SPRING CAMPAIGN OF 1870.

TERRIFIC TUMBLE IN GOLD!

Dry Goods away down below old prices!

REVOLUTION!

CARPET BAG PLAYED OUT!

Sauve qui peut. Quem deus vult perdere.

Smash of Eighty-seven Dry Goods Houses in February!

ONE THOUSAND cases of Dry Goods thrown into the Auction Rooms every week

FOR THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR.

Two Hundred Cases of Domestics every day

FOR THE EVERLASTING DOLLAR!

Crowding everything into the Auction Rooms. Converting every available article into Gold.

This is our battle-field—Here where we fight the old fogies, swindlers, high prices, monopoly and speculation—and here we shall some day in the not far distant future, crush them.

STAND FROM UNDER!

Read these unanswerable lines and save your money. Standard Prints, 10c; Standard Muslins, 12½c; all fifty cent Dress Goods at 25c; seventy-five cent Dress Goods at 37½c.

EVERYTHING DOWN ABOUT HALF.

Pins, 3c; Needles, 3c; Hooks and Eyes, 3c; Ribbons and Velvets less than half price. Laces and Embroideries about quarter price. Best 200 yard Spool Cotton, 3 and 4c.

The entire stock from the failure of C. H. Bowman & Co.—upwards of one thousand dozen Handk'fs, at about 28 cts. in the dollar. About half the Notion Stock of Payne, Foster & Brink, of 32 Leonard street, 32 cents in the dollar. Large share of Zinn, Aldrich & Co. Bulk of Loder Bros. & Co., Broadway. Thus they have gone down in the pitiless storm, and we have watched and embraced the hour of our opportunity to gather the fruits of the victory. Through the inevitable Auction Machines, they have gone crashing by hundreds, and thus in the general smash, we have with money, sleepless energy and brains, gathered in these grand and splendid drives.

THIS IS ABOUT THE STORY:

Here lies the power of the Almighty Dollar. We live in the Auction Rooms day and night. Through these avenues are cleared out day after day, thousands upon thousands. It is the principle of buying under the relentless hammer of the Auctioneer, for a half, quarter, or tenth their value, entire stocks, and in turn giving them to the people at a small advance, that has built up this enormous business.

A few short years ago we came out of the fighting ranks—penniless; aye, poorer than poverty itself, and to-day we are the monarchs of the Auction Rooms.

Like sheep we have driven them. We have the inside track, and shall hold it.—The old tale, "Goods at Cost," avails nothing when we give them away at one-fourth gold cost. Everything below its market value. The Syren Song of the swindler is played. They must learn how to buy and how to sell, or go down. Everything down upon the panic basis. Twelve dozen Buttons for 4 cts. Ante Bellum prices no where. Why waste your money when you can save it? Such goods at such prices will at once and forever drive into obscurity every man, who, in these dark days of panic and poverty, has the face to ask a profit upon his goods. Eternal curses upon a man who would rob the people now. Linen Handkerchiefs, 6c. Hair Nets, 3c. Envelopes, 4c. for 25. Best Writing Paper, 10c. Hosiery in every variety, about 40 in the dollar. Terrific breakdown in Notions.

White Goods from failure of McDonald and McCauley, 114 Walker street, 40 cents in the dollar.

And thus it is that we are enabled to clear out goods at less than other merchants can buy them. Carpets and Oil Cloths—grand panic here. Then on with the ball. Deal where you can get the best goods for the least money, and call upon us often and get posted.

To Architects.

DEAF AND DUMB INSTITUTE OF MD.,
FREDERICK, April 14, 1870.

The Executive Committee, in behalf of the Visitors and Trustees of the Institute for the Instruction of the Deaf and Dumb of this State, respectfully invite Architects to submit Plans, Specifications and Estimates for the Erection of a Deaf and Dumb Institute at Frederick City, Maryland, such building to possess capacity of comfortably accomodating at least Two Hundred (200) inmates of both sexes, and susceptible of enlargement or extension, as future necessities may demand, without marring the utility or architecture of the design, and to contemplate an expenditure not exceeding One Hundred Thousand Dollars, as limited by law.

Whilst reserving the right to accept or reject, the Board will grant compensation only for such plan as may be adopted, the premium to be such as the Board, in their discretion, may allow.

All competing plans, &c., must be submitted on or before TUESDAY, May, 17th 1870, and sent free of expense.

Any additional information will be promptly rendered by making application to either member of the Executive Committee.
