A HEAD IN A TEA CHEST—A HORRIBLE DISCOVERY.—The Chicago Evening Post says that the rejoicing over the fact that a short avenue had been opened to the "Celestial Empire," by which its fruits could be transported to this country, had scarcely subsided before the horrible discovery is made that this grand consummation is made a means by which the evidence of the worst crimes can be securely hidden.—An instance in point has just come to light:

Recently the proprietor of a restaurant opened a chest of tea fresh from China, from which emanted a peculiar though not unpleasant odor. The proprietor thinking the tea might be musty concluded to empty it upon a paper, and on doing so out rolled the head of a Mongolian! The head had been cut off close to the chin, having none of the neck with it, and was as smoothly cut as could be. It was much withered, and smaller in size than an ordinary Chinaman's head, and possessed all the peculiarities of the race—high cheek bones, thin nose, and "pig eyes," the latter being deeply sunken into the head. The mouth was partially open, inclosing a set of partially decayed teeth. "The "cue" behind had also been cut off, probably as a mark of contempt to the wearer. Of course the observers were horrified, and knew not for a time what to do. The proprietor wrapped the ghastly object in a paper, and has it now, though he does not know what he will do with it.

THE entrance of the Emperor of Austria into Jerusalem was highly solemn; he having visited that city after the opening of the Suez canal. A little distance from the city the cavalcade halted, tents were put up, and the Emperor assumed the grand uniform of Marshal, with the broad ribbon and collar of the Order of St. Stephen. All his suit put themselves into full parade uniform. Then they mounted and rode toward the city. On the first hill a deputation of Hungarian Jews awaited his Majesty. Then deputation after deputation welcomed him, thousands of people lined the road, endless cheers arose, and under the first triumphal arch the clergy received him. As he entered the city he dismounted, and, like Godfrey de Bouillon, kissed the ground where the Saviour's footsteps had fallen. He was afterwards taken into the Church of the Holy Sepulchre.

FLORIDA TOBACCO.—Florida tobacco is quoted in the market as one of the choicest and most valued kinds. The quality of tobacco depends almost wholly on a peculiar soil and climate. In Cuba, where the most and best tobacco is grown, the choicest varieties are confined to a limited locality, a small valley, on the south side of the island.—While tobacco can be grown in any section of Florida, yet, the small county of Gadsden is, at present, the only place where choice Cuba tobacco is grown.—A mile or two on each side of this contracted belt the tobacco is inferior.—Gadsden county tobacco is fully equal to the best Cuba tobacco and commands a high price in home and foreign markets, being used for the best cigars.

The Sparta (Wis.) Eagle has the following: "A remarkable case of the power of emotions upon the physicial system has lately been brought to our notice. Sometime last fall, a girl residing in the family of Mr. D. H. Smith, the well-known reaper man, in a violent fit of anger suddenly lost her voice, and for months was totally unable to speak a word. Several physicians were called in, but their remedies were in vain, and the case was pronounced hopeless. Recently during the absence of the entire family, except the girl, the house took fire, doing damage to prehaps the extent of a hundred dollars. The girl was naturally much alarmed and excited, but since that time she has recovered her voice, and to day speaks as fluently and readily as ever.

The cold weather in Russia in the beginning of February is reported to have been intense, and such as had never been observed within the memory of the oldest inhabitant. On February 1st, the thermometer stood at 34½ degrees below zero. At Lemburg and Cracow, in 50 degrees north latitude (that of Brussels), the mercury stood at 17½ degrees and 24½ degrees below zero. A number of deaths from congestion of the brain, caused by intense cold, have been reported. The deaths of several senturies, frozen at their posts, have also been announced.

An enterprising but aparently impecunious inventor of a patent coffin sends us a description of his invention with the modest request that we should advertise gartuitously. If he had not been too poor or too mean, he would have probably sent us one for our personal use, with a request for a certificate of its comfort and durability. We recomend him to die and get buired in one himself immediately. A man who does not know enough to pay for adversing an article he wants to sell does not know enough to make an honest living.—N. Y. Sun.

The Gipsies in the Hop-Garden in Pesth have a curious way of looking after the honesty of their money collector. The person intrusted with the mission of taking the hat round among the crowd has a living fly put in his left hand while he holds the hat with his right. When he returns with the funds he must bring the fly back alive, as a sign that he has not taken any of the money from the common property, but if the fly be wanting, or even dead, he does not get his share of the money.

It is stated that the negroes of the districts lately reptesented in congress by Dewees and Whittemore, will nominate and elect a candidate of their own color as successors of those carpet-baggers, respectively, with the understanding that the cadetship question in each case is to be settled by the appointment of two negro boys to West Point and Annapolis.

Mr. Dalton, of England, has, by careful examinatin, shows that where there is mellow soil three feet under any crop, it can defy the weather and come to maturity without a drop of rain after the 1st of June. This shows that successful tillrge husbandry on arid plains of the Far West depends wholly on deep ploughing.

A young lad recently ran away from home, and went to a tavern where he was found by a friend, with a cigar in his mouth. "What made you leave home?" said the friend. "Oh, confound it," said he, "father and mother were so saucey that I couldn't stand it any longer—so I quit 'em."

The farmers who stints his fields is as unwise and improvident as he who starves his working cattle—in both caces he diminishing the ability of a faithful servant to be useful to him.

"Well, Sniffles, have yon posted the ledger?" New Clerk—"Yeth, thir! I've posted the ledger; but, thir, it wath too big for the letter boxth and I had to take it intide the posth offith!"

CLEANSING THE BLOOD.

The long and favorably known Preparation of Drs. D. FAHRNEY & SON, for cleansing the Blood, needs at this day no recommendation at our hands, its virtues having been established by the thousands of cases where it has given relief in the

during the last sixty years. So highly indeed is it esteemed, that the demand is constantly increasing not only at home, but we are daily receiving applications for it from the most remote sections of the country—North, East, South and West. To meet this demand, as well as to prevent the public from being imposed upon, we have determined to put this Preparation in such a form that it may be within reach of everybody everywhere.

Other Preparations, far inferior to the genuine, having been put out by certain parties, have been mistaken by some for our own, and as a matter of course the old Preparation of D. Fahrney & Son has been made to suffer some in reputation; theteforo, to prevent this mistake, as well as to meet the increasing demand mentioned above, we have concluded to send the medicine out in liquid form. Not recommending it to cure all diseases the human body is heir to, but as a Family Medicine, and for all diseases originating from Impure Blood and Disordered Liver, it has no equal; and will cure the following diseases:

Scrofula, Cutaneous Diseases, Erysipelas, Boils, Sore Eyes, Scald Head, Pimples on the Face, Tetter Affections, Old and Stubborn Ulcers, Rheumatic Affections, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Sickheadache, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, General Debility, Mercurial Diseases, Foul Stomach, together with all other Disorders arising from Impure Blood and Disordered Liver, &c., &c.

Prepared by Drs. D. Fahrney & Son, Boonsboro', Md., and Dr. P. D. Fahrney, Keedysville, Md. Sold by all Druggists and Merchant generally. All genuine is signed thus: D. FAHRNEY & SON.

☞ Be sure and call for Drs. D. Fahrney & Son.
