BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. John T. Gosnell, a veteran of the Civil War, gave a birthday dinner Saturday, January 30th at the home of his brother, Mr. James D. Gosnell. It was his 80th birthday. About 10:00 A. M. the guests began to arrive. At 12:30 they were all invited to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was served consisting of every good thing of the season. A birthday cake which was placed in the center of the table was a surprise to uncle John. The dinner was prepared by his two nieces Mrs. A. E. Shipley and Mrs. C. C. Penn, of Mt. Airy. Those pr sent were Mr. John T. Gosnell, Mrs. Hollie Brashear and Miss Sophronia Gorsuch, Baltimore; Messrs. Beal Gosnell and William Mullinix, Long Corner; Rev. and Mrs. Resh, Messrs. and Mesdames William Gosnell, James H. Gosnell, Charles Gosnell, C. C. Penn, Curtis Penn, A. E. Shipley, Mesdames I. K. Shipley and Ghaile Kolb and Mr. U. G. Poole.

After having spent a very pleasant day together the guests departed for their homes about 4:00 P. M. wishing uncle John many more happy birthdays. He received many nice presents.

"IS IT BETTER TO GET What You Want, or Want What You Get?" by Bruce Barton, in Sunday's Baltimore American.

NEED FOR SILENCE

The weary diner called the waiter to him and said: "It is generally considered improper to speak disrespectfully of one's elders?"

The waiter looked puzzled. "So they say, sir," he returned.

"Ah," said the diner, "then I must repress my feelings and be silent about this egg you have just brought me."

Reputation Disrespected

Emanuel Jackson, a mule tender, appeared one morning on crutches.

"Lawsy!" exclaimed a friend. "Ah thought yo' was one o' de bes' mule han'lers in de business."

"So Ah is," affirmed Emanuel proudly, "but we done got a mule in dis mornin' dat didn't know mah reppitation."—Everybody's Magazine.

Breakfast Didn't Worry

"You don't mean to tell me you married Elsie Spender?"

"But I do—I mean I did," replied the optimistic bridegroom.

"Why, your salary won't even buy her breakfast!"

"Ha! Ha!" laughed the optimist. "That's where I've got you. Elsie won't get up for breakfast!"

How She Knew

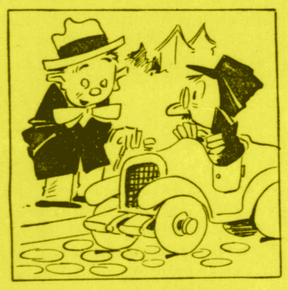

A sign painter artist friend in the street one day.

"I hear you are giving up your studio," she said.

"Oh!" he exclaimed, "that's news to me. Who told you?"

"Your landlord."

MOST EXPENSIVE PARTS

Friend—What parts of the country have you found to most expensive?

Discouraged Motorist—The automobile parts.

Cost of Conversation

We're often told that talk is cheap;
Yet much depends on whether
Expense accounts don't get too deep
When statesmen talk together.

Rash Fellow

Policeman—You say your husband died from the effects of eating a cake you baked for him? That's murder, ma'am—you must come along.

Widow—No, it was suicide. He knew that I baked the cake.

Expert Opinion

The prisoner looked at the little spectacled judge with a professional eye; then sniffed contemptuously:

"These things are sent to try us," he observed philosophically.

He Was Reserved

Wife (referring to guest)—He's a most attractive man; is he married?

Husband—I don't know. He's a reserved chap—keeps all his troubles to himself.

Anyway after the American people have jumped out of the way of automobiles for a few years more, it ought not to be necessary to take reducing exercises.

COMMITTEE OF THE DEER PARK IMPROVEMENT

The committee of the Deer Park Road improvement, which was appointed by a delegation on December 22, 1924 visited the Board of County Commissioners, to see them in behalf of their hard bed road and were inclined to fullfil their promise of building the two miles of said hard bed road of 1926, the first in the county. They were disappointed in the way the board received them with their message. They have not yet become discouraged for they are sure men in their position will surely fulfill a promise made in the presence of fifty men.

Saturday evening Mr. Charles Wicks and wife and son Edward spent the evening with Mrs. Maggie O. Conaway.

Our neighbors Messrs. Jones, Hoffman and Conaway have surely had their share of driving back and forth from this place to Smallwood taking the teacher and high school children back and forth, over these roads, breaking carriage wheels and ruining autos, but we all are sure that the board of County Commissioners are going to come forth with their promise of a hard road this spring and no more of this terrible mud, ruts and frozen ground to travel over so we cannot get to church.

We are sure that the ground hog has taken possession of his time as he started on the very next day and painted the landscape white.

Mr. Roby Phillips is now working in Baltimore and coming home when the opportunity affords.
