

January Clean Up Sale

We are taking stock and find lots of SHOES that must go, it will pay you to look them over, our loss, but your gain.

Bargains in all departments.

J. Thomas Anders

22 West Main St., Westminster, Md.

Saturday, January 30

BEGINS THE BIGGEST GENUINE REDUCTION SALE OF GOOD CLOTHES

300 Suits, 100 Overcoats

IN THIS SALE.

This is a real opportunity to buy clothes of quality and reliable make for men and boys at wonderful money saving prices.

50 BOYS' OVERCOATS AT SPECIAL LOW PRICES.

Sharrer, Gorsuch & Starr

Carroll County's Big And Only Exclusive Clothing Store.

Subscribe To The Sentinel

The oldest and most reliable Republican paper in Carroll county, now in its 92nd. year.

If you desire good job printing consult the Sentinel job printing department, before going elsewhere.

Best material and good workmanship are what counts. Prices very reasonable.

Linotype composition executed on short notice and satisfaction guaranteed.

The American Sentinel Company.

SANDYVILLE

Sunday school this Sunday morning at 9.30, C. E. at 7.30, which will be led by Fred Fleming.

The Mite Society will meet in the basement of the Church next Thursday afternoon, February 4, at 1 o'clock. The ladies have some sewing and important business, members requested to be present.

Mrs. Annie Tanner sold a calf last week to Guy W. Caple, which was four weeks and four days old, weighing 205 lbs. from a Holstein cow, receiving thirty dollars for same. Who can beat it?

Miss Myrle Ogg spent a month with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson.

Mrs. T. O. Shipley spent several days last week with her son, Walter Shipley and family, Westminster.

Mrs. Annie Flater, who has been in bed nine weeks with rheumatism, is still confined to the house.

Mr. Nelson Yingling has been appointed chief judge of the Orphans' Court to succeed the late Judge Haines and resumed his duties this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertrant Caple attended the funeral of Mrs. Frank Raver on Monday at Emory.

UNIONTOWN

Mrs. Harry Fowler is spending the week in Baltimore.

The Church of God here presented their pastor the Rev. J. H. Hoch, with a fine donation on Tuesday evening.

Charles Fritz, Bailey Fleagle and Harold Smelser motored to Baltimore on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hiteshew and daughter Miss Catherine spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Snader Devilbiss.

Rev. J. H. Hoch, G. W. Slonaker, Claude Reifsnider and Shreeve Shriner motored to Harrisburg on Monday and attended a Bible conference at the Baptist Church conducted by Dr. McFarland, of Ontario, Canada. They also visited at the Capitol and took in some of the doings of the legislature which is in session there.

Brooke Cover, Lowell, Mass., spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cookson.

Mrs. John Blacksten, John Poole and daughter Helen, Walkersville, spent Sunday with Mrs. Fannie Haines.

The following are the burials of the three cemeteries of the town for 1925: Lutheran: Henry Gobright, Charles Crabbs, June 3; Church of God: Cashman infant, February 13, Mary R. Heltibridle, April 17, Frances Anna Haines Miller, June 15, Mary Alice Gilbert, August 4, Ezra Fleagle, October 9, Clara Rebecca Talbott, October 15, Mary L. Sensney; Methodist Protestant: Miss Annie Hoyt, January 16, Mrs. Marshall Shaw, March 14, Mrs. Anne Stultz, March 29, Miss Ella W. Smith, April 29, Mrs. Edgar Selby, July 5, Miss Mollie Williams, October 26.

The funeral of John Hesson was held from the home of his son Wm. Hesson near New Windsor, on Tuesday afternoon. Jesse P. Garner, Elder W. P. Englar and the Rev. Paul Yoder, officiating. The pallbearers were Charles Waltz, Charles Fritz, Theodore Haines, Joseph Dayhoff, Reverdy Beard, and B. L. Cookson. Burial was made in Pipe Creek cemetery. The I. O. M. lodge of Uniontown, of which the deceased was a member, had charge of the services at the grave. L. H. Weimer, New Windsor was the director in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marker, of Frizellburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson.

UNION MILLS

The late Cardinal Mercier, who died in Brussels, Belgium, last Saturday, when on a visit to the United States, in 1919, addressed a large meeting held in his honor in the Westminster Armory on September 13, of that year. Cardinal Mercier on his trip to Carroll county was accompanied by the late Cardinal Gibbons, and the address of welcome was delivered at the meeting by the late William H. Thomas, Chief Judge of the Carroll County Court. Preceding the meeting the two Cardinals, with a number of other guests, were entertained at a luncheon tendered them by Miss Mary O. Shriver, Union Mills, at whose home Cardinal Gibbons had been a frequent visitor. An impromptu reception followed the luncheon, which was attended by callers from Baltimore, Westminster, Hanover, Littlestown, Union Mills and other places. Your correspondent was among those who paid his respects to the distinguished visitor. Being an amateur with the camera he requested Cardinal Mercier to pose for him. The request was cheerfully and willingly granted, with the result that two splendid and highly prized pictures of his Eminence were secured. One of them shows his tall and commanding figure richly garbed in the robes of his high office.

