Trustee's Sale

—OF—

A FINE FARM & WOODLOT IN BACHMAN'S VALLEY

CARROLL COUNTY, MD.

The undersigned, trustee under the last will and testament of Charles M. Schaeffer, deceased, by virtue of an order of the Circuit Court for Carroll County sitting as a Court of Equity, will offer at public auction on the premises, situated in Bachman's Valley, Carroll county, Maryland, about one-half mile from Bachman's Mill, on SATURDAY, MARCH 13, 1926 at 10 A. M.

First. A fine farm of which the said Charles M. Schaeffer died seized and possessed containing of land, more or less, and known as No. 2 farm in the division of the land of the late Jacob Shaffer, deceased.

88 Acres and 124 Square Perches

The improvements consist of a large 8 room brick dwelling house, with 4 pantries, and front and back porches, all in good condition. Fine well of water at house, large bank barn, corn house and wagon shed combined, corn crib, hog house, dairy etc. Water is pumped to barn, dairy and hog house.

There is a small apple orchard on this farm, and a part of it is in timber. The land is just level enough to drain well.

Possession given immediately.

Second. A woodlot containing

of land, more or less, which adjoins the farm of John D. Schaeffer, and is nearby the above mentioned farm.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale, or upon ratification of sale by the court, and the residue in two equal payments of six and twelve months from day of sale, the deferred payments to be secured by the notes of the purchasers, with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale; or all cash at the option of the purchasers.

WESTMINSTER DEPOSIT AND TRUST COMPANY, Trustee.

Joseph D. Brooks, Solicitor.
John W. Reaver, Auctioneer.

PLEASANT VALLEY

The funeral of Mr. Levi Myers, whose remains were brought here from Baltimore, was attended by a large crowd of peoole. The flag that covered the casket was an old Grand Army flag and is in the posession of Mr. John H. Mitten, of Westminster, who is also one of the company to which Mr. Myers belonged. Rev. Berdelman, pastor of the deceased, delivered a beautiful sermon, taking for his text, Genesis 5: 24. The pallbearers were members of the P. O. S. of A. of which Mr. Myers was a charter member. They were as follows: A. Daniel Leister, Edw. C. Yingling, Robert Powell, Oliver Heltibridle, Roy Myers and Edw. Welk. The floral tributes were beautiful.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Fannie Wagner, of Hanover, a former resident of this place. A number of people from here attended her funeral at Meadow Branch church on Sunday.

Mr. Elmer F. Kindig was hurriedly summoned to the bed side of his mother, Mrs. Cecelia Kindig, Littlestown, on Friday evening, but before he reached the house she had passed away. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon.

There are a number of sick people in our community, from heavy colds, tonsilitis, quinsy, etc.

Mrs. John Senft is confined to bed suffering from neuritis.

On Sunday morning the members of the P. O. S. of A. attended services in a body and listened to a very impressive sermon by the Rev. J. W. Reinecke.

The most brilliant affair of the season was the Parent-Teacher banquet which was held on Monday night, February 22, and was a decided success. Mr. Wm. R. Unger, of Westminster, was toast master, and was surely a good one. He also made an excellent address on education. Others who made addresses were: Dr. G. Lewis Wetzel, Union Mills; Emory C. Ebaugh, Patapsco; Rev. Reinecke and Chas. O. Clemson, Westminster; Miss L. Miraud Nusbaum, Union Mills; Nevin W. Crouse, Mrs. Esther K. Brown, the officers of the P. T. A.; Upton E. Myers, Claude Myers, Mrs. Vernon Smith and Wm. A. Myers. The room was beautifully decorated in red, white and blue crepe paper. The table decorations were red, white, and blue candles, red, white, and blue favors and small Jerusalem cherry trees, laden with beautiful red cherries. The menu card bore a red, white, and blue shield. The menu was as follows: Bullion, roast beef, pototo mounds, green peas, gravy, celery, George Washington salad, saltines, cherry pie a la mode, cafe noir, nuts, mints. The Hign school girls were the waitresses and were very becomingly dressed in white, with red, white, and blue caps and shield. It was decided to make this an annual affair, and have the same speakers present at the next banquet. A number of new names were added to the Parent-Teacher Association.

On Saturday evening Mr. George Helwig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Helwig, this place, and Miss Vesta Strevig, daughter of Mrs. Jacob Messinger, and the late Dewey Strevig, were united in marriage at the Lutheran parsonage, Silver Run, by the pastor Rev. A. G. Wolf. They were attended by Miss Beulah Strevig, sister of the bride, and John Helwig, brother of the groom. They will reside in Hanover, where Mr. Helwig is employed in the wire cloth factory. May they live long and prosper is the wish of their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Devilbiss and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Myers, Hanover, attended the funeral of Mr. Levi Myers on Saturday and spent the rest of the day visiting among friends here.

Mr. Lee Myers and family moved last Thursday to the farm he recently purchased from David E. Myerly.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Wantz moved from the Cross Roads to the farm he recently purchased from Howard Dern, near Frizellburg. Mr. and Mrs. John Kemper will move to the house vacated by Mr. Wantz, and will care for Mrs. Sevannah Stair.

The fire alarm on the new P. O. S. of A. Hall was sounded for the first time last Friday morning when the chimney on Mrs. Gertie Myers' house was on fire. The volunteer fire company responded and put out the fire before much damage was done.

The health doctor and county nurses visited the High school on Monday and found a number of children with bad teeth, bad tonsils, etc. One of the scholars informed the principal that she heard them say one of the high school girls had a "broken heart," which caused quite a lot of fun. All who were fortunate enough to get a health pin, displayed it very boldly.

Miss Edyth Myers, Baltimore, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. C. Yingling.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Haines and son Lawrence, Jr., Silver Run Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Myers and children, Union Bridge, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Zepp and family, Hanover, spent Monday afternoon with friends here.

Mrs. Hollie Myers is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Renner, Littlestown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Geiman and son Forest, spent Sunday with Mrs. Geiman's mother, Mrs. Mary Bittle and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown, Pleasant View.

The Clifton Comedy Company is showing here this week in the new hall.

Sunday school Sunday morning at 9. Sermon at 10 by the Rev. A. G. Wolf.

The executive meeting of the P. T. A. will be held Monday evening, to which all officers are requested to be present.

The girls who are said to be getting flatfoot from the modern dances, might naturally expect so considering the heavy shoes the boys wear.
