MANCHESTER

On Friday about noon the quiet of Germantown was disturbed when Mr. J. B. Lynerd who was watering his cows heard the running of two cars that attracted his special attention. A large car was coming from town and Mr. Charles was returning home to town, when opposite the Lynerd home the crash came that brought them to a halt with one wheel badly broken and the lighter machinery broken and twisted. Mr. George Bixler, living right there, came to the wreck and found no one was hurt. A fine fence was torn and the Lynerd mail box came out of the wreck doorless with a bad punch in the middle of it. The Frederick car was useless and was taken to the Shower garage. The large car with its heavy bumpers was found to be pretty good and with the aid of the friends there adjusted the springs so that he was able to go on his journey. The Frederick car is insured.
