board it, missed his footing and fell under the wheels. He was 36 years old and leaves a widow and two children. His father and mother and four brothers—Messrs. Charles, George, Albert and Aaron Fisher—reside in this city, and one brother—Mr. Frank Fisher—in the West. His father has been for many years head miller in the steam roller mill of Messrs. Roberts, Roop & Co., and is one of the worthiest and most highly esteemed residents of this city. It is said that the deceased recently told a friend that he had decided to quit railroading, on account of the dangerous character of the work, and expected to remove to this city and assist his father in the mill.

Daniel H. Lynn.

Mr. Daniel H. Lynn, formerly of Middleburg, died at an early hour on Saturday morning at the home of his son, Charles H. Lynn, 550 West Washington street, Hagerstown, of Bright's disease, aged 60 years, 7 months, 22 days. Mr. Lynn, who was formerly engaged in the manufacturing business, went to Hagerstown a week before his death and intended making his home with his son. He was a member of a Lutheran Church in Baltimore, and is survived by the following children: Charles Orville and Arthur Lynn, Hagerstown; Mrs. Cora Hamberger and Leonard Lynn, Baltimore; Mrs. Daniel Stuptner, Elk Ridge, Va.; Mrs. Ackler, wife of Rev. Mr. Ackler, living in Pennsylvania; Edward Lynn, residing in the Far West. He was a son of the late Joseph Lynn, of Middleburg. His remains were taken to Middleburg, where funeral services were held in the M. E. Church, on Monday.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. Entertainment.

Western Maryland Council of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, of this city, entertained the ladies in their lodge room in Odd Fellows' Hall, Wednesday evening. After the opening exercises the regular proceedings of the order were gone through rapidly, to show the ladies just what they did, but no initiations were given, to the disappointment of the ladies.

Mr. Claude Smith then spoke on "What the Order Stands For." He said it stands for patriotism, an order for native Americans only, the flag over every schoolhouse and the Bible within each school.

Mr. Eli Butler spoke of the history of the order, its growth, fraternal spirit, benefits, and the Orphans' Home in Ohio, kept up by the order for the orphans of Juniors, three hundred children being now cared for.

Mr. William Warder then spoke of the real purpose of inviting the ladies to be present, to get their good opinion so that they would exert their influence for the good of the order.

The Westminster Orchestra interspersed the speaking with well-chosen and well-rendered selections, and Helen Little, the young daughter of Mr. Edward Little, delighted the audience with a recitation and responded to two encores in her charming way.

After the closing service all descended to the room below, where a sumptuous supper was served, which the large company thoroughly enjoyed.

The evening's pleasure was completed by vocal solos by Miss Cleavie Henry, who captivated her audience with her full, rich, well-trained contralto voice.

Melrose Items.

The corn crop is an immense one. Mr. Charles Tracey, farmer for Mr. P. J. Geiman, husked 350 bushels from 21 acres. We would be pleased to hear of a larger yield.

Proceedings of the Circuit Court.

The November term of the Circuit Court for Carroll county began on Monday, 12th inst., with Associate Judge William H. Thomas on the bench. Henry H. Spahr was appointed bailiff to the grand jury, Benjamin Bachman bailiff to the petit jury, Noah Stonesifer and Charles W. Brown, bailiffs at the gates. The vacancy in the office of messenger, caused by the appointment of Mr. Orlando Reese to a clerkship in the office of the Register of Wills, was filled by the appointment of Clarence Carroll Henry, of this city.

Dr. Thomas K. Shaw was designated as foreman of the grand jury, the remaining members of which were then drawn, as follows: Orestes Feeser, John H. Allgire, Andrew P. Albaugh, John T. Close, Abraham S. R. Danner, Hezekiah Study, Earnest Wolf, John E. Yingling, Wm. G. Fair, Edward L. Haines, Otis B. Buckingham, Jacob H. Marker, Daniel E. Shriver, John C. McKinney, John L. Hoffman, William E. Little, Calvin P. Snyder, Walter W. Ritter, William R. Westaway, Leonard T. Kopp, Benjamin F. Stansbury, William E. Sanders.

The petit jurors for the term are: Charles H. Sittig, Samuel H. Spangler, Erwin Warehime, John Howell Davis, George W. Zepp, James W. Buckingham, Thomas O. Mallonee, James C. Hewitt, Simon G. Shultz, Noah T Hosfelt, Edward Albaugh, Ephraim Bachman, Morris Mitten, James Robertson, William D. Butler, Martin L. Lantz, Cornelius Lippy, Benjamin F. Hooper, John L. Williams, Charles M. Devilbiss, John E. Buffington, Jesse L. Franklin, Millard F. Hann, Orlando Scott Clemson, David W. Smith.