The stock and farming implements of the late John H. Bemiller were sold at public sale last Saturday. Good prices were obtained for most of the articles. The farm, containing 43 acres, was also offered, but was withdrawn at a bid of $3,600.

A supper will be held in the social room of the Reformed church, Silver Run, on the evenings of February 4 and 5, for the members of the congregation.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Mr. Clarence Welk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Welk was taken to the Maryland General hospital, Baltimore, where he was operated upon for appendicitis. He had a visit on Saturday from his mother and two sisters, Mrs. John Senft and daughter Annie. They found him resting very comfortable and in good spirits. On Tuesday he was sent a post card shower from the Sunday school as is the custom when one of its members is sick.

Messrs. A. Daniel Leister, Nevin W. Crouse and J. Elmer Myers are attending the canners convention at Louisville, Kentucky.

Mrs. Esther K. Brown attended the principals' meeting on Monday which was held at Towson for three counties, Baltimore, Howard and Carroll.

On last Thursday evening, before Prof. Lyman Earhart left the school house, the high school scholars gave him a lively serenading. The professor was busy at his desk, and not thinking what was coming, was badly frightened, which made him very nervous for the balance of the evening, as he was married at 7:30.

The January meeting of the Homemakers' Club was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Kain. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Vernon Smith. In the absence of Miss Cobb, Mrs. Kain took charge of the meeting and gave a report of the last meeting, of some of the labor saving devices, and how to improve our homes. She also showed some beautiful rugs she had made from old carpets which she had stored away on the attic and any one interested in the work can get the man's address who made them by calling on Mrs. Kain. Officers for one year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Vernon Smith; vice-president, Mrs. Upton E. Myers; secretaries, Mrs. Edward Black and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig; treasurer, Mrs. Claude Myers; sewing committee, Mrs. Edward J. Myers and Mrs. Charles Geiman; millinery, Mrs. Claude Myers and Mrs. Frank Kain; program, Mrs. Charles E. Eckard and Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig; cooking, Mrs. Edward Black and Mrs. William Steele; social, Mrs. Edward M. Hahn and Mrs. Thomas Myers. The treasurer has recently paid to the following: To Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Myers for furniture and clothing which were damaged by fire, $10.00; to state road, $5.00; to the Union Aid Society for dishes, $5.00; to P. O. S. of A. band for uniforms, $5.00; the treasurer reports a balance of $54.77, which will be used to make a cement walk from the church to the High school, as soon as the weather will permit. The work and meeting places have been outlined for the next six months as follows: February 17th, at the home of Mrs. Edw. J. Myers, sewing, March 17, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Geiman, millinery; April 21, at the home of Mrs. Geary Angell, gardening; May 19, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Black, making and baking bread, at which time the Universal Bread mixer will be demonstrated; June, at the home of Mrs. Gertie Myers, sewing; July, at the home of Mrs. Ernest D. Myers, sewing. Those present at the meeting were Mrs. Gertie Smith, Mrs. Frank Kain, Mrs. Elmer F. Kindig, Mrs. William Steele, Mrs. Herbert Bollinger, Mrs. Edward J. Myers, Mrs. Geary Angell, Mrs. Charles Geiman, Mrs. Claude Myers, Mrs. Upton E. Myers, Mrs. Charles E. Eckard, Helen Angell, Gloria Angell and Stewart Steele. Refreshments were served. All who are interested please observe the above dates and places of meeting.

Mrs. Norman Myers and Miss Bessie Zile, Frizellburg, spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Yingling.

Mrs. Hollie Myers who spent two weeks in Littlestown, returned to her home on Friday evening.

On last Wednesday creamed chicken, waffles and cocoa were served at the high school for lunch. Several of the patrons hearing of this grasped the opportunity, and to say they enjoyed the lunch, is putting it mildly.

The high school play, "College Town," is being rehearsed daily, and promises to be an excellent play.

Miss Patricia Kain, who was confined to bed suffering from tonsilitis, is downstairs again.

Others on the sick list are Mrs. Vernon Black and Frederick Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Myers and family, Frizellburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Yingling. Mr. Stevenson Yingling, Baltimore, also spent Saturday evening and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Yingling.

Mr. George F. Heltibridle, Northern Carroll, and Mrs. Charles E. Eckard, spent Saturday evening with their mother, Mrs. A. F. Heltibridle, near Mayberry.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brown entertained on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shettle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Logue, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Warehime and son Hober, Paul Brown and Paul Humbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Logue entertained on Sunday evening Miss Anna Grace Brown, Paul Humbert, Robert, George, Luther, Norman and Stewart Brown.

Sunday, January 31, the Rev. A. G. Wolf will celebrate mid-winter communion at 10 A. M. Preparatory services preceeding the communion services. Sunday school at 9:00. Y. P. S. in the evening at 7:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kain have installed a radio in their home.

