SPRING CAMPAIGN OF 1870.
TERRIFIC TUMBLE IN GOLD!
Dry Goods away down below old prices!
REVOLUTION!
CARPET BAG PLAYED OUT!
Sauve qui peut. Quem deus vult perdere.
Smash of Eighty-seven Dry Goods Houses in February!
ONE THOUSAND cases of Dry Goods thrown into the Auction Rooms every week
FOR THE ALMIGHTY DOLLAR.
Two Hundred Cases of Domestics every day
FOR THE EVERLASTING DOLLAR!
Crowding everything into the Auction Rooms. Converting every available article into Gold.
This is our battle-field—Here where we fight the old fogies, swindlers, high prices, monopoly and speculation—and here we shall some day in the not far distant future, crush them.
STAND FROM UNDER!
Read these unanswerable lines and save your money. Standard Prints, 10c; Standard Muslins, 12½c; all fifty cent Dress Goods at 25c; seventy-five cent Dress Goods at 37½c.
EVERYTHING DOWN ABOUT HALF.
Pins, 3c; Needles, 3c; Hooks and Eyes, 3c. Ribbons and Velvets less than half price. Laces and Embroideries about quarter price. Best 200 yard Spool Cotton, 3 and 4c.
The entire stock from the failure of C. H. Bowman & Co.—upwards of one thousand dozen Handk'fs, at about 28 cts. in the dollar. About half the Notion Stock of Payne, Foster & Brink, of 32 Leonard street, 32 cents in the dollar. Large share of Zinn, Aldrich & Co. Bulk of Loder Bros. & Co., Broadway. Thus they have gone down in the pitiless storm, and we have watched and embraced the hour of our opportunity to gather the fruits of the victory. Through the inevitable Auction Machines, they have gone crashing by hundreds, and thus in the general smash, we have with money, sleepless energy and brains, gathered in these grand and splendid drives.
THIS IS ABOUT THE STORY:
Here lies the power of the Almighty Dollar. We live in the Auction Rooms day and night. Through these avenues are cleared out day after day, thousands upon thousands. It is the principle of buying under the relentless hammer of the Auctioneer, for a half, quarter, or tenth their value, entire stocks, and in turn giving them to the people at a small advance, that has built up this enormous business.
A few short years ago we came out of the fighting ranks—penniless; aye, poorer than poverty itself, and to-day we are the monarchs of the Auction Rooms.
Like sheep we have driven them. We have the inside track, and shall hold it.—The old tale, "Goods at Cost," avails nothing when we give them away at one-fourth gold cost. Everything below its market value. The Syren Song of the swindler is played. They must learn how to buy and how to sell, or go down. Everything down upon the panic basis. Twelve dozen Buttons for 4 cts. Ante Bellum prices no where. Why waste your money when you can save it? Such goods at such prices will at once and forever drive into obscurity every man, who, in these dark days of panic and poverty, has the face to ask a profit upon his goods. Eternal curses upon a man who would rob the people now. Linen Handkerchiefs, 6c. Hair Nets, 3c. Envelopes, 4c. for 25. Best Writing Paper, 10c. Hosiery in every variety, about 40 in the dollar. Terrific breakdown in Notions.
White Goods from failure of McDonald and McCanley, 114 Walker street, 40 cents in the dollar.
And thus it is that we are enabled to clear out goods at less than other merchants can buy them. Carpets and Oil Cloths—grand panic here. Then on with the ball. Deal where you can get the best goods for the least money, and call upon us often and get posted.