In charging the grand jury Judge Thomas emphasized the importance of keeping the proceedings of the grand jury room entirely secret and inviolable, but made no special recommendation except such as the law requires.

The dockets containing trial and appeal cases were called and assignments made.

The following cases have been disposed of up to the close of this report.

Don't fail to look at these special offerings. A look costs you nothing and it may save you a dollar. We spend good money to tell you about these bargains. Be sure we would not do it if we did not know we had something really good. We cannot afford to deceive you even if we wanted to. We are here to stay and you would find us out in no time if we told an untruth. When we say an article is worth so much we mean we can prove it and if we offer to sell it for less, it means that you can save just that amount if you purchase from us.

No other store in the county offers so many specials as we do. We are always watching the market and wholesalers and manufacturers come to us with special things that they are anxious to sell because they know we can use the quantity and that we have the cash to buy, if the price is right. You make an awful mistake if you fail to take advantage of these specials. Others are taking them up and saving money and you should have your share. There are special bargains in this circular for everybody in the house, men, women and children. We want you to compare our prices with those of other houses. They will always be found the lowest. No matter where those houses are located, whether in Westminster, New York or Chicago, we know that we can sell you in every case as cheap or cheaper, that we can give you as good goods or better. In most cases we do give you better goods and we do sell you cheaper. If you doubt this it is only necessary to compare our goods and our prices with those of other houses to prove the fact to yourself beyond a shadow of doubt.

T. W. MATHER & SONS, WESTMINSTER and MANCHESTER.

Manchester Items.

The members of Trinity Reformed congregation of this place will hold a festival, waffle and chicken supper in the parsonage, Thanksgiving evening, 29th inst., for the benefit of the parsonage fund. A committee has been appointed to make the affair a grand social event. The house will be fitted up for the comfort and pleasure of the guests while the culinary department will furnish a supper to meet the appetite of the most fastidious.

The members of the Sunshine Circle enjoyed a pleasant time at the home of Mrs. W. L. F. Bergman, on Oak Tree avenue, on Wednesday evening, in their work of charity. Dolls were dressed, children's underwear made and full arrangements perfected to gladden the hearts of the poor during the advent season.

Mrs. Cornelius Miller entertained the members of the Sewing Circle at her home on South Main street, on Thursday evening, 8th inst. Although all were full of sympathy for the hostess, who had the mishap in the early evening to fall down a flight of steps leading to the cellar, willing hands and cheerful hearts made the affair a success and did much to better the shock experienced by the unfortunate lady. Miss Lizzie Trump had entertained the circle on the 2nd inst.

The members of the Manchester Reformed charge will have the pleasure of hearing Rev. Hiram J. Hillegass, of Shrewsbury, Pa., on Sunday, 25th inst., at 10 A. M. He will preach in Trinity church of this place, and at 2 P. M., in the Lineboro church.

Saturday last having been the opening of the gunning season every blunderbuss as well as the latest gun was called into play and from the first peep of day until dark there was a regular fusilade in all direction and the Johnnies were made to hop as never before. In the evening at all public places the talk was rabbit by one and all as the different experiences of the gunners were given in. The reports recorded that two parties east of town killed 23. One man shot eight in one field before leaving it, while others were shooting all day and came home empty-handed. Our marketman, Mr. John Burns, got 250 rabbits in his gathering on Tuesday.

The remains of the fourteen-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lippy, two miles west of town, were laid away to rest on Saturday in a family lot here, Rev. H. H. Flick officiating.

Mrs. Hezekiah Shultz and son, of Baltimore, spent a week with Mrs. S's. sister, Mrs. J. W. Hoffacker, and during her stay made a miraculous escape from serious injury, having fallen down a stairway. She was very much shocked by the fall but escaped with several bad bruises on her back and shoulder.

General sympathy has gone out to Mr. Cleveland Myers, a worthy young man of our town, who eight months ago was united in holy wedlock to Miss Sadie Grof, and who at this writing is seriously ill with pulmonary trouble which has made rapid inroads upon his system.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hoffman, of Baltimore, spent some days here, including Sunday, with their niece, Mrs. William E. Sharrer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brighthaupt have closed their Germantown home and gone to Baltimore to make their home with their son George. Mrs. B's. health has been quite bad for a year or more.