Mr. Upton E. Myers' new house on High street is under roof, and presents a fine appearance.

We are having cold weather again as the thermometer was down to the zero mark on Wednesday morning.

PLEASANT GROVE & REESE

Sunday school at 9.30 and preaching by pastor at 10.30 A. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fowler wish to thank the friends of the vicinity, her former home, for the courtesy and sympathy shown them in many ways during their recent sorrow.

Mrs. Paul Winemiller and children, of Baltimore, are spending some time with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gelman.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mann, of Patapsco, visited the home of Mr. Herb Myerly this week.

Mr. Covert Craft visited his sister, Mrs. Wilson, on Tuesday, who is in a Baltimore hospital for treatment.

Mr. Alfred Ward who has been sick for some time does not improve very much and remains in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Magin returned home on Sunday after visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. John Menchey, of Baltimore for a few days. This week they are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wewrich, of Windsor Hills, Baltimore.

STONE CHAPEL

Sunday school 10.30 A. M.

Mrs. Maggie A. Poole is quite sick and is under the care of Dr. Luther Bare.

A number of people are sick with colds and grip.

We have had so many days of fog and unsettled weather, but today sunshine and cool, hope the germs will be killed.

M. Alice Duvall is over the measles and will soon go out. She is anxious to be in school.

Our teacher attended the teachers conference which was held at Graceland school, Westminster, January 28.

The pupils are looking forward to their first examination this year, 3rd, 4th, and 5th of February, many little hearts will quake in fear, smile and do the best you can.

The roads are better.

Ernest S. Duvall bought the farm of the late J. Washington Robertson.

Maurice Bankard and family were Sunday guests of E. A. Zile.

Mr. Thomas Cushing had as his guests on Sunday his sisters and several friends from Baltimore.

Some kicking about the terms of the tax reduction law, but that may be more from habit than because they are really against it.

Many men can't remember to take off their hats to the Star Spangled banner, but they will not forget to do so if their team wins a baseball pennant.

SALEM

Those who called on Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Muller were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Porter, near Bloom, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Muller and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bloom and son Raymond called on Mr. and Mrs. George Bowers.

There will be a great change around this section in the spring. We are sorry to lose some of our old neighbors and friends that have been living around here for a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. William Buckingham spent Sunday with relatives in Woodbine.

Miss Mary Carr, of Cover's Corner, entertained several young ladies of Salem with some fine music.

Those who called on Miss Josephine Frizell were Fay Koontz, James Williams, and others.

Those who called on Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kiler were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Owings and son Sterling, Misses May Smith, Mary Carr, and others.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolf and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoff.

Those who called on Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grimes were Mr. and Mrs. Roland Grimes and son Gernell, Miss Leona Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Aldridge and two sons, Norman and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grimes and son William, and Hattie Aldridge.

Mr. Ruby Williams called on Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Porter, near Bloom.

Those who called on Miss Mary Carr, of Cover's Corner were Misses Gloria Jordan, Esther Grimes, Evelyn Reaver, Marybell Grimes, Katherine Reaver, Katherine Flickinger, Rosie Buckingham, Cecy Wolf, Evelyn Niner, Thelma Flickinger, Mildred Burns and Alice Jordan.

Mr. Arthur Abell called on some of his friends, near here.

Several of the young people of Pasadena avenue, Cover's Corner and Happy Hill took a fine trip.

Messrs. Peter Wolf and Chester Buckingham called on Mr. Charles Carr.

Mr. Walter Duvall, of near here, has purchased the farm of the late J. Washington Robertson, in Warfieldsburg, where he will move in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reaver had as their guests Mrs. John Haines and daughter, Nellie, Gladys and Edith Haines.

Misses Thelma Flickinger and Katherine Flickinger called on Miss Evelyn Reaver.

Mr. Francis Muller called on his sister, Mrs. Minnie Porter.

We had some very cold weather last Friday and people did not get far from the stove. One man said his boots were frozen and it took him a whole day to melt the ice out of them.

Mr. Charles Frizzell turned one of his horses out to water last Saturday and it fell on the ice breaking its leg.

Mr. Lester Wolf called on Mr. George Carr Sunday.

Mr. John Stem called on his friend, Miss Nellie Duvall.

Mrs. Walter Duvall called on her daughter, Mrs. Edna Barnhart, of Westminster.

Miss Mary Carr called on Miss Gloria Jordan and others.

Miss Alice Jordan and Eugene Jordan spent the week-end with friends in Gist.

MAYFLOWER

We have been having some very changeable weather.

So many in this community have had grip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keefer's baby is slowly recovering from double penumonia.

Miss Bernice Yohn is staying a while with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Naille.

Mrs. Edward Naille has been quite sick and we hope she will soon be out again.

Miss Elsie Snyder, of Howardville, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. John L. Freyman.

Those spending Sunday a week with Mrs. John L. Freyman and son, were Mrs. Merle Yohn and daughters, Mary Addella, Pearl and Teresa, Miss Elsie Snyder, Mr. Peter Wolf and Mr. Carr.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2319-0040