Miss Nan Stonesifer, of Hanover, spent several days here with her sister, Mrs. C. D. Lippy, and circulated among old friends.

Mr. William S. Hoffman entertained his cousin, Mr. Will Hoffman, of Baltimore, on Sunday last.

The members of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., appointed a committee at their meeting on Tuesday evening last to arrange for a social to be given in the hall on Friday evening, 23rd inst.

We are glad to learn that the Rev. S. M. Roeder and family were warmly received in their new home. The ladies of the Aid Society were at the home to receive them and had in preparation a royal Pennsylvania dinner for all. The teams were nicely cared for with plenty of help to do the laboring work of unloading, &c. They found the coal bin had part of its winter's supply while the garner was not forgotten. Rev. Roeder was installed on Thursday evening last.

New Windsor Items.

Mrs. W. Cora Stouffer had her fall opening at her green house on Saturday last. A goodly number was present and the flowers and refreshments were up to the standard.

Earl Lantz, son of Mr. Jno. L. Lantz, came very near being asphyxiated on Wednesday morning by coal gas from a fire place heater.

Mrs. D. P. Smelser and grandson Paul attended a wedding at Hancock, on Wednesday.

On Sunday, 25th inst., Rev. Dr. Frazer, of the Presbyterian Church, will preach a sermon to the Jr. O. U. A. M.

Lantz Bros. shipped 59 dozen of chickens to Baltimore this week.

Herbert Roop, son of Mr. Jno. H. Roop, is critically ill, with a complication of diseases, at this writing.

Miss Bessie Foard, of the college, went to Hancock to attend the wedding of a friend and to play the wedding march.

Mrs. Gus. Barnes, near town, entertained a number of ladies at dinner on Thursday.

On Saturday evening last a number of buggies on the street were robbed. Also Barnes & Snader's store. The articles taken from the buggies were found on Monday at the home of a man named Wetzel.

For the Sentinel.

"A Loyal Friend.

A comedy drama, entitled "A Loyal Friend," was presented at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Tuesday night, by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor of the Methodist Protestant Church, and was witnessed by a large and appreciative audience. The cast of characters had been carefully chosen, and all are worthy of especial mention. The society used these means to raise money to contribute to the embellishment of the Chapel at the Westminster Theological Seminary. Between the acts the audience was highly entertained by an orchestra, led by Miss Test Buckingham, and duets by Misses Helen Armacost and Elizabeth Slagle.

The cast of characters was as follows: Royal Playford, everybody's friend, Dr. Jas. E. Shreeve; Gilbert Fanshaw, a newspaper man, T. W. Mather, Jr.; Raymon Alverez, a Spanish diplomat, Guy L. Fowler; O'Kelley, "wan o' the ould sod," Geo. H. Armacost; Nubbins, the baker's boy, Edwin Gehr; Monte, Alverez's servant, Frank W. Mather; Arthur Fanshaw, Gilbert's son, Paul Warner; Mrs. Milly Merryman, a jolly young widow, Miss Bessie Armacost; Sylvia Fanshaw, her sister, Miss Bessie Roberts; Mrs. Griggins, (afterwards O'Keley) "a widdy," Miss Nellie Schaeffer.

[There is but one opinion among those who heard this play and that is that it was the most entertaining and best performed play ever presented by local talent in this city. All the characters, it is conceded, were remarkably true to life, as presented, and the performers are praised without stint by the audience. It has been suggested that they give the play in some of the larger towns of the county, and if they consent to do so will give the citizens of such places an opportunity to attend a rare entertainment.—ED.]

The Young Men's Christian Association of Baltimore has just raised $511,477 for the erection of a new building for its uses in that city. Of the fund $50,000 was subscribed upon the condition that the sum of $500,000 be raised by midnight of the 13th inst. The work to accomplish this result was stupendous, but was cheerfully performed by prominent citizens and numbers of young men in the city. Among the contributors were Robert Garrett, lately the candidate of the Republican party for Congress in this district, and his brother, John W. Garrett, each of whom subscribed $10,000. Among the young men who were most successful in securing subscriptions, was Mr. Wm. G. Baker, a graduate of Western Maryland College. Mr. Baker was one of the chairman of a committee appointed to solicit contributions. There were ten of those chairmen and Mr. Baker turned in the largest total of any, $27,486, the next highest being $20,004. Mr. Daniel Baker, who is well known in this city, contributed $6,000 to the fund, all of which was raised in Baltimore. The new building will be erected at the northeast corner of Franklin and Cathedral streets.
